JUST ASK THEM.

Ask the newsdealers and newsboys what paper they sell the most of. Ask the freight men and truckmen what office receives the most paper in rolls. Ask the ink manufacturer what office uses the most newspaper ink. Ask the people what paper is the most widely read in Lowell, and all will cry out "The Sun."

THE LOWELL SUN

Reaches the Homes.

Every copy of The Sun, whether delivered from this office or from a news agency or newsboy, reaches the home of the purchaser. Outside agencies are necessary for rapid distribution of a large edition. Don't be deceived with house circulation stories.

ESTABLISHED 1878 — LOWELL, MASS., THURSDAY, AUGUST 9, 1900 — 8 PAGES ONE CENT

STERN COMMAND TO CHINA

Stop Firing and Co-operate With Allies

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, AUG. 9.—THE STATE DEPARTMENT THIS MORNING MADE PUBLIC THE FOLLOWING MEMORANDUM SENT YESTERDAY TO THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT THROUGH MINISTER WU:

"We are availing ourselves of the opportunity offered by the imperial edict of the fifth of August allowing to the foreign ministers free communication with their respective governments in either an have sent a communication to Minister Conger, to which we await an answer.

"We are already advised by him, in a brief despatch received August 7th, that imperial troops are firing daily upon the ministers in Pekin.[:] We demand the immediate cessation of hostile attacks by imperial troops upon the legations and urge the exercise of every power and energy of the imperial government for the protection of the legations and all foreigners therein.

"We are also advised by the same despatch from Minister Conger that, in his opinion, for the foreign ministers to leave Pekin as proposed in the edict of August 2nd would be certain death. In view of the fact that the imperial troops still reported as firing upon the legations and in view of the doubt expressed by the imperial government in its edict of Aug 2, as to its power to restore order and secure absolute safety in Pekin, it is evident that this apprehension is well founded, for if your government cannot protect our minister in Pekin, it will presumptively be unable to protect him upon a journey from Pekin to the coast.

"We therefore urge upon the imperial government that it shall adopt the course suggested in the third clause of the leter of the president to his majesty, the Emperor China, of July 2, 1900, and enter into communication with the relief expedition so that co-operation may be secured between them for the liberation of the legations, the protection of foreigners and the restoration of order. Such action on the part of the imperial government would be a satisfactory demonstration of its friendliness and desire to attain these ends.

(Signed) ALVEY A. ADEE,
Acting Secretary.

Department of State, Washington, Aug. 8, 1900.

CHINESE SITUATION VERY GRAVE

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LONDON, Aug. 9, 4 a. m.—Beyond the official news given out yesterday, the morning papers contain no direct information of importance from China. Thanks to the despatches of Sir Claude MacDonald and Rear-Admiral Bruce, there is a general disposition to take a more hopeful view of the situation. The report of the appointment of Field Marshal Count Von Waldersee as commander-in-chief of the international forces meets with general approval.

The Rome correspondent of the Daily Mail announces the reception there of official despatches from the Italian minister in Pekin, Marquis Salvago Raggi, asserting that he left Pekin on July 31, presumably for Tien-Tsin. This, however, is so utterly at variance with the actions and intentions of the other ministers heard from that it seems almost incredible. If true, it opens up an interesting field of speculation concerning the fate of the Italian representative.

The text of the edict of Aug. 2, authorizing the escort of the ministers from Pekin to Tien-Tsin, was given out at the Chinese legation and says in part:

"In view of the existence of hostilities between certain Chinese rebels and foreign powers, caused by the Christian feeling of the Chinese people, we have afforded reasonable protection to the foreign representatives in Pekin; and the Tsung-Li-Yamen has sent to the legations letters of inquiry and proposals for their safe conveyance under escort to Tien Tsin. In order to avoid apprehension of further attack from the rebels before the complete restoration of peace and order in the capital.

"We have now, on the advice of Li Hung Chang and Liu Kun Yi, to authorize Yung Lu to escort them to Tien Tsin. If there be any rebels en route trying to endanger the safety of the party, the officials have to destroy the rebels at once."

The Chinese legation believes that the members of the foreign legations have not yet left Pekin, but that they will do so and declares that the edict would not have been issued had not the foreign ministers signified a willingness to accept the escort. The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily News, wiring yesterday, says:

"United States Consul Goodnow strongly opposes Admiral Seymour's intention to land 2000 troops on the ground that such an act would not be warranted by the circumstances and would be likely to create trouble. M. Bozaure, the French consul, agrees to the arrangement, but says that, if the British land forces, the French will do likewise. The Austrians also will land men. My personal opinion is that the landing of troops here at the present moment would be a grave mistake."

GERMAN COMMANDER FOR ALLIED FORCES

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BERLIN, Aug. 9.—The German foreign office, in confirming to the correspondent of the Associated Press last evening the report of Count Von Waldersee's appointment, said this was only to the command of the German forces in China, and that the question as to whether he would command all the international forces had not been settled.

The correspondent asked if any other power had suggested an appointment, but the foreign office official declined to answer.

Nevertheless all the evening papers, including the semi-official, Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, publish the statement that he has been appointed commander-in-chief of the combined forces. It is understood that Emperor William has arranged the matter personally and directly with the other powers. Count Von Waldersee arrived at Cassel yesterday afternoon to consult with Emperor William.

RUSSIAN LOOS AT PIETSANG 500

By Associated Press to The Sun.

CHEFOO, Aug. 9.- During the engagement on Sunday which preceded the occupation of Pietsang by the allies, the Russians lost 500 killed and the British 50. The Germans and Japanese also lost heavily. The road to Pekin is supposed to be open.

GOV. ALLEN.

APPOINTS A BOSTON MAN HIS PERSONAL STENOGRAPHER.

Gov. Allen of Porto Rico has appointed Maynard K. Yorkum of Boston as his personal stenographer. Mr. Yorkum has been employed at the Charlestown Navy Yard and is a resident of Boston. He at once accepted and will accompany Gov. Allen to Porto Rico when the latter sails on the Mayflower from the Charlestown Navy Yard next Tuesday.

AN AYER MAN

CAUSED THE ARREST OF DANIEL CREEL.

Dr. C. A. Fox, a dentist of Ayer, was the means of causing the arrest of Daniel Creel, who is alleged to be a green goods man who has done an extensive business in New England. The doctor received several letters last winter inviting him to invest in green goods, and as they came from New York, he acquainted Anthony Comstock with the facts. He was advised to make an appointment with the green goods man, which he did. At the meeting a detective impersonated the doctor and the arrest of Daniel Creel as the green goods man followed. One of the persons who will testify against Creel is Louis Papas, of Haverhill, who lost $500 through the swindling game.

RECEPTION TONIGHT

TO REV. C. L. MERRIAM OF HIGHLAND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

This evening the Highland Congregational church people welcome home their pastor, Rev. C. L. Merriam, with a reception at the church from 7.30 to 9.

LEBRUN IS READY

For the Proposed Investigation of Councilmen

SAYS NO MORE LAND IS NEEDED

In Addition to Present Butler School Site

Councilman Lebrun was down town this morning in conversation with a reporter of The Sun spoke interestingly and pointedly of some occurrences in the city council.

When asked if he had any idea when the investigation of his charges in connection with the purchase of land for the Butler school will take place, he said: "I have heard no time mentioned. Any time will suit me, either today, tomorrow or next week. What I have to say I will tell when I am summoned by the committee on investigation. I am not given to boasting and when I say I will do anything, I mean it. I do not want to get any one in trouble, yet I do not believe in paying for land a price double what it is assessed for. Land is worth just what it will bring and when you get beyond that figure, you are imposed upon. I have no prejudice in this matter. I do not know Mr. Parnell who owns the land and have never seen him, but I propose to let certain parties know that there is at least one councilman who cannot be bought."

Then the councilman commented upon some practices in the council. "It may seem strange," he said, "yet it is a fact that certain members of the council try to drive the others into line to favor measures proposed by them. Now, I will not be driven. No influence can reach me or direct my vote, for I am guided only by the merits of the question at issue. That smooth paving of Aiken street was a bait for me but I failed to bite. I voted against it because I am opposed to saddling any expense on the city till I know the worth of the article for which I am voting the money.

"And right here let me say something that I think should be mentioned. I have voted against propositions made by Councilman Casey but I did so, through no personal feeling but because I was honestly opposed to them. However I can say that in my opinion his position on the smooth paving matter is correct. Casey is a straight young man, the brightest in the council chamber and no matter what his politics may be you will hear from him in the future."

Then Councilman Lebrun repeated that he would not withhold anything at the proposed investigation but will tell all he knows in connection with the proposed purchase of Butler school land. "I favor neither of the sites," said he, "I do not believe the land is needed. You don't see the school board breaking their necks trying to have money voted for this land do you?"

Avoid Experiments

Fix your faith to the summer medicine that has history back of it—a history of cures extending over a period of twenty-five years. It is

DOWS'

Diarrhoea and Cholera Syrup.

That tells the story. It is sold on its merits. "There is no experiment about it. It is a positive cure for summer complaint, cramps, dysentery and kindred troubles.

Two Sizes, 25c. and 50c.

318 MERRIMACK STREET
Under Merrimack House.

389 CENTRAL STREET,
Above Opera House.

WYMAN'S EXCHANGE,
Cor. Merrimack and Central Streets.

FIVE PRIESTS

Killed by the Chinese in Pe Chi Li

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LYONS, AUG. 9.—THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL ANNOUNCES NEW MASSACRES AND A DISASTER TO THE MISSION IN THE SOUTHEAST OF THE PROVINCE OF PE CHI LI. IT SAYS THAT FIVE PRIESTS HAVE BEEN KILLED.

THE LATE "STANNIE" CARTER, AN OLD TIME BALL PLAYER.

STANNIE CARTER

Old First Baseman of the Clippers

DIED TODAY AT 40 THIRD STREET

After an Illness of One Week

The community will be pained to learn of the death of Daniel Stanley Carter, which took place this forenoon at his late home, 40 Third street. The deceased will be remembered by old-time lovers of the national game of baseball, when the Clipper Baseball club was the crack team of Lowell, if not of New England. Carter, who was familiarly known as "Stannie," covered first base and was a "cracker-jack" in high thrown balls and grounders while attending the initial bag. He was also a clever batsman and was idolized by the local cranks of the latter 60's. In the team were such men as the late Ben Whitney, as catcher; President Fred A. Suttrick, now of the City Institution of Savings, pitcher; Edward Temple, second base; Ted Wentworth, third base; Joe White, shortstop; Martin Coolidge, "Dr." Cook, "Deacon" Boynton, and the Conway brothers, George and James, the latter in after years used at a battery. The rival teams of the Clippers then were the Celebrated Tolmountain team and the Lowells of Boston; the Kearsarge team of Stoneham, the Harvard university nine and the Salmons and Sheridons of Lowell. Mr. Carter married a sister of the Clippers shortstop, Joseph White who is the only relative who survives him. Mr. Carter was an expert machinist and was employed at what is familiarly known as the Atherton Works until a week ago, when he was taken with a fainting spell at his lathe. He was removed to his home and never rallied from the illness. Several years ago while employed at the Fitchburg machine shop, Mr. Carter lost one eye by being hit by a flying chip of iron. After that time he engaged in the grocery business with Temple, the second base-man of the Clippers, having purchased the Churchille grocery store at the corner of Middlesex street. This store was subsequently purchased of the firm of Temple and Carter by Mr. Churchill.

FUNERALS

CRAIG—The funeral of Lillian E. Craig took place from the home of her parents, 9 East Pine street, yesterday afternoon, Rev. J. M. Craig officiating. There was singing by Miss Walker and Miss Baker. The casket was completely covered with flowers from the sympathetic friends. The interment was in the Edson cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Weinberg.

HARRINTON—The funeral services of Miss Annie Harrington was held at her late home, 68 Union street, yesterday forenoon. Requiem mass was celebrated at St. Peter's church by Rev. John J. McKenna. The bearers were cousins of the deceased, and were John, Michael, Edward, William and Maurice Powers and John Murphy. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery under the direction of Funeral Director O'Donnell. Rev. Fr. McKenna read the committal prayers at the grave. Among the floral pieces were noticed a large pillow, inscribed "Dear Aunt", from the nephews and nieces of the deceased; large cross on base, inscribed "Cousin," the Powers family; large wreath, Katie O'Neil; spray of roses, friends.

CITY HALL NOTES

CONSIDERABLE WORK IN LANDS AND BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

The trustees of the Edson cemetery have awarded the contract for painting the new fence at the cemetery to G. H. Kirby. The amount of the contract is $95.

Supt. Cheney is having copies of the new ordinance prohibiting heavy teaming on the boulevard printed and will post one at each end of the speedway.

Employes of the land and buildings department are kalsomining, painting, laying new floors and making other needed repairs at the different schools of the city.

Work is progressing on the new water tower station.

The steel trusses which will support the High school annex building are being placed in position, while Parrell & Conaton are doing the plumbing.

DENNIS FINED $50

Or Must Serve 5 Months in Jail

Michael Harrington Sentenced to Jail One Year for Larceny—Newell Brown Also Sentenced for Larceny

The following drunks were fined $2 each: Arthur St. Onge, Arthur Marchand and Edward Fortin.

Thomas H. Donohue pleaded guilty to drunkenness and was sent to the workhouse for six months.

A fine of $5 was imposed on Catherine McNiff for a second offense of drunkenness.

Philip Frudel, aged 20 years, pleaded guilty to drunkenness. He was also charged with being a vagrant since last March. Officer Breault heard that Trudel was in Little Canada and said that he would knock the officer's head off because he arrested his chum. When the officer met Trudel, the latter had some rocks, with which he said he would nail the officer. He was sent to the reformatory.

Newell E. Brown pleaded not guilty to larceny of a watch from Xavier Castillan of Moody street.

Castillan said he went to sleep on a bench in front of his house Friday afternoon and when he woke up his watch was gone.

A pawnbroker testified that Brown pawned the watch in his place and got $2 on it.

Brown's story was that he met a man in Merrimack street, who wanted to sell the watch. Brown advised him to pawn it and he asked Brown to go to the pawn shop and get something on the watch. This Brown did and raised $2, which he says he gave to his friend, Judge Hadley sentenced him to jail for five months.

Solomon Laird was charged with drunkenness and indecent exposure of person. He pleaded guilty to the former and not guilty to the latter charge. He was held till tomorrow. He was arrested in Merrimack square yesterday afternoon.

Michael Harrington acknowledged stealing a pocket book and $35 from Sarah J. Whittier. He was sent to jail for one year and appealed. Harrington has been before the court many times.

Harry W. Dennis appeared in court this morning and excited considerable attention. He was charged with indecent exposure of person. He was very well and neatly dressed and his appearance is that of a bright, intelligent young man. He pleaded guilty to the charge and half a dozen girls from Chelmsford were ready to identify him and testify to his conduct. They were not called, however. Dennis said that he must have been out of his mind when he committed the offense. Otherwise he would not have done it. He is a canvasser for a Troy company that has a patent gas burner on the market. The manager of the company, Mr. Hooper, said that he was dumbfounded when he heard of Dennis' arrest. "I cannot imagine why he did it," said Hooper. Dennis was fined $50, to be paid in five days or serve five months in jail. He took the sentence as a severe blow and begged of Manager Hooper and a friend to help raise the money to pay the fine. He did not want to go to jail and appeared all broken up when he was taken down stairs.

DEATHS

PERRY—Ann Perry died at her home, 35 Lakeview avenue, yesterday afternoon.

CALLAHAN—Helen Callahan, aged 7 months, died at the home of her parents, William and Catherine, 231 Lakeview avenue, yesterday.

NOONAN—Annie Noonan died at her home, 693 Lakeview avenue, yesterday afternoon. She is survived by a husband, Patrick, a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Maguire, two sisters, Mrs. Bert Gordon of Haverhill and Mrs. Fred Snead of this city, and two brothers, Frank and Hugh Maguire.

DOLAN—James J. Dolan, aged 53 years, died at his home, 375 Gorham street, yesterday. He is survived by a wife and three small children, three sisters and two brothers.

BJORLIN—Carl Axel Leonard Bjorlin, aged 30 years, died at St. John's hospital, yesterday.

HOUDI—Marie Louise Houdi, aged 1 month, 7 days, died at the home of her parents, Della and Bazila, 180 Perkins street, yesterday.

BOUCHERAGE—Exina Boucherage, aged 5 months, died at the home of her parents, Victorine and Damis, on Tucker street, yesterday.

MOUGHAN—In this city, yesterday, at the home of her parents, William and Margaret, 321 Lakeview avenue, Mary Moughan, infant daughter.

FOSS—Elizabeth Foss, aged 39 years, who died yesterday afternoon at the city farm, was the wife of David Foss, whose body was found on the Lawrence road last winter, death having been caused by exposure. A few days later it transpired that the family was in woeful circumstances and the children neglected, the oldest of whom, Jessie, was in a precarious condition. Besides Jessie, the deceased is survived by another younger daughter, Maude, a son David of North Chelmsford and two brothers, Martin and Timothy Gately of Lawrence.

HIGGINS—Daniel, the infant child of Daniel J. and Mary Higgins died last night at the home of his parents, 132 Church street.

ROURKE—Daniel Rourke, aged 30 years, died last night at 10 Union street. He is survived by a wife, Mary Rourke, two children, one brother, Patrick Rourke, and a sister, Mrs. John Callahan.

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottle of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by E. C. Goodale, druggist, 317 Central street, Flake's block.

A FILTHY STREET

Jefferson Street in an Unclean Condition

HEALTH DEPT. ORDERS IT CLEANED

New Case of Diphtheria Reported

The health department this morning was notified of a case of diphtheria in Jefferson street. When the health authorities went to the house they at once were impressed with the unhealthy and unclean condition of Jefferson street. They immediately notified Agent Knapp and he promptly got after Supt. Cheney demanding that the street department clean it at once.

Frank Brown of Lowell was a visitor in Nashua yesterday. He was formerly a resident of that city.

Security at Home, Facility Abroad

The prospective traveler, whether in the vacation season or at other times, wisely arranges for the security of such valuables as must be left behind, and for the supply of such available funds as may be needed while abroad or absent from home. For these purposes, the Traders' National bank provides

Safe Deposit Boxes, Travellers' Checks.

Deposit boxes are rented for the merely nominal sum of $5 per annum, which, in view of the feeling of security afforded thereby, is a capital investment. Letters of credit and foreign drafts on prominent centers in foreign lands meet the requirements of the traveller in the most perfect manner.

The Traders National Bank

Transacts a general banking business.
Issues foreign exchange, payable in all parts of the world, in English, French, German and Swedish money.
Furnishes safety deposit boxes, with private coupon rooms.
Pays, in its savings department, 4 per cent. per annum, compounded semi-annually, interest beginning monthly.
Has a section of banking rooms exclusively for ladies.
Is a depository of the United States and Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
Banking hours—8 a. m. to 5 p. m.; Saturday, 8 a. m. to 7 p. m.; 7 to 9 p. m.
Banking rooms—35 to 45 Middlesex street and 11 to 24 Post Office avenue.

From Yesterday's Late Editions.

MORE TROOPS

Needed to Suppress Filipino Outbreaks

By Associated Press to The Sun.

MANILA, July 13, via San Francisco, Aug. 8.—The insurgents in the vicinity of Cayagan, on the Island of Mindanao, are becoming so troublesome that it may become necessary to augment the United States forces stationed there by a body of troops from other stations. The insurgents, numbering, it is estimated, about 1000 in all, are fortifying the mountain passes and otherwise preparing to give battle to our soldiers. Only recently a detachment under the command of Captain Miller, of the 40th infantry, had an exciting and bloody experience with the natives near Agusan, about 10 miles from Cayagan.

In attempting to take his command through a narrow defile, Captain Miller encountered such strong defences that his entire advance guard, numbering 14 men, were left in the power of the insurgents. Five of their number eventually escaped and reported that eight of their fellows were killed and one taken prisoner. Captain Miller was wounded in the engagement which preceded the abandonment of the advance. Captain Elliot, leading reinforcements, was severely injured by being struck by a native contrivance, known as a spear shooter. Captain Elliott's men came across no less than half a dozen of these ingenious weapons. Both parties being without commanders the soldiers were obliged to return to Cayagan.

According to the latest advices the stronghold is still untaken.

AT VACCINATION

Health Dept. Physicians Still at Work

VACCINATION BEGUN ON MOODY STREET

Little Canada Now Thoroughly Inoculated

All the small-pox and diphtheria patients are resting comfortably and the health department breathes easily once more.

The four physicians appointed by the board to vaccinate have been made agents of the board so as to give them a standing in police court should any arrests be made for violations of the vaccination rule.

This morning Dr. Halpin began vaccinating residents of Moody street from Tilden street to Pawtucket and will make a house to house canvass. Little Canada is now thoroughly inoculated.

DEATHS

PICKARD—Carleton M. Pickard, aged 1 year, 15 months and 24 days, son of George and Bertha Pickard, died this morning at the home of the parents in Chelmsford.

EXPRESSMEN

DISOBEY POLICE ORDER ON DUTTON STREET.

Several complaints are being made about the expressmen who have wagons standing in Dutton street, near the Merrimack street depot. It is claimed that oftentimes the wagons stretch out quite a way into Merrimack street and cause no little annoyance to drivers of vehicles who pass and also to passersby.

The superintendent of police, it is said, ordered the expressmen to remain so many feet back in Dutton street but it is claimed by many in that vicinity that if any such a rule was ever made it has been violated time and again.

NO VACATION YET.

The inspectors and employes of the health department have not had their vacation lyet. The small pox and other contagious disease cases have kept the department so busy that it was deemed advisable to postpone vacations till a time later than usual.

FUNERALS

McHugh—The funeral of Mrs. Sarah McHugh took place yesterday forenoon from her home No. 3 Morrison's yard, off Lakeview avenue. Funeral services were held at St. Michael's church, Rev. Father Carney being the celebrant of the requiem mass. The choir was under direction of Thomas P. Boulger. At the offertory Schubert's "Pie Jesu" was sung by Mrs. Mabel Ware Murphy, and at the close of the service Mr. Boulger sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought." As the casket was borne from the church the choir sang "Nearer My God to Thee." After the services, the funeral procession proceeded to Lawrence, where the body was buried in the family lot in the Catholic cemetery. The funeral was under the direction of C. H. Molloy, and the bearers were Messrs. Wm. Burns, Patrick Costello, Thomas Hanlon, Andrew McHugh, John McGlynn and John Reid.

NICHOLS—The funeral of John F. Nichols took place from his home, 653 Stevens street, yesterday, Rev. James P. Allen officiating. The interment was in the Edson cemetery, under the direction of Undertaker Weinbeck.

AUSTIN—The funeral of the late Marion Austin took place yesterday afternoon from his late home, 32 Hampson street, Navy Yard, and was largely attended. Services were conducted by Rev. J. P. Richardson, pastor of the Hillside church, Dracut, of which the deceased was a prominent member. Rev. Mr. Richardson delivered a touching eulogy on the exemplary life of the deceased. Burial was in the Edson cemetery. Rev. Mr. Richardson officiated. Among the floral tributes were a large pillow from the family, large bouquet of flowers from the church, spray of 35 roses from Mrs. Austin's Sunday school class; bouquet of flowers, Mrs. Milo Torsey; spray of gladiolas from Collier family; spray of 35 roses from Mrs. C. H. Barrett. Besides residents of the town there were present friends from Lowell, Boston, Lawrence, Milton, N. H., and Vermont. J. A. Weinbeck had charge.

$1000 FOR LOBBYING.

As required by the lobby act, the Massachusetts street railway association has filed a list of its legislative expenses, which includes the payment of $1000 to Frank J. Laid of this city for services.

The remodelled rooms of the Matthew Temperance Institute will be formally dedicated in about two weeks, when an entertainment for members will be given.

STREET RAILWAY

Issues Volume of Rules to Employes

SOME OF THEM WERE BADLY NEEDED

Passengers' Rights Must be Respected

The Lowell & Suburban railroad yesterday furnished each motorman and conductor in its employ with a book of rules which shall govern them and for the carrying out of which they will be held to strict account.

The book contains an introduction, 32 rules for conductors, 21 general rules for motormen, 11 rules in regard to operating cars for motormen, 11 emergency rules and extracts from the laws of the state placing the liability of street railway companies.

The rules are far reaching and the employe who lives up to all of them will be just a trifle short of being an angel. Many of the rules are much needed and show that passengers have rights on street cars.

The introduction impresses upon the employe the fact that while the company runs its road to make money it also runs it as a convenience to the public and that the public has rights which the company and its employes must respect.

The book bids the employes to become familiar with the rules at once as they are liable to be called up and examined on them at any time. Failure to regard these rules, the book says, means immediate dismissal.

INJURED TOE.

James Jayoenpolos had the big toe of his right foot injured this forenoon by a large piece of pig iron falling on it while employed at the Lowell Machine shop foundry. He was removed in the ambulance to the Corporation hospital for treatment.

STOWE'S NARROW ESCAPE.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PRETORIA, Aug. 8.—Additional details regarding the attack on the train bearing Mr. Stowe, show that 27 bullets traversed his compartment. Mr. Louis Sharp, an American accompanying Mr. Stowe, was shot through the foot. The Boers pushed Mr. Stowe's carriage back on the line.

BOSTON MAN KILLED.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

SALINA, Kan., Aug. 8.—A man supposed to be James Riley of Boston, has been found dead back of a saloon. There were no marks of violence on the body. It is supposed Riley died from the effects of poison. His companion, whose name is unknown, has been arrested, pending an investigation.

CHEROKEE FREEDMEN CASE.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

SALLISAW, I. T., Aug. 8.—The United States commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in conference here with Cherokee authorities decided to postpone the enrollment of Cherokee freedmen until next spring. No freedmen will be enrolled by the commission, therefore, until all other citizens of the Cherokee nation are enrolled.

WILLIAM DUGGAN ILL.

William Duggan, who was the victim of a murderous assault at the hands of some unknown person, several months ago, is now seriously ill at his home, corner of Dibble and West Fourth streets. He is threatened with pneumonia, but the doctor hopes to be able to break up the sickness before it becomes too dangerous.

CANDIDATE FOR ALDERMAN.

Friends of Thomas F. Garvey, who for several years past has served as one of the temporary assistant assessors, are urging him to be a candidate for alderman from ward six.

LADY CHURCHILL'S TITLE.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LONDON, Aug. 8—Lieut. George Cornwallis-West, who married Lady Randolph Churchill, has been placed temporarily on half pay in consequence of ill-health.

The question as to whether she would retain her title has been settled by her decision to be designated hereafter as Mrs. George Cornwallis-West.

EXCITING RUNAWAY

CONTRACTOR FULLER'S HORSE ON A RAMPAGE.

A horse owner by George B. Fuller, the contractor, and attached to a Concord wagon ran away in Thorndike street shortly after 2 o'clock this morning and caused considerable excitement in that street. Although the horse was going at a wild pace it did not collide with any other vehicles but several collisions were only narrowly averted. The animal was stopped before it had done any damage.

The runaway came very near colliding with the patrol wagon which was standing in front of the jail.

BRYAN IS NOTIFIED

He Sounds the Keynote of the Campaign

By Associated Press to The Sun.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 8.—When the sun rose today it shone out upon a clear sky, making it certain that the program for conducting the exercises attendant upon the notification of Bryan and Stevenson could be held in the open air as originally decided upon. The weather was hot, even at sunrise, and the heat increased during the morning, but this circumstance seemed to have little or no influence upon the throng of democrats, local and foreign, who had come out to hear their candidates for the presidency and vice-presidency formally notified of their selection to be the standard bearers of the party and to see them started in the race for the high goals at the further end of the course.

Almost every state of the union was represented and delegations from the neighboring cities of Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Louisville were especially in evidence.

Old Glory was displayed from many windows, and Military Park had been transformed from a natural to an artificial spot of beauty. Bryan and Stevenson's pictures in striking juxtaposition gazed down upon the passing throng from many windows.

Both Mr. Bryan and Mr. Stevenson arose early, and both expressed themselves as greatly refreshed by the night's sleep.

Both of them received a number of callers during the forenoon.

THE NOTIFICATION.

William J. Bryan and Adlai E. Stevenson were notified of their nomination for the office of president and vice president of the republic in Military Park this afternoon. Thousands of people witnessed the ceremonies. Senator James K. Jones, chairman of the democratic national committee, was introduced by Mayor Taggart as presiding officer of the occasion. Senator Jones, in a brief speech, introduced Congressman James Richardson of Tennessee.

Congressman Richardson was received with wild cheers as he mounted the stand to officially notify Mr. Bryan of the fact that he had been selected as presidential nominee of the democratic national convention at Kansas City. Mr. Richardson said:

Mr. Bryan:

On the one hundred and twenty-fourth anniversary of this republic there assembled in Kansas City the most intensely American convention that ever came together in its history. This great body was made up of men from every state and territory in the union. They came from their respective districts filled with unfeigned enthusiasm for the inspiring cause which brought them together. Their seven millions of constituents had principles and select a candidate for president and vice president of the United States In what they conceived to be the supremest political crisis that ever came in our country. Those delegates all realized that the republic is in peril. They felt that the duty was theirs to raise such action as would rescue the states from the gulf of imperialism in which it had been plunged and thus preserve for themselves and their posterity unimpaired the priceless blessings of a free government and civil liberty. You see before you today a committee of delegates from that convention and for whom I speak, upon which is represented each state and territory whose duty it is to convey to you in formal manner the notification that the august assembly I have mentioned, acting for its members, their constituents and all who love and cherish liberty everywhere with dissenting voice, chose you as the candidate for president and adopted a platform of principles upon which the campaign we are now inaugurating shall be conducted.

The declaration of party principles enunciated, I now have the honor to present to you. The delegates assembled at Kansas City did not take hasty action. Their conduct was characterized by the greatest firmness and determination.

In the alarming condition in which the country has been placed by the present weak and vacillating and un-American administration at Washington, they realized, as do our fellow citizens generally, that a change of men and policies is imperiously demanded. They proceeded deliberately and chose you to lead in the battle for the restoration of the true political faith.

The platform which I handed you is a new declaration of independence. You will see it takes no step backward upon any issue or party creed heretofore promulgated. It solemnly affirms that the question of imperialism is the paramount issue of this campaign. This declaration did not make it so, but only gave recognition to an admitted fact. The republicans have made it the issue which in this campaign overstops all others. They may well endeavor to run away from it, as they are doing, but they cannot escape it. "By their fruits ye shall know them," was the philosophy nineteen hundred years ago, and it is the best now.

We know that we can, with entire confidence, make appeal to the people for our country's rescue in this hour of peril. We appeal to all who loathe imperialism and venerate our constitution. We appeal to all who despise militarism and love liberty. We appeal to all who oppose high war taxes in time of peace and other increase of taxes, and who favor a just system of revenue collection, and all who in every way oppose unequal taxation. We appeal to all who favor our hitherto free institutions and equal opportunity for all under the law. We appeal to all who are willing to resist the ever increasing oppression and robbery of the trusts and monopolies. We appeal to all who are opposed to the criminal aggression of forcible annexation, and who do not favor having our flag float with its protecting aegis over Sulu slaves and Oriental harems. We appeal, in short, to all patriots and lovers of liberty regardless of past party affiliations, to enlist in our cause and help triumphantly to bear our banner.

In this unparelleled contest we pledge you the earnest, zealous, unbought, unfaltering enthusiastic support of seven million voters of the republic as you go forth to battle, and as the constitution of our beloved land should follow its flag, so this undismayed and unconquerable band of patriots will follow you as you bear their flag to victory in November.

When Mr. Bryan arose to reply a demonstration occurred which perhaps has never been equalled in this city. When order was finally restored, Mr. Bryan began his address which was of considerable length. Cheer upon cheer greeted him at every telling period. The speech was published in yesterday's editions of The Sun.

STEVENSON NOTIFIED.

Governor Thomas of Colorado followed notifying Mr. Stevenson of his nomination.

Gov. Thomas, during his address, said:

"For a second time you have been chosen by the national democracy as its vice-presidential candidate. This signal honor is not unprecedented, but it is none the less exceptional. Elected to that high office eight years ago, you discharged its duties faithfully and well, retiring with the respect, the love and the confidence of all the people. Thus endeared to your party, its recent action was both merited and appropriate. Democracy invokes in support of its great cause the memory and the teachings of all our statesmen, jurists, and philosophers. It marshalls them all under the banner of freedom. They live though they speak not. Their presence consecrates the air around us, though we see them not. With their example before and above us, with Bryan and Stevenson to lead us, with the Declaration and the Constitution to sustain us, we shall overcome all the hosts of the mighty."

Mr. Stevenson followed in a somewhat shorter speech than that of Mr. Bryan.

Visitors and residents alike awaited somewhat impatiently today the ceremonies which were to witness the formal notification of Bryan and Stevenson, of their nomination at Kansas City. The time named for the beginning of the ceremony was 2:30 p. m. This hour was chosen because large numbers of visitors were expected to arrive during the forenoon. The weather was hot and many persons who sought early positions of vantage on the street or in Military Park found the berths not entirely comfortable for so long a time. Nevertheless, good nature generally prevailed.

The tedium of the forenoon was relieved largely by the arrival of a number of excursion parties from neighboring towns and cities. These parties were escorted through the streets by local or visiting bands. The main streets and the principal hotels were handsomely decorated. Huge flags were hung from wires strung across the thoroughfares along the line of march; small banners fluttered in the breeze from many windows; bunting clustered aloft along almost every villa and along every wall. Bryan and Stevenson's portraits were in evidence everywhere.

The procession was announced to start at 1:15; like all processions, was somewhat late in getting off but when once in motion it moved along with unusual celerity. The parade was directed by Hon. Charles A. Garrard, as chief marshal. In the line of march were many political organizations, and a number of clubs from the surrounding country, but the places of honor were given to the Cook county democracy of Chicago, to the Duckworth club of Cincinnati, and the Jackson club of Terre Haute. These clubs were present in large numbers, accompanied by bands.

The line of march was not long but covered some of the principal streets. At the Grand Hotel, a stop was made and Messrs. Bryan and Stevenson, their families and members of the notification committees and others entered carriages and joined the procession.

Mr. Bryan, Senator Jones, Hon. J. D. Richardson and Mayor Taggart of Indianapolis, were in the first carriage and A. E. Stevenson, Governor Charles S. Thomas, of Colorado, Hon. D. J. Campau of Michigan, and Hon. Park Martin, chairman of the Indiana state democratic committee in the second. All the carriages were escorted by the marching clubs from various parts of the country, under the direction of Col. John L. Martin, sergeant-at-arms of the National convention.

When the entrance to Military Park was finally reached, the official party alighted with promptness and the stand erected for the accommodation of the notables, was soon filled.

DIED IN IRELAND

Peter B. Scott of This City

DIED WHILE VISITING HIS BIRTHPLACE

Leaves Several Relatives in Lowell

A cablegram was received yesterday by Mr. Humphrey Coffey, the well known Suffolk street grocer, announcing the death of his uncle Mr. Peter B. Scott, which occurred recently in Rusheen, Co. Kerry, Ireland, whither he had gone from this city on July 5, to revisit the scenes of his childhood.

Mr. Scott was 71 years of age and his death was probably due to kidney trouble from which he suffered before leaving for Ireland.

Deceased came to this country in 1851 and lived in Boston until about seven years ago when he removed to this city where he lived until last month when he went back to the old country, intending to return home in the fall. His residence in this city was at 181 Winder street. His wife died a few years ago and her remains repose in St. Patrick's cemetery. He is survived by several nieces and nephews in this city. It is not known at present whether or not the remains will be brought to this country.

RAIN INTERFERES

WITH PROGRESS ON SMOOTH PAVING WORK.

The rain of yesterday interfered somewhat with the progress of the smooth paving work on Market street. Some thought that the rain might injure that portion of the bed already laid, but T. H. Muldoon, the time keeper, said that it will improve the work already done. The bed is now laid as far as the entrance to the police station.

YOUNGEST GRADUATE.

Thomas McDermott, of Undertaker McDermott's establishment, has just completed an extra course at the Boston Embalming College. He is the youngest graduate of that institution.

ST. PETER'S PARISH.

There will be a regular meeting of the Sunday school teachers of St. Peter's church, tomorrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock, in the fair hall.

The members of the Children of Mary's Sodality of St. Peter's church will enjoy an outing tomorrow at Willow Dale, instead of today, as originally intended, the threatening weather necessitating a postponement.

SHAWNEE INDIAN CONFERENCE.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 8.—Six full blooded Indians from the Indian Territory have arrived here, representing the Shawnees, Delawares and Cadoes, to confer with the Mexican government regarding a concession which will enable them to settle with their tribes in Mexico and become Mexican citizens. They allege that the United States government does not give them land enough to live on.

PERSONALS

J. S. Hastings is at Salisbury beach.

M. A. Maher is at Lynn, Mass.

Mrs. L. J. Calef is at Tilton, N. H.

Mr. G. F. White is quite ill at his home in Gates street.

Alice Mealey is at Sandwich, Mass. for a month.

L. F. Pead will make a short stay at Weymouth, Mass.

Arthur Silcox of 5 Dunfey street is at Juniper Point, Salem.

Thomas Whitworth of 31 Sidney street is at Salisbury beach.

E. P. Clough is at Warner, N. H., for a month.

Mrs. E. Turner has gone to East Dixfield, Me.

Mrs. C. K. Fiske of 105 School street is at Atkinson Depot, N. H.

Minnie Clifford is at North Vassalboro, Me., for a short stay.

Miss Alice Burke of Lilley avenue is spending vacation at Lynn.

James Hill is at Acton Centre for a month.

Mrs. N. E. Marble starts today for Newtown, Conn.

Mrs. A. J. Campbell has gone to Strong, Me., for two weeks.

B. A. Bliss will be at Lakeport, N. H., for the next few weeks.

Albert R. Philbrick, of Pine street, has gone to Mt. Vernon, N. H.

Mrs. C. E. Adams is at South Barnstead, N. H., till September.

Mrs. J. T. Rexford is at Georgeville, P. Q.

Mrs. J. W. Whitmore of 49 Liberty street is at Hooksett, N. H.

Mr. L. E. MacIlvayne reached home last evening after a trip to Europe.

E. L. Averill will spend his vacation at Shilburn, Vermont, for the next month.

Mrs. James F. Walker and children, Bertha and Cecil, are spending their vacation at Waterloo Centre, Me.

Officer Gregg went to Bridgewater yesterday afternoon with a state farm prisoner.

Mrs. Thomas F. Garvey of Lilley avenue, is passing her vacation at Bristol, N. H.

Hugh E. McPherson of 10 Leroy street will spend his vacation at South Berlin, Mass.

William L. Goss of Marshall street will spend the next two weeks at Cumberland Mills, Me.

A. S. Thompson of Reed street will enjoy the next few weeks at Cape Porpoise, Me.

Mrs. J. W. Scott of 36 Marlboro street will stay at Winthrop Highlands until Sept. 1.

Miss Viola A. Fifield is on a vacation at resorts along the New England seacoast.

Miss Kitty M. Powell of Pleasant street will spend the month of August at Old Orchard beach and Portland, Me.

William A. Crowley, messenger in the packing department of the Merrimack Print works, leaves today for a two weeks' trip to St. John, N. B.

Miss Lilla Wilcox of 168 School street is spending two weeks at Topsham, Me., with her friend, Miss Emma Hildreth.

Miss Florence Selfridge started Monday for her home in Nova Scotia, where she will enjoy a five weeks' vacation.

Quite a few Lowell people went to Boston this noon. They will take a train to Lynn tonight and see the Gardner-Sears bout.

Dr. George H. Jennison and Mrs. Jennison leave today for Searsport, Me., where they will participate in Old Home week.

The Lowell people who registered at New York hotels yesterday, included H. A. Cuff, Astor; Miss M. Fay, Miss A. O'Brien, Broadway Central.

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Lockling of Tower City, North Dakota, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. A. F. Lockling, of 379 Central street.

It is reported that Sunday travel between Lowell and Boston has increased wonderfully the past few weeks. The bulk of this travel is by people who want a day's outing at the beach.

Miss Bertha A. Bunford of Lawrence and Mrs. Alice S. Huntley of this city are enjoying their vacations at Boothbay, Squirrel Island and other places of interest along the Maine coast.

Miss Daisy Halpin of Tyler street and Miss Helen Coughlin of the Lowell Packing and Provision company are spending their vacation at Revere beach.

Mrs. J. N. Marshall having sold the residence at 734 Merrimack street, is residing at the present time with her son, W. L. Marshall, at 551 Fletcher street.

Rev. M. J. Savage is expected to arrive today at his summer home in Billerica Centre. He sailed from Cherbourg on the Barbarossa, which was due in New York yesterday.

Since July 24, Miss Mary McKenzie has been at Long Branch giving readings. This week she is at Larchmont, Long Island Sound and will give a course there. She will attend Ladies' night of the Larchmont Yacht club. Last Thursday Miss McKenzie went to Brooklyn, St. Mary's hospital, to see her friend, Madam Junausrhek, who is very ill, suffering from paralysis.

The three months' vacation voted Rev. C. L. Merriam by the Highland Congregational church expires this week, and he and his family are expected home. The first part of his vacation was spent with his brother, who lives in Michigan, where later he was joined by his wife and daughter, and they have since been visiting a brother of Mrs. Merriam's in Denver, Col. Mr. Merriam is to occupy his pulpit Aug. 12.

MUNICIPAL PLANT

TO DO SMOOTH PAVING IN THE FUTURE.

There is some talk of having the city go into the smooth paving business. It is stated that a member of the city council is considering introducing a resolution to the effect that in the future all smooth paving work in this city shall be done by the city and not by contractors. That is to say, this councilman has an idea that it is just as feasible for the city to own its smooth paving plant and have its own laborers to lay smooth paving as it is to lay block paving. He believes, too that it he done as cheaply inasmuch as the middleman's profit can be saved and moreover it will do away with all the adverse criticism that attends smooth paving jobs.

Sign painters report that they have had a busier season than usual this year.

BOER NEWS

U. S. CONSUL STOWE HAD NARROW ESCAPE.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

KROONSTAD, Aug. 8.—Commandant Theron, who commanded the Boer flying patrol that derailed and burned last week near Honigspruit, the train carrying U. S. Consul Stowe, and flying the Stars and Stripes, has suffered a loss of three killed and 19 severely wounded in a rear guard action near Kroonstad with the Malta mounted infantry. The British sustained no losses.

LAW DEPARTMENT

City Solicitor Qua Rushed With Business

BIG DOCKET OF CITY CASES

Exception Settled in Erie Case

CITY RECEIVES $33,000 FROM RAILROAD

As Result of Daniel Cage Case

City Solicitor Qua at the present time is figuring out a plan for carrying out the greatest amount of business that has come before him at one time since he became head of the local law department.

He has not had his annual vacation as yet and unless he snatches a few days immediately he will be obliged to forego the pleasure of a small rest this year.

The September docket of the superior court, not to speak of the supreme court business, will contain the largest number of city cases during Mr. Qua's incumbrancy and as most of these cases involve large amounts settlements are out of the question and "hot" trials will be in order.

The exception in the Erie Telephone cases in which the city received a verdict of about $27,000, have been settled upon by counsel for both sides and are now before the supreme court. They will be heard at either the November or January sessions of that body.

City Solicitor Qua this morning wrote to Commissioner Frost, who presided over the Tremont & Suffolk tax cases informing him that the city of Lowell does not care to delay any longer with these cases and requesting him, in case the Holyoke cases have been postponed again to settle the Lowell matter at once. The arguments in the Tremont & Suffolk case were completed March 20, and the commissioner who is also settling on the Holyoke cases preferred to hear the arguments on these cases before taking action on the Lowell matter. But the Holyoke cases have been delayed repeatedly and the patience of City Solicitor Qua is exhausted.

The city has at last received the money due it from the Boston & Maine railroad as the result of the celebrated Daniel Gage grade crossing case, a matter involving some $27,000. When the case was finished City Solicitor Qua went through the regular procedure incidental to the payment of the money and then dismissed the matter supposing that the law department would attend to the rest. City Treasurer Coburn did his part but the money was not forthcoming. When City Solicitor Qua learned a few days ago that the railroad had failed to pay over the money he went at once to the Boston & Maine and learned that their failure was due to an accident, the necessary papers being mislaid. The railroad lost time in paying over the money and the city treasurer now has it in his care.

A NEW ARRIVAL.

Councilman Timothy J. Donohue of ward four is smiling all over. It's a boy and the mother and child are well.

Cuticura SOAP

Makes the Hair grow. Clears the Complexion. Softens and whitens the Hands. Preserves and beautifies the skin of Infants and Children.

Absolutely pure, delicately medicated, surpassingly effective. Cuticura Soap is not only the most effective of skin purifiers and beautifiers, but the purest and sweetest of toilet, bath, and baby soaps.

Sold everywhere. British depot: NEWBERY, London. POTTER D. AND C. CORP., Sole Props., Boston, U. S. A.

Artificial Teeth

to wear well must be made of the best material. Don't waste your money on cheap teeth. They don't wear well. Buy the best, the price is very low and you will be better satisfied. Dr. Simmons, 119 Central street.

FANS GIVEN AWAY

Beautiful and artistic Fans given away with ICE CREAM,

At Old City Hall Building.

218 Merrimack Street.

Try our ice cream soda, pure fruit flavors. Also our pure home made confectionery.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The undersigned wishes to announce to his friends and the public in general that he has disposed of his bakery at 26 and 28 Concord street, having sold out to M. W. Mulcahy. He will now have but one bakery at corner Fayette and East Merrimack streets where he will be pleased to meet his former patrons and new friends. As he can give his entire attention to one store, his patrons can find the best bread, cake and pastry to be found in Lowell. Baked beans Saturday at 4 p. m. and beans and brown bread Sunday mornings. Your trade is respectfully solicited.

P. McCARTIN,

Cor. Fayette and East Merr'k Sts

NEW FIRM.

Mr. M. W. Mulcahy wishes to announce to the public that he has purchased the bakery and business formerly carried on by P. McCartin at 26-28 Concord street where he will be pleased to see all his friends and old customers and it is his intention to supply the very best quality of bakery supplies at all times. He will also do catering for balls, parties, picnics and weddings. All orders promptly attended to at 26-28 Concord street.

M. W. MULCAHY

PROPRIETOR.

STARBUCK HURT

HE MAY BE INJURED FOR LIFE.

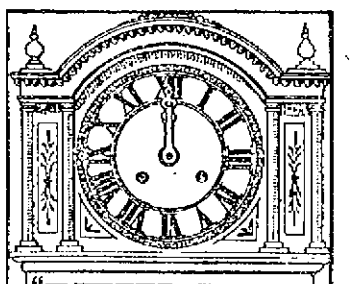

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 8.—Frank Starbuck of Philadelphia received injuries last night while riding in a motor cycle race at the Coliseum which will cripple him for life, if they do not result fatally.

With W. J. Wilkinson he was riding in a race against Chas. Miller and Joseph Judge. The latter had gained a lap and had the inside track. The latter pair came up so close that their pedal touched Starbuck's front wheel. The latter lost his head, steered wildly, and his machine, travelling at lightning speed, dashed over the bowl and in among the spectators.

Starbuck was hurled against a post with terrific force. The bones in one of his legs were driven through the muscles and he was otherwise injured.

Wilkinson went head foremost over the heads of the spectators and had an arm broken.

"BETTER LATE THAN NEVER," APPLIES TO THE USE OF Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Taken early it will CURE THE COUGH

Taken when the Lungs are affected IT WILL CURE WEAK LUNGS STOP HEMORRHAGES AND RESTORE SOUND BODILY HEALTH.

IT ALMOST ALWAYS HEALS.

LAKEVIEW PARK

Lowell's Popular Summer Day Resort

Bowling, Fishing, Boating, Swings, Carousal, Concerts, Fireworks, Aquatic Sports.

Rare Collection of Birds and Beasts from all Climes.

The D. L. Page Company will have entire charge of the Dining Pavilion.

Special Attention to Dinner and Picnic Parties. Dance Music by Hibbard's Orchestra.

Lakeview Theatre

ONE WEEK,

Commencing Monday, Aug. 6,

Afternoon and Night.

Harry Crandall

—IN—

A Busy Day

The uproarious delight! A cracker jack Comedy Co. Original songs, novel dances, great specialties. Management of Joseph J. Flynn. Performances daily, afternoon and evening.

PETER H. SAVAGE,

Undertaker and Funeral Director

189 Worthen St

Telephone connection 464-4. Calls night or day promptly attended to. Carriages furnished for weddings and christenings.

TEETH

If you think of having a new set made, see Dr. Simmons.

He has been making teeth in Lowell for 17 years. Don't waste money on cheap work, the price for the best artificial teeth is very low. Call at Lowell Dental Rooms, 219 Central street.

Peter J. Brady,

GROCER,

NEW STORE.

Cor. Gorham and South Highland Sts.

Choice Teas, Coffees and Spices

Try our new brands of Flour, the best in the city, "The King Arthur," "Crown of Gold," and "Banquet."

WHEN YOU WANT

to get a glass of SODA call at Carter & Sherburne's Drug Store. They give the largest glass and coolest Soda, made of Pure Fruit Flavors.

Carter & Sherburne, Low Price Drug Store, Merrimack, Cor. Bridge St.

J. F. ROGERS,

UNDERTAKER.

OFFICE—315 Central street. RESIDENCE—29 Cedar street. Telephone connection. Hacks furnished for all occasions.

PUGILISTIC EVENTS

A Busy Month for the Leading Scrappers

Fitz and Ruhlin Try Conclusions Friday Night—Corbett and McCoy on Aug. 30th.—Features of Their Pugilistic Tactics

Never in the history of pugilism have so many matches between first-class men claimed public attention as at the present time. Less than one short month remains for the gloveless to lawfully pursue their face-spalling profession in the state of New York, and they are accordingly making the most of it. All the prominent heavyweights are up and doing: matches have been made right and left with little or no previous discussion, and when the smoke of these August battles clears away, the heavyweight field will be strewn with what are technically known as "dead ones," and it is quite within the bounds of possibility that a new champion may be starring through the one-night stands.

The opening gun of the general conflict will be sounded Friday evening, when the thunderous thumps given and received by Robert Fitzsimmons and Gustave Ruhlin will awaken the echoes of Madison square. These two knights of the knuckles are scheduled to visit each other's anatomy with five ounce of wadded excelsior, strictly according to the learned Marquis of Queensbury, for 25 rounds. In preparation for their polite proceeding they have trained long and faithfully, and are now fit to battle for a kingdom. Ruhlin was introduced to the gathering at the recent McFadden-O'Brien dispute, his rugged appearance sending shadows chasing each other across the faces of the Fitzsimmons plungers.

According to all precedents, the Akron agriculturist should be returned a winner in the coming bout. He has on his side youth, height, weight and reach, four advantages with which, if the possessor has any cleverness at all, should render him invincible. Under the able tuition of Jim Corbett he has gained much fistic knowledge, and as his gameness has never been questioned, it would seem hard to figure the husky horseshoer as having a chance against such a combination.

But fistic "dope" is ever to be dreaded, and even more so when Fitz is a factor in the game. The Australian is nothing if not a man of surprises. During the entire course of his interesting career he has kept the pugilistic experts guessing. Previous to each of his fights they have told just what he would do and what would be done to him, and made it all so plain that it seemed needless for one to attend the contest. But on the contrary Bob would hop into the ring and do exactly the opposite of what was expected of him.

He was a long time gaining recognition, and up to the day that he shot paralysis into the Corbett solar plexus, a large percentage of the sporting fraternity had tagged him a fistic two spot. But after that gory battle all anti-Fitz talk was silenced, and those who had consistently belittled him resolved to back him in his next flight to the very limit. They were obliged to wait two years for the opportunity. Fitz was then matched to fight Jeffries, seemingly an easy mark, and, of course, the farier was a hot favorite. Those who had lost their money on Fitz's battles, from the time he defeated Jack Dempsey to the day he whipped Corbett, hastened to get a bet down on him that he would pulverize Jeff. But again did Robert do the wrong thing. For the "easy mark" knocked him out in 11 rounds. The moral of which seems to be: Count not upon what Fitz will do until he has done it.

The Cornishman in ring attire is not a thing of beauty, by any means. He is bald-headed, stoop-shouldered and so knock-kneed that his feet are perfect strangers to each other. When boxing he glides about as though on casters, crouching low, with his wide-open gloves seemingly clawing at his opponent. This attitude gives him such a ridiculous appearance that his opponent is readily inveigled into relaxing his vigilance long enough for Fitz to whip his deadly right across to the jaw and send his man in to dream-land.

In his encounter Friday evening of this week, however, Fitz must do his work quickly, if at all, for in a contest of endurance youth is bound to be served and Ruhlin is as tireless as a steam engine. Fitz will therefore cut out the pace from the tap of the gong, and a rattling go of less than fifteen rounds is expected.

On the evening of August 30 or 31 the Horton law be laid away to rest with fitting ceremonies for on one of these nights James J. Corbett and Kid McCoy will assist at the sad rites by playing taps in each other slats, firing a volley of uppercuts at each other's profiles and chorusing a sad dirge with the whirr of their flying gloves.

To the lovers of boxing the demise of the Horton law will be almost compensated for by the grand exhibition which these two marvels of fistic skill are expected to give. The men are acknowledged by all to be the two greatest boxers that ever stepped on rosin and a clash between them in the twenty-four foot ring has been talked of for years. Now they are really matched to battle in a few weeks the sporting world is in a fever of expectation, and all other matches have been cast in the shade.

As to their respective styles, they are too familiar to render lengthy discussion of them a matter of great interest. In the ring Corbett is the personification of ease, grace and skill. He trips out of his corner idly, swinging his arms and dancing about his opponent as though he was indulging in a game of tag. The idea is further carried out by the playful way Corbett seems to slap at his man for it is hard for the spectator to realize those little taps are in reality dazzling blows, that blind sting and drive the receiver almost frantic. His opponent moves at him when suddenly—thud! Corbett lands straight on the nose, and the pusher wonders where it came from. While still in that state, three more blows land hard on the same spot and the recipient rushes frantically at Corbett only to find that Jim is not there and when he turns to look for him—thud! thud! thud! the sore proboscis is again vigorously thumped.

In the meantime Corbett is making ducks and drakes of the other fellow's swings which is very discouraging to a fighter who will gladly accept any amount of hard treatment if he can land solidly occasionally himself. But when he only strikes thin air and is everywhere met with ripping jabs he is certainly to be excused for wearying of it at all.

But in McCoy, Corbett will find a very different proposition from the ponderous Jeffries and the reckless Sharkey. The wily Hoosier boy, slight, pale and ghostlike, is the smoothest glove artist that ever draped an optic in mourning. Though not as graceful in action as his polished opponent, Mac is every bit as deceptive, and has what Corbett lacks, i. e., a knockout punch.

Corbett, though skilled in the art of mussing up beauty is not a knockout, whereas they will not be a moment during the coming battle that he will not be in danger of taking a short nap as a result of a McCoy swing. The Kid proved his ability as a sleep inducer at Coney Island when he ushered in the glad new year of 1900 by sending Peter Maher to the land to dream while Mac walked off with the money.

Both Corbett and McCoy are already in training and though each declares that the other will flunk out of the meeting it is quite certain that neither will overlook any part of his training for the great event.

In the meantime Champion Jeffries has signified his willingness to take the conceit out of the winner of the Fitz-Ruhlin bout, so it is quite probable that a battle for the championship will occur before the Horton law has been gathered to its fathers.

PRIVATE EDWARD J. BARRY, CO. L, 14TH INFANTRY, NOW WITH THE ALLIED FORCES IN CHINA.

A LOWELL BOY

In the Fighting at Tien-Tsin

SERGT. BARRY OF 14TH. INFANTRY

Went to China With His Command

Sergeant Edward J. Barry, a Lowell boy, is with the Fourteenth Infantry in China and took part in the fighting at Tien-Tsin. He has three sisters who reside on East Merrimack street, and with whom he corresponds as often as possible. His letters from the Philippines during the campaign there were read with much interest by The Sun readers. He has been in the army going on seven years, and when his present enlistment expires he will have served nine years.

His first army experience was at Fort Warren and later in Newport, at which places he spent five years of his time. Just prior to going to the Philippines he was at Winthrop. Shortly after his arrival in the Philippines he was promoted to the position of first sergeant, Co. L, 14th Infantry. Originally he was a member of Co. M, and his captain was opposed to his transfer, till he learned that it meant a promotion to the brave soldier boy. The promotion was given in recognition of brave service. Sergt. Barry wrote several months ago that he intends to remain in the army as he finds the soldier's life just the life for him.

LABOR MATTERS

No Wage Reduction at the Middlesex Mills

A CONFERENCE WITH AGENT SAUNDERS

Meeting to be Held With Other Agents

At a meeting of the Textile council, last evening, several important matters were discussed, including arrangements for the coming outing of Saturday, Aug. 18. A large number of tickets have been sold and everybody seems willing and anxious to make it a very great success.

In regard to Labor Day, all the local textile unions have voted unanimously to turn out, and it is expected that there will be a larger number of men in line than ever before. The Woolen Spinners of the Middlesex mills have received a promise from the agent that the old scale of wages will be maintained for them and that there will be no reduction. A committee from the Woolen Spinners had a conference with the agent at the mill yesterday and received the promise that union men should receive the same wages as before. The Woolen Spinners are naturally somewhat gratified to say the least at this action of the mill authorities.

The agents of the Hamilton, Merrimack and Bleachery corporations have agreed to hold a conference in regard to the wage question with Mr. Connolly and Mr. Convery, and it is expected that this will take place very shortly. Much benefit is expected to result from this conference. The council had a very interesting meeting and the outlook generally in labor circles seem to be very bright and prosperous.

STATIONERY FIREMEN.

At the meeting of the Stationary Firemen last evening there was one proposition for membership received. It was also voted to buy a new banner for the Labor Day parade. Mr. H. L. A. Richards was selected to act as aid to the chief marshal in the parade. Resolutions were adopted in honor of Chas. T. Turksham, who is about to leave for Germany.

BRICKLAYERS' UNION.

The Bricklayers' union held its regular meeting last evening. Nothing but routine business was transacted.

A BAD ACCIDENT

Interfered With the Motor Paced Race

NELSON'S PACERS WERE INJURED

The Track Too Slippery for Motors

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—The 25-mile motor-paced race between Johnnie Nelson of Chicago, Will Stinson of Cambridge and Hiram Pierce of Fall River, at Charles River Park, last night, ended in a mixup in the last lap of the second mile. Owing to the slippery track all three pacing machines went down at the turn into the stretch and piled up on the track. Nelson recovered himself quickly and finished the second mile. Kent, who with Captain Ruhr, was pacing Nelson, had his shoulder dislocated, Pierce and Stinson were assisted to their training quarters. Kent was the only rider injured, the others escaping with slight cuts and bruises. Assistance was summoned and Kent's shoulder was replaced while he was under the influence of ether.

Nelson drew the pole at the start with Stinson in the centre and Pierce outside. The men were off quickly, Nelson being first to catch his pace and taking first place. Stinson dropped into second, followed closely by Pierce and these positions were maintained until the spill occurred. Nelson's time for the first mile was 1.43 2-5 and the second 1.52.

The five-mile amateur tandem-paced race between C. T. Ritchie of the Charleston C. C. and James A. Murphy of the Orient C. C., was won easily by the former in 10.56. M. G. Hurley of Boston won the one-mile unpaced amateur race in which there were 31 entries in 2.30.

It has not been decided when the big race will be finished.

NINE POLICEMEN

NEEDED TO STOP A FIGHT IN LYNN.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

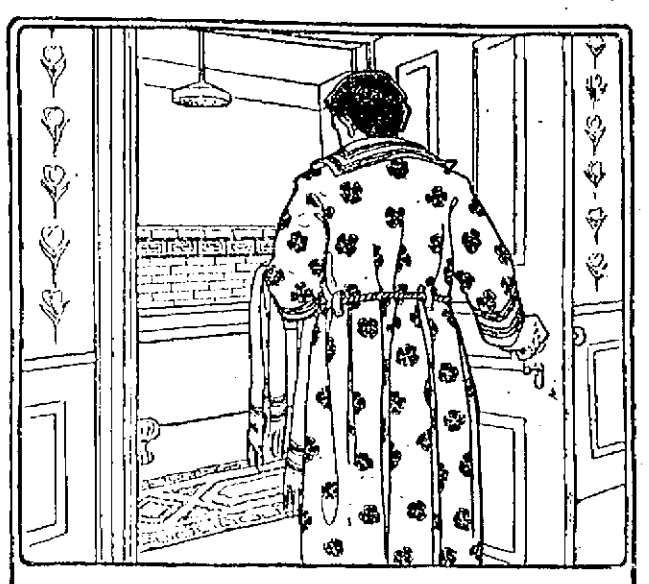

LYNN, Aug. 9.—Harry Carr and Charles Doherne of East Boston were arrested last night, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Before they were lodged in cells at police headquarters it took nine police officers to handle them.

George Flinn of this city was arrested, charged with interfering with an officer. The trouble started on Central avenue, near Andrew street. Carr and Doherne became involved in a quarrel and Officers Carroll, Currant and Kimball interfered.

The Bostonians rallied in their efforts to get away from the officers. In a few moments a crowd of 100 gathered there, including many women, and several attempts were made to assist the prisoners to escape.

The officers were pushed down and kicked an pummeled, but not seriously injured. A man on a mustang rode to headquarters, and Patrolmen J. F. and W. F. Kane, Field, Burkes and reserve officer Wilson hurried to the scene.

When they arrived the men were taken to the station house, but during the struggle were badly bruised.

DIRT CLEARANCE.

IT is a good plan for every bather to know something of the soap he uses. There is a well-founded objection to using a floor-cleaning soap upon the human body. Ivory Soap is the bather's soap. It costs more than common soaps, but the difference is in the ingredients and making. Why not treat yourself with a little respect. Is not the human skin with its marvellous delicacy entitled to pure soap? Ivory Soap—it floats.

COPYRIGHT 1900 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

TWO CAMPERS

VICTIMS OF A PRACTICAL JOKE BY FRIENDS.

Two Lowell young men who left Merrimack square yesterday to enjoy camp life at Salisbury beach were the cynosure of all eyes in the vicinity of the street railway waiting room. They carried a large wooden box containing cooking utensils and other paraphernalia such as bachelor cooks use while "tenting on the old camp ground."

In the wake of the two young men on vacation bent came a boy with a hand express wagon containing more luggage, all of which was hustled into the rear of a down-river electric car.

On the side of the large box which the young man carried had been placed a streamer bearing the inscription in conspicuous letters: "Bonco eats them alive; beware of pickpockets, we are alone."

Joe and Charley hurried to the car unconscious of the fact that they were the victims of a practical joke and the cause of much merriment to friends who were "tipped" to "pipe them off" at the square prior to their departure on their vacation.

An afternoon of good sport. The S. C. W. races Saturday.

Johnson's ANODYNE LINIMENT

Oldest—originated 1810. Best—for external or internal use. Cures—coughs, colds, cholera morbus, colic, stings, all pains, aches and inflammation. Costs—25 cents and 50 cents a bottle. Larger size more economical; three times as much.

I. S. JOHNSON & CO., Boston, Mass.

Free—"Treatment for Diseases and Care of the Skin and Hair."

OFFICE LOWELL

Gas Light Company

Save Your Dollars.

The Best and Cheapest Light in the Market.

Have you the latest Welsbach burner and Mantle installed in your house or store? It will cost less than one-half a cent per hour and will give 100 candle power per light. They can be procured at this office.

Price of gas with the discount off for prompt payment is

$1 PER THOUSAND FEET.

First-class Gas Ranges sold on the installment plan. Coke broken, screened and delivered at $1.50 per chaldron, $1.25 half chaldron, cash. No charge made for the use of meters. No charge made for running supply pipes from street mains to consumer's cellar. Orders when left at office promptly attended to.

Upmann's Extra 5 The Best 5c Cigar on Earth.

Omega Oil

After a man or woman has lived 50 or more years, the machinery of the body is pretty well worn out. Stop a minute and think how many miles you have walked in all those years—how many thousands of pounds you have lifted—how many hours you have stood on your feet—how many times your joints have moved back and forth—how many times you have overdone things in work and in pleasure. Do you wonder that you have pains and aches? Isn't it about time you did something for your poor body? Get a bottle of Omega Oil at once, and rub it into every spot on your neck, shoulders, arms, back, hips, legs, knees, and feet where there is an ache. Rub it in good and hard, and the first thing you know you'll feel at least ten years younger. 731

A Set of Three Knives,

Bread, Carving, Paring } KNIFE

With One Pound of

60 CENT TEA.

Every Set Warranted.

O'BRIEN BROS.

Tea Dealers,

FISKE BUILDING.

27 Central St. Tel. Con

MONEY LOANED TO SALARIED PEOPLE AND RETAIL MERCHANTS, upon their own names, without security, easy payments. TOLMAN, room 42 Associate Building.

ONE IS DEAD

Consumptive Patient Used a Revolver on Relatives

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Despondent over his inability to live as he wished on the sum allowed him by his father, Jos. Rabiner, a consumptive patient, last night at Rockaway beach shot and instantly killed Isaac Stein, his brother-in-law, badly wounded his father, Jacob Rabiner and then turned the weapon upon himself with what is said to be fatal effect.

A CHURCH UNION

By Two Lowell Congregational Societies

HIGH ST. AND JOHN ST. CHURCHES

New Edifice Suggested in Nesmith Street

The building of a new Congregational church to take the place of High and John street Congregational edifices in this city, is being discussed. At a recent meeting of High street church members, Hon. Charles A. Stott, Hon. George A. Marden, William H. White, Clarence M. Nelson, Walter W. Johnson and a new location.

The committee, in a circular to the members say, in the opinion of an experienced builder, from $6000 to $10,000 will have to be expended in a short time on the present building.

They also say that there is a possibility of selling the present church property for $30,000, and that members of John street church and society might join with High street church in building a new edifice.

Five questions were presented to 323 persons connected with High street church and they are requested to send answers to Clarence W. Whidden.

The land at the corner of Nesmith and Wyman streets is suggested for the new building.

LOWELL MEN

AT CAMP OF AMERICAN CANOE ASSOCIATION.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WINDERMERE, Muskoka Lakes, Ont., Aug. 9.—Life at the camp of the American Canoe association on the Big Island, Lake Rosseau, has settled down to regular routine. Recent arrivals include Paul Butler, Butler Ames, J. Arthur Gage, Miss Sarah Ames, Miss Jessie Ames and Adelbert Ames, Jr., of Lowell, Mass.; Harold Banker of Waltham, Mass.; Harold Banker of boat near the headquarters; E. T. Brigham, W. W. Crosby, G. W. Burnham, Edward F. Wyer and Wm. Fowle of Woburn, Mass.

CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine.

SAFE. Always reliable. Ladies, ask Druggist for CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH in RED and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse Dangerous Substitutions and Imitations. Buy of your Druggist, or send 4c. in stamps for Particulars, Testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Sold by all Druggists. Chichester Chemical Co. Madison Square, PHILA., PA.

Sold by Eastern Drug Co., Boston, Mass.

WORKINGMEN, ATTENTION!

THE ROOM-E-NUF OVERALL.

We Shall Place On Sale

SATURDAY

5000 Pairs of Overalls and Coats

THE STRONGHOLD OVERALL.

Made from the very best materials and manufactured by experienced, well paid help, in first-class factories. Stronger, more thoroughly made or more serviceable Overalls and Coats cannot be found. They are made full size in waist, seat and leg. We have only one object in view in holding this sale for a few days, and that is to acquaint more people with this large and busy department and its unmatchable values.

COMMENCING SATURDAY MORNING.

—YOUR CHOICE OF—

700 Pairs of Overalls and Coats, made from the best grade of Otis blue check, full size, loops and patent buttons.

900 Pairs of Painters' White Overalls, railroad back, top pocket; all sizes.

1200 Pairs of Heavy Stripe Denim Overalls and Coats, railroad high back and front, loops and patent buttons; all sizes.

2500 Pairs of Heavy Blue Denim Coats and Overalls, railroad back, two seams, swinging pockets.

800 Pairs of Plain Black Heavyweight Overalls and Coats, patch pocket, loops and patent buttons.

All the above goods are the regular 50c., 65c., and 75c qualities, and cannot be bought for any less elsewhere. We have marked the entire stock at

38c. a Garment.

This sale will last only a few days. We will not sell any of these goods to dealers or speculators.

THE RAILROAD OVERALL.

Lowell One-Price CLOTHING CO.

71-83 Merrimack St.

THE MECHANICS OVERALL.

MID-SUMMER MILLINERY

Trimmed Hats at... 98c Up

We are closing them out regardless of cost.

ALL the new things in Outing Hats in felt. If you are going to the beach or the country you want a Felt Hat. Let us show you what we have. Our prices are the lowest.

HEAD & SHAW, "The Milliners" 169-175 Merrimack St.

THE LOWELL SUN

Three Editions Daily.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor.

SUN BUILDING, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press.

$3.00 Per Year. 25c. Per Month

The Sun is the only paper in Lowell receiving the full day service of the Associated Press, the greatest news gathering organization in the world. The entire service is received over a leased wire by our own operator in our own office in the Sun building.

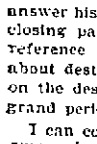

May Have Seen Better Days

There are at least two local papers with less than one-fifth the circulation of THE SUN. They may have seen better days, but the only remnant of their former glory is the high price they charge for advertising.

If the price they ask is a fair one, THE SUN would be justified in asking five times as much, but we do not ask even twice as much. Don't you see why advertising in THE SUN is the cheapest in Lowell?

THE SUN has a larger circulation than any two other papers printed in Lowell.

It is in every respect

LOWELL'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

MR. BRYAN'S SPEECH.

Everybody interested in the welfare of this nation or in the rights and interests of humanity in general, should read the speech of William Jennings Bryan at Indianapolis yesterday. It is one of the clearest, most logical and convincing expositions of American principles as opposed to Imperialism and the present republican policy towards the Filipinos that can possibly be given.

It shows wherein Imperialism departs from American principles and in referring to the treaty ceding the Philippines to the United States, Mr. Bryan shows that he favored the ratification of the treaty, assuming that American principles would be applied to the government of the Filipinos as to the government of the Cubans. This disposes of the hypocritical charge made by Senator Hoar, namely, that Bryan was responsible for the war because he favored the ratification of the treaty. He favored it on the ground that it would be the speediest way to end the war, not that it should be made the ground for starting a new war.

Mr. Bryan also disposed of the chief claims made in defence of the Imperial policy in a masterly way, under the following heads:

First: That we must improve the present opportunity to become a world power and enter into international politics.

Second: That our commercial interests in the Philippine Islands and in the Orient make it necessary for us to hold the islands permanently.

Third: That the spread of the Christian religion will be facilitated by a colonial policy.

Fourth: That there is no honorable retreat from the position which the nation has taken.

Mr. Bryan's refutation of these claims was so forcible and overwhelming that no republican can adequately answer his keen and scathing logic. The closing paragraph of his address had reference to the republican twaddle about destiny and expressed his views on the destiny of this republic in this grand period:

I can conceive of a national destiny surpassing the glories of the present and the past—a destiny which meets the responsibilities of today and measures up the possibilities of the future. Behold a republic, resting securely upon the foundation stones quarried by revolutionary patriots from the mountain of eternal truth—a republic applying in practice and proclaiming to the world the self-evident proposition—that all men are created equal; that they are endowed with inalienable rights; that governments are instituted among men to secure these rights; that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. Behold a republic in which civil and religious liberty stimulate all to earnest endeavor, and in which the law restrains every hand uplifted for a neighbor's injury—a republic in which every citizen is a sovereign but to which no one cares to wear a crown. Behold a republic standing erect while empires all around are bowed beneath the weight of their own armaments—a republic whose flag is loved while other flags are only feared. Behold a republic increasing in population, in wealth, in strength and in influence, solving the problems of civilization and hastening the coming of an universal brotherhood—a republic which shakes thrones and dissolves aristocracies by its silent example and gives light and inspiration to those who sit in darkness. Behold a republic gradually but surely becoming the supreme moral factor in the world's progress and the accepted arbiter of the world's disputes—a republic whose history, like the path of the just, "is as the shining light that shineth more and more into the perfect day."

THE CHINESE SITUATION.

The gloom of mystery that up to Tuesday evening rendered the Chinese situation impenetrable to all the civilized powers has been swept away by the light thrown upon it by cipher messages from Minister Conger of the United States and the British minister at Pekin.

The demand that the ministers be safely escorted to Tien-Tsin was made of China by powers before the real situation was known but under the present circumstances as appears from Conger's message, it would be certain death to attempt such a transfer. The ministers dare not risk it so that the powers will now appeal to China with all the force at their command for the safety of the ministers. Nothing less than the threat to take reprisals, to decapitate the heads of the Chinese government if the ministers are killed will be of any use.

Li Hung Chang says China must fight if the allies approach Pekin and the furious Boxers who evidently disregard consequences will endeavor to kill the ministers as they have repeatedly threatened. Even the imperial officials who rightly or wrongly disclaim sympathy with the Boxers have threatened this, but the warning of the combined powers will probably overcome them and result in the protection of the surviving legations.

In any event since the imperial government appears to be responsible for much of the atrocities inflicted upon foreigners, the powers have abundant cause for making war upon China either separately or in a combination as is proposed. When that war is over China will be much wiser and the fury of the Boxers will become considerably subdued, although in spite of all the powers may do no foreigner will be safe in China for generations to come unless protected by European troops.

City Marshal O'Sullivan of Lawrence is to be commended for his kindness in the treatment of the various unfortunates who fall into his hands. The other night he found a young woman asleep in a doorway. Instead of bringing charges of drunkenness, vagrancy or something worse against her, he ordered the matron at the police station to treat her kindly, until he could find a home for her. She was supplied with money to secure her trunk, held for room rental at a hotel, and she was also placed in a position where she can earn a living—all out of the kindness shown her by the city marshal. There is no office with the exception of that of a clergyman in which kindness is more necessary than in that of city marshal, and the Lawrence official shows that in this respect he is the right man for the place.

The municipal lodging house at Syracuse, N. Y., which has now been in operation a year, is declared to be highly successful. Lodgers have a bath, bed and food, also the use of a reading room. The next day they have work on the streets, half a day's work at street cleaning. This pays for the lodging and food and leaves the afternoon free to look for work or get out of town. The cost of the undertaking was about the same as the market value of the work done at street cleaning and snow-shoveling by the lodgers.—Exchange.

This is undoubtedly a very excellent method of handling the occasional visitors known as "tramps," who call at the police station for lodging. In this city they are sent to the city farm, where they are obliged to saw wood in lieu of food and lodging. They are limited in the number and frequency of their visits, so that those who call once are not in a hurry to come back, lest they be sent into court as vagrants. They go elsewhere.

Just as long as people purchase horses with docked tails just so long will there be found men brutal enough to perform the dirty work of docking them. When the law steps in and imposes a penalty for having a bob-tailed horse in one's possession, then, and not until then, will the practice cease. The Gazette maintains that the method it suggests of putting a stop to the docking of horses' tails is the best yet devised.—Haverhill Gazette.

We fully endorse the Gazette's plan for stopping this cruel and idiotic practice which is at best but a cheap way of aping the English horseman. In a climate so hot as this a docked horse suffers a great deal more from flies than in England.

Congressman Towne has taken himself most graciously out of the way of Adlai E. Stevenson in the democratic campaign. In so doing he loses nothing and helps the cause of democracy.

A commander-in-chief of the allies has been chosen. He is a German and in all probability a man well qualified for the place. The German generals know their business.

Smooth paving will be discussed at a public hearing next Tuesday evening. The remonstrants will have their innings.

The city council says we shall have an electric car sprinkler, although the mayor says nay. Some change is needed from the present system.

The McKinley brand of prosperity is petering out.

CRISP GOSSIP

The bare-armed girl is getting up a well tanned muscle.

The retail market shows almost no change from last week. Haddock dropped a cent but everything else is stationery.

CONGER, PHOENIX-LIKE, RISES FROM THE FLAMES.

The tide of summer business is at its height now and all trains through Lowell are heavy laden.

France makes nearly 20,000,000 pairs of gloves yearly and of these 12,000,000 pairs are exported.

I would I were a polar bear,
The ice—there's bliss in clinking it!
He bathes in zero water there,
Instead of merely drinking it.

The new single breasted frock coat designed by the Prince of Wales is probably all right but what one now needs is a negligee shirt that does not require suspenders or belt to keep up the trousers.

A bicycle that in five minutes can be taken apart and packed in a bag 24 x 16 inches has been invented by an ingenious Frenchman.

A "quiet home wedding" took place at Hagerstown, Md., recently. The bride, groom, best man, and clergyman were all deaf and dumb.

London is putting in its own telephone system, and expects to furnish 40,000 subscribers at normal rates. The cost is $5,000,0000.

A Blaine county Oklahoman infant has for his given name Dennis Roosevelt McKinley and the parents are trying to rear the child.

It is a poor plan to have a strip of carpet or a woolen mat on the bath room floor to absorb the moisture and eventually become unhygienic. A cork mat or a rubber mat is preferable.

It is said that the proprietor of a Chinatown gambling house recently secured an order of the court restraining the police from raiding his place. That is government by injunction with a vengeance.

The prince of Wales is more familiar with the common affairs of life than we supposed. His action in the Astor case clearly demonstrates that he knows an ass when it brays.

More Lowell people than ever before are taking their vacation this summer in daily trips to places of interest. With the excellent facilities for transportation it is by no means an unsatisfactory way of spending one's leisure.

East Orange, N. J., has put in operation a strange ordinance by which the owner of a cock that crows or a hen that clucks between the hours of 11 p. m. and 5 p. m. is liable to a fine of $5. The ordinance reads that any person keeping fowl, swine, goats or horses that may be complained of shall remove them to a point not less than 150 feet from the property of the complainant, and that such stock as annoy people between the hours of 10 p. m. and 5 a. m. will be regarded as a nuisance and if the owner fails to keep his stock or fowl quiet between the prescribed hours he can be fined $5 for the first offense and $20 for the second. The cackling by hens is regarded as in the same degree hideous as the crowing of roosters. Neighing and kicking horses and cattle that bellow are in the same class.

When woman smiles her sweetest—ah,
Perhaps her heart is breaking.
When woman's look is tenderest
She may be sadly making
A last brave fight to keep the tears—
The bitter tears—from flowing—
A woman's happy glances may
Just be an outward showing.

When woman smiles, 'tis hard to tell.
She may, alas, be grieving!
Her careless air may be put on
Her soulful look deceiving!
When woman smiles take care—beware!
She may perchance be scheming
To work you—never, never judge
Her by her outward seeming.

The newspaper world loses a hard working and valued member in the death of Ballard Smith. He practically wore himself out in the interest of his paper. His indomitable will kept him at his desk until his health was completely shattered.

Butter is now packed in a box of six sheets of ordinary window glass, the edges being covered with gummed paper. The closed box is then enveloped in a layer of plaster of paris a fourth of an inch thick, and it is covered with a specially prepared paper. As the plaster is a bad conductor of heat, the temperature inside the hermetically sealed package remains constant, being unaffected by external change. The cost of packing in this way is only about two cents per pound and is used to a great extent in Australia. Butter has been sent from Melbourne to Kimberley, in South Africa, packed in this manner and was found to be perfectly sound. Cases are now made which hold as much as 560 pounds of butter.

The following epitaph is still to be seen on a monument in a burying ground at Concord, N. H.:

God wills us free—Man wills us slaves.
I will as God wills God's will be done.
Here lies the body of
JOHN JOCK.
A native of Africa, who died
March, 1773, aged about sixty years.
Though born in a land of slavery,
He was born free.
Though he lived in a land of liberty,
He lived a slave.
Till by his honest, though stolen labors,
He acquired the source of slavery,
Which gave him his freedom;
Though not long before
Death, the grand tyrant,
Gave him his final emancipation.
And put him on a footing with kings.
Though a slave to vice,
He practiced those virtues
Without which kings are out slaves.

A New Jersey hotel keeper has demonstrated his unfitness for paternity by teaching his 4-year-old daughter to smoke and drink. Recently at Freehold it occurred to him that it would be a good plan to exhibit his child's talents. He lighted a big black cigar, about half as big as she, stuck it between her lips and sent her promenading down the leading street of the village. The little girl was as proud of her accomplishment as her father, apparently, for she pulled away at the rank weed and seemed to enjoy the flavor. the father tagging after with a look of conscious pride upon his face. Men and women who do not know the esthetics of child-smoking stopped in horror and remonstrated with the father for permitting such depravity. "You mind your own business," he said. "I do as I please with my child. Smoke? Of course she smokes. Don't I smoke? She can drink beer and whiskey, too, like her old father before her. If you don't like it you can lump it," and he went on, purple with indignation.

Clear The Deck

OF ALL ODD PIECES OF

FURNITURE

And All Remnants of Floor Covering

Is The Order of The Day.

AUGUST is the month of BARGAINS at

A. E. O'HEIR & CO., 14-16-18 Merrimack St.,

Near Electric Car Waiting Room.

The People's Favorite Furniture Store.

OLDEST SETTLER

In the Lowell Colony of Greeks

WAS THE LATE PETER DAPONTES

Who Died at City Farm Monday

Peter Dapontes, whose death was mentioned in The Sun of yesterday as having passed away at the city farm on Monday, where he had been taken four years ago, owing to insanity, was the oldest settler in the Lowell Greek colony. He was born on the Island of Andro, off the coast of Greece, and when but a boy he shipped as a common seaman on a Grecian bark bound for Boston. On his arrival in Boston he received his discharge and after a few months stop in that city he came to Lowell and opened a wholsale fruit business on Middlesex street, where he continued to do a prosperous business until a few years ago. He removed his store to Broadway, where he did business until four years ago, when he was unfortunately stricken with insanity and carried to the city farm. Three years ago while in that institution, Mr. Dapontes was taken with a violent attack and one afternoon the house doctor came to his apartments and found him in an unconscious condition and on examination believed him dead. The physician notified his friends in Lowell, who immediately went to where he was laid out and according to the Greek custom dressed him for burial. On their return to Lowell they notified a local undertaker, requesting him to remove the body to the city on the following morning. When the undertaker arrived at the farm he was surprised to find him about and stirring.

When the local Greeks heard of Mr. Dapontes and that the city was to bury him they requested that they might perform that duty and the body was removed to the morgue of Undertaker C. H. Molloy. The date of the funeral has not been announced but it is thought will be on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Dapontes' death will be mourned not only by the Greeks, but all others who knew him in life.

Carol, Earahan, Keegan and Hamilton at the S. C. W. meet next Saturday.

DENNIS ARRESTED

Charged With Indecent Exposure of Person

HAS ANNOYED PEOPLE IN HIGHLANDS

He Was Caught in Westford Street

Henry Dennis, a well appearing fellow, who claims Troy, N. Y., as his home, was arrested in Westford street yesterday afternoon by Captain Kew and Officer Atkinson.

The charge against him is indecent exposure and it is claimed that he has been making a nuisance of himself in the vicinity of Tyler Park for several days past. The police also suspect that he may be the man who attempted to assault a little girl in the woods at North Chelmsford a short time ago.

His arrest yesterday was the result of a complaint made by a resident in the vicinity of Tyler Park. It is said that people up there saw Dennis acting objectionful and at once telephoned to the police station. Officer Atkinson was detailed to look up the fellow. He called at Capt. Kew's house and with the captain started in search of the fellow. They caught him on Westford street and placed him under arrest.

Don't forget the S. C. W.-races Saturday. Always exciting.

We don't want to carry goods from one season to another, we firmly believe in clearing out all goods when they are new and stylish—even if it is necessary to sell them below cost and at a small loss—it's best for us and best for our customers.

Every garment in this store is marked down to a price that we are sure will sell them quickly, some at half price—below actual cost—others very near half price.

Bargain prices in superb qualities and liberal credit ought to sell everything in sight this week.

Are you looking for bargains? Don't worry about the cash. Credit is free. Ask for it.

All Summer Goods to Go at Greatly Reduced Prices.

Including Wash Skirts, P. K. Linen, Duck. Also all Shirt Waists, newest styles and prettiest makes. Ladies' Tailor-made Suits. Outer Garments for Ladies, Misses and Children. Men's, Boys' and Youths' Summer Clothing. Men's $3.00 Shoes. We warrant every pair.

Cash or Credit

78 Middlesex Street, Odd Fellows' Block,

A. STRAUSS, Manager.

LOWELL RESIDENTS

PARTICIPATING IN OLD HOME WEEK IN MAINE.

Governor Powers of Maine, having issued a call for all of the former citizens of the Pine Tree State to return to their fatherland and join in the celebration of "Home Week," the following sons of Maine have left Lowell to participate in the festivities: Abel Wheeler, Alex. Abels, Henry L. Pike, Cassius Pierce, Deacon R. G. Bartlett, Fred. W. Farnsham, A. T. Smith and F. N. Hawes, Charles E. Carter, Prof. John D. Jackson and E. A. Smith.

Before leaving Lowell the gentlemen perfected an organization called the Dirigo Club, of which Abel Wheeler is the president; Alex. Abels, commissary, and Deacon Bartlett, treasurer.

The party will return after a tour of their homesteads and a good sniff of the sea breeze at York beach.

All the crack riders will be at the S. C. W. meet Saturday.

WHAT THEY ALL SAY.

"I am going to advertise in your paper everytime and I will tell all my friends to advertise in The Sun" is what they all say who try The Sun wants. Why? Because they bring results. Last week Miss Joyce of Centralville lost a gold watch. She advertised her loss in The Sun and that same night the watch was returned to her through the ad. in The Sun. Another prominent school teacher of Centralville had occasion to use The Sun want column. She advertised in all the other papers until she got sick and tired of it, without getting a single reply. At last she tried The Sun and the first day the ad. appeared a dozen answers were received at the office for her. Now she says there is only one paper in Lowell that's worth advertising in. Is it any wonder that The Sun has more wants than any other paper in Lowell.

Don't miss the five-mile pursuit race at S. C. W. meet Saturday.

BIG FOUR CLUB AT CAMP.

The Big Four club, one of most popular organizations is enjoying life at Simpson's pond. They will remain here for the rest of the month. George Cowen is head chef and his services are highly commended by all who have visited the camp.

WESTFORD

Mr. Henry Wright and family, who have been visiting his father, left for their home at Quincy on Monday last.

Misses Hattie and Fanny Buckminster of Malden were recently the guests of Isabel Atwood and family.

Fred F. Wiggin has gone on a ten days' visit to his home at Baldwin, Me.

Miss Florence Read is laid up with an injured ankle, the result of a fall last Saturday.

There will be a concert by the children at the Congregational church next Sunday morning. A collection will be taken for Congregational Education society, and also the Sunday school and Publishing society.

The concert which was to have been held at the Unitarian church, Tuesday evening, the 7th, has been postponed till Friday evening, the 10th.

Mrs. Clara Littlefield of Fitchburg, her son Fred, wife and three daughters of Farmington, N. H., drove down Friday to visit relatives at the Walker homestead. Edward Littlefield joining the company Saturday evening. All returned to Fitchburg Sunday, taking Mrs. Walker with them. Edward Littlefield making the trip on his bicycle.

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT.

Miss Susie Campbell of Congress street, who is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. Alex. Campbell of Webster, Mass., is making many friends among the young people of that place. Last Tuesday they arranged a novel entertainment in her honor, eight couples went to an adjoining town for a hay rack ride. The ladies wore print dresses and sunbonnets and the young men wore overalls and straw hats. Arriving at their destination they had a real New England dinner, after which there was dancing in the barn, for which a country fiddler furnished the music.

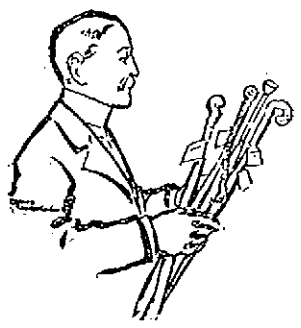

RED MEN'S OUTING.

The Red Men in Nashua, Manchester and Lowell, are making arrangements to hold their annual outing early in September, and it is generally understood that the place selected will be Rawsdale, at Nashua. Committees of arrangements have been appointed in Manchester and Lowell and at the regular meeting next Monday evening, the committees from Watananock Tribe of Nashua will be appointed. The gathering will be one of the events of the season.

Putnam & Son,

166 CENTRAL STREET.

There are many items of interest in this summer stock, that make strong price appeals to summer buyers. We are doing an excellent business in trousers—good sorts, for all purposes—quiet patterns, all wool cassimeres; well made, strong, will stand hard work, 98c. and $1.19. Dressier trousers, smooth worsteds, in patterns like the best goods, $1.98 and $3.48. Fine worsteds from Rogers, Peet & Co., the best we know about $4.95

MERCERIZED UNDERWEAR, that looks like silk, quite the daintiest underwear shown; 18 dozens just "picked up" at a bargain. Usually sold for $1, this to go shirt or drawers, for . . . . . 59c.

AN OCCASIONAL RAINY DAY may remind you that an umbrella won't come amiss in vacation. Three or four specials here are worth consideration; a lot of men's umbrellas made for us, silk through and through, fine paragon frames, very close roll, special handles in natural wood, silk case, five dollars' worth, for $3.25

AN EXCELLENT serge umbrella, men's, paragon frame, steel rod and natural handles, with sterling silver mounts, at a special price . . . . . 98c.

A LITTLE LOT of women's sun and rain umbrellas, mercerized covers, Dresden, pearl and natural wood handles, paragon frames, seem very cheap at . . . . . 80c.

IN THE BOYS' ROOM we've put a small lot of white duck sailor suits, fine ones that sold for $4.00, down to $1.48

THE CRASH TROUSERS that were 79c., all now . . . . 48c.

STAR WAISTS. Shirt Waists, 40 only, were $1.25 and $1, all now . . . . . 47c.

STAR BLOUSES, French flannel, madras and cheviot. All these are from the $1.50 and $2.00 lots, down now to . . . 67c.

From Yesterday's Late Editions.

THE CHINESE

Have Been Expelled From Pei-Tsang

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LONDON, Aug. 8—The British consul at Tien-Tsin, under date of Monday, Aug. 6, announces that the Chinese have been expelled from Pei-Tsang and that they are in full retreat.

CHINESE SITUATION IS NOW MOST SERIOUS

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The message from Minister Conger brings the Chinese situation to its most serious stage. The authorities in Washington are aware that nothing but the most vigorous action can meet the conditions, save the ministers and other foreigners in Pekin, and avert a war of long duration. After a conference of the men in charge of the diplomatic and military affairs, in which President McKinley (who is at Canton) participated over the long-distance telephone, it was decided to send a message to Consul-General Goodnow, repeating the contents of the Conger message and advising him that a crisis had been reached. He was directed to communicate the fact to Li Hung Chang, to Sheng and other Chinese officials who were to transmit it to the government of China with a strong representation that the present situation was intolerable and could not be continued without the most serious results. It is understood that the despatch was practically an ultimatum and that an early reply was demanded. hThe answer is expected during the day or evening and it probably will determine the future action of this government.

It is not believed by the war department officials that the international forces now operating along the Pei-Ho river can reach Pekin in time to rescue the ministers if active hostilities should begin against the legationers by the imperial troops. Some of the officials believe that there is greater safety for the ministers and other foreigners in accepting an escort of the imperial army to Tien-Tsin, than remaining in Pekin if war should be declared.

The information received through the Chinese minister regarding the opening of communication between the ministers and their governments is the one ray of hope in the situation. Whether the promises contained in the edict will be made good ought to be speedily known and if communication is established the most serious consequences may be averted. Although there have been intimations before that such communication would be established this is the first time that it has appeared in the from of an imperial edict.

IMPERIAL EDICT MADE PUBLIC

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINTON, Aug. 8.—The Chinese minister visited the state department today and transmitted to this government the following edict::

An imperial edict of the 5th day of the seventh moon (Aug. 2, 1900), transmitted by Viceroy Li Hung Chang, Viceroy Liu Kun Yi and Director General Sheng, under date of Aug. 4, 1900, to Minister Yang, at St. Petersburg, and re-transmitted by the latter, under date of Aug. 7 and received by Minister Wu on the evening of the last named date. It is as follows:

Li Hung Chang and Liu Kun Yi, in response to their joint memorial proposing the sending of the foreign ministers to Tien Tsin, received on the 5th instant (Aug. 2), the following imperial edict:

"Throughout the disturbances recently caused by our subjects on account of christian missions, which have resulted in a conflict of forces, it has been found necessary to afford protection to all the foreign ministers in Pekin. On repeated occasions the Tsung-Li-Yamen sent notes inquiring after their welfare. And as Pekin has not been restored to order and precautionary measures may not secure absolute safety, the foreign ministers are being consulted as to the proposed plan of detailing troops to escort them safely to Tien Tsin for temporary shelter, so that they may be free from apprehensive anxiety or fear.

"We hereby command Jung Lu to appoint as a preliminary step, trustworthy, high, civil and military officials, who, together with reliable and efficient troops, shall, at such time as the foreign ministers may agree upon for leaving Pekin, escort and protect them throughout their journey. Should lawless characters manifest evil designs upon the ministers or attempt to rob them or in any way create trouble, they (the high officials) shall at once repress them without fail.

"If the foreign ministers, before leaving Pekin, should desire to communicate with their respective governments, and if their telegraphic messages should be in plain language, the Tsung-Li-Yamen shall at once attend to them without the least delay, thus manifesting the utmost friendliness of the imperial government. Respect this."

JAPANESE TOOK PEI TSANG

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The navy department has received the following cablegram from Admiral Remey:

Che-Foo, Aug. 8.

Bureau of Navigation, Washington:

Taku, Aug. 6.—Chaffee reports Japanese took Pei-Tsang morning of the fifth. Engagement over before Americans arrived. Movement probably continued to Yang-Tsun. Inform secretary of war.

(Signed) REMEY.

LI HUNG CHANG PREPARES TO FIGHT

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LONDON, Aug. 8, 3.45 A. M.—"In case the troops advance, the Chinese must fight. The suggestion that the allies should be allowed to enter Pekin in order to escort the ministers to Tien-Tsin is absolutely impossible."

This is the dictum of Li Hung Chang. It was transmitted last evening to Mr. William Pritchard Morgan, member of parliament, for Merthyr Tydvil, by his agent at Shanghai. The agent had carried to Earl Li a message from Mr. Morgan urging that the allied troops be allowed to enter the capital and stating that a settlement could be made at Tien Tsin whereby a war by the world against China would be averted; but even the optimistic Li failed to hold out the slightest hope of its feasibility, although he reiterated to Mr. Morgan's agent his declaration that the ministers had left Pekin, fixing the date of their departure as Aug. 2. The agent makes this comment:

"The consuls are without confirmation."

These messages have been sent to Lord Salisbury accompanied by a statement by Mr. Morgan, urging that the allies should take no step t oendanger the lives of the ministers.

CIPHER MESSAGE MAY BE SENT

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Minister Wu this morning received an edict, under date of Aug. 5, in which the Chinese government permits the powers to hold open and free communication with their ministers. This includes the sending of cipher messages.

DAY NURSERY ASSOCIATION.

Following is the report of the Day Nursery association for July:

Total number of attendances, 583; largest number of children received any one day 17, three children received medical treatment and one lost child was cared for.

Contributions were received from Miss Lizzie Comptois, Mrs. W. H. Johnson, Mrs. Christina Rand and the proprietor of the Enterprise bakery.

July 15th, about one hundred children and their mothers were entertained by the ladies of the Baptist church of Chelmsford, free transportation being supplied by the Lowell & Suburban Co.

A. L. BACHELLER, Clerk.

CONFERRED WITH McKINLEY.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Soon after Mr. Root arrived at the war department this morning he went to the White House and conferred with President McKinley over the long distance telephone. The result of the conference has not been made known.

LABOR NEWS

The executive board of the Weavers Union held a meeting in Loomfixers' hall, last evening. Matters of routine business were transacted and Labor day was discussed at some length.

WOOLEN SPINNERS UNION.

There was a special meeting of the Woolen spinners' union in Bay State hall last evening. Matters relative to the wage question were discussed and acted upon. It was voted not o make the proceedings public.

CARPENTERS' UNION.

The Carpenters' union held a meeting in Mule Spinners hall last evening. Arrangements for Labor Day and its observance occupied the greater part of the meeting.

JOHN LAGASSE DISCHARGED.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

FALL RIVER, Aug. 8—John Lagasse, the helper on a local ice wagon, which ran over and killed William J. Murphy, aged 4 years, July 11, and who was subsequently arrested, charged with manslaughter, was heard on continuance in the second district court this morning and discharged, the evidence failing to show any criminal negligence on the part of defendant.

MILLS WILL CLOSE.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WALTHAM, Mass., Aug. 8.—The Boston Manufacturing company will close its cotton mills here on August 15 for two weeks, in order to reduce the amount of stock on hand. This closing is in accordance with a reported agreement of textile manufacturers throughout New England.

Mr. Clinton Reyer has accepted a position with the Lowell Bleachery Co.

Miss Tena Ross has returned from a pleasant week's vacation spent as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clark at their cottage at Island Pond, Pelham, N. H.

Miss Tena Ross, the well known organist of this city has been engaged as organist for the remainder of the summer at the Paige street Freewill Baptist church.

CHIN SING ROBBED.

Chin Sing, a respectable Chinaman and the proprietor of a laundry at 507 Bridge street claims that he was knocked down and robbed of $30 by a fellow countryman in Paige street, Monday night and he is said to be in pretty bad shape as a result of the beating he received.

KING AND QUEEN ARRIVES.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

ROME, Aug. 8.—King Victor Emmanuel III and Queen Helena arrived here this morning. They were received by the ministers, the presidents of the senate and chamber of deputies, many senators and deputies and all the civil and military authorities. The sovereign went immediately to the Quirinal.

During their passage through the streets the crowds present uncovered their heads.

SERIOUS CHARGE

Geo. L. Raymond Held by Manchester Police

MRS. LAPLANTE IS HIS VICTIM

The Assault Has Caused Great Excitement

By Associated Press to The Sun.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 8.—Geo. L. Raymond was held by the police court today without bail, on a charge of rape. His offence was one of the most brutal and aggravated reported in this locality for a long time. He is 26 years of age and a mill hand. He lives with his wife at 50 Market street, and his victim, Mrs. Ludger Laplante, lives in an adjoining tenement, No. 52. The two families have been intimate for a long time. July 31 Raymond made his first improper advances to Mrs. Laplante, and was repelled. She reported the fact to her husband, but in view of the long standing intimacy between the families it was deemed best not to make any trouble. On the day following Raymond called again after Mr. Laplante had gone to his work. After rapping several times, he gained admittance, having a chair in his hands which he had taken from Laplante's to repair. Mrs. Laplante looked at the chair and remarked that it had not been repaired. She had no sooner spoken that Raymond seized her, stifling her cries for help with one hand over her mouth. She is a small and somewhat frail woman, but fought desperately, her clothing being torn to tatters. On completing his assault, Raymond shaved off his moustache and went to the home of his brother in New Boston, where he was arrested by the Manchester officers during the night. He was preparing to leave for Canada today. Mrs. Laplante is 22 years old and is the mother of two small children. The case has occasioned much excitement.

STEAMER STRUCK

THE ADMIRAL SAMPSON ON A ROCK.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—The American fruit steamer Admiral Sampson, which came into Boston harbor this morning from Port Antonio, Jamaica, with a cargo of fruit, struck on Shag Rock, just below Boston Lights, during a dense fog. Tugs were quickly summoned and as the tide served to advantage the steamer was released from her position and towed to her berth at Long Wharf. The vessel was not seriously damaged.

BADLY INJURED

MARY TRUMAN FELL INTO EAST RIVER.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Mrs. Mary Truman, quite old and penniless, is dying at Bellevue hospital as a result of falling accidentally falling into the East river. She had applied to the authorities for assistance and was on her way to the city lodging house when sitting down on a pier to rest she fell into the water.

From papers found in Mrs. Truman's possession, it was learned that she was formerly Miss Mary Gill of San Francisco. Her husband, John Truman, was when he married her, about 1870, an immensely wealthy California miner. In 1875 they went to Costa Rica and other Central and South American countries and the great fortune of the husband was lost and he became involved in a law suit and in 1886 he died at Trinidad.

GILLOW'S BILLS

FOR HORSE AND WAGON ARE APPROVED.

At a special meeting of the committee on accounts in the office of the city auditor last night two bills in the lands and buildings department for the purchase of a horse and democrat wagon were approved.

THOMAS HICKEY DEAD.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

FALL RIVER, Aug. 8.—Thomas F. Hickey, one of the best known newspaper men in southeastern Massachusetts, died at his home on Locust street at an early hour this morning, after a lingering illness, attributed to overwork. He had been connected with the Daily Globe for many years, becoming well known through his work in connection with the Borden murder case. Of late years he served the Globe as political reporter and was also correspondent of the Boston Herald. Mr. Hickey served one term as registrar of voters. He was about 30 years of age.

TOWNE OUT

He Withdraws From the Populist Ticket

By Associated Press to The Sun.

DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 8.—Former Congressman Charles A. Towne, who was nominated for the vice-presidency by the populist national convention, held at Sioux Falls, in May, yesterday sent a letter to the committee of notification.

The letter is addressed to Hon. P. M. Ringdal, chairman, and the members of the committee on notification of the candidate for vice-president of the people's party national convention held at Sioux Falls, S. D., May 9 and 10.

After reviewing the movements and the various conventions and the causes leading up to the present situation in a historical way, Mr. Towne says:

"It was, of course, the expectation of your convention that its nomination for the vice-presidency would prove acceptable to parties called to meet in Kansas City on the 4th of July.

"The silver republicans, 1330 delegates, representing 28 states and territories, were indeed eager to name the ticket chosen at Sioux Falls, but to the great democratic convention another course commended itself.

"The name of your nominee was presented to that convention and was received with remarkable demonstrations of approval by the enormous number of citizen spectators, and with the utmost respect by the delegates. But geographical considerations and the fact that in certain parts of the country it was deemed wise to defer to a sentiment demanding that the candidate should be a man already identified with the democratic organization, not only by holding its principles and advocating its cause, but also by name and profession, determined the selection of Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, a man of unimpeachable character and of ripe political experience, who, as a member of congress more than 20 years ago, was a close associate and co-laborer of Gen. J. B. Weaver and other great leaders in the reform political movements of that day, and who, as vice-president from 1893 to 1897, distinguished himself by rebelling against the betrayal of democratic principles by President Cleveland.

MILLS SHUT DOWN

A Curtailment all Over New England

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—It was reported in Waltham today that textile manufacturers throughout New England had agreed to curtail production during the present month and September. Smaller reports have been in circulation in other cities, where there are cotton mills, during the past few days, but treasurers of corporations who have their offices in this city have declined to verify the rumors. It is recognized that the cotton manufacturing industry is not in first class shape at the present time and many mills have announced a curtailment later are idle just now, but as far as can be ascertained there is no general binding agreement having effect in all New England states. Thirty or more concerns of Fall River are stopping their machinery at different periods, practically all the mills there having agreed to curtail four weeks.

Cotton men in Boston have paid considerable attention to the condition of the market of late and have watched the effect of the Fall River move with interest. Some of them have decided that they will close their mills for a number of weeks, while others will only order part of the machinery stopped. It is believed that quite a number of other mills may join the movement, but if a written agreement is in existence, the fact had not been made public here up to this afternoon.

Among the corporations which, it is announced, will close in whole or in part for two weeks, are the Boston Manufacturing company of Waltham, Laconia and Pepperell mills of Biddeford, Me.; York corporation of Saco, Me.; Great Falls mills of Somerville, N. H., and one or two small mills in Rhode Island. The Tremont and Suffolk mills of Lowell are contemplating a shutdown for two weeks and the Amoskeag company of Manchester, N. H., will stop part of its machinery for a time, but it is said the latter company takes this step to allow some departments to catch up in their work with the others rather than to diminish the output.

GETS COMMISSION

Former Lowell Man Honored by President

IS MADE LIEUTENANT OF REGULARS

Is Now Serving in Philippines

Among the recent army appointments by President McKinley is that of Charles Leonard to be a second lieutenant, in the regular army. Lieut. Leonard is a native of Boston but lived nearly all his life in Lowell. He is 26 years of age and left here a few years ago to go to Washington. During the Spanish-American war he served in a district of Columbia regiment and at present is in the Philippines with the 21st U. S. Infantry.

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT.

This evening at 7.15 in Pawtucketville, the American band, P. J. Burleigh, conductor, will render the following program:

PART I.

March—"The Vindicator" .... Heed
Overture—"The Bohemian Girl" .... Balfe
a "The Blue and the Gray" .... Dressler
b Parody on the "Arkansas Traveller" Lovenberg
c "A Coon Band Contest" .... Pryor
Cornet Solo—"The Holy City" .... Adams
Mr. A. F. Nevers.
Medley—"Off and On" .... Beyer

PART II.

March—"Soldiers of Uncle Sam" Ramsdell
Duo for cornet and trombone—"Miserere," Verdi
Messrs. Nevers and Lewis.
a "Hisbanese" .... Collins
b Characteristic "Freaks of Blackville" Dalbey
Excerpts from "Faust" .... Gounod
Finale—"At the Civens" .... Reese

Soloists—Mr. Arthur F. Nevers, cornet; Nate H. Lewis, trombone.

PERSONAL.

Miss Ida Leach, the popular saleslady at the Bon Marche spent Sunday with friends in Roxbury, Mass.

Miss Molly Ivers of St. Peter's church choir will enjoy her vacation at Stafford Springs, Conn.

Mrs. Michael H. Connolly and son Walter, of 47 Fifth street, start on next Saturday for a sojourn at Salisbury beach.

Mr. John J. Higgins, the genial clerk at C. H. Molloy's undertaking establishment, has returned from a very enjoyable vacation at Yarmouth, N. S.

Mrs. Josephine McKennedy, organist at St. Peter's church, will resume her vacation tomorrow, her objective points being Swampscott, Marblehead and Manchester-by-the-sea.

Mrs. Clarence O. Esterbrook, of 10 Hazeltine street, has gone to Woodstock, Bethel, and other points of interest in Vermont for three weeks.

Mr. Wm. Howe formerly a salesman at the Belvidere market but now located with H. C. Rose, wholesale and retail provision dealer of Hartford, Conn., is spending a week's vacation as the guest of Mr. Eugene Billings of the Middlesex Steam Laundry.

GONE BROKE

STEVE L'HOMMEDIEU LOST ALL HIS MONEY.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Steve L'Hommedieu, the plunger, lost $500,000 recently—if he had it.

In 1888 and 1889 L'Hommedieu made a fortune on the turf. Last fall he was asked by Robert Pinkerton to stay away from the tracks. He then plunged in the pool rooms. Fortune smiled on him for a time, but during the winter he failed to select winners at New Orleans. He lost heavily, and in order to recoup he began plunging at roulette in the Hot Springs gambling houses. At one sitting he lost 360,000. Several bad turns made him a big loser.

L'Hommedieu's finances became so low that he had to sell a number of his horses. Just at this point of his ill-luck several of the animals were so badly injured in a railroad accident that they subsequently died. This and a few bad plays practically broke Steve, so he became a very small bettor.

He took a fling at the wheel a few days ago at Saratoga and again lost. This was the remnant of his fortune. He played at a Park row resort and lost again. He gave "markers" and has failed to settle them. This has caused his creditors to raise a cry that he has welched. His finances have been so badly shattered during the past four months that few have paid any attention to him.

CABINET RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LIMA, Peru, Aug. 8, via Galveston.—President Romana has accepted the resignation of the Rivaguero cabinet, tendered yesterday afternoon and has named Dr. Rivaguero president of the new cabinet and minister of foreign affairs. Nothing is settled as to who the new ministers will be, but their names will probably be definitely known tonight.

The Mathews expect to have Hon. Thomas J. Gargan as a speaker before the society some time in November.

FATAL SHOOTING

As the Result of a Drunken Brawl

AT A PROVIDENCE SUMMER RESORT

One Man Locked up by the Police

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 8.—A fatal shooting affray occurred down the river early this morning, at Camp White. Earl M. Dexter of 200 High street, Pawtucket, was shot and almost instantly killed by George A. Baldwin, of Baltimore, Md.

It was a little before 3 o'clock when the shooting occurred and at 4.30 o'clock Baldwin was lodged in jail. Baldwin says that he was in company with one Gertrude McDonald, occupying a room in a lodging house at Camp White. Shortly after 2 o'clock two men came to the door and threatened to break it in. One said that he was a detective and wished to be admitted at once. Baldwin got up and opened the door and one of the men demanded that he give them a dollar. Baldwin said that he gave them a half dollar, and they went out, but soon came back and began to batter on the door again. Baldwin fled to the "Good Luck" hotel, and asked a friend named Donovan to come back to the house with him, and secured his revolver before going out again. He then proceeded with Donovan back to the house where the trouble had occurred. Between the dance hall and the hotel, they met Dexter, who was intoxicated and Frank Woodlock of Brockton, Mass. He and Donovan entered into conversation, the latter advising him to get Dexter out of the way until he got over his drunk.

While they were talking Dexter and Baldwin engaged in an altercation and Dexter started to chase young Baldwin. Two or three shots were fired, but Dexter continued his pursuit and Baldwin finally shot him through the abdomen, where he lay groaning when Donovan and Woodlock arrived. He expired shortly afterward and Donovan and Baldwin went back to the "Good Luck" and went to bed.

Earl M. Dexter, the man who was shot, was 21 years old. Baldwin is 23 years old and rather small.

SPENCER JAILED

BELIEVED HE HAD RIGHT TO WHIP HIS WIFE.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

TRENTON, Missouri, Aug. 8.—Edward Spencer, a prominent farmer in a justice court was found guilty of beating his wife and was sentenced to jail and to pay a fine. The prosecution was forced by Spencer's neighbors, who declared if the law did not interfere they would. Spencer argued his own case, quoting Scripture to sustain his actions. Mrs. Spencer admitted she believed that according to the Bible her husband was in duty bound to whip her, but pleaded that he had gone beyond the limit. On one occasion she said, Spencer whipped her because she [illegible] and on another once because she would not wash a [illegible]. Spencer says he will carry the case to the higher courts.

STATIONARY FIREMEN

OPENED THEIR CONVENTION IN FALL RIVER.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 8.—The third annual convention of the State Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen opened in this city today with President Tierney presiding. Delegates were present from Boston, Brockton, Malden, Holyoke, Lawrence, Lowell, New Bedford, Springfield, Lynn and Fitchburg. Timothy Healy of New York, represents the National association.

A report on the condition of affairs in Fall River charged that several firemen here were working without licenses. Much indignation was expressed and a committee was appointed to wait upon Inspector Dyer in regard to the matter. In case they could not get a satisfactory reply from this official, they were instructed to visit Chief Wade.

The convention will be in session three or four days.

Among the business will be the election of two delegates to attend the National convention to be held in Peoria, Ill., September 19.

The Y. M. C. I. will soon begin to arrange its lecture course for the coming season. It is hoped to secure Gen. P. A. Collins of Boston as one of the speakers.

WEAVERS OUT.

The weavers of the Massachusetts cotton mills were notified today that their work would be stopped during next week.

BUBONIC PLAGUE

Caused 696 Deaths in the Philippines

AMERICANS MURDERED BY INSURGENTS

Ghastly Crime Committed by Desperadoes

By Associated Press to The Sun.

MANILA, July 13—via San Francisco, Aug. 8.—The paymaster's department is kept constantly busy arranging for the payment of the 55,000 officers and men of Uncle Sam's army now engaged in these islands. The disbursements are made every two months and the average sum required is something over $2,000,000.

Major Edie, president of the Manila board of health, has completed his report for the year which ended June 30. Official figures were kept by the board commencing with October, 1869. During the months from October to June, inclusive, the total number of deaths recorded was 8,352. During this period the total number of deaths, exclusive of Chinese, from the different classes of diseases was as follows:

Tuberculosis, 992; Beriberi, 612; malarial diseases, 378; diarrhoeal diseases, 1073; acute lung diseases, 691; typhoid fever, 41; small-pox, 7; bubonic plague, 150; leprosy, 16; measles, 4.

The death percentage during this period of nine months and estimating Manila's population to be 400,000, is about 28 per cent. During the months from January to June, the total number of deaths, including all classes, from bubonic plague was 698.

From many sections of the archipelago news of the atrocious murder of Americans and others by insurgents is received. Three American miners, Lorey, Springford, and Rickets, were murdered at Batan Island, and two loyal natives were killed at Santa Cruz.

A report of a ghastly crime in revenge for Major Maxino's capture by the Americans, comes through official channels. After Major Maxino was taken prisoner by our troops at Unisan, a gang of Tullsanese killed his father-in-law, his wife, four of his children and his nephew, butchering and torturing them and robbing the family of about $11,000 in money and jewelry.

A detachment of six men under Capt. C. H. Newbery of the 30th Infantry, with Major Maxino as their guide, encountered the desperadoes, killing nine and taking thirteen prisoners.

FOR MIDDLE-AGED WOMEN.

Two Letters from Women Helped Through the "Change of Life" by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I first wrote to you I was in a very bad condition. I was passing through the change of life, and the doctors said I had bladder and liver trouble. I had suffered for nine years. Doctors failed to do me any good. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, my health has improved very much. I will gladly recommend your medicine to others and am sure that it will prove as great a blessing to them as it has to me."—MRS. GEO. H. JUNE, 991 DeKalb Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Relief Came Promptly

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I had been under treatment with the doctors for four years, and seemed to get no better, I thought I would try your medicine. My trouble was change of life, and I must say that I never had anything help me so much as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Relief came almost immediately. I have better health now than I ever had. I feel like a new woman, perfectly strong. I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound all the credit, and would not do without her medicine for anything. I have recommended it to several of my friends. There is no need of women suffering so much for Mrs. Pinkham's remedies are a sure cure."—MAHALA BUTLER, Bridgewater, Ill.

Another Woman Helped

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during change of life and derived great benefit from its use."—MARY E. JAMES, 136 Coydon St., Bradford, Pa.

Why go humping around with a

LAME BACK

When you can get instant relief in a 10c. box of

JOHNSON'S KIDNEY PILLS 25 PILLS 10 CENTS POSITIVELY GUARANTEED

The best Kidney preparation on earth, and a 10-CENT BOX contains nearly as much as others sell for 50 cents. If your druggist will not supply you, send us five 2-cent stamps and get a box by mail.

The Johnson Laboratories, Inc., Phila

Omega Oil

Stiff Joints

Stiffness of the joints of the fingers or arms or legs can be cured better in warm weather than in the winter. Cold weather seems to make the trouble worse. Begin now to rub the stiff joints with Omega Oil. It will supply the lubricant that is needed and remove the soreness and inflammation. Besides rubbing plenty of the Oil on, put some of it on cotton, and bind it over the joints during the night while you sleep. That's the way to get well.

A member of the firm of G. S. Cheney & Co., 15 Union St., Boston, relates that a well-known contractor of Somerville, Mass., with whom he is acquainted, had a stiff finger, which he could not bend for some years. A single application of Omega Oil took all the stiffness out of his finger in three hours. 720

Goods the Same, Prices Lower, That's All.

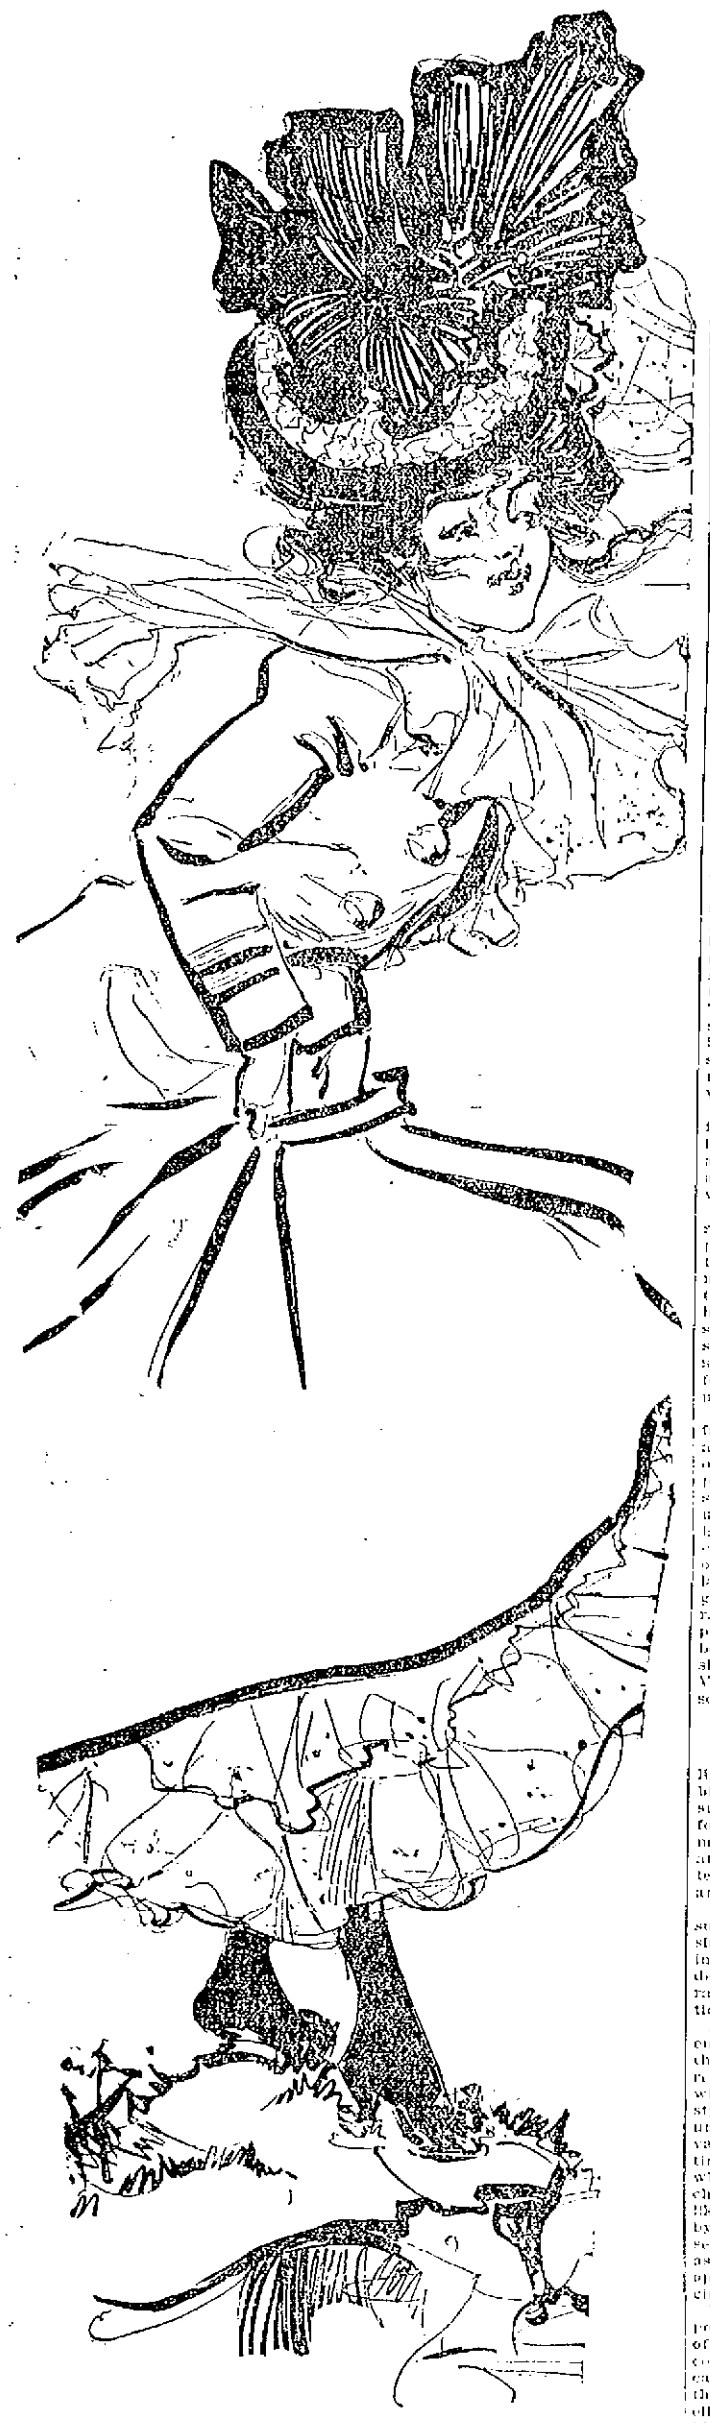

Here are a few samples of the bargains we are now offering in Ladies' Shoes:

$2.50 Black Vici Kid Oxfords, kid tips, now	$1.69
$2.50 Black Vici Kid Oxfords, patent tips, now	$1.69
$3.50 Black Vici Kid Boots, Goodyear welt, now	$2.39
$1.50 Black Dongola Oxfords, now	$1.19
$1 Children's Tan Boots, sizes 8 1-2 to 10 1-2	79c.
$1 Tan Oxfords, now	89c.
$1.50 Tan Juliets, now	$1.19

BURBANK & COURTNEY, 110 and 112 Merrimack Street.

TELEPHONE 536-13.

HERE YOU SEE THE SUMMER GIRL IN SPORTIVE MOOD.

HEAVY WHITE PIQUE DRESSES ARE WORN WITH JACKETS TO MATCH, TRIMMED WITH LARGE PEARL BUTTONS.

PICTURE GOWNS NOW THE STYLE.

The Quaint Fashions of the Earlier Part of the Century Have Been Revived Charmingly.

LACE COATS ARE IN STYLE.

Paris, June 28.—Were you to spend an hour at any of the little shore resorts, where fashionable folk congregate during the heated term, you would decide that fashions had turned toward the picturesque, not slightly but with a vigor that left no doubt of their intention.

Revivals are always picturesque and the resurrection of the sleeve of 1830 leaves nothing to be desired in point of artistic and antique beauty. And so with the Watteau sleeves: in fancy you see those wonderful Shepherdesses with their crooks, stalking after their well behaved sheep, while their marvelously graceful garments never lost as much as a fold or a tint, by the exposure and the broiling sun

Since the fancy for the tight waisted gown departed all women look alike in figure. There is no strong point of dissimilarity between the lean and the fat; the hour glass waist has departed and with it went the awful meat bag figure. The box fronted corset has taken the place of the tight waisted one and the figures of women have benefitted.

The best ladies' tailors do not advise the box corset but prefer a rather straight one that can be well pulled down in front, leaving the bust high above it. Over this can be drawn the pointed waist; and the result is better than in the perfectly straight box front which, if anything, made the waist a little too large.

The particular novelty of the moment is the summer coat. Its name sounds warm but the nature is cool. The little coats are made of lace, of tulle, of muslin insertion, of unlined taffeta and net. The object of the thin little coat is to give the finish which a coat always gives a gown and to take away the shirt waisted appearance of the toilette. One of these little coats was cut in blazer fashion, with the fronts well open and finished in points caught together by a lace strap. The sleeves were rudimentary affairs with only the tiniest lace epaulettes upon the shoulder. The entire little garment was of net lace, bordered with silk embroidery, and figured with appliques of silk.

Another of these decidedly novel little coats was of white embroidered taffeta, cut bolero style, with very tight fitting sleeves to the elbow; the front was fastened by a bow of black tulle with a buckle in the middle.

One that was much admired was of white pique, cut cadet fashion, with two tiny points extending below the belt line. The front was slashed to make a very effective finish, for, through the slashed front, could be drawn the ends of the big bow which was worn at the throat.

Nothing could exceed the picturesque beauty of the neck bow which, since it has reached such proportions, is known by many names the most popular of which is the "chiffon." One of the most decorative of these chiffons consists of a strip of heavy lace net embroidered in black silk, with scalloped ends. This is brought around the neck, tied under the chin, and so disposed that the ends fall nearly to the foot of the skirt in front. They are held in place so that they do not float in the wind—with the straps that confine the little blazer coat.

It is very chic to draw your streamers through your strappings to keep them from that blow-away appearance so noticeable when long veils were worn a few seasons ago. For these long neck arrangements all kinds of thin materials are employed, tulle and gauze net taking the lead. The manner of arrangement, too, is varied, but the fashionable milliners who sell the chiffons along with the hats advise the big bow under the chin with its long ends.

Attention once more concentrates upon the bodice which is as varied as possible. It is the two-part bodice with blouse and jacket both as distinctly fashioned as possible. The blouse, as all bodices are now called by the modistes, is again sub-divided and has its own vest.

THE LITTLE VEST.

Vests are delightfully fancy. They are made of washable goods and are carried out in piece lace and satin ribbon, white being the best color. For a vest nothing is as serviceable and as fashionable as the strip of fine embroidery with its band of satin ribbon alternating with the embroidery. They set the bands in the vest diagonally, a band of ribbon and a strip of lace. They also made the vest in pointed design, the points exactly in front. Striped material of the exquisitely thin summer goods is used and to accentuate the point a pointed yoke is outlined with a narrow ruffle.

A very simple yoke can be made of figured muli. The middle of the front is shirred at intervals of three inches and a band of black velvet is fastened across the shirring. The ends of the velvet may be finished by a tiny buckle.

In bodices many new materials are seen; it would seem as though the supply were inexhaustible. Just as you think you have seen every variety of new goods, behold you find something that is a novelty. The manufacturers have been turning out new designs all summer and the dealers have had a constantly renewed supply. The trend is still toward the very thin goods made for bodice purposes, over a heavier material.

Among the most elegant of the new fabrics are those of ochre guipure over a silk lining, or of white or cream silk over which sprays of flowers are painted in water-colors. This last style is the latest cry of fashion, but unless you paint the flowers yourself it is an extremely expensive one. Your correspondent has seen white taffeta over which a few sprays of roses or lilac were painted, sold for four or five guineas a yard, which certainly seems rather extravagant. For half the price and less, you can have the most beautiful crepe-de-chine in the softest shades of color, and the most lovely Venetian point over faille or peau-de-soie.

THE SOFT SILKS.

Soft silks, such as eolienne or bengaline, also make up extremely pretty blouses, and silk crepon is particularly suitable for the purpose. So much for dressy blouses; simpler ones are made of fancy delaine, or better still at the present season of washing materials, such as pique, zephyr, cambric, and batiste.

One of the prettiest novelties of the summer is fancy batiste, with patterns simulating narrow tucks or open-work insertion. The tucks and open-work designs, fancifully clustered and arranged, form a variety of patterns particularly suitable to the purpose.

As to trimmings for skirts and waists embroidery still reigns supreme, but this season's embroideries in no wise resemble those of last year, or even last winter. There are a variety of new styles. One of the newest and most unique is that formed of "paillettes" of various materials, chiefly pique, fancy tiny circles resembling "confetti," of white or colored pique, cut out by machine. These circles are employed just like paillettes, being fastened on either by one stitch in the middle, or by being sewn on one side only at the edge, so as to be able to be raised up on the opposite side and overlap other similar circles.

Very effective patterns are thus composed, and not only of pique, but also of cloth, silk, velvet, or panne; but, of course, only materials of a firm texture can be employed in this way, otherwise the edges would soon become unravelled. Cloth and velvet paillettes combined make up extremely pretty patterns of flowers in pale tints. The leaves and stems which complete the patterns are worked in fine silk cord, chenille, or very narrow fancy silk galloons of several shades of color, and sometimes in open work patterns.

Some of these galloons are plain, and some waved; most of them can be made to turn and twist at pleasure by merely drawing a thread let in at one edge for the purpose.

Ancient Medical Recipes.

A famous English Egyptologist has discovered that many of the queer medical recipes found in old English and German books come from the ancient Egyptians. They were not known to the Greeks, but were spread from Salerno, the great medical school of the Middle Ages, to which they must have come through Coptic and Arabic translations.

Mock Gems.

It is no longer considered an error against taste to wear mock gems under certain conditions—namely, set in buckles for the waist belt or neck ribbon, as well as to ornament hats and bonnets with them. The shops in which this sinalle jewelry is shown make the most gorgeous displays and the designs are often uncommonly good, being generally copied from Louis XV. or Louis XVI. models.

THE CAMPAIGN AS A WOMAN SEES IT.

By Mary Baird Bryan.

There is an excellent reason which keeps me from giving a detailed account of the journeys made during the last campaign. To rise with the lark, and sometimes even earlier; to eat meals upon the instalment plan; to receive local committees, and in turn be received by several thousand people daily, and to retire late, do not leave a great deal of time for meditation or for the keeping of a diary. I cannot, then, speak in detail, because I do not remember the campaign in that way.

It takes no acute observation to find that certain elements in all crowds are the same. We came to expect these types in every gathering and were not disappointed. They grew to be old friends. The man who has not voted for twenty years; the man who has vowed that he will shake the candidate's hand, and who does it at all hazards; the man who voted for Jackson; the man who exhorts the speaker to "hit 'em again," and the man who voted for Lincoln but is "going to scratch his ticket this year" are some of the faithful.

But the greatest of these, the same in all climates and sections, in city and in country, untiring, energetic and omnipresent, is the American small boy. So much has been written of him that it seems folly to add my words of mention of him. He was first to greet us at every station, running far down the track to meet the train, and whether his mission was to shout for the nominee, or to inform him that he was "in the soup" and "no good," the work was always done with neatness and dispatch.

From freight cars and engines, from roofs of depots, from trees and fences, his shrill little voice could be distinguished through any din. If the candidate failed to appear as soon as the train stopped, pushing and scrambling went on outside. Strong little hands ratched the window frames and dirty faces peered in. "Why don't he come out?" "Say, I played hooky to see him;" "Which is him?" "Where is he at?" "I say, there, come out," were some of the phrases belonging to such occasions.

But with all his apparent loyalty to principle, I discovered that this youth is full of guile. I have seen him more than once slip off his yellow badge and hide it in order to get a button from my hand. At other times he has shouted long and loud for "honest money," and fought the next minute to secure a flower from my bouquet.

But with all these little tricks peculiar to boyhood, he was a pleasing factor in the campaign. Faithful to the last, he ran after the train until he was exhausted. I found great amusement in dropping apples of discord, looking strangely like campaign buttons, along the track and watching the exciting contests which followed. More than once did I fervently wish that all this wealth of energy and push may be directed in paths of sobriety and good citizenship. Our country needs no other safeguard.

To my mind, night meetings rank first in point of effectiveness. The small space saved from the grasp of darkness by blazing torches, the sharp outlines, the ghost-like flutter of banners in the twilight rim of the crowd, the intensity of sound which comes with the night, combine to make an impressive scene.

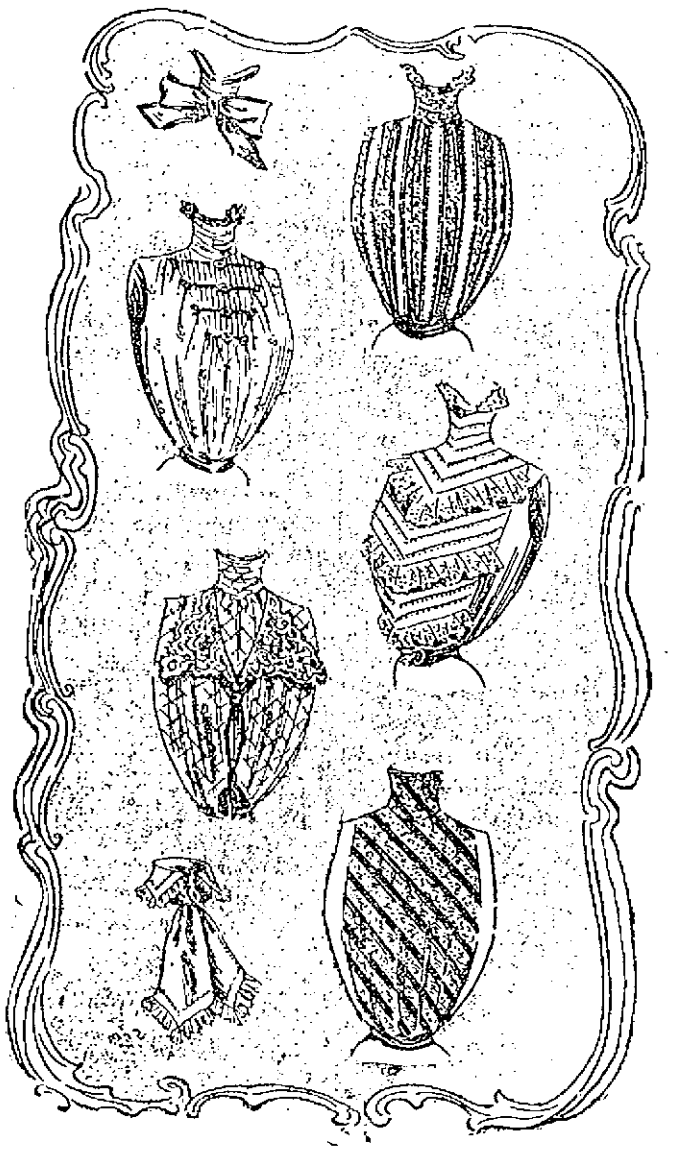

I recall with especial pleasure one picture in our reception at Cleveland, Ohio. The time of our coming was particularly opportune, namely, at the early twilight. Before us rose a massive arch, seemingly a bit of ancient Rome transplanted for our pleasure. This effect was heightened by the soldiers' monument at our right whose tall shaft in the uncertain light did duty as the column of Trajan. Crowded upon its pedestal and at its base, filling streets, windows and even trees, was a multitude of cheering people, while thousands of flags waved us a gentle welcome. I cite this, one of many instances, to show that the artistic sense may find gratification even in a campaign.

Among the more unusual features may be mentioned the interest taken by women. This activity was not confined to any one party, but was found everywhere. Personally, I am glad the women were aroused. This movement does not involve the question of woman suffrage.

For several years I have felt that home is the place to make good citizens. When the women of our land have a knowledge of the way our Government is administered, and can give the child an intelligent answer to his questions, the child will take an interest and pride in his future citizenship. When husband and wife discuss at home the acts of our legislatures and the effect of laws upon the people, there will be less of successful lobbying by corporations and railroads.

When families look into the advantages of municipal ownership of lighting and water plants; when they study the practical workings of these reforms as seen in European cities, there will be changes in municipal government. A knowledge along these lines makes a woman a better wife and mother and trains young people to prize our institutions.

As the athletic girl has superseded the timid weakling of a few years ago, is it too much to hope that a thorough knowledge of our Government may soon be considered as essential as any branch of her education?

The new soft fronts for blazers and reefers are made of a variety of pretty goods. These fronts can be worn not only with summer dresses but with fall gowns until very late in the autumn. You can see from these pictures exactly how the little fronts are fashioned.

FRED. BRYAN.

TWO OF THE NEWEST AND PRETTIEST HATS OF LATE SUMMER.

The embroidered bolero is caught in the middle of the front with a big soft bow of tulle in the middle of which is a buckle of gold; there are many varieties of shape in these new jackets, all of which have their commendable features. Hats are made to match them in color and material.

The Sea Maiden.

She Will Wear a Fitted Skirt With Pointed Waist and Big Sailor Collar.

The size of the waist of the sea maiden has increased many inches since last summer. The new French figure demands that the bodice be brought down to a very low point in front, at least three inches below the old beltline, though no lower in the back. This makes the waist much larger, but gives it a beautiful curve much admired by artists.

The ideal material for the seashore is wool. Let it be light-weight cashmere, or challie, or the many thin novelty wools, whatever may be their kind or nature there is nothing that is as comfortable by the sea as wool.

A plain skirt with flounces for depth of six or eight inches around the foot, or with wide flounces twice that depth is sure to be in style this season. The waist may be over so simple a blouse to be worn over a shirt waist of any colored muli or muslin.

They are wearing little silk vests under these blouses and are tying ribbons at the front of the blouse to match the vest.

Charming little cutaway jackets are now made with open front and scalloped edges. They are worn with the very long ficlu of lace tied in a big bow under the chin, with ends hanging nearly to the floor. Embroidered lace is used for both the jacket and the ficlu. A perfectly plain gown needs no other ornaments than these.

ON VACCINATION

Doctors Disagree as to Its Usefulness

MODERN METHODS OF DISINFECTION

In Use by Local Health Department

In an interesting communication in Tuesday's Sun Dr. A. Thompson comes out against the wholesale practice of vaccination, stating that it will not stop disease and calling for the more general use of carbolic acid for fumigating purposes on the ground that it is a far more effective preventive of small-pox than vaccination.

The communication has attracted considerable attention among physicians and one of them, a firm believer in vaccination, in discussing the matter with The Sun reporter said: "The question of vaccination is one upon which medical authorities disagree. Some believe in it; others do not. For instance Chairman Packer of the board of health and Dr. A. Thompson are of the same school of medicine, homeopathic. Dr. Packer believes in wholesale vaccination and Dr. Thompson does not believe in it at all. So there you are."

Dr. Thompson in his contention for the use of carbolic acid writes: "In 1871, experience told us that the fumes of carbolic acid would prevent another case breaking out, even if there were a dozen persons in the house where a real case of small-pox had been treated from beginning to end. It is a part of my experience. The epidemic was only stopped, then, after the city brought this acid into general use as they would a cologne, I used it in a dozen families or more, when I found a case, and a second case did not occur. Why not use so economical a factor, instead of forcing people into a submission to what is so revolting to them? I know the acid to be infinitely superior to vaccination as a preventive."

The Sun reporter asked Agent Knapp what disinfectants are in use by the board of health department and he replied: "Formaldehyd gas and sulphur dioxide." The reporter then looked up "Formaldehyd gas." The American Public Health association recently sent out in pamphlet form a Lowel Prize Essay written by George M. Sternbrig, M. D., L.L.D., Surgeon-General of the U. S. Army, on the subject of "Disinfection and Individual Prophylaxis Against Infectious Diseases."

The article opens as follows: "It will be our aim in the present chapter to give reliable, practical directions with reference to the use of disinfectants, and the best methods of disinfection. Keeping this object in view, we shall recommend for disinfecting purposes only those agents named in the following list:

1. Fire.
2. Steam under pressure (20 pounds).
3. Boiling water.
4. Formaldehyd gas.
5. Chloride of lime (in solution).
6. Mercuric chlorid (in solution).
7. Carbolic acid (5 per cent. solution).
8. Caustic lime ("quicklime").
9. Dry heat (230 degrees Fahr for two hours).
10. Sulphur dioxid.
11. Copper sulphate (in solution).
12. Zinc chlorid (in solution).

All of these agents, properly used, are effective for the destruction of the "germs" of the following named diseases: Tuberculosis, diphtheria, typhoid fever, yellow fever, cholera, small-pox, measles, pneumonia, epidemic influenza erysipelas, hog cholera, chicken cholera, some plague, infectious pleuro-pneumonia of cattle, and in general, of all infectious diseases in which the specific germ does not form spores. The four agents at the head of the list may also be relied upon for the destruction of the spores of anthrax, tetanus and symptomatic anthrax.

Thus it may be seen that the local health board uses a disinfectant which eminent medical authority places several points ahead of carbolic acid.

The essay then refers to formaldehyd gas as follows: "Since the first edition of this 'prize essay' was published (in 1886) the most valuable addition to our knowledge of disinfecting agents has been the discovery of the germicidal action of formaldehyd, and this gas is now largely used for the disinfection of clothing, hospital wards, etc., as a substitute for steam or for sulphur dioxid. But like these agents its action is superficial and it cannot be depended upon for the disinfection of mattresses, pillows, rolls of clothing or bedding, etc., as is the case with chlorine and sulphur dioxid, its germicidal power is increased by the presence of moisture and by a high temperature.

Formaldehyd gas is irritating to the mucous membrane of the eyes and nose, but it is not poisonous.

Thus, since the epidemic of Dr. Thompson's time, science has discovered new agents, and where once carbolic acid was the great disinfectant, it is now only one of many.

Don't miss that five-mile pursuit race between Carel, Ingraham, Keegan and Hamilton—Saturday.

RECRUITS EXAMINED.

Major Dow of Wakefield was at the state armory last night and examined five applicants for admission to Co. C.

—CANDY—

ESCULETTS

CURE PILES

and all rectal disorders, or money refunded. Pleasant. No Physic. A radical cure, 50c at

Goodale's Drug Store,
Joseph W. Fitch,
Albert L. Field,
A. F. Story & Co.,
Carter & Sherburn,
Geo. C. Osgood, M.D.,
O. L. Field,
Fails & Burkinshaw,
East Merrimack Drug Store,
Harry L. Timmons,
C. E. Carter,
Harrison Lake.

IF YOU SEE A

well dressed man's foot, the chances are it wears the "Contents" $3 shoe. Greatest shoe value in this world or any other world. Made to fit people. For sale only by

GEO. E. MONCEAU,
452 Merrimack St.

JOHN W. McEVOY
Counsellor-at-Law
And Public Administrator.
137 Central Street. Tel. 639-4

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

There was a meeting of the Mathew Temperance Institute in the M.T.I. hall Tuesday evening. Final arrangements were made for the picnic that they intend to hold next Saturday at Canobie Lake. The matter of the time and method of opening up the fall season was also discussed at some length.

STAR OF LOWELL CIRCLE.

Two candidates were initiated at the meeting of Star of Lowell Circle C. of F. Tuesday evening. Three names were proposed for membership and other matters of routine business were transacted.

GARFIELD COLONY.

Garfield Colony of the Pilgrim Fathers held its regular meeting Tuesday evening. The picnic committee reported that the outing would take place at the Salem Willows Labor Day.

FORESTERS' GROWTH.

The report from the Foresters for the quarter ending June 30 shows the order to be in a very flourishing condition. There has been an increase in membership of 1840 persons and six new courts have been formed. There will be seven more new courts formed within the month.

S. H. HINES LODGE.

Nothing but regular business was transacted at the meeting of S. H. Hines Lodge, Knightes of Pythias, Tuesday evening. The lodge will be more active when fall arrives.

COURT SAMUEL DE CHAMPLAIN.

There was a meeting of Court General Champlain, Foresters, in Foresters' hall Tuesday evening. Regular business was attended to.

LEXINGTON COUNCIL.

There was a meeting of Lexington Council of the American Mechanics in Union hall Tuesday evening. Routine matters of business were transacted.

LINCOLN LODGE.

Lincoln Lodge held its regular meeting Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. Matters of regular routine, business occupied most of the evening.

LOWELL COMMANDERY.

A regular business meeting of Lowell Commandery, Knights of Malta, was held Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. Routine business was transacted and candidates were nominated for the election which takes place at the next meeting.

DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY.

A basket picnic will be held at the residence of Mrs. P. F. Brett, 30 Dutton street, this afternoon and evening, Aug. 9th, by the members of the Daughters of Liberty.

OBERLIN LODGE.

Oberlin Lodge of Odd Fellows held a regular meeting Tuesday evening. Nothing of much importance was done.

NEPTUNE LODGE.

Neptune lodge will entertain the past wardens of the New England Order of Protection of Massachusetts, at Odd Fellows' temple, this evening.

CALEDONIAN CLUB.

Tuesday night the Caledonian club made final arrangements for a picnic on Saturday. Special train leaves Middlesex street depot at 2 o'clock. It was voted to open rooms about first meeting after Labor Day with a smoke talk. Three new members and twelve applications were received.

J. P. MAXFIELD CIRCLE.

Tuesday night J. P. Maxfield circle, G. A. R., held one initiation. Mrs. Rolfe of Chicago addressed the meeting in brief, telling of its flourishing condition in the west.

EIRENE LODGE.

There was a meeting of Eirene lodge, Good Templars, in Pilgrim hall last evening. Matters of routine were disposed of.

ORDER OF PROTECTION.

The three lodges of the New England Order of Protection will entertain Thursday evening at Odd Fellows' temple Middlesex street. A trolley party of 100 members of the Past Wardens association of Massachusetts is coming from Boston.

SPINDLE CITY CIRCLE.

Last night Spindle City circle, No. 19, F. of A., held five initiations and received four propositions.

UNITED WORKMEN.

Last night Lowell lodge, No. 22 A. O. U. W., held two initiations and received two propositions. F. E. Trofry, deputy G. M. W. from Andover, gave a stirring address. A partially decided new matter of unus and interest will be decided upon at the next meeting.

SPINDLE CITY CIRCLE.

Four candidates were initiated at the meeting of Spindle City Circle, Companions of the Forest last evening. There were also five names proposed for membership also. A very interesting address was listened to by Deputy Burns of Lawrence.

CENTRALVILLE LODGE.

The regular meeting of Centralville lodge, I. O. O. F., was held in their hall last evening. Nothing outside the regular order of business was done. The lodge will be more active when the fall season commences.

MECHANICS' LODGE.

The regular meeting of Mechanics' lodge, I. O. O. F., was held in Odd Fellows' hall last evening. Matters of routine business were transacted.

EMULUS THOMPSON COMMANDERY.

Emulus Thompson Commandery, Golden Cross, held its regular meeting last evening in Union hall. Most of the evening was occupied by routine business.

CROSSED WIRES.

The office of the Erie Telephone and Telegraph company suffered from another fire by crossed wires last night. Only two wires were affected, and no damage to the building was done.

SYRUP OF FIGS

Acts Pleasantly and Promptly.

Cleanses the System Gently and Effectually when bilious or costive.

Presents in the most acceptable form the laxative principles of plants known to act most beneficially.

TO GET ITS BENEFICIAL EFFECTS

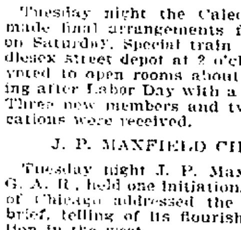

BUY THE GENUINE — MANF'D. BY

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

For sale by druggists — price 50¢ per bottle.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS

Everybody needs a stomach tonic occasionally to keep the bowels regular. For this purpose, as well as for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Liver and Kidney Disorders, there is nothing to equal the Bitters.

THE FINEST

BREAD :. CAKE and PASTRY

to be found in the city, at

PETER WATSON'S Home Made Bakeries

52 to 60 Charles St.,
48 Lawrence St.

Lawn Party, Picnic and Wedding Supplies a Specialty.

ONLY 24 of our Cold Blast Refrigerators left out of 200 this season. When these are gone we're through. We will close these out at cost price.

75 Iron Beds, regular price $5.00,

Sale Price $3.75

100 Sumatra Rugs, 30x60, going at

$1 Each

24 Art Squares, regular price $6.36,

Sale Price $3.75

JOHN T. CARTER'S,

Great Bargain Furniture Store.

511 Middlesex Street.

Call at once and get the plums.

W. A. LEW, 49 John St.
CLOTHING CLEANED DYED AND PRESSED

ROOFING AND CONCRETING.

Now is the time to stop the leaks in your roof. Estimates on roofing and concreting cheerfully furnished. All work guaranteed. Telephone 205-4.

JAMES WALSH, 186 Highland Ave Lowell

THOUSANDS ARE DYING . . .

In India for want of food. We are DYEING every day and giving new life to all FABRICS brought to the

Bay State Dye House

54 PRESCOTT STREET.

All Orders Promptly Attended to. Tel. 821-4.

IF YOU LOOK IN OUR WINDOWS

You will find that we keep the best Stock of Jewelry in the city of Lowell.

Our Prices will suit you.

J. A. LEGAULT & CO.,

Reliable Jewelers,

70 Central St., cor. Prescott.

NORTH BILLERICA

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ormrod have returned from their wedding tour.

No trace has yet been found of Miss Edith Lowe.

Miss Nellie Johnson and Miss Irene Roberts of Woodstock, Vt., are guests of Mr. L. N. Cummings, East Billerica.

Mr. Ernest Towle, Ed. Finnegan and Edw. Costello attended the John Doherty's picnic at Lynn yesterday.

Our genial Postmaster Maxwell went to N[illegible] yesterday and is said to have hypnotized a mermaid.

[illegible] have electric lights on Swinton avenue.

ALLAN LINE.

NEW YORK TO GLASGOW

Via Londonderry.

STATE OF NEBRASKA . AUG. 4
LAURENTIAN . . . . . AUG. 18
SARDINIAN . . . . . . AUG. 25

First Cabin, $50.00 and upwards. Second Cabin, $35.00; Return, $65.00; Steerage, $23.50; Prepaid, $21.00.

Steerage passengers from Boston allowed first-class fare to New York, via Fall River Line, free of charge.

For descriptive circulars, plans of steamers and other information, apply to H. & A. Allan, 93 State street, Boston, Mass., or

Dennis J. Murphy, 18 Appleton St

TAYLOR ROOFING CO.

Now is the time when patrons can get a low figure. Be sure and get their prices on your job. Grand roofing done in the best possible manner. All work warranted. Taylor Roofing Co., 140 Humphrey street. Telephone.

Nicholas G. Norcross

. . . INSURANCE . . .

53 Central St., Lowell.

BUILDING SITES

—ON THE—

EMERY LAND

New plot of land on the east side of Moody street now ready. There are some very choice lots in this plot of land, first come, first choice. Places, prices and terms at the office.

Low Prices. Easy Terms. Warranty Deeds.

Office open forenoons and evenings. On the land every afternoon. A. J. Ryan, Agent, 3 Hildreth building.

VAUDEVILLE

Town Hall, Billerica,

Friday, August 10, 1900

AT 8 P. M.,

IN AID OF THE SAILORS' HAVEN

46 Water St., Charlestown, Mass.

PROGRAM.

1. Mr. S. H. King, Supt. Sailors' Haven.
2. Duet.....Miss Lyons and Miss Hosmer
3. Monologue and Coon Songs
Mr. George Clifford.
4. Reading .... Mr. Staley
5. Song ....Miss Marion Manola
6. Buck and Wing Dancing .
Mr. Ed. Scanlon.
7. Song .... Mr. Beck
8. Bicycle Feats ......Mr. Caspar Brown
9. Song .... Miss Marion Manola
10. A Magic Mirror.

Admission 25c. Reserved seats 50c

Secure your ticket early and join with us in our efforts for the seamen.

HEIGHT OF THE

Blackberry Season

Selling Now For

8c. TO 10c. PER BOX.

Currants are very scarce on the market, but we are selling them at the low price of

5c. to 8c. Per Box.

There are a few Goose Berries left for 8c. to 10c. a box. Black Currants, 10c.

BLUEBERRIES are at their height now, 8c. to 12c.

GEORGIA PEACHES are very plentiful, at 15c. per dozen, 2 doz. for 25c.

NEW NATIVE APPLES, 5c. to 8c. per quart.

NATIVE POTATOES are becoming very scarce, but we are still selling them for 20c. to 25c. per peck.

SPRING CHICKEN, 15c. to 25c. per lb.

FOWL, 12 1-2c. to 15c. per lb.

You can find these and every other line that goes to make a complete meat, grocery, poultry and fish department store.

BANNER MARKET

Grocery and Butter House,

68 to 74 Prescott St.

OPEN EVENINGS..............Tel. 29-3.

Only a Few More Days

. . . OF . . .

GREAT CLEARANCE SALE AT 44 BRIDGE STREET

Only this week until Saturday, August 11, we will continue to

SACRIFICE OUR STOCK OF SKIRTS,

SHIRT WAISTS, JACKETS, TAILOR-MADE SUITS AND MILLINERY at the lowest prices ever heard of in the city. Come everybody to get a bargain in anything for a memory of the GREAT SALE AT 44 BRIDGE ST., Near Merrimack Square.

HAVE YOU ORDERED YOUR COAL?

If not you should do so while it is at the present low price. We have the kind that will suit you.

D. T. SULLIVAN, 984 Gorham Street

Branch Office, 227 Central St. Telephone.

WANTED.

AGENTS WANTED— $25 to $50 daily easily made by our live agents, men or women, selling our latest novelty, Campaign Waterproof neckties. Goods entirely new and patented. Agents delighted. Sales unlimited. What others do, you can do. Time is short. Write today and secure exclusive territory. Guaranteed best seller. Address, with stamp, M. & M. Manf. Co, Dept. C, Springfield, Mass.

WANTED—House girl, middle aged lady preferred. 18 Lenten court, off Charles street.

WANTED—A dressmaker. Call at A. Israel, 15 Westford street.

WANTED—Second hand safe. Send description as to size, make, etc., to P. O. Box 76.

WANTED—A table girl at 159 Appleton street.

WANTED—An experienced table girl and kitchen girl at once. Call at 57 Hancock street, Mass. Corp.

WANTED—Two girls to attend tables in a coffee house. Address 1/2 Market street, Olympia Coffee House.

WANTED—At once, a kitchen girl at 43 Fifth street.

WANTED—Good cook in private family. Apply at 11 Butterfield street.

WANTED—A local man to sell a few thousand shares in a first class copper mine which is now shipping ore. Address all communication to C. P. Russ, Haverhill, Mass.

SITUATION wanted in a meat and provision market or grocery, wholesale or retail. Six years experience. Inquire 52 Lee street.

SALESMEN wanted for Lowell to introduce staple specialties as a side line; party calling on architects, builders, owners of fine buildings, etc., preferred; this is a fine opportunity and a hustler can add several hundred dollars yearly to his income. Address "615 Drexel Building," Philadelphia, Pa.

WANTED—A table girl in private boarding house. Apply at Sun Office.

WANTED—By a young lady, a position in an office. Would do writing. Good references. Address O., Sun Office.

WANTED—An experienced girl would like position in a bakery or candy store. Good references. Address B., Sun Office.

WANTED—A kitchen girl at 179 Middlesex street.

WANTED—Three smart, capable men, French and English. Salary $12 per week. Short hours. See Mr. Lord, Room 8, Hildreth Building.

WANTED—Boys to learn the drug business. Apply to A. W. Dows & Co.

WANTED—Young man of ability and good appearance to canvass for life insurance. Room 31, Hildreth Building.

WANTED—A good cook at 1 and 2 Merrimack corporation.

WANTED—Pastry cook and table girl at Mrs. Varian's, 56 to 61 Lee street.

WANTED—House cleaning and washing of all kinds. Address 151 Charles street.

WANTED—Boarders at 37 Walker street.

WANTED—First class cap spindle grinder. Apply to William S. Spofford & Son, Providence, R. I.

WANTED—Experienced man who thoroughly understands the manufacturing and finishing of cotton hosiery. Apply, stating references and wages, to Vesta Knitting Mills, Providence, R. I.

WANTED—Man to work at vegetable farming. H. W. Foster, Andover street.

AGENTS—"Hat Bleach" cleans straw hats in five minutes; greatest seller out; sample 10c; write today. Hat Bleach Co., Xenia, O.

WANTED—A young girl wishes a situation as seamstress; can cut and fit; Apply 41 James street. Brott corporation.

Boston & Maine R. R.

Corrected to June 25, 1900. Trains leave Merrimack Street Depot, Lowell, as follows:

For Boston, 5.43, 6.22, c6.12, *7.45, *8.50, c9.15, *9.40, 11.00 a. m.; 1.40, c3.00, 4.25, c5.44 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.45 a. m.

Trains leave Middlesex Street Station, Lowell, as follows:

For Boston, 5.16, 6.23, *6.39, c6.45, w6.50, 7.01, *7.27, 7.31, *7.48, c7.50, w*8.00, *8.57, c9.19, w9.25, *9.50, w10.50, 11.03, *11.12 a. m.; w12.05, 12.16, w12.45, 1.41, *1.57, w2.25, w3.10, c3.05, *3.47, w3.55, *4.02, 4.28, w5.15, 5.22, c5.43, w6.15, *6.22, 7.00, *7.19, 8.42, w9.29 p. m. SUNDAYS, 6.30, 7.27, 8.48, 9.17 a. m.; 12.05, 4.05, 4.25, 5.59, 8.45 p. m.

For Lawrence and Haverhill, 6.23, w6.50, z7.31, w8.30, w9.15, 10.05, w10.50 a. m.; w12.05, w2.25, 3.55, 4.15, w5.15, w6.15, w7.00, w9.25, wb11.25 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.15 a. m.; 12.05, 6.30, 8.45 p. m.

For Salem, Mass., w6.23, 7.31, a. m.; w12.05, 1.25, w5.15, 6.03 p. m.

For Newburyport, Amesbury and Portsmouth, 8.23 a. m.; 12.05, 2.25, 3.55, 6.15 p. m.

For Haverhill, Newburyport, Hampton, North Hampton, Portsmouth and stations on York Beach railroad, 2.35 p. m., July 2 to Sept. 7 inclusive.

For Exeter and Dover, 6.25, 6.50, z7.34, 8.30 a. m.; 12.06, 3.55, 5.15 p. m. SUNDAYS, k8.35 a. m.; 6.30 p. m.

For Rochester and Alton Bay, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 3.55 p. m.

For Somersworth, N. H, Saco, Old Orchard and Portland, 6.24, 6.50, z7.34, 8.30 a. m.; 12.06, 3.55, 5.13 p. m. SUNDAYS, 6.30 p. m.

For Lewiston, Augusta, Bath, Waterville, 6.50, 8.30 a. m.; 12.06, 6.18 p. m. SUNDAYS, 6.30 p. m.

For Bangor, Belfast, Skowhegan and Rockland, 6.50, 8.30 a. m.; 5.18 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.36 p. m.

For St. John, N. B., Halifax, N. S., Montreal and Quebec, 6.50 a. m; 5.18 p. m. (5.18 does not run Saturdays). SUNDAYS, 6.30 p. m.

For Eastport and St. John (via steamer from Portland), on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 12.06 p. m.

For Castine, Deer Isle, Sedgewick, Bar Harbor, Jonesport and Machiasport (via steamer Frank Jones from Portland), Tuesday and Friday at 5.13 p. m.

For Woburn, 6.25, 7.04, 7.34, *7.48, 11.03 a. m.; 1.43, 4.28, 8.44 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.43 a. m.; 4.25, 5.55 p. m.

For stations between Winchester and Boston, Southern Division, 5.46, 6.28, 7.31, 7.41, 9.50, 11.03 a. m.; 1.43, 4.28, 5.22, 8.44 p. m. SUNDAYS, 6.20, 7.27, 8.45, 9.17 a. m.; 4.25, 5.55 p. m.

For Ayer Junction and Way Stations, 7.18 a. m.; 12.50, 3.01 and 5.42 p. m. SUNDAYS, 2.15 p. m.

For Amherst, Milford and Wilton, 9.08 a. m.; 1.00, 3.41 and 5.40 p. m. SUNDAYS, 2 p. m.

For Greenfield, Peterboro, Bennington, Hillsborough and Keene, 5.05 a. m., and 3.41 p. m. SUNDAYS, to Hillsboro, 2 p. m.

For Nashua, Manchester and Concord, 7.10, 9.05, *9.10, *10.00, *10.39 a. m.; *12.09, 1.00, *1.40, *1.51, 3.11, *5.40, 6.27, *8.10, *9.24 p. m. SUNDAYS, 10.00 a. m. (to Nashua only), 3.05 a. m.; 2.00, 6.02, 8.10, *9.24 p. m.

For Franklin, Lebanon, White River Junction, 9.05, *9.40 a. m.; *12.12, *1.40, 5.40, *a8.10 p. m.

For Warner, Bradford, Sunapee, Newport (N. H.) Claremont and Claremont Junction, 7.50, 9.08 a. m.; 1.40 p. m.; 3.41, s5.10 p. m. Saturday only till August 25th inclusive.

For St. Johnsbury and Lyndonville, via Wells River, 9.33 a. m.; *1.45, *a9.24 p. m.

For Montpelier, Essex Junction, Burlington, St. Albans, St. Johns and Montreal via Central Vermont line, *9.10 a. m.; *12.00, *a8.10 p. m.

For Montreal and Quebec, via Montreal and Boston Air Line, *10.39 a. m; *a9.24 p. m. QUEBEC EXPRESS, via Plymouth and Sherbrooke, *1.40, *a9.24 p. m.

References.
*Express.
a Daily.
b Wednesdays and Saturdays only.
c Via Bedford.
k To Exeter only.
s Saturday only.
w Via Western Division.
z Via Wilmington Junction.

D. J. FLANDERS, Gen. Pass. and Ticket Agent.
H. C. TAFT, General Agent, Lowell.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A lady's bicycle, Reading make, very cheap. Call at 76 Harrison street, Belvidere.

FOR SALE CHEAP—Two large boarding houses also nice rooms to let at 42 Tyler street.

FOR SALE—A lodging house of 10 rooms, furniture new, owner leaving city. Address O. R., Sun office.

FOR SALE—Puppies. Fine blooded hounds. Apply A. C. Williams, Steadman street.

FOR SALE—My market season being over, I will sell two young sound business horses cheap; weight 1100 lbs. Harry L. Shedd, South Lowell; P. O. 555 Lawrence street.

QUICK CURE for ladies in trouble; also nursing during confinement. Address Box E, West Fairlee, Vt.

FOR SALE—A boarding house corner of George and Emery streets. Inquire of Joseph Ashley, 21 Boott Corp.

FOR SALE—One new open piano box carriage, one Stevens Goddard, one Merler Goddard in first class order. Inquire at 11 Smith street.

FOR SALE—One horse, a cow, one Jersey heifer, 60 hens, and farm of 30 acres with house, barn, hen house, sheds, etc., situated next to Whittier Bros.' farm in Dracut, half way between Lowell and Lawrence. Will sell the live stock separately or together with farm. Easy terms. Bargain for somebody. Apply to Robert Galbraith on the premises or by mail. Address Lowell Creamery, care of Whittier Bros.

LADIES—Your bust enlarged 6 inches; failure impossible; harmless; $100 cash guarantee; proof free. Leonard Medicine Co., Kansas City, Kas.

FOR SALE CHEAP—A five-horse power motor. As good as new. John P. Quinn, Dix street, wood and coal dealer.

FOR SALE—Cigar store and pool room for sale. 189 Middlesex street.

FOR SALE—Restaurant, thriving business, well equipped, up-to-date, most popular in the city, owner retiring. $300 cash; only cash customers need apply at 145 Monroe street, room 25, Lynn, Mass.

FOR SALE—A National cash register, 30 keys in perfect order; also a small soda fountain at 313 Central street.

FOR SALE—Boarding house in central part of city, 10 rooms with bath, hot and cold water, at a bargain. Well furnished, sold on account of sickness. Address C 12, Sun Office.

FOR SALE—Ten R. I. P. A. N. S. for five cents at druggists. One gives relief.

LADIES' PET for sale, handsome golden sable white Scotch collie dog, improved stock with A1 pedigree. Apply Box Collie, Sun Office.

FOR SALE—Boarding house 15 rooms, full of men boarders at good prices; center of city of 10,000 inhabitants; home and business and chance to make money for small investment. For particulars address D. R., 9 Pine street, Milford, Mass.

FOR SALE—Plants for sale, 5000 tomatoes, 3000 pansies, 5000 asters, 8000 celery. Owing to poor health and not being able to market, I will make it an inducement to parties in need of plants to call on J. H. Call, Pollard street, North Billerica. Electrics pass the door. 5c. fare.

FOR SALE—Profitable lunch room in business section of city. Address L, Sun office.

FOR SALE—At a great sacrifice, a new two-story house for two families; seven rooms each with bath, hot and cold water, gas, hard wood floors, a good lot of land and barn, near 15th street. Inquire at 32 15th street.

FOR SALE—1-2 mile from Chelmsford Centre, six-room house, barn and shed, one acre of land, can be bought on easy terms. Price only $1100. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

FOR SALE—On Chapel Hill, two-tenement house and store all in first-class repair, large lot of land. This place can be bought low and on easy terms. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central.

FOR SALE—On Lawrence street, four-tenement block, pays 12 per cent. Price $5500. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

FOR SALE—On Tyler street, good boarding house with lots of boarders. Price $550. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

FOR SALE—In North Chelmsford, two-tenement house, large lot of land. Price $2300. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

FOR SALE—Six miles from Lowell, good farm of 38 acres, good set of buildings, lots of fruit, keeps 15 head of stock. Price of farm, $2100. With the stock of 5 cows, 4 head of young cattle, pigs, hens, two horses, wagon, harnesses, farming tools and milk route, price $3100. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

AN INTELLIGENT, energetic woman to represent that great family magazine, the Woman's Home Companion. Liberal pay, cash or premiums, for looking after new subscriptions and renewals in your own community, city or country. Outfit free. Address Woman's Home Companion, Springfield, O.

FOR FIRST COMMUNION! Catholic Prayer Books! The finest assortment ever shown before in Lowell. Rosary Beads, silver and solid gold mounted, Medals, gold, silver and aluminum. Our first Holy Communion Remembrance Picture Cards are beauties. Statues and all kinds of religious articles. An immense variety.

Franco-American Book Store

520 Merrimack Street.

Wanted—a case of bad health that R.I.P.A.N.S. will not benefit. One gives relief. No matter what's the matter, one will do you good. A cure may result if directions are followed. They banish pain, induce sleep, prolong life. Sold at all drug stores, 10 for 5 cents. Be sure to get the genuine. Don't be fooled by substitutes. 10 samples and a thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for five cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical company, No. 10 Spruce street, New York.

MADAM VONNIE

The world's greatest palmist and card reader has returned. She gives truthful advice on love, marriage and business. Tells you how to win the one you love, no matter what your troubles are come and she will help you. Daily 10 to 9 p. m. Bon Marche Building, Room 44.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, SS.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Mary Ann Webster, late of Chelmsford, in said county, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for probate by Sarah M. C. Holt, and Verana E. Willard, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to them, the executors therein named.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said county of Middlesex, on the fourth day of September, A. D. 1900, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks in the Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred.

S. H. FOLSOM, Register.

LOST AND FOUND.

FOUND—Small dog in Billerica. Owner can have by proving property and paying charges. Apply Box 41, Billerica Centre.

LOST—Ladies figured silk cape between Bridge street and Hampshire street, Monday evening. Finder will receive reward at 17 Hampshire street.

LOST—Thursday, somewhere between the Opera House and Rock street, a lady's monogram ("W") finger purse. Finder will be suitably rewarded if returning same to 387 Central street, Room 6.

LOST—A bundle containing lady's and children's clothing lost in the vicinity of Merrimack square or in the Collinsville car Saturday night. Reward at Sun office.

LOST—A hand made lace handkerchief on the road to Lakeview. Please return to Sun office and be rewarded.

LOST—A lady's gold watch, either at Lakeview or on the Lakeview electric car. Finder return to 45 Walnut street and receive reward.

FOUND—A ladies' hand bag on Middlesex street. Owner can have same by calling on C. E. Leavitt, back of the Bulgum Farm, Westford road, paying adv., and proving property.

LOST—On Middlesex street, between Burnside avenue and Daren avenue, a lady's hand bag, with purse containing money. Reward at Sun Office.

LOST—Candy order-book, black covers, name inside. Please leave at this office and be rewarded.

LOST—A watch charm, design star and crescent; initials on back G. G., Jr. The finder will be rewarded by leaving at 665 Bridge street.

LOST—Lady's gold watch, on or near Merrimack Square, Saturday night, Reward at Sun office.

FOUND—A sum of money last Sunday morning. The owner can have by proving property. Call at 105 Mt. Washington street, and paying for this advertisement.

LOST—A pocketbook containing a sum of money somewhere between waiting room and High street. Finder please return to 355 Concord street and receive reward.

FOUND—A black beaded cape Fourth of July. Owner can have same by calling at 4 rear of 39 Summer street.

LOST—A lady's black seal pocketbook, containing a $10 bill, last night on the Lakeview car. Please return to this office and receive reward.

LOST—A set of written lectures to nurses. Finder will please return to St. John's hospital.

LOST—On Monday evening a pocketbook containing considerable money and two checks bearing owner's name. Finder will be rewarded by returning to the Lowell Co-Operative association, Middlesex street.

LOST—A pair of plain spectacles. Return to Sun Office and obtain reward.

TO LET.

TO LET—House, 25 Anne street, 11 rooms, bath, steam heat. Inquire of Gordon Tweed, 63 Market street.

TO LET—Four-room flats. 641 Broadway.

TO LET—Some first class tenements in all parts of the city. Apply to A. G. Beaurell, Room 8, Bon Marche block.

TO LET—Two furnished rooms, parlor with chamber connected. Price $2 per week. Corner of High and Andover streets, over Belvidere drug store.

TO LET—Unfurnished rooms, also large basement for storage, 12 Tyler street.

STORE, with 1 room tenement in rear to let at 60 Charles St. Rent only $15.00 per month. Get key at 10 Merrimack street.

FIRST class rooms and board. Special attention given to transients. Everything new and up-to-date at 52 Lee street.

TO LET—One four room tenement. Inquire at 33 Chestnut square.

TO LET—Furnished tenements of two, three and four rooms. 635 Merrimack street.

TO LET—Four room tenement, half of a cottage at 10 Dane street avenue, off Pawtucket street, rent $6.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PATENTS—Secure our terms and system for placing inventions free. Oscar A. Michel, registered attorney, 302 Broadway, New York, Dept 65.

BIGGEST SNAP ever offered, agents or dealers to sell high grade cash registers. Anyone can sell them. Big money made. Chicago Cash Register company, Chicago.

WHEN YOU want Spectacles or Eye Glasses Purcell's is the place, 43 Coburn street. Somewhat of an optician. No fancy prices.

SILK, FELT and straw hats cleaned and repaired cheap during the month of August at Dolorme, the hatter, 261 Middlesex street.

LYNN BEACH—Old and new patrons are welcome, at Fred L. Dwyer's, 14 Suffolk street. Reasonable rates.

LADIES — Free. Harmless Monthly Regulator. Cannot fail. Mrs. B. Rowan, R 9, Milwaukee, Wis.

LADIES—Your bust enlarged 6 inches; failure impossible; harmless; $100 cash guarantee; proof free. Leonard Medicine Co., Kansas City, Kan.

A first class dressmaker and seamstress would like a few more jobs. Inquire at 37 Shedd street. No objection to out-of-town work.

LYNN BEACH, Bay View Hotel, entirely renovated, open for the season of 1900, under the personal management of Mrs. J. P. Fitzgerald. She will be pleased to meet her former guests and welcome new ones. Rates reasonable.

LADIES—Chichester English Pennyroyal Pills (Diamond Brand) are the best, safe, reliable. Take no other. Send 4c. in stamps for particulars, "Relief for Ladies," in letter by return mail. At druggists. Chichester Chemical Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

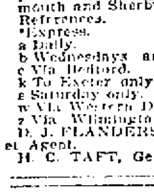

E. G. PARKER says coal has dropped too low to last. Now is the time to put in your season's supply. He also sells groceries, boots, shoes and rubbers.

MONEY TO LOAN at lowest rates on furniture, pianos, horses, carriages, diamonds, watches, etc., in sums of $5 and up. Payments can be made monthly, thus reducing principal and interest at each payment. All business confidential. Thomas E. Adams, 40 Middlesex street, Lowell.

RUBBER STAMPS—At wholesale prices, 1 inch 1-line stamps, 10c; 1 1/2 inch 15c.; 35c. ink pads, 25c.; 25c. ink pads, 15c.; 50c. linen markers, 25c.; business stamp, 15c. per line. J. M. Fellows, 159 Merrimack street.

MRS. HATTIE R. FLETCHER trance and business medium, will give sittings Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays from only 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., 709 Gorham street.

"BOYS AND GIRLS" wanted to copy letters at home; genteel way of earning money. Send self-addressed stamped envelope for particulars. Henry Williams Co., Dep't L., 152 E. 23d. street, New York.

WHEN IN DOUBT, TRY

STRONG AGAIN! Sexine Pills

They have stood the test of years, and have cured thousands of cases of Nervous Diseases, such as Debility, Dizziness, Sleeplessness and Varicocele, Atrophy, &c. They clear the brain, strengthen the circulation, make digestion perfect, and impart a healthy vigor to the whole being. All drains and losses are checked permanently. Unless patients are properly cured, their condition often worries them into Insanity, Consumption or Death. Mailed sealed. Price $1 per box; 6 boxes, with iron-clad legal guarantee to cure or refund the money, $5.00. Send for free book. Address, PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, O.

Sold at Goodale's Drug Store, the best and cheapest place in Lowell for drugs and medicines. 217 CENTRAL STREET.

For Women.

Dr. Tolman's Monthly Regulator has brought happiness to hundreds of anxious women. There is positively no other remedy known to medical science, that will so quickly and safely do the work. Have never had a single failure. The longest and most obstinate cases are relieved in 3 days without fail. No other remedy will do this. No pain, no danger, no interference with work. The most difficult cases successfully treated through correspondence, and the most complete satisfaction guaranteed in every instance. I relieve hundreds of ladies whom I never see. Write for further particulars. All letters truthfully answered. Free confidential advice in all matters of a private or delicate nature. Bear in mind this remedy is absolutely safe under every possible condition and will positively leave no after ill effects upon the health. By mail securely sealed, $2.00. Dr. E. M. TOLMAN CO., 170 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

Southern Div.

To Boston. Lve.	Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	Arr.
5 48	6 50	6 00	7 07
6 22	7 40	6 25	7 15
§6 30	7 30	6 40	7 35
6 43	7 52	8 00	8 53
§7 04	8 02	*8 30	9 00
*§7 27	8 10	*9 00	9 58
*§7 31	8 51	*9 30	10 07
7 45	8 35	*10 00	10 37
§7 50	8 55	10 37	11 31
8 59	9 40	10 45	11 57
9 15	10 33	*11 30	12 07
9 40	10 41	12 00	12 56
*11 00	12 03	*1 00	1 58
*§11 42	12 35	*1 45	1 52
§12 16	1 05	2 00	3 01
1 49	2 50	*3 00	3 58
*§1 57	2 39	3 47	5 00
3 03	4 20	4 11	5 30
*§3 47	4 30	4 47	5 35
§4 02	4 45	*5 00	5 58
4 25	5 30	5 33	6 22
*5 22	6 15	5 47	6 51
5 44	7 10	6 11	7 27
*§6 22	7 05	*7 30	8 08
*§7 19	8 00	*8 45	9 42
§8 40	9 37	10 15	11 10
		11 20	12 22

Sunday Trains

To Boston. Lve.	Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	Arr.
§6 30	7 30	2 15	3 05
*§7 27	8 10	9 01	10 07
8 43	9 49	1 00	1 57
§9 17	10 05	5 01	5 59
§4 25	5 30	*7 30	8 08
§5 59	7 01	*8 45	9 22
		9 00	11 02

Western Div.

To Boston. Lve.	Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	Arr.
6 50	8 00	7 30	8 31
8 10	8 51	9 25	10 32
9 25	10 32	10 25	11 41
10 50	12 02	11 50	1 05
12 05	1 32	2 15	3 19
12 35	1 57	3 30	4 55
2 25	3 41	4 25	5 45
3 10	4 10	5 14	6 20
3 55	5 01	6 01	7 05
5 18	6 12	6 35	7 48
6 35	7 15	9 30	10 40
7 00	8 06	B 11 15	12 15
9 25	10 30

Sunday Trains

To Boston. Lve.	Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	Arr.
8 15	9 27	8 00	9 17
12 05	1 20	12 00	1 02
1 05	6 18	5 00	6 25
5 30	6 55	6 40	9 40
8 45	9 42

Trains by western division leave Lowell from Middlesex Street station.

*Express.

§From Middlesex Street Station only.

B Runs to Lowell Wednesdays and Saturdays only.

THE WEATHER

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Local forecast for Boston and vicinity: Fair tonight and Friday; cooler tonight; westerly winds.

SPECIAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF MEETING.

There will be a special meeting of Stone Masons' union at their hall, 32 Middle street Thursday evening at the usual hour. Business of importance is to be transacted.

A BIG PRESENT.

A gray enamelled preserving kettle with a pound of tea and coffee. You should secure one of these. Dickson Bros. The Big Tea Dealers, 65 Merrimack street.

THE SUN ON SALE IN BOSTON.

The five o'clock edition of The Sun is on sale at the news stand in the Union Station, Boston.

STEAMSHIP TICKETS AND DRAFTS.

Sold on the Cunard, Dominion, White Star, American, Anchor, Allan and Leyland lines, to and from Boston, New York, Queenstown, Liverpool and all parts of Europe. Drafts issued for £1 and upward on all parts of Great Britain and Ireland. English sovereigns and Canada bills bought at Murphy's, 15 Appleton street.

LOCAL NEWS

Try Horne's Coal.

Have you had Pelham's Cigars?

F. A. M. Tobin's Printery, Tel. 513-2.

E. G. Parker is selling shoes cheap.

Elegant rubber-tired hacks at O'Donnell's stable. Telephone 459-4.

Dress Suit cases, solid leather, $5, worth $7. Devine's, 28 Merrimack St.

The Wamesits and Pillings, Shoe Shop will play today on Fort Hill.

See Gardner, the trick rider Saturday at the S. C. W. races.

Democratic headquarters have been opened at Room 15, Barristers' hall, up two flights. All democrats are invited.

Masons and contractors are well satisfied with the building materials bought of the William E. Livingston Company, 15 Thorndike street.

Don't loaf around Saturday afternoon. Go to the S. C. W. races.

Always exciting. What? The S. C. W. races, Saturday.

Horsemen can keep their horses in good condition if they buy their stable supplies of the William E. Livingston Company, 15 Thorndike street.

SATURDAY IS QUARTER DAY, 4 PER CENT. WASHINGTON BANK, 273 CENTRAL STREET.

LOOKING FOR MAHAN.

The police have been asked to be on the lookout for Joseph Mahan, who is wanted in Haverhill, Mass., for breaking and entering. Mahan is of sandy complexion, has blue eyes and a round face, and the little finger on the right hand is "out of plumb."

Mrs. C. M. Dickey and Miss Clara E. Dickey of the St. Charles hotel started Tuesday for a drive through New Hampshire and Vermont to spend the summer.

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it today. Try Jell-O, a delicious and healthful dessert. Prepared in two minutes. No boiling! no baking! simply add boiling water and set to cool. Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Raspberry and Strawberry. Get a package at your grocer's today. 10 cents.

Why try to stick things with something that doesn't stick? Buy MAJOR'S CEMENT; you know it sticks. Nothing breaks away from it. Stick to MAJOR'S CEMENT. Buy once, you will buy forever. There is nothing as good; don't believe the substitute.

MAJOR'S RUBBER and MAJOR'S LEATHER.

Two separate cements—the best. Insist on having them. ESTABLISHED 1876. 15 and 25 cents per bottle at all druggists.

MAJOR CEMENT CO., NEW YORK CITY.

DON'T SPONGE

On your neighbor. We have just received a new lot of

Carriage Sponges

They are genuine Florida Sheep's Wool Sponges,

10c. to $1.50 Each.

C. B. COBURN & CO.,

63 MARKET STREET.

WOMEN WARNED

Mrs. Lake Says Drink Habit is Increasing

MRS. LEONORA LAKE.

Convention of Catholic Total Abstinence Union Opened—Many Delegates are in Attendance

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9—After pontifical mass celebrated in the cathedral by Archbishop Ryan yesterday morning, the Catholic total abstinence union of America opened its 30th annual convention in Horticultural hall. The delegates formed in procession at the hall and marched to the cathedral headed by the St. Vincent cadets of Germantown.

The cathedral was crowded, and among those present were many prelates of the church who are paying their first visit to this city. Archbishop Ryan had associated with him as officers of the mass Rev. P. V. Byrne of Chicago, Rev. Walter J. Shanley, rector of the cathedral, Hartford, Conn., and Rev. Anthony S. Siebenfoercher, president of the Ohio union, deacons of honor; Rev. M. A. Lambing of the diocese of Pittsburg and formerly president of the Pittsburg union and Rev. D. F. McGillicuddy of Worcester, subdeacons, and Rev. John F. McQuade, master of ceremonies.

The sermon to the delegates was preached by Mgr. Conaty, rector of the Catholic university at Washington.

At noon the delegates and representatives of different church organizations in this city who are interested in temperance work returned to Horticultural hall. They included Judge Walter J. Gibbon of Chicago, M. B. O'Connell of St. Paul, Rev. A. P. Doyle of New York, who has been the untiring secretary of the union for seven years; Mrs. L. M. Lake, who is one of the most successful temperance workers in the country, and whose labors are in demand by Protestants as well as Catholics; Rev. Fr. Curran of Scranton, who has done much toward making that diocese the strongest temperance centre in the country in proportion to the population; P. H. Nolan, who has been identified with the movements since its inception; Annie Cront of the Falls of Schuylkill, Ella Balfrey of Germantown, Nellie McBride and Sallie Merrin of the church of the Nativity, who are regarded as the most aggressive women workers in the archdiocese, and Hugh S. Coll and E. J. Cornell, who confine their labors to the interior.

Bishop Tierney, president of the union, was unable to attend and J. Worthington League, president of the Philadelphia union and a vice president of the national union, acted as president during the session, but retired at the afternoon session to be replaced by Mrs. Lake.

The principal business was the reading of the reports of the national officers and reports submitted by officers of local unions. The report of Bishop Tierney evoked applause. The bishop, after referring to the labors performed by the union in the cause of temperance, said:

"The future of our country and the prosperity of the church depend upon the success of the temperance cause. We must urge our people to respect themselves, their families and religion. Let them know that positions of trust cannot be held by tipplers and topers. Catholics should be models of virtue to the world, blessed as they are with the teachings of the church and its sacraments.

"It is with sincere regret that I feel compelled to absent myself from the convention. I had hoped to be with you, but the death of Bishop Healy calls me to his funeral.

"I would suggest that proper action be taken respecting the federation of Catholic societies, an expression of sentiment on the government's action on Indian schools, the desecration of the Philippine churches, and on the unjust marriage laws in Cuba and Porto Rico."

Mrs. Lake then addressed the convention. On the question of drunkenness among women she laid special emphasis. She said:

"Medical men assert that drunkenness among this sex is on the increase. Treatment for the drink habit among them is as common as for coughs and colds. It is the life society women lead that causes it. They have no time to eat or sleep, and consequently they must turn to what will give them strength to get through their social functions. For a while it works like a charm. They become its slave and

"At many afternoon teas intoxicating liquor has taken the place of tea. There is where the young debutantes begin to acquire the taste for stimulants. Soon they do not care to eat unless they have their cocktails first. Bellevue hospital doctors state that the number of women who are brought there for treatment seems incredible. Seldom a day goes by that some decent woman is not brought in."

CALLED A DRAW

Mike Sears and Gardner Well Matched

THE BOUT A SCIENTIFIC ONE

Sears Did all of the Leading

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LYNN, Aug. 9.—The drawing card of the boxing exhibition given by the Kirtland club last night was a 15-round match between Mike Sears of Lynn and Billy Gardner of Lowell, the result being a draw. Sears gave a more clever exhibition, but Gardner was the stronger and in the better condition. In the fifth round Gardner had a dizzy spell and Sears had him going, but he recovered and from that time it was all in fighting Sears did all the leading and played his double cross counter on Gardner's head in nearly every round, but without much effect. Taken altogether it was the most scientific exhibition seen in this city for many a day.

In the preliminaries McKenzie, the "Salem Kid," got the decision over Bob Ringwood of Lynn in a four-round go. Tyson of East Bston faced "Twin" Sullivan of Haverhill for a six-round bout, but at the end of the third round Sullivan so clearly showed his superiority that Tyson was withdrawn.

HAD 500 GUESTS.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

MILFORD, Aug. 9.—Gen. and Mrs. Wm. F. Draper, who recently arrived at their home in Hopedale from Rome, where the general has been for the past three years as United States ambassador to Italy, gave last evening the first reception since their arrival. Fully 500 invited guests were present. The mansion was a garden of decorative splendor.

General and Mrs. Draper were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Eben S. Draper and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Osgood of Hopedale.

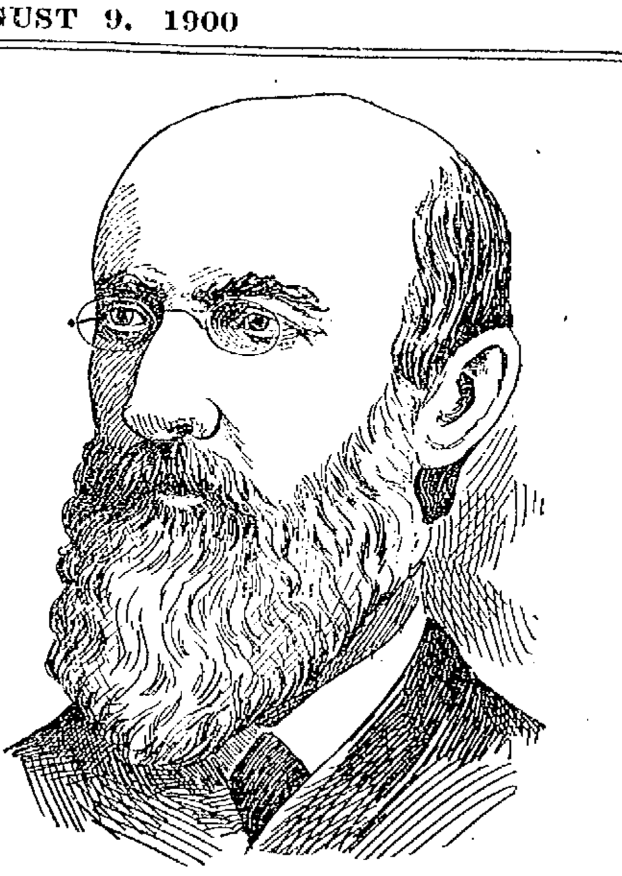

The spacious dining hall was thronged during the dinner hour.

This was the first of a series of receptions which General and Mrs. Draper are to give at their Hopedale residence.

SPILLER'S

GOLDEN BALSAM

Takes the lead as a preparation for the Relief and Cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Throat and Lungs, Pleurisy, Pneumonia and Asthma. It is a certain and immediate relief in all cases of croup. In Whooping Cough it removes the distressing symptoms and relieves the painful breathing. It soothes the distressing cough of consumption. It is a beautifully clear preparation, pleasant to the taste and is perfectly safe to give to the most delicate child. Every bottle guaranteed. Money refunded to anyone who uses one bottle according to directions without obtaining satisfaction. Price 25 cents. For sale by Carter & Sherburne, H. R. Parker & Co., Lowell, Mass. Also for sale by all druggists.

REV. DR. CYRUS HAMLIN.

DR. HAMLIN DEAD

Was First President of Roberts' College

FAMOUS AS MISSIONARY IN TURKEY

Cousin to Ex-Vice President Hamlin

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 9.—Rev. Dr. Cyrus Hamlin, the veteran missionary, died here suddenly last night at the residence of D. H. Farley.

Dr. Hamlin and his wife arrived here Tuesday from Lexington, Mass., their home, and last evening attended an old home week reception at the Second Parish church. Soon after he returned to the Farley residence he complained of feeling a pain, and dropped to the floor dead.

Cyrus Hamlin, builder of Roberts college, Constantinople, was born Jan. 5, 1811, in Waterford, Me., the son of Hannibal Hamlin, who was twin brother of Cyrus Hamlin, father of Hannibal Hamlin, vice-president with Lincoln. The brothers Cyrus and Hannibal Hamlin promised each other that their first sons should be named for their uncles, and thus came about this apparent confusing of names in the two generations.

The father of the second Cyrus Hamlin died when the baby was 9 months old, and when he was still a very small boy he took the place of the "hired man" on the home farm.

He was 16 years old when he was "bound out" to his brother-in-law, who lived in Portland, Me. This brother-in-law was a silversmith, and Cyrus would have learned the trade if it had not been for the eloquent preaching of Rev. Edward Payson. But when Cyrus was 19 he was converted by this preacher's sermons.

ALL DISEASES AND WEAKNESSES OF MEN

From whatever cause arising, quickly and permanently Cured at the Old Reliable Peabody Medical Institute, No. 4 Bulfinch Street (opposite Revere House), Boston, Mass. Established in 1860. Chief Consulting Physician, graduate of Harvard Medical College, Class of 1864, late Surgeon 5th Reg. Mass. Vols., who Cures where others fail. Consultation in person or by letter. A Medical Pamphlet, vade mecum, Free, sealed, 6c. for postage, to every male reader of this paper. The best Medical Book of this or any age (for men only) entitled "THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION," 370 pp., with engravings. A perfect guide to all men, married or single, only 25c., in paper covers, sealed. Cloth, full gilt, $1. Send now, and Heal Thyself.

"The Peabody Medical Institute has many imitators, but no equals."—Boston Herald.

J. F. O'DONNELL,

Funeral Director

324 Market Street, Corner of Worthen. Office Open Day and Night. Three Telephones. LOWELL, MASS.

Get Rid of Them

One or two of Ayer's Pills each night will act on the liver just enough to cause one good, free movement of the bowels the day following. Keep this right up until your liver acts as it should and your constipation is cured. 'Twill be the last of your coated tongue, headache, and loss of appetite.

CUBAN TEACHERS

SEVERAL OF THEM COMING TO LOWELL.

A number of the Cuban teachers are to come to this city Aug. 13, as the guests of the J. C. Ayer Co. They will come from Boston on a special train and will be met by the Spanish interpreters of the J. C. Ayer Co., who will conduct them to the Ayer Laboratory, where dinner will be served and a reception tendered the teachers. After an inspection of the J. C. Ayer Co.'s plant a visit to the different mills will be made. The visitors will return to Boston on a special train in the evening.

Don't Fool with a Fan

It's a useless exertion. There's more concentrated coolness and refreshing comfort in one glass of

HIRES Rootbeer

than a family of fans can furnish. Write for list of premiums offered free for labels. Charles E. Hires Co., Malvern, Pa.

J. M. KINGSBURY, No. 373 Bridge St. MEATS AND PROVISIONS.

TEETH

If you want teeth out, come to a reliable office and HAVE THE WORK DONE RIGHT.

Extracting is a specialty with us; we guarantee that no matter how many teeth you want out, or how bad the teeth or roots are, THE OPERATION WILL BE POSITIVELY PAINLESS IN ALL CASES.

NO CHARGE for painless extracting when teeth are ordered.

FULL SET TEETH (that fit)	$4.00
GOLD FILLINGS	$1.00
GOLD CROWNS	$3 to $5
SILVER FILLINGS	50c
TEETH WITHOUT PLATE	$5.00

Boston Painless Dental Rooms

Rooms 16 and 17 Runels' Bldg, ..MERRIMACK SQUARE..

Opp. St. R. R. Waiting Room.

Office hours: 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., Sundays 10 to 4.

LADY ATTENDANT.

BARTENDERS MAD

Two Lose Jobs Because They Joined Union

The Lowell Bartenders union will hold a special meeting next Sunday for the purpose of acting upon a report to the effect that a liquor dealer at the "Flats" has discharged his two bartenders because they joined the union. The real facts of the case are somewhat obscure but it is known that the proprietor did not favor the idea of having his bartenders in the union. The bartenders entered last Sunday, each paying his $10 initiation fee. On Monday both were discharged. The officers of the Bartenders' Union learned of the discharges yesterday and attempted to see Mr. O'Connell but were unsuccessful as the latter was at Lynn. The Bottlers and Brewery Workers' unions of this city upon learning of it notified the Bartenders' Union that they would co-operate with them in any action they might take. Now a special meeting has been called for Sunday and the matter will be thoroughly discussed before any action is taken.

Go to the S. C. W. races Saturday afternoon and see the fun.

A Record-Breaking Sale!

This is a genuine slaughter sale. This is no Merrimack street BLUFF sale. Save your pennies, they mean dollars here on this sale.

LITTLE MONEY WILL TALK VOLUMES AT THIS SALE.

Cotton and Lawn Waists

Valued at 35c, 49c, now 19c
" 50c, 75c, now 25c
" 75c, $1.00, $1.25, now 45c
" $1.25, $1.50, now 69c
" $2.25, $2, $3, $4, now 98c

SILK WAISTS.

Valued at $3, $4, $5, now $1.75
" $5, $6, $7, now $3.98

Crash P. K. and Duck Skirts

Valued at 50c, 75c, now 19c
" $1.50, $1.98, now 69c

DRESS SKIRTS.

Valued at 75c, now 49c
" $1.25, now 85c
" $2.50, now $1.58
" $5.00, now $2.25
" $4.98, now $2.70

LINEN and DUCK SUITS

Valued at $1.98, now 75c
" $2.98, now 98c
" $5.00, now $1.95

TAILOR MADE SUITS.

Valued at $8.00, now $1.50
" $15.00, now $5.50
" $18.00, now $7.50

TAILOR MADE JACKETS.

Valued at $3.50, now $1.07
" $4.98, now $1.58
" $6.00, now $2.75
" $8.00, now $3.70
" $12.50, now $5.50

WRAPPERS.

Valued at 75c, now 27c
" $1.25, now 49c
" $1.98, now 45c

Children's Dresses and Reefers almost given away. You cannot afford to miss this sale as this is a genuine Record Breaking Sale. If you think it's too hot, take a carriage, it will pay you. SALE BEGINS FRIDAY MORNING AT 8 O'CLOCK.

Cooper's Cozy Cloak and Suit Store,

LADIES' FAVORITE .·. GORHAM ST.

OPEN EVERY EVENING. One minute's walk from post office.

SECOND ANNUAL

Muslin Underwear Sale

SALE. SALE. SALE. SALE.

Commencing Friday Morning, at 8 a. m. Sharp.

Night Robes.

Special values in plain and hamburg trimmed Robes, regular 75c values, for this sale,

42c. Each

Extra values in Robes at 59c., 79c., 98c., $1.25, and $1.50 Each

See them. These prices for this sale only.

Corset Covers.

Special for Friday Only.

Low and high neck, plain Corset Covers, made of good cotton, for this sale only,

7c. Each

Special values in Corset Covers for this sale only, at 11 1-2c., 17c. 19c., 29c., 39c. and up to 98c. each

Drawers.

29c. value, tucked with wide flounce, for this sale only

19c. a Pair

Lace Trimmed Drawers, 39c. value, for this sale

25c. a Pair

Skirts. Skirts.

Special lot of long Skirts, Hamburg trimmed, with dust ruffle, for this sale

59c. Each

Short and Long Skirts at greatly reduced prices.

We carry only reliable manufactured Muslin Underwear. Our space here is insufficient to represent one-half the special numbers of this sale. Come and see our stock, compare our prices. THE ABOVE PRICES ONLY GOOD FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

FISHER & CO.

119, 121, 123 MERRIMACK ST.

A. G. POLLARD & CO.

MERRIMACK, PALMER AND MIDDLE STREETS.

WE WILL CLOSE OUT

—OUR—

REMNANTS of DIMITIES

At $3\frac{1}{2}$c. Yard.

Not a great many left, and all good styles, but the larger proportion of them dark colors, new blue, navy blue and black; quantities sufficient for waists and dresses of the regular 10c. and 12 1-2c qualities, now 3 1-2c. yard.

And about 600 yards left of the imitation linen suiting at 3 1-2c.

BASEMENT DEPARTMENT.

A. G. Pollard & Co.

JUST ASK THEM.

Ask the newsdealers and newsboys what paper they sell the most of. Ask the freight men and truckmen what office receives the most paper in rolls. Ask the ink manufacturer what office uses the most newspaper ink. Ask the people what paper is the most widely read in Lowell, and all will cry out "THE SUN."

THE LOWELL SUN

Reaches the Homes.

Every copy of The Sun, whether delivered from this office or from a news agency or newsboy, reaches the home of the purchaser. Outside agencies are necessary for rapid distribution of a large edition. Don't be deceived with home circulation stories.

ESTABLISHED 1878 LOWELL, MASS., THURSDAY, AUGUST 9, 1900 8 PAGES ONE CENT

STERN COMMAND TO CHINA

Stop Firing and Co-operate With Allies

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, AUG. 9. THE STATE DEPARTMENT THIS MORNING MADE PUBLIC THE FOLLOWING MEMORANDUM SENT YESTERDAY TO THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT THROUGH MINISTER WU:

"We are availing ourselves of the opportunity offered by the imperial edict of the fifth of August allowing to the foreign ministers free communication with their respective governments in either an have sent a communication to Minister Conger, to which we await an answer.

"We are already advised by him, in a brief despatch received August 7th, that imperial troops are firing daily upon the ministers in Pekin; We demand the immediate cessation of hostile attacks by imperial troops upon the legations and urge the exercise of every power and energy of the imperial government for the protection of the legations and all foreigners therein.

"We are also advised by the same despatch from Minister Conger that, in his opinion, for the foreign ministers to leave Pekin as proposed in the edict of August 2nd would be certain death. In view of the fact that the imperial troops still reported as firing upon the legations and in view of the doubt expressed by the imperial government in its edict of Aug 2, as to its power to restore order and secure absolute safety in Pekin, it is evident that this apprehension is well founded, for if your government cannot protect our minister in Pekin, it will presumptively be unable to protect him upon a journey from Pekin to the coast.

"We therefore urge upon the imperial government that it shall adopt the course suggested in the third clause of the leter of the president to his majesty, the Emperor China, of July 2, 1900, and enter into communication with the relief expedition so that co-operation may be secured between them for the liberation of the legations, the protection of foreigners and the restoration of order. Such action on the part of the imperial government would be a satisfactory demonstration of its friendliness and desire to attain these ends.

(Signed) ALVEY A. ADEE,
Acting Secretary.

Department of State, Washington, Aug. 8, 1900.

CHINESE SITUATION VERY GRAVE

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LONDON, Aug. 9, 4 a. m.—Beyond the official news given out yesterday, the morning papers contain no direct information of importance from China. Thanks to the despatches of Sir Claude MacDonald and Rear-Admiral Bruce, there is a general disposition to take a more hopeful view of the situation. The report of the appointment of Field Marshal Count Von Waldersee as commander-in-chief of the international forces meets with general approval.

The Rome correspondent of the Daily Mail announces the reception there of official despatches from the Italian minister in Pekin, Marquis Salvago Raggi, asserting that he left Pekin on July 31, presumably for Tien-Tsin. This, however, is so utterly at variance with the actions and intentions of the other ministers heard from that it seems almost incredible. If true, it opens up an interesting field of speculation concerning the fate of the Italian representative.

The text of the edict of Aug. 2, authorizing the escort of the ministers from Pekin to Tien-Tsin, was given out at the Chinese legation and says in part:

"In view of the existence of hostilities between certain Chinese rebels and foreign powers, caused by the Christian feeling of the Chinese people, we have afforded reasonable protection to the foreign representatives in Pekin; and the Tsung-Li-Yamen has sent to the legations letters of inquiry and proposals for their safe conveyance under escort to Tien Tsin, in order to avoid apprehension of further attack from the rebels before the complete restoration of peace and order in the capital.

"We have now, on the advice of Li Hung Chang and Liu Kun Yi, to authorize Yung Lu to escort them to Tien Tsin. If there be any rebels en route trying to endanger the safety of the party, the officials have to destroy the rebels at once."

The Chinese legation believes that the members of the foreign legations have not yet left Pekin, but that they will do so and declares that the edict would not have been issued had not the foreign ministers signified a willingness to accept the escort. The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily News, wiring yesterday, says:

"United States Consul Goodnow strongly opposes Admiral Seymour's intention to land 3000 troops on the ground that such an act would not be warranted by the circumstances and would be likely to create trouble. M. Bozaure, the French consul, agrees to the arrangement, but says that, if the British land forces, the French will do likewise. The Austrians also will land men. My personal opinion is that the landing of troops here at the present moment would be a grave mistake."

GERMAN COMMANDER FOR ALLIED FORCES

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BERLIN, Aug. 9.—The German foreign office, in confirming to the correspondent of the Associated Press last evening the report of Count Von Waldersee's appointment, said this was only to the command of the German forces in China, and that the question as to whether he would command all the international forces had not been settled.

The correspondent asked if any other power had suggested an appointment, but the foreign office official declined to answer.

Nevertheless all the evening papers, including the semi-official, Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, publish the statement that he has been appointed commander-in-chief of the combined forces. It is understood that Emperor William has arranged the matter personally and directly with the other powers. Count Von Waldersee arrived at Cassel yesterday afternoon to consult with Emperor William.

RUSSIAN LOSS AT PIETSANG 500

By Associated Press to The Sun.

CHEFOO, Aug. 9.—During the engagement on Sunday which preceded the occupation of Pietsang by the allies, the Russians lost 500 killed and the British 50. The Germans and Japanese also lost heavily. The road to Pekin is supposed to be open.

TWO BRIGHT BOYS

Cast Upon the Cold, Cold World

Constable McManus has on hand a very sad case of two orphans, two very bright lads, Frank and James Shea, the former five and a half years and the latter eight years old.

Their parents are dead three years now and since that time the children have been supported and kept by an uncle who is now 70 years old and unable to keep them any longer.

In fact he and the children have been evicted from the little tenement they occupied and now the little ones are outcasts on the world.

Rev. Fr. McKenna attended the mother on her death bed and her last request was that he should see the children were well cared for. This he has done so far and he has now given Mr. McManus an order to take them to a Catholic home in Boston but the little fellows cried piteously on realizing that they were to be separated from their uncle and each other as they will be in all probability when placed in homes around Boston and possibly adopted by different families, as they are good bright boys and of good parentage.

Constable McManus thinks that he had better keep the boys for a day or two to see if any Lowell family wants to take them and provide a home for them. Rev. Fr. McKenna will see that they are well treated wherever they will be placed as he intends to look after them to see that they are properly treated and that their education will not be neglected.

WAS SWINDLED

Lowell Man Works Clever Game in Nashua

The Nashua papers contain a story of a swindling game worked by a Lowell man on Thomas Burke of Nashua The Lowell police were notified this noon of the alleged swindle and are on the lookout for the alleged swindler. The story as told by Nashua parties is as follows:

John Meehan, formerly of Lowell, went to Burke's hotel in West Pearl street three weeks ago and engaged board. He was ill and remained there until last Friday when he went away. A physician attended Meehan while ill and the amount of the doctor's bill was $5. Meehan paid neither his board nor doctor's bill but promised to pay both claiming that he had $700 in a Lowell bank.

He produced a check on the Lowell Trust company for $20 an asked Burke to identify him at one of the Nashua banks. Burke went good and Meehan got the money. Meehan then started from the hotel saying he was going to pay the doctor's bill. Since then Meehan has not been seen by Burke. The doctor's bill was sent to James J. Dolan, grocer, of Concord street with a request that it be paid. Mr. Dolan returned it with a statement that the doctor never treated him. The check was received by the Lowell Trust Co., but was repudiated as it was seen that the signature was not that of Mr. Dolan.

Mr. Burke on learning the real facts, came to Lowell and saw Mr. Dolan. He told him that Meehan had been in Nashua and passed himself off as James J. Dolan.

AN AYER MAN

CAUSED THE ARREST OF DANIEL CREEL.

Dr. C. A. Fox, a dentist of Ayer, was the means of causing the arrest of Daniel Creel, who is alleged to be a green goods man who has done an extensive business in New England. The doctor received several letters last winter inviting him to invest in green goods, and as they came from New York, he acquainted Anthony Comstock with the facts. He was advised to make an appointment with the green goods man, which he did. At the meeting a detective impersonated the doctor and the arrest of Daniel Creel as the green goods man followed. One of the persons who will testify against Creel is Louis Papas, of Haverhill, who lost $80 through the swindling game.

Security at Home, Facility Abroad

The prospective traveler, whether in the vacation season or at other times, wisely arranges for the security of such valuables as must be left behind, and for the supply of such available funds as may be needed while abroad or absent from home. For these purposes, the Traders' National bank provides

Safe Deposit Boxes, Travellers' Checks.

Deposit boxes are rented for the merely nominal sum of $5 per annum, which, in view of the feeling of security afforded thereby, is a capital investment. Letters of credit and foreign drafts on prominent centers in foreign lands meet the requirements of the traveller in the most perfect manner.

The Traders National Bank

Transacts a general banking business.
Issues foreign exchange, payable in all parts of the world, in English, French, German and Swedish money.
Furnishes safety deposit boxes, with private coupon rooms.
Pays, in its savings department, 4 per cent. per annum, compounded semi-annually, interest beginning monthly.
Has a section of banking rooms exclusively for ladies.
Is a depository of the United States and Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
Banking hours—9 a. m. to 4 p. m.; Saturdays, 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.; 7 to 9 p. m.
Banking rooms—39 to 46 Middlesex street and 11 to 24 Post Office avenue.

SUN LATEST FIVE O'CLOCK

200 KILLED

Russians Slaughtered Trns-port Coolies

By Associated Press to The Sun.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 9.—A remarkable story was brought by the steamer Empress of Japan to the effect that a number of Russian exofficers and privates from Siberia had joined the rank of the Boxers and that having reason to suspect the fidelity of their Chinese transport coolies, the Russian had killed 200 of the Chinese and then loaded their bodies into a junk which they set on fire and sent drifting down the Pei-Ho. The story is published with a number of corroborative details in a number of Oriental papers.

Many Chinese now say that Prince Tuan, the rebel emperor, is not a member of the imperial clan at all. He is supposed to be the son of the fifth prince Tuan, but it is known to many in Pekin that he is a supposition on, his mother being a nurse in Prince Tuan's family. By collusion with Prince Tuan's wife the child who is now Prince Tuan was introduced as the princess' son.

Though a Manchu he is thus not really of imperial descent if this story be true.

MILL SITUATION

No General Shut Down Now Probable

MILLS WORKING AND ORDERS NORMAL

The report of an intended general shutdown of the cotton mills in this city in conjunction with others in New England, is not confirmed by statements from the counting rooms or by appearances. Out on Central bridge last night was seen the gleam of lights from mills along the water side, from the Lawrence hosiery down to the Junction of the Concord river, taking in the Tremont and Suffolk, Merrimack, Boott, and Massachusetts establishments, parts of all of which are at work on overtime.

It was the intention of the Tremont and Suffolk people a month ago to shut down two weeks this month in order that the employes, many of whom desire vacations, might all be out together and obviate the disorganization consequent upon breaking in so many new hands at once. These mills have been at work night and day for several years, and, while night work was suspended a few weeks ago, it is stated that it is not the intention of the management to materially diminish the output on its standard goods.

The arrangement for a two weeks' shutdown has been changed. The mills will be closed about a week, taking in Labor day.

Notice was given to the weavers of the Massachusetts mills yesterday that the looms will be stopped next week. It was stated at the counting room, however, that this is to allow the yarn department to catch up, and this statement is confirmed by the fact that the carding departments are running nights, as they have been several nights every week for some time back.

Over on the upper level canal, near Jackson street, the Hamilton is running as usual, and the treasurer of the Appleton, Mr. A. G. Cumnock, has gone to Europe, leaving his mills in full operation.

The information is gathered from reliable sources that all the Lowell cotton mills, in common with most of similar establishments in New England, probably have to some extent been curtailing their product since last spring, partly in consequence of some falling off in demand and partly from motives of prudence. On the other hand manufacturers of cotton machinery are running busily, and the report is that orders are normal.

CITY HALL NOTES

CONSIDERABLE WORK IN LANDS AND BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

The trustees of the Edson cemetery have awarded the contract for painting the new fence at the cemetery to C. H. Kirby. The amount of the contract is $60.

Supt. Cheney is having copies of the new ordinance prohibiting heavy teaming on the boulevard painted and will post one at each end of the speedway.

Employes of the land and buildings department are kalsomining, painting, laying new floors and making other needed repairs at the different schools of the city.

Work is progressing on the new water tower station.

The steel trusses which will support the High school annex building are being placed in position while Farrell & Conlon are doing the plumbing.

THE BENEVOLENTS

Had a Gorgeous Time at Lynn

RETURNED TIRED BUT HAPPY LAST NIGHT

One of the Best Picnics in History

The Ho, for the Beach! picnickers who to the extent of over ten held forth at Lynn beach yesterday returned last night tired but happy, the special train leaving Lynn at 7 o'clock. Nearly every one in the town went down to the depot to see them off and all cheered lustily for Lowell, John Doherty and the Benevolents. All the Lowell people, however did not return on the special train. Many stayed down until late in the night returning by way of Boston. The sports all remained down town for the boxing encounter and many who had friends at the beach remained over night with their friends. When seen by The Sun reporter John Doherty said: "While we would have had more people than we had last year had the weather been fine I think those who did come had a most enjoyable time."

There were no accidents, neither was there any trouble and everything passed off smoothly. Nine-tenth of those who went down from Lowell went in bathing.

All kinds of attractions were found on the beach for the amusement of the Lowellites.

Among them was a novelty in the shape of an African dodger at whom instead of firing balls you threw eggs of the old fashioned variety. Toward evening when hundreds of eggs had been smashed against the canvass through which the doughty dodger put his head, the odor of the addled hen fruit was almost sickening. The heavy hammer test machine, the merry go round and the dance hall where McEvoy's orchestra presided were well patronized during the day.

The officers of the society this year are as follows: President and general manager of the annual picnic, Thomas E. Quinn, vice president, Morgan Riley, treasurer, John Whitty; recording secretary, John McCluskey. To the above were added the following named members of the special committee: John J. Driscoll, A. H. McGarrin, T. H. Brennan, J. J. Grady, Hugh Golden, Jno. P. Sheehan, M. J. Hoar, J. F. Hall, E. J. Regan, H. C. McCusker, John J. O'Connell, Peter Gallagher.

Officer Weber had charge of the special police detail and he had with him three other policemen from the Lowell staff.

Among the guests of the society were Councilman Barry. Mayor Crowley who had a special invitation, was unable to accept.

SPECIAL MEETING

Special meeting of the Holy Name society of the Immaculate Conception church will be held at T. M. C. I. hall this evening at 7:30 to take action on the death of the late James McCaffrey.

Per order,
JOSEPH H. DALLAGHER, Pres.
PATRICK HALLOWELL, Secy.

FOR SALE—A large boarding house, close to the mills. Will accommodate over 20 boarders. A money making place for the right party. Terms reasonable. Apply 21 Hildreth building.

ANY LADY can easily make $18 to $25 weekly by representing us in her locality and as the position is both pleasant and profitable the year round. I will gladly send full particulars to all. Even your spare time is valuable and if you really want to make money, address, with 2c. stamp, Mrs. Mary E. Wheeler, 97 Washington street, Chicago, Illinois.

MIXED GARRISON

At Elands River Surrenders to the Boers

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—The following report, dated Pretoria, Aug. 8, has been received from Lord Roberts:

"Kitchener was informed yesterday by an escaped British prisoner that De Wet's wagons had crossed the Vaal. Afterwards I heard the sound of guns which, I think must have been Methuen's, as I directed him to take up a position between Potchefstroom and Klerksdorp, where he could intercept the enemy, who crossed the river at De Wet's drift. Kitchener is crossing the Vaal with cavalry and mounted infantry.

"Hunter reports that he made 4140 prisoners in the Bethlehem-Harrismith district, a majority of whom are now en route for Cape Town. Three guns and 4000 horses were captured and 10 wagon loads of ammunition and 195,000 pounds of ammunition were destroyed.

"The garrison of Elands river, which, I fear, has been captured, consisted of about 300 Bushmen and Rhodesians. I had hoped that Carrington had been in time to withdraw the garrison; but it seems that Delarey, learning of Ian Hamilton's approach to Rustenburg, hurried westward and surrounded the garrison before Carrington arrived.

"Methuen telegraphs that he engaged a part of DeWet's force yesterday near Beuterskroon. He drove the enemy off of a succession of hills, which they held obstinately. Our casualties were seven men killed or wounded, including four officers."

CHICAGO SIZZLES

In a Hot Wave That Is Unprecedented

MANY FATALTIES DUE TO THE HEAT

A Wedding Postponed and Groom Sunstruck

By Associated Press to The Sun.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9—All past records for long continued hot weather in Chicago have been equalled during the present week and when today's temperatures have been taken it is more than probable that a new record will have been made. For five days the mercury has been well above the 90 mark and with no relief in sight the weather man is willing to risk his reputation on a prediction that it will again soar above that figure today.

The city has not suffered from such a long continued spell of extremely hot weather since the summer of 1892. In July of that year the thermometer for five consecutive days registered temperatures above 90 degrees. The maximum temperature was 93 degrees, while last Sunday the 91 mark was reached. The average temperature this time has been higher than during the hot wave of 1892, so Chicago is really experiencing a record breaking period of hot weather of the continuous variety. So far as learned nine persons died from the effects of the heat in the twenty four hours ending at midnight. The prostrations reported number over 30, of whom several will not recover.

The poor people in the tenement districts suffered terribly and in the congested sections whole families secured their night's rest as best they could.

In various parts of the city gangs of workingmen were laid off at 3 o'clock when it became hottest in the afternoon.

More horses were killed by the heat than during any other day this summer and the number is estimated at 1,000.

There were nine instances where persons attempted to end their lives while in a crazed condition due to the heat. Many teamsters were overcome as they drove their horses through the streets and died peaceful unconscious on the wagon seats.

Even weddings were postponed by reason of the heat. John D. Olbert was to have been married to a young lady living in Oak Park. Olbert came to the conclusion that it was entirely too hot for the ceremony and early in the day he started to Oak Park to arrange a postponement. The bride to be would not listen to such an arrangement so Olbert boarded a car for the city to obtain the marriage license. Before he reached the city he was overcome by the heat and fell unconscious. He will recover and the wedding will take place at some future date.

THE SMALLPOX PATIENTS.

In accordance with Dr. E. G. Livingston's recommendation, the Coulliard family of five members were discharged from the contagious hospital yesterday afternoon. The eldest Brankouvier child is improving and will recover.

OLD HOME DAY

Carried Out at Bangor, Me. Today

MANY ATTRACTIONS FOR THE VISITORS

And a Good Time Generally Enjoyed

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 9.—Under Thursday's blazing sun, Bangor celebrated Old Home Day for the first time in her history. The city was visited by people from out of the state and other cities and towns in Maine, and was decorated profusely with flags and bunting.

A band concert was given in Centre park in the forenoon.

At 1 o'clock a floral parade, including 100 decorated rigs, marched through the principal streets of the city.

A large meeting will be held in City hall this evening at which Judge Bartlett Tripp, of Yankton, S. D., a member of the Samoan commission, and ex-Chief Justice John A. Peters will speak.

Among the other distinguished visitors in the city are Governor and Mrs. Powers and staff, Hon. and Mrs. John F. Hill of Augusta, Adjutant-General Richards and staff and the governor's council, with their ladies.

After the evening's exercises in City hall, the Codaskeag Canoe club will parade in Kenduskeag stream. The Bangor band will be stationed on a float a short distance below the post-office to furnish music while the gaily illuminated canoes go through intricate evolutions.

The band will also give a concert in Centre park at the close of the indoor exercises.

On Friday the firemen of Maine will have their annual muster in Bangor as the closing Old Home week feature.

Avoid Experiments

Fix your faith to the summer medicine that has history back of it—a history of cures extending over a period of twenty-five years. It is

DOWS'
Diarrhoea and Cholera Syrup.

That tells the story. It is sold on its merits. There is no experiment about it. It is a positive cure for summer complaint, cramps, dysentery and kindred troubles.

Two Sizes, 25c. and 50c.

318 MERRIMACK STREET
Under Merrimack House.

389 CENTRAL STREET,
Above Opera House.

WYMAN'S EXCHANGE,
Cor. Merrimack and Central Streets.

THE SUN LATEST 5 O'CLOCK

DENNIS FINED $50

Or Must Serve 5 Months in Jail

Michael Harrington Sentenced to Jail One Year for Larceny—Newell Brown Also Sentenced for Larceny

The following drunks were fined $2 each: Arthur St. Onge, Arthur Marchand and Edward Fortin.

Thomas H. Donohue pleaded guilty to drunkenness and was sent to the workhouse for six months.

A fine of $6 was imposed on Catherine McNiff for a second offense of drunkenness.

Philip Fradel, aged 20 years, pleaded guilty to drunkenness. He was also charged with being a vagrant since last March. Officer Breault heard that Trudel was in Little Canada and said that he would knock the officer's head off because he arrested his chum. When the officer met Trudel, the latter had some rocks, with which he said he would nail the officer. He was sent to the reformatory.

Newell E. Brown pleaded not guilty to larceny of a watch from Xavier Castillian of Moody street.

Castillan said he went to sleep on a bench in front of his house Friday afternoon and when he woke up his watch was gone.

A pawnbroker testified that Brown pawned the watch in his place and got $2 on it.

Brown's story was that he met a man in Merrimack street, who wanted to sell the watch. Brown advised him to pawn it and he asked Brown to go to the pawn shop and get something on the watch. This Brown did and raised $2, which he says he gave to his friend. Judge Hadley sentenced him to jail for five months.

Soloman Laird was charged with drunkenness and indecent exposure of person. He pleaded guilty to the former and not guilty to the latter charge. He was held till tomorrow. He was arrested in Merrimack square yesterday afternoon.

Michael Harrington acknowledged stealing a pocket book and $45 from Sarah J. Whittier. He was sent to jail for one year and appealed. Harrington has been before the court many times.

Harry W. Dennis appeared in court this morning and excited considerable attention. He was charged with indecent exposure of person. He was very well and neatly dressed and his appearance is that of a bright, intelligent young man. He pleaded guilty to the charge and half a dozen girls from Chelmsford were ready to identify him and testify to his conduct. They were not called, however. Dennis said that he must have been out of his mind when he committed the offense. Otherwise he would not have done it. He is a canvasser for a Troy company that has a patent gas burner on the market. The manager of the company, Mr. Hooper, said that he was dumbfounded when he heard of Dennis' arrest. "I cannot imagine why he did it," said Hooper. Dennis was fined $50, to be paid in five days or serve five months in jail. He took the sentence as a severe blow and begged of Manager Hooper and a friend to help raise the money to pay the fine. He did not want to go to jail and appeared all broken up when he was taken down stairs.

THE LATE "STANNIE" CARTER, AN OLD TIME BALL PLAYER.

STANNIE CARTER

Old First Baseman of the Clippers

DIED TODAY AT 40 THIRD STREET

After an Illness of One Week

The community will be pained to learn of the death of Daniel Stanley Carter, which took place this forenoon at his late home, 40 Third street. The deceased will be remembered by old-time lovers of the national game of baseball, when the Clipper Baseball club was the crack team of Lowell, if not of New England. Carter, who was familiarly known as "Stannie," covered first base and was a "cracker-jack" in high thrown balls and grounders while attending the initial bag. He was also a clever batsman and was idolized by the local cracks of the latter 60's. In the team were such men as the late Ben Whitney, as catcher; President Fred A. Buttrick, now of the City Institution of Savings, pitcher; Edward Temple, second base; Ted Wentworth, third base; Joe White, shortstop; Martin Coolidge, "D" Cook, "Deacon" Boynton, and the Conway brothers, George and James, the latter in after years used as a battery. The rival teams of the Clippers then were the Celebrated Tthmanntain team and the Lowells of Boston; the Kearsarge team of Stoneham, the Harvard university nine and the Salmons and Sheldons of Lowell. Mr. Carter married a sister of the Clippers shortstop, Joseph White who is the only relative who survives him. Mr. Carter was an expert machinist and was employed at what is familiarly known as the Atherton Works until a week ago, when he was taken with a fainting spell at his lathe. He was removed to his home and never rallied from the illness. Several years ago while employed at the Fifield machine shop, Mr. Carter lost one eye by being hit by a flying chip of iron. After that time he engaged in the grocery business with Temple, the second base-man of the Clippers, having purchased the Churchille grocery story at the corner of Middlesex street. This store was subsequently purchased of the firm of Temple and Carter by Mr. Churchill.

WANTS HIS BRIDE

Boston Hebrews Have a Wordy Quarrel

GIRL'S FATHER OBJECTED TO MARRIAGE

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Louis Schnitser is not a Vanderbilt or an Astor; he has no summer residence at the shore nor does he possess an automobile, but he has a position to maintain in society just the same. Though his name is not in the blue book, and he lives on Endicott street, he feels that members of his family must maintain the elevated station to which they were born and must not marry below them. Consequently, when his daughter Rebecca married a man who was not recognized by the Schnitser set, Mr. Schnitser detained her in his home, and, leaning out of the window, shook his fist vigorously at the husband, who stood on the sidewalk demanding with forceful expletives the possession of his bride.

Pasquole Ciampa is the name of the husband of Rebecca, and it is obvious that the Ciampas cannot offer a name as euphonious, as indicative of exclusiveness or as well known to fame as that of Schnitser. For a Schnitser to have wedded a Ciampa is plainly, in the society of the North end, a drop of several pegs in social precedence.

In the first place it would be very difficult for a Schnitser to properly pronounce the name of his son-in-law if it was Pasquole Ciampa, and what is the use of a son-in-law whose identity you cannot announce? For these and other strong and personal reasons Mr. Schnitser "flagged" Pasquole Ciampa yesterday when he called at the Schnitser home at 85 Endicott street looking for his wife.

Earlier in the day Rebecca mentioned casually to her father that he was not legally obliged to support her unless he felt like it. The parent demanded the name of the man who had taken this privilege from him. When the girl blushingly said "Pasquole Ciampa," the old man perceived the blot on his escutcheon, told her to go to her room and remain there, while he went for a lawyer. On the way he stopped at a stationery store and canceled the order for cards which his daughter had left, he determining that the old cards, "Miss Schnitser," would be of service as soon as he had had the marriage annulled.

On his return to his home he lay in wait at the window for the expected arrival of Ciampa, who had caused it to be circulated on Endicott street that he was intending to call for his bride. The old gentleman's whiskers fanned the window sill as he peeked out up and down the street. As Pasquole came down from Hanover street he split the fringe about the stern countenance of Schnitser.

Pasquole marched up gallantly to the doorway of 85 Endicott street, when the old gentleman shook his fist at him and warned him if he valued liberty and desired to hang on to his job to keep away.

"Get out of here, you miserable man!" yelled parent Schnitser.

"I want my wife! You're keeping her away from me," shouted the other, as he disrespectfully imitated his father-in-law.

"You can't have her, you scoundrel," said Schnitser, as he reached out and wildly showed what he would have done to his son-in-law if he had been near enough. "You married her, did you? You made her go up to the court and marry you. You told her you would shoot her if she didn't. You scared her. Now get out of here or I will have you nailed. I'll have you pinched."

By way of parenthesis, it may be said that Mr. Schnitser has been in the country 29 years and knows the English language. He used most all of it he had learned in the 29 years expressing his opinion of Pasquole.

UP AGAINST IT

Boston Lost to Pittsburgs Yesterday

COLLINS AND STAHL PLAYED WELL

Phillppi Had Bostons at His Mercy

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 9.—The erstwhile champions bumped up against their old-time Jonahs here yesterday afternoon, and in the presence of 2500 sweltering "fans" went down to defeat to the tune of 6 to 3.

Owing to the intense heat the members of both teams conducted themselves like bunco men trying to break into a church. Their movements were measured and they were cautious. Occasionally there were signs of life and aggressiveness, but the hot rays from the sun soon melted these evidences of an effort to do something, and at the conclusion of the game 18 players were a dark and dismal appearance.

Notwithstanding the hot air there were numerous feats that aroused the spectators to enthusiasm. Collins and Stahl ran in the sensational stakes for Boston, but Hamilton, with Clarke and Freeman, were selling platers with but few friends.

Collins managed to work in two of those celebrated one-hand performances, startling plays for which he was given the merry mit by the audience, while Stahl, by capturing a low line hit sent to right centre by Ritchey was forced to doff his cap in response to the applause.

Unfortunately Collins marred his pretty work by making a masterful three-base throw of O'Connor's easy bounder in the eighth inning. Hamilton caused a laugh by dropping Ely's soft fly in the fifth, an error that did not pan out badly, however.

Freeman, at first, had his troubles. He made one great catch of a throw by Collins, but evidently thought that let him out, as later on he failed to clutch the ball when tossed to him by Long and Lowe.

For Pittsburg, the work of Ely and Williams was sensational in the extreme. Several times did these two men put dents in the batting averages of the visitors, and at one stage of the proceedings Duffy and his men joined in applauding Ely for a remarkable stop and throw of a shot from Freeman's bat.

Willis and Phillippi, two elongated twirlers, paid little attention to the heat, but worked like beavers for success. Phillippi came out on top, though for a time honors were even. Pittsburg getting only five hits in the first six innings. Three singles, a double and triple were all the Bostons could get off Phillippi. They got four of these hits in the first three innings, their fifth coming safely in the ninth, when, aided by Tom O'Brien's attempts to imitate Freeman's first base play, they made a rally, scoring two of their three runs. The score by innings:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Pittsburg	2	0	0	0	0	2	0	2	— 6
Boston	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	— 3

Earned runs, Boston 2. Two base hits, Wagner, Clarke, Stolen bases, Freeman, O'Brien. Struck out, by Phillippi 5, by Willis 5. Passed ball, W. Clarke. Wild pitches, Phillippi, Willis. Time, 1h 55m. Umpire, O'Day. Attendance, 2500.

The other game resulted as follows: Philadelphia 5, Chicago 3

EDITH LOWE IN NASHUA.

Miss Edith Lowe, the missing Billerica girl, has been traced to Nashua, N. H., but from that point all clue is lost. It is thought however, that she is still in the city, and the Nashua officers as well as Officer Conway of Billerica are on the lookout for her.

FUNERALS

CRAIG—The funeral of Lillian E. Craig took place from the home of her parents, 9 East Pine street, yesterday, afternoon, Rev. J. M. Craig officiating. There was singing by Miss Waller and Miss Baker. The casket was completely covered with flowers from the sympathetic friends. The interment was in the Edson cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Welnbeck.

HARRINTON—The funeral services of Miss Annie Harrington was held at her late home, 68 Union street, yesterday forenoon. Requiem mass was celebrated at St. Peter's church by Rev. John J. McKenna. The bearers were cousins of the deceased, and were John, Michael, Edward, William and Maurice Powers and John Murphy. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery under the direction of Funeral Director O'Donnell. Rev. Fr. McKenna read the committal prayers at the grave. Among the floral pieces were noticed a large pillow, inscribed "Dear Aunt," from the nephews and nieces of the deceased; large cross on base, inscribed "Cousin," the Powers family; large wreath, Katie O'Neil; spray of roses, friends.

MONGHAN—The funeral of Mary, the infant daughter of William and Margaret Monghan took place this afternoon from the rear of 341 Lakeview avenue. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Molloy.

CALLAHAN—The funeral of Helen Callahan took place this afternoon from the home of her parents, William and Catherine Callahan, 331 Lakeview avenue. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery in charge of Undertaker Molloy.

KENNEDY—The funeral of Michael Kennedy who recently died at 59 Agawam street, took place yesterday afternoon from the sacred Heart church where services were conducted by Rev. Thomas Murphy, O. M. I. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery in charge of Undertaker Rogers.

BOYS DROWNED

WHILE THEY WERE LEARNING TO SWIM.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

ST. CATHERINES, Ont., Aug. 9.—Two boys, Foy McTavish, aged 13, son of D. D. McTavish, secretary of the Wilson Carbine works, and Joseph Smith, aged 14, son of Jacob Smith, a cattle dealer, were drowned late last night while learning to swim.

REPRIEVES GRANTED.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON Aug. 9.—The president has granted reprieves until Oct. 5, in the cases of Thomas and William Ruddeman, convicted in Arizona of murder and sentenced to be hanged at Tombstone next Friday. The reprieves were based on the requests of Governor Sayers of Texas, Representative Bailey and other prominent Texans, who represent that recently discovered evidence tends to show the innocence of the accused.

DEATHS

PERRY—Ann Perry died at her home, 35 Lakeview avenue, yesterday afternoon.

CALLAHAN—Helen Callahan, aged 7 months, died at the home of her parents, William and Catherine, 331 Lakeview avenue, yesterday.

NOONAN—Annie Noonan died at her home, 603 Lakeview avenue, yesterday afternoon. She is survived by a husband, Patrick, a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Maguire, two sisters, Mrs. Bert Gordon of Haverhill and Mrs. Fred Spead of this city, and two brothers, Frank and Hugh Maguire.

DOLAN—James J. Dolan, aged 39 years, died at his home, 375 Gorham street, yesterday. He is survived by a wife and three small children, three sisters and two brothers.

BJORLIN—Carl Axell Leonard Bjorlin, aged 30 years, died at St. John's hospital, yesterday.

HOUDE—Marie Louise Houdi ,aged 1 month, 7 days, died at the home of her parents, Delia and Bazila, 156 Perkins street, yesterday.

BOUCHERAGE—Exina Boucherage, aged 5 months, died at the home of her parents, Victorine and Danis, on Tucker street, yesterday.

MOUGHAN—In this city, yesterday, at the home of her parents, William and Margaret, 331 Lakeview avenue, Mary Moughan, infant daughter.

FOSS—Elizabeth Foss, aged 39 years, who died yesterday afternoon at the city farm, was the wife of David Foss, whose body was found on the Lawrence road last winter, death having been caused by exposure. A few days later it transpired that the family was in woeful circumstances and the children neglected, the eldest of whom, Jessie, was in a precarious condition. Besides Jesale, the deceased is survived by another younger daughter, Mamie, a son David of North Chelmsford and two brothers, Martin and Timothy Oately of Lawrence.

HIGGINS—Daniel, the infant child of Daniel J. and Mary Higgins died last night at the home of his parents, 132 Church street.

ROURKE—Daniel Rourke, aged 20 years, died last night at 10 Union street. He is survived by a wife, Mary Rourke, two children, one brother, Patrick Rourke, and a sister, Mrs. John Callahan.

GRADY—John H. Grady, aged 4 months, died at the home of his parents, Henry and Lottie, at 37 Elm street, yesterday afternoon.

TRANSPORT McPHERSON.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The United States transport McPherson, from Santiago, Aug. 2, and with nine officers and 412 men of the Fifth infantry on board, was sighted off the Highlands at 9.15 a. m., coming in.

The McPherson was stranded for four days near Fortune Island on the way here, being finally floated with the assistance of the Norwegian steamer Jamaica.

FIVE PRIESTS

Killed by the Chinese in Pe Chi Li

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LYONS, AUG. 9.—THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL ANNOUNCES NEW MASSACRES AND A DISASTER TO THE MISSION IN THE SOUTHEAST OF THE PROVINCE OF PE CHI LI. IT SAYS THAT FIVE PRIESTS HAVE BEEN KILLED.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Thomas B. Doherty is visiting friends in Maine.

M. Blanchard of Lowell was in Nashua Monday.

Timothy Curry of Kinsman street is stopping at York beach, Me.

Daniel H. Tupper of this city was on Nashua Monday.

Miss Bridget E. Cleary of Central street is sojourning at Lynn beach.

Miss Mabel Norton of Ames street is spending her vacation at Onset bay.

Edward Powers of Keefe Bros.' market has returned from The Wiers, N. H.

A. A. Conway of Pleasant street spent the past few days at Crescent beach.

James Hill is at Acton Centre for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Alger of Lowell were among the visitors in Nashua Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Harris of Lowell were among the visitors in Nashua yesterday.

William Riley of Kinsman street is enjoying a two weeks' vacation at Sharon Springs, N. Y.

The Misses Mamie and Nellie O'Connell of Mead street are enjoying the sea breezes at Revere beach.

The Misses Josie and Lizzie Sheridan of Andrews street are enjoying the sea breezes at Nahant beach.

Mr. George Lee of Abbott street has returned from a three weeks' vacation at Lynn.

The Misses May and Fannie Stafford of Lyon street will spend the next two weeks at Providence, R. I.

Miss Kathryn Scannell and Irma Rock will spend the next two weeks at Nahant beach.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan and Frank Bills of Lowell were recent Nashua visitors.

Mrs. James Gookin and daughter Annie of 339 Concord street have gone to Nahant on their vacation.

Mrs. John Devlin and her sister, Miss Annie Donahue, are stopping with friends in Keene, N. H.

Mrs. John Devlin and her sister, Missing the prominent summer resorts on the North shore.

Mr. John J. Ambrose of Adams street will spend the next two weeks at Salem Willows.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias A. McQuade and daughter Helen of Bridge street have gone to New York for a week's sojourn.

Miss Annie and Katie Murphy of High street goes to Hampton beach next week for a two weeks' stay.

The children of Frank J. Simonds of Pleasant street are spending the vacation in the country.

Mrs. Smith and daughter Gertrude are spending their vacations at Lynn and Winthrop beaches.

John and Fred Smith of Kinsman street are having a two-weeks vacation at Old Orchard.

Miss Nellie O'Brien and Miss Annie Latham are registered at Nahant hotel, Lynn beach.

Mr. Parker Begley and Mr. John Collins are enjoying their vacation in and around New York.

Mrs. B. Delaney with her son and daughter John and Gertrude are visiting Old Home Week at Portland, Me.

M. A. Maher has gone to Lynn, Mass.

Mrs. J. T. Rexford is at Georgeville, P. Q.

Mr. Frank Anderson, the well known Wiggleville barber are sojourning in Maine and the maritime provinces.

Mr. Samuel Sharp of Cheney place, off Liberty street, is enjoying his vacation in the Pine Tree state.

Mrs. D. W. Keefe of the Highlands and daughter May are spending their vacation at Bedford Springs.

The family of James A. Kelley of the O'Donnell Gilbride company is stopping at the Eldare house, Old Orchard beach.

Messrs. Edward Cryan and John Irwin are enjoying piscatorial pleasures on islands along the coast of Maine

Mrs. Harriet M. Cole of this city is the guest of Mrs. Burtt E. Warren of Nashua.

Frank Brown of Lowell was a visitor in Nashua yesterday. He was formerly a resident of that city.

Mr. C. J. Gliddon of the Erie Telephone company has returned home from a sojourn at Lake Mahonk, Ulster county N. Y.

Miss Maggie Dolan of Salem street, Miss Kittie Mahusse and Miss Minnie Kennedy of Cross street are sojourning at Bar Harbor.

Mr. Michael McCarthy, an employe of the U. S. Cartridge Co. and one of the survivors of the old Cumberland is on a three months' vacation in Europe.

Mrs. James O'Sullivan and family of 105 Mt. Washington street are at Old Orchard beach for the remainder of the month of August.

Miss Mary Murphy of Worcester has been the guest of Mrs. C. J. Scannell of 62 Cambridge street for the past two weeks.

Miss Maggie E. O'Neil of South Highland street and Miss Della T. Brady of Central street are spending their vacations at Old Orchard.

Mr. Patrick Gilbride of the O'Donnell Gilbride company and family started today on their vacation to Centre Harbor, N. H.

Driver James Sullivan of the Central street hose company is enjoying his vacation. He is spending the time in short trips to the country and seashore.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Burns and family of High street will go to Hampton beach next week, where they will occupy a cottage.

William Bagley and James Bowers formerly of the New England Motor Co., are registered at Old Orchard for the next two weeks.

Mrs. Frank Stowell, of Foster street, wife of ex-Alderman Stowell, who has been sojourning at Goose Rocks, Me., since June 30, is expected home the early part of next month.

Miss Annie McKenna of Salem street is spending her vacation at Old Orchard beach. On her return she will visit her sister, Mrs. Murth H. Sullivan in Medway.

Mr. David Gerow, the well known Chelmsford street provision dealer and family accompanied by Miss Deschamps of Nashua have gone on a sojourn to Plattsburg, N. Y.

Mr. William Barry, Edward Donaghue, Maurice Powers, Harry Flaherty and Henry McCluskey will start Monday for a two weeks' stay at their summer resort, Deore at Buzzard's bay.

A party of members of the Y. M. C. I. is occupying a cosy cottage at Hampton beach. Thomas Cuff, John J. Murray, Hugh Farley, Charles P. Smith and Thomas Burns are among the party.

Thomas McDermott of Gorham street will go to Portland next week. He intends to follow the New England horse racing circuit and will take in every meet.

LEBRUN IS READY

For the Proposed Investigation of Councilmen

SAYS NO MORE LAND IS NEEDED

In Addition to Present Butler School Site

Councilman Lebrun was down town this morning in conversation with a reporter of The Sun spoke interestingly and pointedly of some occurrences in the city council.

When asked if he had any idea when the investigation of his charges in connection with the purchase of land for the Butler school will take place, he said: "I have heard no time mentioned. Any time will suit me, either today, tomorrow or next week. What I have to say I will tell when I am summoned by the committee on investigation. I am not given to boasting and when I say I will do anything I mean it. I do not want to get any one in trouble, yet I do not believe in paying for land a price double what it is assessed for. Land is worth just what it will bring and when you get beyond that figure, you are imposed upon. I have no prejudice in this matter. I do not know Mr. Farrell who owns the land and have never even met him, but I propose to let certain parties know that there is at least one councilman who cannot be bought."

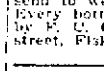

When the councilman commented upon some practices in the council, "It may seem strange," he said, "yet it is a fact that certain members of the council try to drive the others into line to favor measures proposed by them. Now, I will not be driven. No influence can reach me or direct my vote, for I am guided only by the merits of the question at issue. That smooth paving of Aiken street was a bait for me but I failed to bite. I voted against it because I am opposed to saddling any expense on the city till I know the worth of the article for which I am voting the money.

"And right here let me say something that I think should be mentioned. I have voted against propositions made by Councilman Casey but I did so, through no personal feeling but because I was honestly opposed to them. However, I can say that in my opinion his position on the smooth paving matter is correct. Casey is a bright young man, the brightest in the council chamber and no matter what his politics may be you will hear from him in the future."

When Councilman Lebrun repeated that he would not withhold anything at the proposed investigation but will tell all he knows in connection with the proposed purchase of Butler school land, "I favor neither of the sites," said he, "I do not believe the land is needed. You don't see the school board breaking their necks trying to have money voted for this land do you?"

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottle of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by E. C. Goodale, druggist, 247 Central street, Fiske's block.

Artificial Teeth

to wear well must be made of the best material. Don't waste your money on cheap teeth. They don't wear well and the last; the price is very low and you will be better satisfied. Dr. Simmons, 219 Central street.

FANS GIVEN AWAY

Beautiful and artistic Fans given away with ICE CREAM,

At Old City Hall Building.

218 Merrimack Street.

Try our ice cream soda, pure fruit flavors. Also our pure home made confectionery.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The undersigned wishes to announce to his friends and the public in general that he has disposed of his bakery at 26 and 28 Concord street, having sold out to M. W. Mulcahy. He will now have but one bakery at corner Fayette and East Merrimack streets where he will be pleased to meet his former patrons and new friends. As he can give his entire attention to one store, his patrons can find the best bread, cake and pastry to be found in Lowell. Baked beans Saturday at 4 p. m. and beans and brown bread Sunday mornings. Your trade is respectfully solicited.

P. McCARTIN,

Cor. Fayette and East Merr'k Sts

NEW FIRM.

Mr. M. W. Mulcahy wishes to announce to the public that he has purchased the bakery and business formerly carried on by P. McCartin at 26-28 Concord street where he will be pleased to see all his friends and old customers and it is his intention to supply the very best quality of bakery supplies at all times. He will also do catering for balls, parties, picnics and weddings. All orders promptly attended to at 26-28 Concord street.

M. W. MULCAHY

PROPRIETOR.

A FILTHY STREET

Jefferson Street in an Unclean Condition

HEALTH DEPT. ORDERS IT CLEANED

New Case of Diphtheria Reported

The health department this morning was notified of a case of diphtheria in Jefferson street. When the health authorities went to the house they at once were impressed with the unhealthy and unclean condition of Jefferson street. They immediately notified Agent Knapp and he promptly got after Supt. Cheney demanding that the street department clean it at once.

SEN. HANNA

ON A BRIEF VISIT TO BOSTON.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Senator Hanna and Mr. Bliss left the city last night on the Fall River boat for Boston. Chairman Hanna will remain there for two or three days, to organize New England and confer with leaders. An effort to counteract the work of the anti-imperialists in that section will be especially put forth. Just before he left Senator Hanna said: "I am going there to see the leaders and find out what the situation is and do a little organizing."

Perry S. Heath left for Chicago yesterday.

Before his departure he expressed a belief that Senator Hanna would make several speeches during the campaign. Senator Hanna was non-committal on the subject.

GOV. ALLEN.

APPOINTS A BOSTON MAN HIS PERSONAL STENORAPHER.

Gov. Allen of Porto Rico has appointed Maynard K. Yorkum of Boston as his personal stenographer. Mr. Yorkum has been employed at the Charlestown Navy Yard and is a resident of Boston. He at once accepted and will accompany Gov. Allen to Porto Rico when the latter sails on the Mayflower from the Charlestown Navy Yard next Tuesday.

OVERCOME BY HEAT

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Aug. 9.—William Minchin of Franklin street, this city, a clerk for a grocer, died at the Rhode Island hospital yesterday as a result of sunstroke. He fell, overcome by the heat, on the sidewalk and was delirious for more than two weeks, the result of a fractured skull. He was 21 years old and unmarried.

LAKEVIEW PARK

Lowell's Popular Summer Day Resort

Bowling, Fishing, Boating, Swings, Carousal, Concerts, Fireworks, Aquatic Sports.

Rare Collection of Birds and Beasts from all Climes.

The D. L. Page Company will have entire charge of the Dining Pavilion.

Special Attention to Dinner and Picnic Parties. Dance Music by Hibbard's Orchestra.

Lakeview Theatre

ONE WEEK,

Commencing Monday, Aug. 6,

Afternoon and Night.

Harry Crandall

—IN—

A Busy Day

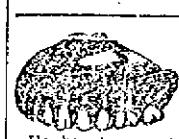

The uproarious delight! A cracker jack Comedy Co. Original songs, novel dances, great specialties. Management of Joseph J. Flynn. Performances daily, afternoon and evening.

PETER H. SAVAGE,

Undertaker and Funeral Director

169 Worthen St

Telephone connection 484-4. Calls night or day promptly attended to. Carriages furnished for weddings and christenings.

TEETH

If you think of having a new set made, see Dr. Simmons.

He has been making teeth in Lowell for 17 years. Don't waste money on cheap work, the price for the best artificial teeth is very low. Call at Lowell Dental Rooms, 219 Central street.

Peter J. Brady,

GROCER,

NEW STORE.

Cor. Gorham and South Highland Sts.

Choice Teas, Coffees and Spices

Try our new brands of Flour, the best in the city, "The King Arthur," "Crown of Gold," and "Banquet."

WHEN YOU WANT

to get a glass of SODA call at Carter & Sherburne's Drug Store. They give the largest glass and coolest Soda, made of Pure Fruit Flavors.

Carter & Sherburne, Low Price Drug Store, Merrimack Cor. Bridge St.

J. F. ROGERS, UNDERTAKER.

OFFICE—318 Central street.
RESIDENCE—29 Cedar street.
Telephone connection. Hacks furnished for all occasions.

PUGILISTIC EVENTS

A Busy Month for the Leading Scrappers

Fitz and Ruhlin Try Conclusions Friday Night—Corbett and McCoy on Aug. 30th.—Features of Their Pugilistic Tactics

Never in the history of pugilism have so many matches between first-class men claimed public attention as at the present time. Less than one short month remains for the glovemen to lawfully pursue their face-spoiling profession in the state of New York, and they are accordingly making the most of it. All the prominent heavyweights are up and doing: matches have been made right and left with little or no previous discussion, and when the smoke of these August battles clears away, the heavyweight field will be strewn with what are technically known as "dead ones," and it is quite within the bounds of possibility that a new champion may be starring through the one-night stands.

The opening gun of the general conflict will be sounded Friday evening, when the thunderous thumps given and received by Robert Fitzsimmons and Gustave Ruhlin will awaken the echoes of Madison square. These two knights of the knuckles are scheduled to visit each other's anatomy with five ounces of wadded excelsior, strictly according to the learned Marquis of Queensbury, for 25 rounds. In preparation for their public proceeding they have trained long and faithfully, and are now fit to battle for a kingdom. Ruhlin was introduced to the gathering at the recent McFadden-O'Brien dispute, his rugged appearance sending shadows chasing each other across the faces of the Fitzsimmons plungers.

According to all precedents, the Akron agriculturist should be returned a winner in the coming bout. He has on his side youth, height, weight and reach, four advantages with which, if the possessor has any cleverness at all, should render him invincible. Under the able tuition of Jim Corbett he has gained much fistic knowledge, and as his gameness has never been questioned, it would seem hard to figure the husky horseshoer as having a chance against such a combination.

But fistic "dope" is ever to be dreaded, and even more so when Fitz is a factor in the game. The Australian is nothing if not a man of surprises. During the entire course of his interesting career he has kept the pugilistic experts guessing. Previous to each of his fights they have told just what he would do and what would be done to him, and made it all so plain that it seemed needless for one to attend the contest. But on the contrary Bob would hop into the ring and do exactly the opposite of what was expected of him.

He was a long time gaining recognition, and up to the day that he shot paralysis into the Corbett solar plexus, a large percentage of the sporting fraternity had tagged him a fistic two spot. But after that gory battle all anti-Fitz talk was silenced, and those who had consistently belittled him resolved to back him in his next fight to the very limit. They were obliged to wait two years for the opportunity. Fitz was then matched to fight Jeffries, seemingly an easy mark, and, of course, the farier was a hot favorite. Those who had lost their money on Fitz's battles, from the time he defeated Jack Dempsey to the day he whipped Corbett, hastened to get a bet down on him that he would pulverize Jeff. But again did Robert do the wrong thing. For the "easy mark" knocked him out in 11 rounds. The moral of which seems to be: Count not upon what Fitz will do until he has done it.

The Cornishman in ring attire is not a thing of beauty, by any means. He is bald-headed, stoop-shouldered and so knock-kneed that his feet are perfect strangers to each other. When boxing he glides about as though on castors, crouching low, with his wide-open gloves seemingly clawing at his opponent. This attitude gives him such a ridiculous appearance that his opponent is readily inveigled into relaxing his vigilance long enough for Fitz to whip his deadly right across to the jaw and send his man in to dream-land.

In his encounter Friday evening of this week, however, Fitz must do his work quickly, if at all, for in a contest of endurance youth is bound to be served and Ruhlin is as tireless as a steam engine. Fitz will therefore cut out the pace from the tap of the gong, and a rattling go of less than fifteen rounds is expected.

On the evening of August 30 or 31 the Horton law be laid away to rest with fitting ceremonies for on one of these nights James J. Corbett and Kid McCoy will assist at the sad rites by playing taps in each other's slats, firing a volley of uppercuts at each other's profiles and crooning a sad dirge with the whirr of their flying gloves.

To the lovers of boxing the demise of the Horton law will be amost compensated for by the grand exhibition which these two marvels of fistic skill are expected to give. The men are acknowledged by all to be the two greatest boxers that ever stepped on rosin and a clash between them in the twenty-four foot ring has been talked of for years. Now they are really matched to battle in a few weeks the sporting world is in a fever of expectation, and all other matches have been cast in the shade.

As to their respective styles, they are too familiar to render lengthy discussion of them a matter of great interest. In the ring Corbett is the personification of ease, grace and skill. He trips out of his corner lelly, swinging his arms and dancing about his opponent as though he was indulging in a game of tag. The idea is further carried out by the playful way Corbett seems to slap at his man for it is hard for the spectator to realize those little taps are in reality dazzling blows, that blind sting and drive the receiver almost frantic. His opponent moves at him when suddenly—thud! Corbett lands straight on the nose, and the rusher wonders where it came from. While still in that suite, three more blows land hard on the same spot and the recipient rushes frantically at Corbett only to find that Jim is not there and when he turns to look for him—thud! thud! thud! the sore proboscis is again vigorously thumped.

In the meantime Corbett is making dukes and drakes of the other fellow's swings which is very discouraging to a fighter who will gladly accept any amount of hrd treatment if he can land solidly occasionally himself. But when he only strikes thin air and is everywhere met with ripping jabs he is certainly to be excused for wearying of it at all.

But in McCoy, Corbett will find a very different proposition from the ponderous Jeffries and the reckless Sharkey. The wily Hoosier boy, slight, pale and ghost-like, is the smoothest glove artist that ever draped an optic in mourning. Though not as graceful in action as his polished opponent, Mac is every bit as deceptive, and has what Corbett lacks, i. e., a knockout punch.

Corbett, though skilled in the art of mussing up beauty is not a knockerout, whereas they will not be a moment during the coming battle that he will not be in danger of taking a short nap as a result of a McCoy swing. The Kid proved his ability as a sleep inducer at Coney Island when he ushered in the glad new year of 1900 by sending Peter Maher to the floor to dream while Mac walked off with the money.

Both Corbett and McCoy are already in training and though each declares that the other will flunk out of the meeting it is quite certain that neither will overlook any part of his training for the great event.

In the meantime Champion Jeffries has signified his willingness to take the conceit out of the winner of the Fitz-Ruhlin bout, so it is quite probable that a battle for the championship will occur before the Horton law has been gathered to its fathers.

PRIVATE EDWARD J. BARRY, CO. L, 14TH INFANTRY, NOW WITH THE ALLIED FORCES IN CHINA.

A LOWELL BOY

In the Fighting at Tien-Tsin

SERGT. BARRY OF 14TH. INFANTRY

Wont to China With His Command

Sergeant Edward J. Barry, a Lowell boy, is with the Fourteenth infantry in China and took part in the fighting at Tien-Tsin. He has three sisters who reside on East Merrimack street, and with whom he corresponds as often as possible. His letters from the Philippines during the campaign there were read with much interest by The Sun readers. He has been in the army going on seven years, and when his present enlistment expires he will have served nine years.

His first army experience was at Fort Warren and later in Newport, at which places he spent five years of his time. Just prior to going to the Philippines he was at Winthrop. Shortly after his arrival in the Philippines he was promoted to the position of first sergeant, Co. L, 14th infantry. Originally he was a member of Co. M, and his captain was opposed to his transfer, till he learned that it meant a promotion to the brave soldier boy. The promotion was given in recognition of brave service. Sergt. Barry wrote several months ago that he intends to remain in the army as he finds the soldier's life just the life for him.

LABOR MATTERS

No Wage Reduction at the Middlesex Mills

A CONFERENCE WITH AGENT SAUNDERS

Meeting to be Held With Othor Agents

At a meeting of the Textile council, last evening, several important matters were discussed, including arrangements for the coming outing of Saturday, Aug. 18. A large number of tickets have been sold and everybody seems willing and anxious to make it a very great success.

In regard to Labor Day, all the local textile unions have voted unanimously to turn out, and it is expected that there will be a larger number of men in line than ever before. The Woolen Spinners of the Middlesex mills have received a promise from the agent that the old scale of wages will be maintained for them and that there will be no reduction. A committee from the Woolen Spinners had a conference with the agent at the mill yesterday and received the promise that union men should receive the same wages as before. The Woolen Spinners are naturally somewhat gratified to say the least at this action of the mill authorities.

The agents of the Hamilton, Merrimack and Bleachery corporations have agreed to hold a conference in regard to the wage question with Mr. Connolly and Mr. Convery, and it is expected that this will take place very shortly. Much benefit is expected to result from this conference. The council had a very interesting meeting and the outlook generally in labor circles seem to be very bright and prosperous.

STATIONERY FIREMEN.

At the meeting of the Stationary Firemen last evening there was one proposition for membership received. It was also voted to buy a new banner for the Labor Day parade. Mr. B. L. A. Richards was selected to act as aid to the chief marshal in the parade. Resolutions were adopted in honor of Chas. T. Turksham, who is about to leave for Germany.

BRICKLAYERS' UNION.

The Bricklayers' union held its regular meeting last evening. Nothing but routine business was transacted.

A BAD ACCIDENT

Interfered With the Motor Paced Race

NELSON'S PACERS WERE INJURED

The Track Too Slippery for Motors

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—The 25-mile motor-paced race between Johnnie Nelson of Chicago, Will Stinson of Cambridge and Burns Pierce of Fall River, at Charles River Park, last night, ended in a mix-up in the last lap of the second mile. Owing to the slippery track all three pacing machines went down at the turn into the stretch and piled up on the track. Nelson recovered himself quickly and finished the second mile. Kent, who with Captain Ruhr, was pacing Nelson, had his shoulder dislocated, while Pierce and Stinson were assisted to their training quarters. Kent was the only rider injured, the others escaping with slight cuts and bruises. Assistance was summoned and Kent's shoulder was replaced while he was under the influence of ether.

Nelson drew the pole at the start with Stinson in the centre and Pierce outside. The men were off quickly, Nelson being first to catch his pace and taking first place. Stinson dropped into second, followed closely by Pierce and these positions were maintained until the spill occurred. Nelson's time for the first mile was 1.48 2-5 and the second 1.52.

The five-mile amateur tandem-paced race between C. T. Ritchie of the Charleston C. C. and James A. Murphy of the Orient C. C., was won easily by the former in 10.56. M. G. Hurley of Boston won the one-mile unpaced amateur race in which there were 30 entries in 2.30.

It has not been decided when the big race will be finished.

NINE POLICEMEN

NEEDED TO STOP A FIGHT IN LYNN.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

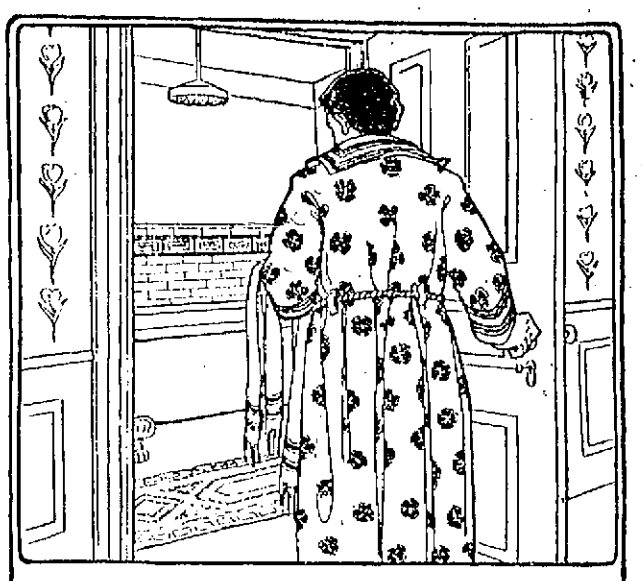

LYNN, Aug. 9.—Harry Carr and Charles Donahue of East Boston were arrested last night, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Before they were lodged in cells at police headquarters it took nine police officers to handle them.

George Dion of this city was arrested, charged with interfering with an officer. The trouble started on Central avenue, near Andrew street. Carr and Donahue became involved in a quarrel and Officers Carroll, Currant and Kimball interfered.

The Bostonians united in their efforts to get away from the officers. In a few moments a crowd of 300 gathered there, including many women, and several attempts were made to assist the prisoners to escape.

The officers were pushed down and kicked an pummeled, but not seriously injured. A man on a mustang rode to headquarters, and Patrolmen J. F. and W. F. Kane, Field, Burke and reserve officer Wilson hurried to the scene.

When they arrived the men were taken to the station house, but during the struggle were badly bruised.

DIRT CLEARANCE.

IT is a good plan for every bather to know something of the soap he uses. There is a well-founded objection to using a floor-cleaning soap upon the human body. Ivory Soap is the bather's soap. It costs more than common soaps, but the difference is in the ingredients and making. Why not treat yourself with a little respect. Is not the human skin with its marvellous delicacy entitled to pure soap? Ivory Soap—it floats.

TWO CAMPERS

VICTIMS OF A PRACTICAL JOKE BY FRIENDS.

Two Lowell young men who left Merrimack square yesterday to enjoy camp life at Salisbury beach were the cynosure of all eyes in the vicinity of the street railway waiting room. They carried a large wooden box containing cooking utensils and other paraphernalia such as bachelor cooks use while "tenting on the old camp ground."

In the wake of the two young men on vacation bent came a boy with a hand express wagon containing more luggage, all of which was hustled into the rear of a down-river electric car.

On the side of the large box which the young man carried had been placed a streamer bearing the inscription in conspicuous letters: "Bosco eats them alive; beware of pickpockets, we are alone."

Joe and Charley hurried to the car unconscious of the fact that they were the victims of a practical joke and the cause of much merriment to friends who were "tipped" to "pipe them off." at the square prior to their departure on their vacation.

An afternoon of good sport The S. C. W. races Saturday.

OFFICE LOWELL

Gas Light Company

Save Your Dollars.

The Best and Cheapest Light in the Market.

Have you the latest Welsbach burner and Mantle installed in your house or store? It will cost less than one-half a cent per hour and will give 19 candle power per light. They can be procured at this office.

Price of gas with the discount off for prompt payment is

$1 PER THOUSAND FEET.

Flat-rings Gas Ranges sold on the installment plan. Coke broken, screened and delivered at $1.50 per chaldron, $2.25 half chaldron, cash. No charge made for the use of meters. No charge made for running supply pipes from street mains to consumer's cellar. Orders when left at office promptly attended to.

Johnson's ANODYNE LINIMENT

Oldest—originated 1810. Best—for external or internal use. Cures—coughs, colds, cholera morbus, colic, stings, all pains, aches and inflammation. Costs 25 cents and 50 cents a bottle. Larger size more economical; three times as much.

I. S. JOHNSON & CO., Boston, Mass.

Upmann's Extra 5 The Best 5c Cigar on Earth.

Omega Oil

After a man or woman has lived 50 or more years, the machinery of the body is pretty well worn out. Stop a minute and think how many miles you have walked in all those years—how many thousands of pounds you have lifted—how many hours you have stood on your feet—how many times your joints have moved back and forth—how many times you have overdone things in work and in pleasure. Do you wonder that you have pains and aches? Isn't it about time you did something for your poor body? Get a bottle of Omega Oil at once, and rub it into every spot on your neck, shoulders, arms, back, hips, legs, knees, and feet where there is an ache. Rub it in good and hard, and the first thing you know you'll feel at least ten years younger. 731

A Set of Three Knives,

Bread, Carving, Paring } KNIFE

With One Pound of

60 CENT TEA.

Every Set Warranted.

O'BRIEN BROS.

Tea Dealers,

FISKE BUILDING.

27 Central St. Tel. Con

MONEY LOANED TO SALARIED PEOPLE AND RETAIL MERCHANTS, upon their own names, without security, easy payments. TOLMAN, room 61 Associate Building.

ONE IS DEAD

Consumptive Patient Used a Revolver on Relatives

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Despondent over his inability to live as he wished on the sum allowed him by his father, Jos. Rabiner, a consumptive patient, last night at Rockaway beach shot and instantly killed Isaac Stein, his brother-in-law; badly wounded his father, Jacob Rabiner and then turned the weapon upon himself with what is said to be fatal effect.

A CHURCH UNION

By Two Lowell Congregational Societies

HIGH ST. AND JOHN ST. CHURCHES

New Edifice Suggested in Nesmith Street

The building of a new Congregational church to take the place of High and John street Congregational edifices in this city, is being discussed. At a recent meeting of High street church members Hon. Charles A. Stott, Hon George A. Marden, William H. White, Clarence N. Nelson, Walter W. Johnson and a new location.

The committee, in a circular to the members say, in the opinion of an experienced builder, from $6000 to $10,000 will have to be expended in a short time on the present building.

They also say that there is a possibility of selling the present church property for $10,000, and that members of John street church and society might join with High street church in building a new edifice.

Five questions were presented to 325 persons connected with High street church and they are requested to send answers to Clarence W. Whidden.

The land at the corner of Nesmith and Wyman streets is suggested for the new building.

LOWELL MEN

AT CAMP OF AMERICAN CANOE ASSOCIATION.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WINDERMERE, Muskoka Lakes, Ont., Aug. 9.—Life at the camp of the American Canoe association on the Big Island, Lake Rosseau, has settled down to regular routine. Recent arrivals include Paul Butler, Butler Ames, J. Arthur Gage, Miss Sarah Ames, Miss Jessie Ames and Adelbert Ames, Jr., of Lowell, Mass.; Harold Banker of Waltham, Mass.; Harold Banker of boat near the headquarters: E. T. Brigham, W. W. Crosby, G. W. Burnham, Edward F. Wyer and Wm. Fowle of Woburn, Mass.

CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine. SAFE. Always reliable. Ladies, ask Druggist for CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH in RED and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with Blue Ribbon. Take no other. Refuse Dangerous Substitutions and Imitations. Buy of your Druggist, or send 4c. in stamps for Particulars, Testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Sold by all Druggists. Chichester Chemical Co. Mention this Paper. Madison Square, PHILA., PA.

Sold by Eastern Drug Co., Boston, Mass.

WORKINGMEN, ATTENTION!

THE ROOM-E-NUF OVERALL.

We Shall Place On Sale SATURDAY 5000 Pairs of Overalls and Coats

THE STRONGHOLD OVERALL.

Made from the very best materials and manufactured by experienced, well paid help, in first-class factories. Stronger, more thoroughly made or more serviceable Overalls and Coats cannot be found. They are made full size in waist, seat and leg. We have only one object in view in holding this sale for a few days, and that is to acquaint more people with this large and busy department and its unmatchable values.

COMMENCING SATURDAY MORNING.

—YOUR CHOICE OF—

700 Pairs of Overalls and Coats, made from the best grade of Otis blue check, full size, loops and patent buttons.

800 Pairs of Painters' White Overalls, railroad back, top pocket; all sizes.

1200 Pairs of Heavy Stripe Denim Overalls and Coats, railroad high back and front, loops and patent buttons; all sizes.

2500 Pairs of Heavy Blue Denim Coats and Overalls, railroad back, two seams, swinging pockets.

800 Pairs of Plain Black Heavyweight Overalls and Coats, patch pocket, loops and patent buttons.

All the above goods are the regular 50c., 65c., and 75c. qualities, and cannot be bought for any less elsewhere. We have marked the entire stock at

38c. a Garment.

This sale will last only a few days. We will not sell any of these goods to dealers or speculators.

THE RAILROAD OVERALL.

Lowell One-Price CLOTHING CO.

72-80 Merrimack St.

THE MECHANICS OVERALL.

MID-SUMMER MILLINERY

Trimmed Hats at... 98c Up

We are closing them out regardless of cost.

ALL what we have.

the new things in Outing Hats in felt. If you are going to the beach or the country you want a Felt Hat. Let us show you Our prices are the lowest.

HEAD & SHAW, "The Milliners" 169-175 Merrimack St.

THE LOWELL SUN

Three Editions Daily.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor.

SUN BUILDING, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press.

$3.00 Per Year. 25c. Per Month

The Sun is the only paper in Lowell receiving the full day service of the Associated Press, the greatest news gathering organization in the world. The entire service is received over a leased wire by our own operator in our own office in the Sun building.

May Have Seen Better Days

There are at least two local papers with less than one-fifth the circulation of THE SUN. They may have seen better days, but the only remnant of their former glory is the high price they charge for advertising.

If the price they ask is a fair one, THE SUN would be justified in asking five times as much, but we do not ask even twice as much. Don't you see why advertising in THE SUN is the cheapest in Lowell?

THE SUN has a larger circulation than any two other papers printed in Lowell.

It is in every respect

LOWELL'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

MR. BRYAN'S SPEECH.

Everybody interested in the welfare of this nation or in the rights and interests of humanity in general, should read the speech of William Jennings Bryan at Indianapolis yesterday. It is one of the clearest, most logical and convincing expositions of American principles as opposed to imperialism and the present republican policy towards the Filipinos that can possibly be given.

It shows wherein imperialism departs from American principles and in referring to the treaty ceding the Philippines to the United States, Mr. Bryan shows that he favored the ratification of the treaty, assuming that American principles would be applied to the government of the Filipinos as to the government of the Cubans. This disposes of the hypocritical charge made by Senator Hoar, namely, that Bryan was responsible for the war because he favored the ratification of the treaty. He favored it on the ground that it would be the speediest way to end the war, not that it should be made the ground for starting a new war.

Mr. Bryan also disposed of the chief claims made in defence of the imperial policy in a masterly way, under the following heads:

First: That we must improve the present opportunity to become a world power and enter into international politics.

Second: That our commercial interests in the Philippine islands and in the Orient make it necessary for us to hold the islands permanently.

Third: That the spread of the Christian religion will be facilitated by a colonial policy.

Fourth: That there is no honorable retreat from the position which the nation has taken.

Mr. Bryan's refutation of these claims was so forcible and overwhelming that no republican can adequately answer his keen and scathing logic. The closing paragraph of his address had reference to the republican twaddle about destiny and expressed his views on the destiny of this republic in this grand period:

I can conceive of a national destiny surpassing the glories of the present and the past—a destiny which meets the responsibilities of today and measures up the possibilities of the future. Behold a republic, resting securely upon the foundation stones quarried by revolutionary patriots from the mountain of eternal truth—a republic applying in practice and proclaiming to the world the self-evident proposition—that all men are created equal; that they are endowed with inalienable rights; that governments are instituted among men to secure these rights; that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. Behold a republic in which civil and religious liberty stimulate all to earnest endeavor, and in which the law restrains every hand uplifted for a neighbor's injury—a republic in which every citizen is a sovereign but in which no one cares to wear a crown. Behold a republic standing erect while empires all around are bowed beneath the weight of their own armaments—a republic whose flag is loved while other flags are only feared. Behold a republic increasing in population, in wealth, in strength and in influence, solving the problems of civilization and hastening the coming of an universal brotherhood—a republic which shakes thrones and dissolves aristocracies by its silent example and gives light and inspiration to those who sit in darkness. Behold a republic gradually but surely becoming the supreme moral factor in the world's progress and the accepted arbiter of the world's disputes—a republic whose history, like the path of the just, "is as the shining light that shineth more and more into the perfect day."

THE CHINESE SITUATION.

The gloom of mystery that up to Tuesday evening rendered the Chinese situation impenetrable to all the civilized powers has been swept away by the light thrown upon it by cipher messages from Minister Conger of the United States and the British minister at Pekin.

The demand that the ministers be safely escorted to Tien-Tsin was made of China by powers before the real situation was known but under the present circumstances as appears from Conger's message, it would be certain death to attempt such a transfer. The ministers dare not risk it so that the powers will now appeal to China with all the force at their command for the safety of the ministers. Nothing less than the threat to take reprisals, to decapitate the heads of the Chinese government if the ministers are killed will be of any use.

Li Hung Chang says China must fight if the allies approach Pekin and the furious Boxers who evidently disregard consequences will endeavor to kill the ministers as they have repeatedly threatened. Even the imperial officials who rightly or wrongly disclaim sympathy with the Boxers have threatened this, but the warning of the combined powers will probably overcome them and result in the protection of the surviving legations.

In any event since the imperial government appears to be responsible for much of the atrocities inflicted upon foreigners, the powers have abundant cause for making war upon China either separately or in a combination as is proposed. When that war is over China will be much wiser and the fury of the Boxers will become considerably subdued, although in spite of all the powers may do no foreigner will be safe in China for generations to come unless protected by European troops.

City Marshal O'Sullivan of Lawrence is to be commended for his kindness in the treatment of the various unfortunates who fall into his hands. The other night he found a young woman asleep in a doorway. Instead of bringing charges of drunkenness, vagrancy or something worse against her, he ordered the matron at the police station to treat her kindly, until he could find a home for her. She was supplied with money to secure her trunk, held for room rent at a hotel, and she was also placed in a position where she can earn a living—all out of the kindness shown her by the city marshal. There is no office with the exception of that of a clergyman in which kindness is more necessary than in that of city marshal, and the Lawrence official shows that in this respect he is the right man for the place.

The municipal lodging house at Syracuse, N. Y., which has now been in operation a year, is declared to be highly successful. Lodgers have a bath, bed and food, also the use of a reading room. The next day they have work on the streets, half a day's work at street cleaning. This pays for the lodging and food and leaves the afternoon free to look for work or get out of town. The rest of the undertaking was about the same as the market value of the work done at street cleaning and snow-shoveling by the lodgers.—Exchange.

This is undoubtedly a very excellent method of handling the occasional visitors known as "tramps," who call at the police station for lodging. In this city they are sent to the city farm, where they are obliged to saw wood in lieu of food and lodging. They are limited in the number and frequency of their visits, so that those who call once are not in a hurry to come back, lest they be sent into court as vagrants. They go elsewhere.

Just as long as people purchase horses with docked tails just so long will there be found men brutal enough to perform the dirty work of docking them. When the law steps in and imposes a penalty for having a bob-tailed horse in one's possession, then, and not until then, will the practice cease. The Gazette maintains that the method it suggests of putting a stop to the docking of horses' tails is the best yet devised.—Haverhill Gazette.

We fully endorse the Gazette's plan for stopping this cruel and idiotic practice which is at best but a cheap way of aping the English horseman. In a climate so hot as this a docked horse suffers a great deal more from flies than in England.

Congressman Towne has taken himself most graciously out of the way of Adlai E. Stevenson in the democratic campaign. In so doing he loses nothing and helps the cause of democracy.

A commander-in-chief of the allies has been chosen. He is a German and in all probability a man well qualified for the place. The German generals know their business.

Smooth paving will be discussed at a public hearing next Tuesday evening. The remonstrants will have their innings.

The city council says we shall have an electric car sprinkler, although the mayor says nay. Some change is needed from the present system.

The McKinley brand of prosperity is petering out.

CRISP GOSSIP

The bare-armed girl is getting up a well tanned muscle.

The retail market shows almost no change from last week. Haddock drop.

CONGER, PHOENIX-LIKE, RISES FROM THE FLAMES.

I paid a cent but everything else is stationery.

The tide of summer business is at its height now and all trains through Lowell are heavy laden.

France makes nearly 26,000,000 pairs of gloves yearly and of these 18,000,000 pairs are exported.

I would I were a polar bear,
The ice there's bliss in clinking it!
He bathes in zero water there,
Instead of merely drinking it.

The new single breasted frock coat designed by the Prince of Wales is probably all right but what one fain would see is a negligee shirt that does not require suspenders or belt to keep up the trousers.

A bicycle that in five minutes can be taken apart and packed in a bag 21 x 16 inches has been invented by an ingenious Frenchman.

A "quiet home wedding" took place at Hagerstown, Md., recently. The bride, groom, best man, and clergyman were all deaf and dumb.

London is putting in its own telephone system, and expects to furnish 40,000 subscribers at normal rates. The cost is $5,000,0000.

A Blaine county (Oklahoma) infant has for his given name Dennis Roosevelt McKinley and the parents are trying to rear the child.

It is a poor plan to have a strip of carpet or a woolen mat on the bath room floor to absorb the moisture and eventually become unhygienic. A cork mat or a rubber mat is preferable.

It is said that the proprietor of a Chicago gambling house recently secured an order of the court restraining the police from raiding his place. That is government by injunction with a vengeance.

The prince of Wales is more familiar with the common affairs of life than we supposed. His action in the Astor case clearly demonstrates that he knows an ass when it brays.

More Lowell people than ever before are taking their vacation this summer in daily trips to places of interest. With the excellent facilities for transportation it is by no means an unsatisfactory way of spending one's leisure.

East Orange, N. J., has put in operation a strange ordinance by which the owners of a cock that crows or a hen that cluckes between the hours of 10 p. m. and 5 a. m. is liable to a fine of $5. The ordinance reads that any person keeping fowl, swine, goats or horses that may be complained of shall remove them to a point 200 feet from the property of the complainant, and that such stock as annoy people between the hours of 10 p. m. and 5 a. m. will be regarded as a nuisance and if the owner fails to keep his stock or fowl quiet between the prescribed hours, he can be fined $25 for the first offense and $50 for the second. The cackling by hens is regarded as in the same degree heinous as the crowing of roosters. Neighing and kicking horses and cattle that bellow are in the same class.

When woman smiles her sweetest—ah,
Perhaps her heart is breaking.
When woman's look is tenderest
She may be sadly making
A last brave fight to keep the tears—
The bitter tears—from flowing—
A woman's happy glances may
Not be an outward showing.

When woman smiles, 'tis hard to tell.
She may, alas, be grieving!
Her careless air may be put on
Her soulful look deceiving!
When woman smiles take care—beware!
She may perchance be scheming
To work you—never, never judge
Her by her outward seeming.

The newspaper world loses a hard working and valued member in the death of Ballard Smith. He practically wore himself out in the interest of his paper. His indomitable will kept him at his desk until his health was completely shattered.

Butter is now packed in a box of six sheets of ordinary window glass, the edges being covered with gummed paper. The closed box is then enveloped in a layer of plaster of paris a fourth of an inch thick, and it is covered with a specially prepared paper. As the plaster is a bad conductor of heat, the temperature inside the hermetically sealed package remains constant, being unaffected by external change. The cost of packing in this way is only about two cents per pound and is used to a great extent in Australia. Butter has been sent from Melbourne to Kimberley, in South Africa, packed in this manner and was found to be perfectly sound. Cases are now made which hold as much as 800 pounds of butter.

The following epitaph is still to be seen on a monument in a burying ground at Concord, N. H.:

God wills us free.—Man wills us slaves.
I will as God wills God's will be done.
Here lies the body of
JOHN JOCK,
A native of Africa, who died
March, 1773, aged about sixty years.
Though born in a land of slavery,
He was born free.
Though he lived in a land of liberty,
He lived a slave,
Till by his honest, though stolen labors,
He acquired the source of slavery,
Which gave him his freedom;
Though not long before
Death, the grand tyrant,
Gave him his final emancipation,
And put him on a footing with kings.
Though a slave to vice,
He practiced those virtues
Without which kings are out slaves.

A New Jersey hotel keeper has demonstrated his unfitness for paternity by teaching his 4-year-old daughter to smoke and drink. Recently at Freehold it occurred to him that it would be a good plan to exhibit his child's talents. He lighted a big black cigar, about half as big as she, stuck it between her lips and sent her promenading down the leading street of the village. The little girl was as proud of her accomplishment as her father, apparently, for she pulled away at the rank weed and seemed to enjoy the flavor, the father tagging after with a look of conscious pride upon his face. Men and women who do not know the esthetics of child-smoking stopped in horror and remonstrated with the father for permitting such depravity. "You mind your own business," he said. "I do as I please with my child. Smoke? Of course she smokes. Don't I smoke? She can drink beer and whiskey, too, like her old father before her. If you don't like it you can lump it," and he went on, purple with indignation.

Clear The Deck

OF ALL ODD PIECES OF

FURNITURE

And All Remnants of Floor Covering

Is The Order of The Day.

AUGUST is the month of BARGAINS at

A. E. O'HEIR & CO., 14-16-18 Merrimack St.,

Near Electric Car Waiting Room.

The People's Favorite Furniture Store.

OLDEST SETTLER

In the Lowell Colony of Greeks

WAS THE LATE PETER DAPONTES

Who Died at City Farm Monday

Peter Dapontes, whose death was mentioned in The Sun of yesterday as having passed away at the city farm on Monday, where he had been taken four years ago, owing to insanity, was the oldest settler in the Lowell Greek colony. He was born on the island of Andro, off the coast of Greece, and when but a boy he shipped as a common seaman on a Grecian bark bound for Boston. On his arrival in Boston he received his discharge and after a few months stop in that city he came to Lowell and opened a wholesale fruit business on Middlesex street, where he continued to do a prosperous business until a few years ago. He removed his store to Broadway, where he did business until four years ago, when he was unfortunately stricken with insanity and carried to the city farm. Three years ago while in that institution, Mr. Dapontes was taken with a violent attack and one afternoon the house doctor came to his apartments and found him in an unconscious condition and on examination believed him dead. The physician notified his friends in Lowell, who immediately went to where he was laid out and according to the Greek custom dressed him for burial. On their return to Lowell they notified a local undertaker, requesting him to remove the body to the city on the following morning. When the undertaker arrived at the farm he was surprised to find him about and stirring.

When the local Greeks heard of Mr. Dapontes and that the city was to bury him they requested that they might perform that duty and the body was removed to the morgue of Undertaker C. H. Molloy. The date of the funeral has not been announced but it is thought will be on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Dapontes' death will be mourned not only by the Greeks, but all others who knew him in life.

Carat, Ingraham, Keegan and Hamilton at the S. C. W. meet next Saturday.

DENNIS ARRESTED

Charged With Indecent Exposure of Person

HAS ANNOYED PEOPLE IN HIGHLANDS

He Was Caught in Westford Street

Henry Dennis, a well appearing fellow, who claims Troy, N. Y., as his home, was arrested in Westford street yesterday afternoon by Captain Kew and Officer Atkinson.

The charge against him is indecent exposure and it is claimed that he has been making a nuisance of himself in the vicinity of Tyler Park for several days past. The police also suspect that he may be the man who attempted to assault a little girl in the woods at North Chelmsford a short time ago.

His arrest yesterday was the result of a complaint made by a resident in the vicinity of Tyler Park. It is said that people up there saw Dennis acting objectionable and at once telephoned to the police station. Officer Atkinson was detailed to look up the fellow. He called at Capt. Kew's house and with the captain started in search of the fellow. They caught him on Westford street and placed him under arrest.

Don't forget the S. C. W. races Saturday. Always exciting.

We don't want to carry goods from one season to another, we firmly believe in clearing out all goods when they are new and stylish—even if it is necessary to sell them below cost and at a small loss—it's best for us and best for our customers.

Every garment in this store is marked down to a price that we are sure will sell them quickly, some at half price—below actual cost—others very near half price.

Bargain prices in superb qualities and liberal credit ought to sell everything in sight this week.

Are you looking for bargains? Don't worry about the cash. Credit is free. Ask for it.

All Summer Goods to Go at Greatly Reduced Prices.

Including Wash Skirts, P. K. Linen, Duck. Also all Shirt Waists, newest styles and prettiest makes. Ladies' Tailor-made Suits. Outer Garments for Ladies, Misses and Children. Men's, Boys' and Youths' Summer Clothing. Men's $3.00 Shoes. We warrant every pair.

Cæsar Misch

CASH OR CREDIT

78 Middlesex Street, Odd Fellows' Block,

A. STRAUSS, Manager.

LOWELL RESIDENTS

PARTICIPATING IN OLD HOME WEEK IN MAINE.

Governor Powers of Maine, having issued a call for all of the former citizens of the Pine Tree State to return to their fatherland and join in the celebration of "Home Week," the following sons of Maine have left Lowell to participate in the festivities: Abel Wheeler, Alex. Abels, Henry L. Pike, Cassius Pierce, Deacon E. G. Bartlett, Fred. W. Farnsham, A. T. Smith and F. N. Haynes, Charles E. Carter, Prof. John E. Jackson and E. A. Smith.

Before leaving Lowell the gentlemen perfected an organization called the Dirigo Club, of which Abel Wheeler is the president; Alex. Abels, commissary, and Deacon Bartlett, treasurer.

The party will return after a tour of their homestate and a good sniff of the sea breeze at York beach.

All the crack riders will be at the S. C. W. meet Saturday.

WHAT THEY ALL SAY.

"I am going to advertise in your paper everytime and I will tell all my friends to advertise in The Sun" Is what they all say who try The Sun wants. Why? Because they bring results. Last week Miss Joyce of Centralville lost a gold watch. She advertised her loss in The Sun and that same night the watch was returned to her through the ad. in The Sun. Another prominent school teacher of Centralville had occasion to use The Sun want column. She advertised in all the other papers until she got sick and tired of it without getting a single reply. At last she tried The Sun and the first day the ad. appeared a dozen answers were received at the office for her. Now she says there is only one paper in Lowell that's worth advertising in. Is it any wonder that The Sun has more wants than any other paper in Lowell.

Don't miss the five-mile pursuit race at S. C. W. meet Saturday.

BIG FOUR CLUB AT CAMP.

The Big Four club, one of most popular organizations is enjoying life at Simpson's pond. They will remain here for the rest of the month. George Cowen is head chef and his services are highly commended by all who have visited the camp.

WESTFORD

Mr. Henry Wright and family, who have been visiting his father, left for their home at Quincy on Monday last.

Misses Hattie and Fanny Buckminster of Malden were recently the guests of Daniel Atwood and family.

Fred F. Wiggin has gone on a ten days' visit to his home at Baldwin, Me.

Miss Florence Read is laid up with an injured ankle, the result of a fall last Saturday.

There will be a concert by the children at the Congregational church next Sunday morning. A collection will be taken for Congregational Education society, and also the Sunday school and Publishing society.

The concert which was to have been held at the Unitarian church, Tuesday evening, the 7th, has been postponed till Friday evening, the 10th.

Mrs. Clara Littlefield of Fitchburg, her son Fred, wife and three daughters of Farmington, N. H., drove down Friday to visit relatives at the Walker homestead. Edward Littlefield joining the company Saturday evening. All returned to Fitchburg Sunday, taking Mrs. Walker with them, Edward Littlefield making the trip on his bicycle.

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT.

Miss Sadie Campbell of Congress street, who is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. Alex. Campbell of Webster, Mass., is making many friends among the young people of that place. Last Tuesday they arranged a novel entertainment in her honor, eight couples went to an adjoining town for a hay rack ride. The ladies wore print dresses and sunbonnets and the young men wore overalls and straw hats. Arriving at their destination they had a real New England dinner, after which there was dancing in the barn, for which a country fiddler furnished the music.

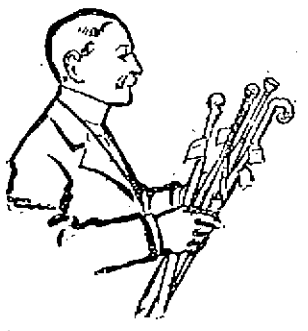

RED MEN'S OUTING.

The Red Men in Nashua, Manchester and Lowell, are making arrangements to hold their annual outing early in September, and it is generally understood that the place selected will be Lawndale, at Nashua. Committees of arrangements have been appointed in Manchester and Lowell and at the regular meeting next Monday evening, the committees from Watananock Tribe of Nashua will be appointed. The gathering will be one of the events of the season.

Putnam & Son,

166 CENTRAL STREET.

There are many items of interest in this summer stock, that make strong price appeals to summer buyers. We are doing an excellent business in trousers—good sorts, for all purposes—quiet patterns, all wool cassimeres; well made, strong, will stand hard work, 98c. and $1.19. Dressier trousers, smooth worsteds, in patterns like the best goods, $1.98 and $3.48. Fine worsteds from Rogers, Peet & Co., the best we know about $4.95

MERCERIZED UNDERWEAR, that looks like silk, quite the daintiest underwear shown; 18 dozens just "picked up" at a bargain. Usually sold for $1, this to go shirt or drawers, for . . . . . 59c.

AN OCCASIONAL RAINY DAY may remind you that an umbrella won't come amiss in vacation. Three or four specials here are worth consideration; a lot of men's umbrellas made for us, silk through and through, fine paragon frames, very close roll, special handles in natural wood, silk case, five dollars' worth, for $3.25

AN EXCELLENT serge umbrella, men's, paragon frame, steel rod and natural handles, with sterling silver mounts, at a special price . . . . . 98c.

A LITTLE LOT of women's sun and rain umbrellas, mercerized covers, Dresden, pearl and natural wood handles, paragon frames, seem very cheap at . . . . . 80c.

IN THE BOYS' ROOM we've put a small lot of white duck sailor suits, fine ones that sold for $4.00, down to . . . $1.48

THE CRASH TROUSERS that were 79c., all now . . . 48c.

STAR WAISTS. Shirt Waists, 40 only, were $1.26 and $1, all now . . . . . 47c.

STAR BLOUSES, French flannel, madras and cheviot. All these are from the $1.50 and $2.00 lots, down now to . . . 67c.

From Yesterday's Late Editions.

THE CHINESE

Have Been Expelled From Pei-Tsang

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LONDON, Aug. 8—The British consul at Tien-Tsin, under date of Monday, Aug. 6, announces that the Chinese have been expelled from Pei-Tsang and that they are in full retreat.

CHINESE SITUATION IS NOW MOST SERIOUS

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The message from Minister Conger brings the Chinese situation to its most serious stage. The authorities in Washington are aware that nothing but the most vigorous action can meet the conditions, save the ministers and other foreigners in Pekin, and avert a war of long duration. After a conference of the men in charge of the diplomatic and military affairs, in which President McKinley (who is at Canton) participated over the long-distance telephone, it was decided to send a message to Consul-General Goodnow, repeating the contents of the Conger message and advising him that a crisis had been reached. He was directed to communicate the fact to Li Hung Chang, to Sheng and other Chinese officials who were to transmit it to the government of China with a strong representation that the present situation was intolerable and could not be continued without the most serious results. It is understood that the despatch was practically an ultimatum and that an early reply was demanded. hThe answer is expected during the day or evening and it probably will determine the future action of this government.

It is not believed by the war department officials that the international forces now operating along the Pei-Ho river can reach Pekin in time to rescue the ministers if active hostilities should begin against the legationers by the imperial troops. Some of the officials believe that there is greater safety for the ministers and other foreigners in accepting an escort of the imperial army to Tien-Tsin, than remaining in Pekin if war should be declared.

The information received through the Chinese minister regarding the opening of communication between the ministers and their governments is the one ray of hope in the situation. Whether the promises contained in the edict will be made good ought to be speedily known and if communication is established the most serious consequences may be averted. Although there have been intimations before that such communication would be established this is the first time that it has appeared in the from of an imperial edict.

IMPERIAL EDICT MADE PUBLIC

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINTON, Aug. 8.—The Chinese minister visited the state department today and transmitted to this government the following edict::

An imperial edict of the 8th day of the seventh moon (Aug. 2, 1900), transmitted by Viceroy Li Hung Chang, Viceroy Liu Kun Yi and Director General Sheng, under date of Aug. 4, 1900, to Minister Yang, at St. Petersburg, and re-transmitted by the latter, under date of Aug. 7 and received by Minister Wu on the evening of the last named date. It is as follows:

Li Hung Chang and Liu Kun Yi, in response to their joint memorial proposing the sending of the foreign ministers to Tien Tsin, received on the 8th instant (Aug. 2), the following imperial edict:

"Throughout the disturbances recently caused by our subjects on account of christian missions, which have resulted in a conflict of forces, it has been found necessary to afford protection to all the foreign ministers in Pekin. On repeated occasions the Tsung-Li-Yamen sent notes inquiring after their welfare. And as Pekin has not been restored to order and precautionary measures may not secure absolute safety, the foreign ministers are being consulted as to the proposed plan of detailing troops to escort them safely to Tien Tsin for temporary shelter, so that they may be free from apprehensive anxiety or fear.

"We hereby command Jung Lu to appoint as a preliminary step, trustworthy, high, civil and military officials, who, together with reliable and efficient troops, shall, at such time as the foreign ministers may agree upon for leaving Pekin, escort and protect them throughout their journey. Should lawless characters manifest evil designs upon the ministers or attempt to rob them or in any way create trouble, they (the high officials) shall at once repress them without fail.

"If the foreign ministers, before leaving Pekin, should desire to communicate with their respective governments, and if their telegraphic messages should be in plain language, the Tsung-Li-Yamen shall at once attend to them without the least delay, thus manifesting the utmost friendliness of the imperial government. Respect this."

JAPANESE TOOK PEI TSANG

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The navy department has received the following cablegram from Admiral Remey:

Che-Foo, Aug. 8.

Bureau of Navigation, Washington:

Taku, Aug. 6—Chaffee reports Japanese took Pei-Tsang morning of the fifth. Engagement over before Americans arrived. Movement probably continued to Yang-Tsun. Inform secretary of war. (Signed) REMEY.

LI HUNG CHANG PREPARES TO FIGHT

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LONDON, Aug. 8, 3.45 A. M.—"In case the troops advance, the Chinese must fight. The suggestion that the allies should be allowed to enter Pekin in order to escort the ministers to Tien-Tsin is absolutely impossible."

This is the dictum of Li Hung Chang. It was transmitted last evening to Mr. William Pritchard Morgan, member of parliament, for Merthyr Tydvil, by his agent at Shanghai. The agent had carried to Earl Li a message from Mr. Morgan urging that the allied troops be allowed to enter the capital and stating that a settlement could be made at Tien Tsin whereby a war by the world against China would be averted; but even the optimistic Li failed to hold out the slightest hope of its feasibility, although he reiterated to Mr. Morgan's agent his declaration that the ministers had left Pekin, fixing the date of their departure as Aug. 2. The agent makes this comment:

"The consuls are without confirmation."

These messages have been sent to Lord Salisbury accompanied by a statement by Mr. Morgan, urging that the allies should take no step t oendanger the lives of the ministers.

CIPHER MESSAGE MAY BE SENT

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Minister Wu this morning received an edict, under date of Aug. 5, in which the Chinese government permits the powers to hold open and free communication with their ministers. This includes the sending of cipher messages.

DAY NURSERY ASSOCIATION.

Following is the report of the Day Nursery association for July:

Total number of attendances, 523, largest number of children received any one day 47, three children received medical treatment and one lost child was cared for.

Contributions were received from Miss Lizzie Comptois, Mrs. W. H. Johnson, Mrs. Christina Rand and the proprietor of the Enterprise bakery.

July 16th, about one hundred children and their mothers were entertained by the ladies of the Baptist church of Chelmsford, free transportation being supplied by the Lowell & Suburban Co.

A. L. BACHELLER, Clerk.

CONFERRED WITH McKINLEY.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Soon after Mr. Root arrived at the war department this morning he went to the White House and conferred with President McKinley over the long distance telephone. The result of the conference has not been made known.

LABOR NEWS

The executive board of the Weavers Union held a meeting in Loomfixers' hall, last evening. Matters of routine business were transacted and Labor day was discussed at some length.

WOOLEN SPINNERS UNION.

There was a special meeting of the Woolen spinners' union in Bay State hall last evening. Matters relative to the wage quetion were discussed and acted upon. It was voted not o make the proceedings public.

CARPENTERS' UNION.

The Carpenters' union held a meeting in Mule Spinners hall last evening. Arrangements for Labor Day and its observance occupied the greater part of the meeting.

JOHN LAGASSE DISCHARGED.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

FALL RIVER, Aug. 8—John Lagasse, the helper on a local ice wagon, which ran over and killed William J. Murphy, aged 4 years, July 11, and who was subsequently arrested, charged with manslaughter, was heard on continuance in the second district court this morning and discharged, the evidence failing to show any criminal negligence on the part of defendant.

MILLS WILL CLOSE.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WALTHAM, Mass., Aug. 8.—The Boston Manufacturing company will close its cotton mills here on August 15 for two weeks, in order to reduce the amount of stock on hand. This closing is in accordance with a reported agreement of textile manufacturers throughout New England.

Mr. Clinton Royer has accepted a position with the Lowell Bleachery Co.

Miss Tena Ross has returned from a pleasant week's vacation spent as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clark at their cottage at Island Pond, Pelham, N. H.

Miss Tena Ross, the well known organist of this city has been engaged as organist for the remainder of the summer at the Paige street Freewill Baptist church.

CHIN SING ROBBED.

Chin Sing, a respectable Chinaman and the proprietor of a laundry at 307 Bridge street claims that he was knocked down and robbed of $50 by a fellow countryman in Paige street. Monday night and he is said to be in pretty bad shape as a result of the beating he received.

KING AND QUEEN ARRIVES.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

ROME, Aug. 8.—King Victor Emmanuel III and Queen Helena arrived here this morning. They were received by the ministers, the presidents of the senate and chamber of deputies, many senators and deputies and all the civil and military authorities. The sovereign went immediately to the Quirinal.

During their passage through the streets the crowds present uncovered their heads.

SERIOUS CHARGE

Geo. L. Raymond Held by Manchester Police

MRS. LAPLANTE IS HIS VICTIM

The Assault Has Caused Great Excitement

By Associated Press to The Sun.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 8.—Geo. L. Raymond was held by the police court today without bail, on a charge of rape. His offence was one of the most brutal and aggravated reported in this locality for a long time. He is 26 years of age and a mill hand. He lives with his wife at 50 Market street, and his victim, Mrs. Luiger Laplante, lives in an adjoining tenement, No. 52. The two families have been intimate for a long time. July 31 Raymond made his first improper advances to Mrs. Laplante, and was repelled. She reported the fact to her husband, but in view of the long standing intimacy between the families it was deemed best not to make any trouble. On the day following Raymond called again after Mr. Laplante had gone to his work. After rapping several times, he gained admittance, having a chair in his hands which he had taken from Laplante's to repair. Mrs. Laplante looked at the chair and remarked that it had not been repaired. She had no sooner spoken that Raymond seized her, stifling her cries for help with one hand over her mouth. She is a small and somewhat frail woman, but fought desperately, her clothing being torn to tatters. On completing his assault, Raymond shaved off his moustache and went to the home of his brother in New Boston, where he was arrested by the Manchester officers during the night. He was preparing to leave for Canada today. Mrs. Laplante is 22 years old and is the mother of two small children. The case has occasioned much excitement.

STEAMER STRUCK

THE ADMIRAL SAMPSON ON A ROCK.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—The American fruit steamer Admiral Sampson, which came into Boston harbor this morning from Port Antonio, Jamaica, with a cargo of fruit, struck on Shag Rock, just below Boston Lights, during a dense fog. Tugs were quickly summoned and as the tide served to advantage the steamer was released from her position and towed to her berth at Long Wharf. The vessel was not seriously damaged.

BADLY INJURED

MARY TRUMAN FELL INTO EAST RIVER.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Mrs. Mary Truman, quite old and penniless, is dying at Bellevue hospital as a result of falling accidentally falling into the East river. She had applied to the authorities for assistance and was on her way to the city lodging house when sitting down on a pier to rest she fell into the water.

From papers found in Mrs. Truman's possession it was learned that she was formerly Miss Mary Gill of San Francisco. Her husband, John Truman, was when he married her, about [illegible], an immensely wealthy California miner. In [illegible] they went to Costa Rica and other Central and South American countries and the great fortune of the husband was lost and he became involved in a law suit and in [illegible] he died at Trinidad.

GILLOW'S BILLS

FOR HORSE AND WAGON ARE APPROVED.

At a special meeting of the committee on accounts in the office of the city auditor last night two bills in the lands and buildings department for the purchase of a horse and democrat wagon were approved.

THOMAS HICKEY DEAD.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

FALL RIVER, Aug. 8.—Thomas F. Hickey, one of the best known newspaper men in southeastern Massachusetts, died at his home on Locust street at an early hour this morning, after a lingering illness, attributed to overwork. He had been connected with the Daily Globe for many years, becoming well known through his work in connection with the Borden murder case. Of late years he served the Globe as political reporter and was also correspondent of the Boston Herald. Mr. Hickey served one term as registrar of voters. He was about 30 years of age.

TOWNE OUT

He Withdraws From the Populist Ticket

By Associated Press to The Sun.

DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 8.—Former Congressman Charles A. Towne, who was nominated for the vice-presidency by the populist national convention, held at Sioux Falls, in May, yesterday sent a letter to the committee of notification.

The letter is addressed to Hon. P. M. Ringdal, chairman, and the members of the committee on notification of the candidate for vice-president of the people's party national convention held at Sioux Falls, S. D., May 9 and 10.

After reviewing the movements and the various conventions and the causes leading up to the present situation in a historical way, Mr. Towne says:

"It was, of course, the expectation of your convention that its nomination for the vice-presidency would prove acceptable to parties called to meet in Kansas City on the 4th of July.

"The silver republicans, 1330 delegates, representing 28 states and territories, were indeed eager to name the ticket chosen at Sioux Falls, but to the great democratic convention another course commended itself.

"The name of your nominee was presented to that convention and was received with remarkable demonstrations of approval by the enormous number of citizen spectators, and with the utmost respect by the delegates. But geographical considerations and the fact that in certain parts of the country it was deemed wise to defer to a sentiment demanding that the candidate should be a man already identified with the democratic organization, not only by holding its principles and advocating its cause, but also by name and profession, determined the selection of Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, a man of unimpeachable character and of ripe political experience, who, as a member of congress more than 20 years ago, was a close associate and co-laborer of Hon. J. B. Weaver and other great leaders in the reform political movements of that day, and who, as vice-president from 1893 to 1897, distinguished himself by rebelling against the betrayal of democratic principles by President Cleveland.

MILLS SHUT DOWN

A Curtailment all Over New England

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—It was reported in Waltham today that textile manufacturers throughout New England had agreed to curtail production during the present month and September. Similar reports have been in circulation in other cities, where there are cotton mills, during the past few days, but treasurers of corporations who have their offices in this city have declined to verify the rumors. It is recognized that the cotton manufacturing industry is not in first class shape at the present time and many mills have announced a curtailment later are idle just now, but as far as can be ascertained there is no general binding agreement having effect in all New England states. Thirty or more concerns of Fall River are stopping their machinery at different periods, practically all the mills there having agreed to curtail four weeks.

Cotton men in Boston have paid considerable attention to the condition of the market of late and have watched the effect of the Fall River move with interest. Some of them have decided that they will close their mills for a number of weeks, while others will only order part of the machinery stopped. It is believed that quite a number of other mills may join the movement, but if a written agreement is in existence, the fact had not been made public here up to this afternoon.

Among the corporations which, it is announced, will close in whole or in part for two weeks, are the Boston Manufacturing company of Waltham, Laconia and Pepperell mills of Biddeford, Me., York corporation of Saco, Me., Great Falls mills of Somersville, N. H., and one or two small mills in Rhode Island. The Tremont and Suffolk mills of Lowell are contemplating a shutdown for two weeks and the Amoskeag company of Manchester, N. H., will stop part of its machinery for a time, but it is said the latter company takes this step to allow some departments to catch up in their work with the others rather than to diminish the output.

GETS COMMISSION

Former Lowell Man Honored by President

IS MADE LIEUTENANT OF REGULARS

Is Now Serving in Philippinos

Among the recent army appointments by President McKinley is that of Charles Leonard to be a second lieutenant, in the regular army. Lieut. Leonard is a native of Boston but lived nearly all his life in Lowell. He is 26 years of age and left here a few years ago to go to Washington. During the Spanish-American war he served in a district of Columbia regiment and at present is in the Philippines with the 21st U. S. Infantry.

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT.

This evening at 7.45 in Pawtucketville, the American band, P. J. Burleigh, conductor, will render the following program:

PART I.

March—"The Vindicator" .... Heed
Overture—"The Bohemian Girl" ....Balfe
a "The Blue and the Gray"....Dresser
b Parody on the "Arkansas Traveller" Lovenberg
c "A Coon Band Contest" ....Pryor
Cornet Solo "The Holy City"....Adams
Mr. A. F. Nevers.
Medley—"Off and On" .... Beyer

PART II.

March—"Soldiers of Uncle Sam" Ramsdell
Duo for cornet and trombone—"Miserere" Verdi
Messrs. Nevers and Lewis.
a "Habanere" .... Collins
b Characteristic "Freaks of Blackville" Dalbey
Excerpts from "Faust" .... Gounod
Finale—"At the Ovens"..............Reese
Soloists—Mr. Arthur F. Nevers, cornet; Nate H. Lewis, trombone.

PERSONAL.

Miss Ida Leach, the popular saleslady at the Bon Marche spent Sunday with friends in Roxbury, Mass.

Miss Molly Ivers of St. Peter's church choir will enjoy her vacation at Stafford Springs, Conn.

Mrs. Michael H. Connolly and son Walter, of 17 Fifth street, start on next Saturday for a sojourn at Salisbury beach.

Mr. John J. Higgins, the genial clerk at C. H. Molloy's undertaking establishment, has returned from a very enjoyable vacation at Yarmouth, N. S.

Mrs. Josephine McKennedy, organist at St. Peter's church, will resume her vacation tomorrow, her objective points being Swampscott, Marblehead and Manchester-by-the-sea.

Mrs. Clarence O. Esterbrook, of 10 Hazeltine street, has gone to Woodstock, Bethel, and other points of interest in Vermont for three weeks.

Mr. Wm. Howe formerly a salesman at the Belvidere market but now located with H. C. Rose, wholesale and retail provision dealer of Hartford, Conn., is spending a week's vacation as the guest of Mr. Eugene Stillings of the Middlesex Steam Laundry.

GONE BROKE

STEVE L'HOMMEDIEU LOST ALL HIS MONEY.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Steve L'Hommedieu, the plunger, lost $500,000 recently—if he had it.

In 1888 and 1889 L'Hommedieu made a fortune on the turf. Last fall he was asked by Robert Pinkerton to stay away from the tracks. He then plunged in the pool rooms. Fortune smiled on him for a time, but during the winter he failed to select winners at New Orleans. He lost heavily, and in order to recoup he began plunging at roulette in the Hot Springs gambling houses. At one sitting he lost $60,000. Several bad turns made him a big loser.

L'Hommedieu's finances became so low that he had to sell a number of his horses. Just at this point of his ill-luck several of the animals were so badly injured in a railroad accident that they subsequently died. This and a few bad plays practically broke Steve, so he become a very small bettor.

He took a fling at the wheel a few days ago at Saratoga and again lost. This was the remnant of his fortune. He played at a Park row resort and lost again. He gave "markers" and has failed to settle them. This has caused his creditors to raise a cry that he has welched. His finances have been so badly shattered during the past four months that few have paid any attention to him.

CABINET RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LIMA, Peru, Aug. 8, via Galveston.—President Romana has accepted the resignation of the Rivaguero cabinet, tendered yesterday afternoon and has named Dr. Rivaguero president of the new cabinet and minister of foreign affairs. Nothing is settled as to who the new ministers will be, but their names will probably be definitely known tonight.

The Mathews expect to have Hon Thomas J. Gargan as a speaker before the society some time in November.

FATAL SHOOTING

As the Result of a Drunken Brawl

AT A PROVIDENCE SUMMER RESORT

One Man Locked up by the Police

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 8.—A fatal shooting affray occurred down the river early this morning, at Camp White. Earl M. Dexter of 260 High street, Pawtucket, was shot and almost instantly killed by George A. Baldwin, of Baltimore, Md.

It was a little before 3 o'clock when the shooting occurred and at 4.30 o'clock Baldwin was lodged in jail. Baldwin says that he was in company with one Gertrude McDonald, occupying a room in a lodging house at Camp White. Shortly after 2 o'clock two men came to the door and threatened to break it in. One said that he was a detective and wished to be admitted at once. Baldwin got up and opened the door and one of the men demanded that he give them a dollar. Baldwin said that he gave them a half dollar, and they went out, but soon came back and began to batter on the door again. Baldwin fled to the "Good Luck" hotel, and asked a friend named Donovan to come back to the house with him, and secured his revolver before going out again. He then proceeded with Donovan back to the house where the trouble had occurred. Between the dance hall and the hotel, they met Dexter, who was intoxicated and Frank Woodlock of Brockton, Mass. He and Donovan entered into conversation, the latter advising him to get Dexter out of the way until he got over his drunk.

While they were talking Dexter and Baldwin engaged in an altercation and Dexter started to chase young Baldwin. Two or three shots were fired, but Dexter continued his pursuit and Baldwin finally shot him through the abdomen, where he lay groaning when Donovan and Woodlock arrived. He expired shortly afterward and Donovan and Baldwin went back to the "Good Luck" and went to bed.

Earl M. Dexter, the man who was shot, was 21 years old. Baldwin is 23 years old and rather small.

SPENCER JAILED

BELIEVED HE HAD RIGHT TO WHIP HIS WIFE.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

TRENTON, Missouri, Aug. 8.—Edward Spencer, a prominent farmer in Laclede county, was found guilty of beating his wife and was sentenced to jail and to pay a fine. The prosecution was urged by Spencer's neighbors, who declared if the law did not interfere they would. Spencer argued his own case, quoting Scripture to sustain his actions. Mrs. Spencer admitted she believed that according to the Bible her husband was in duty bound to whip her, but pleaded that he had gone beyond the limit. On one occasion she said, Spencer whipped her because she had not [illegible] a tree and on another case because she would not wash a wagon. Spencer says he will carry the case to the higher courts.

STATIONARY FIREMEN

OPENED THEIR CONVENTION IN FALL RIVER.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 8.—The third annual convention of the State Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen opened in this city today with President Tierney presiding. Delegates were present from Boston, Brockton, Malden, Holyoke, Lawrence, Lowell, New Bedford, Springfield, Lynn and Fitchburg. Timothy Healy of New York, represents the National association.

A report on the condition of affairs in Fall River charged that several firemen here were working without licenses. Much indignation was expressed and a committee was appointed to wait upon Inspector Dyer in regard to the matter. In case they could not get a satisfactory reply from this official, they were instructed to visit Chief Wade.

The convention will be in session three or four days.

Among the business will be the election of two delegates to attend the National convention to be held in Peoria, Ill., September 10.

The Y. M. C. I. will soon begin to arrange its lecture course for the coming season. It is hoped to secure Gen. P. A. Collins of Boston as one of the speakers.

WEAVERS OUT.

The weavers of the Massachusetts cotton mills were notified today that their work would be stopped during next week.

Why go humping around with a

LAME BACK

When you can get instant relief in a 10c. box of

JOHNSON'S KIDNEY PILLS
25 PILLS 10 CENTS
POSITIVELY GUARANTEED

The best Kidney preparation on earth, and a 10-CENT BOX contains nearly as much as others sell for 50 cents. If your druggist will not supply you, send us five 2-cent stamps and get a box by mail.

The Johnson Laboratories, Inc., Phila

BUBONIC PLAGUE

Caused 696 Deaths in the Philippines

AMERICANS MURDERED BY INSURGENTS

Ghastly Crime Committed by Desperadoes

By Associated Press to The Sun.

MANILA, July 13—via San Francisco, Aug. 8.—The paymaster's department is kept constantly busy arranging for the payment of the 65,000 officers and men of Uncle Sam's army now engaged in these islands. The disbursements are made every two months and the average sum required is something over $2,000,000.

Major Edie, president of the Manila board of health, has completed his report for the year which ended June 30. Official figures were kept by the board commencing with October, 1889. During the months from October to June, inclusive, the total number of deaths recorded was 8,352. During this period the total number of deaths, exclusive of Chinese, from the different classes of diseases was as follows:

Tuberculosis, 992; Beriberi, 642; malarial diseases, 338; diarrhoeal diseases, 1073; acute lung diseases, 631; typhoid fever, 41; small-pox, 7; bubonic plague, 150; leprosy, 40; measles, 4.

The death percentage during this period of nine months and estimating Manila's population to be 190,000, is about 28 per cent. During the months from January to June, the total number of deaths, including all classes, from bubonic plague was 685.

From many sections of the archipelago news of the atrocious murder of Americans and others by insurgents is received. Three American miners, Lorey, Springford, and Ricketts, were murdered at Batan Island, and two loyal natives were killed at Santa Cruz.

A report of a ghastly crime in revenge for Major Maxino's capture by the Americans, comes through official channels. After Major Maxino was taken prisoner by our troops at Unisan, a gang of Tulisanese killed his father-in-law, his wife, four of his children and his nephew, butchering and torturing them and robbing the family of about $11,000 in money and jewelry.

A detachment of six men under Capt. C. H. Newbery of the 30th Infantry, with Major Maxino as their guide, encountered the desperadoes, killing nine and taking thirteen prisoners.

FOR MIDDLE-AGED WOMEN.

Two Letters from Women Helped Through the "Change of Life" by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I first wrote to you I was in a very bad condition. I was passing through the change of life, and the doctors said I had bladder and liver trouble. I had suffered for nine years. Doctors failed to do me any good. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, my health has improved very much. I will gladly recommend your medicine to others and am sure that it will prove as great a blessing to them as it has to me."—MRS. GEO. H. JUNE, 201 DeKalb Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Relief Came Promptly

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I had been under treatment with the doctors for four years, and seemed to get no better, I thought I would try your medicine. My trouble was change of life, and I must say that I never had anything help me so much as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Relief came almost immediately. I have better health now than I ever had. I feel like a new woman, perfectly strong. I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound all the credit, and would not do without her medicine for anything. I have recommended it to several of my friends. There is no need of women suffering so much for Mrs. Pinkham's remedies are a sure cure."—MAHALA BUTLER, Bridgewater, Ill.

Another Woman Helped

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during change of life and derived great benefit from its use."—MARY E. JAMES, 136 Coydon St., Bradford, Pa.

Omega Oil

Stiff Joints

Stiffness of the joints of the fingers or arms or legs can be cured better in warm weather than in the winter. Cold weather seems to make the trouble worse. Begin now to rub the stiff joints with Omega Oil. It will supply the lubricant that is needed and remove the soreness and inflammation. Besides rubbing plenty of the Oil on, put some of it on cotton, and bind it over the joints during the night while you sleep. That's the way to get well.

A member of the firm of G. S. Cheney & Co., 15 Union St., Boston, relates that a well-known contractor of Somerville, Mass., with whom he is acquainted, had a stiff finger, which he could not bend for some years. A single application of Omega Oil took all the stiffness out of his finger in three hours. 729

Goods the Same, Prices Lower, That's All.

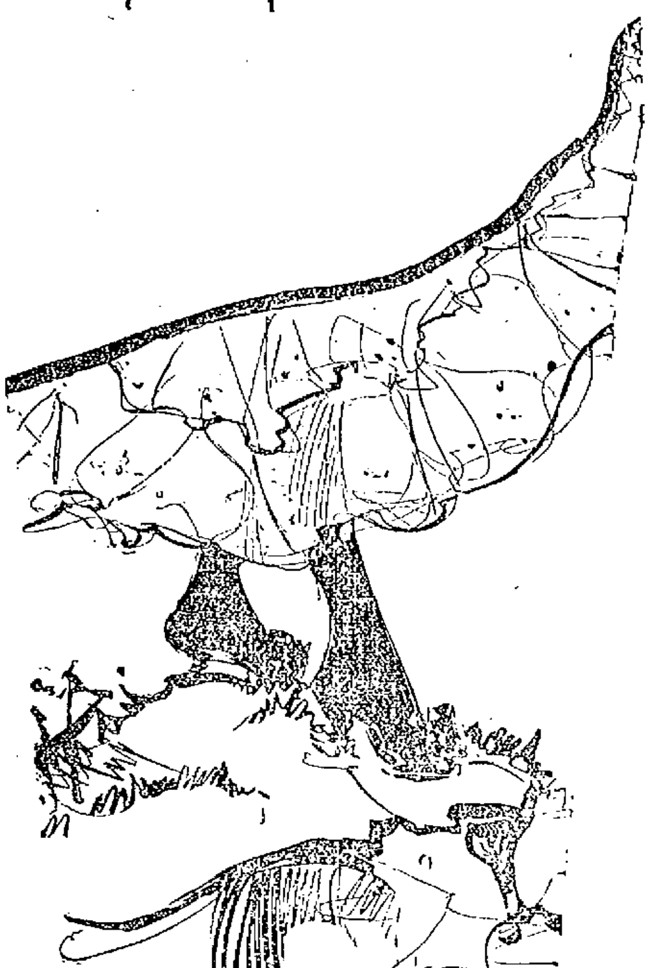

Here are a few samples of the bargains we are now offering in Ladies' Shoes:

$2.50 Black Vici Kid Oxfords, kid tips, now .	$1.69
$2.50 Black Vici Kid Oxfords, patent tips, now	$1.69
$3.50 Black Vici Kid Boots, Goodyear welt, now	$2.39
$1.50 Black Dongola Oxfords, now . . .	$1.19
$1 Children's Tan Boots, sizes 8 1-2 to 10 1-2	79c.
$1 Tan Oxfords, now	89c.
$1.50 Tan Juliets, now	$1.19

BURBANK & COURTNEY, 110 and 112 Merrimack Street.
TELEPHONE 636-13.

HERE YOU SEE THE SUMMER GIRL IN SPORTIVE MOOD.

HEAVY WHITE PIQUE DRESSES ARE WORN WITH JACKETS TO MATCH, TRIMMED WITH LARGE PEARL BUTTONS.

PICTURE GOWNS NOW THE STYLE.

The Quaint Fashions of the Earlier Part of the Century Have Been Revived Charmingly.

LACE COATS ARE IN STYLE.

Paris, June 28.--Were you to spend an our at any of the little shore resorts, where fashionable folk congregate during the heated term, you would decide hat fashions had turned toward the picturesque, not slightly but with a igor that left no doubt of their intention.

Revivals are always picturesque and he resurrection of the sleeve of 1830 eaves nothing to be desired in point of rtistic and antique beauty. And so with the Watteau sleeves; in fancy you ee those wonderful Shepherdesses with heir crooks, stalking after their well ehaved sheep, while their marvelously raceful garments never lost us much s a fold or a tint, by the exposure and he broiling sun

Since the fancy for the tight waisted gown decreed all women look alike in figure. There is no strong point of dissimilarity between the lean and the fat; the bust-forward corset has departed and with it most of the awful meal bag figure. The new fronted corset has taken the place of the tight waisted one and the figures of women have benefitted.

All best tailors do not advise the new corset but prefer a rather straight one that can be well pulled down in front, leaving the bust high above it. Over this can be drawn the pointed waist; and the result is better than in the perfectly straight box front which, if anything, made the waist a trifle too large.

The particular novelty of the moment is the summer coat. Its name sounds warm but the nature is cool. The little coats are made of lace, of tulle, of muslin insertion, of unlined taffeta and net. The object of the thin little coat is to give the finish which a coat always gives a gown and to take away the shirt waisted appearance of the toilette. One of these little coats was cut in blazer fashion, with the fronts well open and finished in points caught together by a lace strap. The sleeves were rudimentary affairs with only the tiniest lace epaulettes upon the shoulder. The entire little garment was of net lace, bordered with silk embroidery, and figured with appliques of silk.

Another of these decidedly novel little coats was of white embroidered taffeta, cut bolero style, with very tight fitting sleeves to the elbow; the front was fastened by a bow of black tulle with a buckle in the middle.

One that was much admired was of white pique, cut cadet fashion, with two tiny points extending below the belt line. The front was slashed to make a very effective finish, for, through the slashed front, could be drawn the ends of the big bow which was worn at the throat.

Nothing could exceed the picturesque beauty of the neck bow which, since it has reached such proportions, is known by many names the most popular of which is the "chiffon." One of the most decorative of these chiffons consists of a strip of heavy lace net embroidered in black silk, with scalloped ends. This is brought around the neck, tied under the chin, and so disposed that the ends fall nearly to the foot of the skirt in front. They are held in place so that they do not float in the wind--with the straps that confine the little blazer coat.

It is very chic to draw your streamers through your strappings to keep them from that blow-away appearance so noticeable when long veils were worn a few seasons ago. For these long neck arrangements all kinds of thin materials are employed, tulle and gauze net taking the lead. The manner of arrangement, too, is varied, but the fashionable milliners who sell the chiffons along with the hats advise the big bow under the chin with its long ends.

Attention once more concentrates upon the bodice which is as varied as possible. It is the two-part bodice with blouse and jacket both as delicately fashioned as possible. The blouse, as all bodices are now called by the modistes, is again sub-divided and has its own vest.

THE LITTLE VEST.

Vests are delightfully fancy. They are made of washable goods and are carried out in piece lace and satin ribbon, white being the best color. For a vest nothing is as serviceable and as fashionable as the strip of fine embroidery with its band of satin ribbon alternating with the embroidery. They set the bands in the vest diagonally, a band of ribbon and a strip of lace. They also made the vest in pointed design, the points exactly in front. Striped material of the exquisitely thin summer goods is used and to accentuate the point a pointed yoke is outlined with a narrow ruffle.

A very simple yoke can be made of figured mull. The middle of the front is shirred at intervals of three inches and a band of black velvet is fastened across the shirring. The ends of the velvet may be finished by a tiny buckle.

In bodices many new materials are seen: it would seem as though the supply were inexhaustible. Just as you think you have seen every variety of new goods, behold you find something that is a novelty. The manufacturers have been turning out new designs all summer and the dealers have had a constantly renewed supply. The trend is still toward the very thin goods alone, for bodice purposes, over a heavier material.

Among the most elegant of the new fabrics are those of ochre guipure over a silk lining, or of white or cream silk over which sprays of flowers are painted in water-colors. This last style is the latest cry of fashion, but unless you paint the flowers yourself it is an extremely expensive one. Your correspondent has seen white taffeta over which a few sprays of roses or lilac were painted, sold for four or five guineas a yard, which certainly seems rather extravagant. For half the price and less, you can have the most beautiful crepe-de-Chine in the softest shades of color, and the most lovely Venetian point over faille or peau-de-soie.

THE SOFT SILKS.

Soft silks, such as colienne or bengaline, also make up extremely pretty blouses, and silk crepon is particularly suitable for the purpose. So much for dressy blouses; simpler ones are made of fancy delaine, or better still at the present season of washing materials, such as pique, zephyr, cambric, and batiste.

One of the prettiest novelties of the summer is fancy batiste, with patterns simulating narrow tucks or open-work insertion. The tucks and open-work designs, fancifully clustered and arranged, form a variety of patterns particularly suitable to the purpose.

As to trimmings for skirts and waists embroidery still reigns supreme, but this season's embroideries in no wise resemble those of last year, or even last winter. There are a variety of new styles. One of the newest and most unique is that formed of "paillettes" of various materials, chiefly pique, fancy tiny circles resembling "confetti," of white or colored pique, cut out by machine. These circles are employed just like paillettes, being fastened on either by one stitch in the middle, or by being sewn on one side only at the edge, so as to be able to be raised up on the opposite side and overlap other similar circles.

Very effective patterns are thus composed, and not only of pique, but also of cloth, silk, velvet, or panne; but, of course, only materials of a firm texture can be employed in this way, otherwise the edges would soon become unravelled. Cloth and velvet paillettes combined make up extremely pretty patterns of flowers in pale tints. The leaves and stems which complete the patterns are worked in fine silk cord, chenille, or very narrow fancy silk galloons of several shades of color, and sometimes in open work patterns.

Some of these galloons are plain, and some waved, most of them can be made to turn and twist at pleasure by merely drawing a thread let in at one edge for the purpose.

Ancient Medical Recipes.

A famous English Egyptologist has discovered that many of the queer medical recipes found in old English and German books come from the ancient Egyptians. They were not known to the Greeks, but were spread from Salerno, the great medical school of the Middle Ages, to which they must have come through Coptic and Arabic translations.

Mock Gems.

It is no longer considered an error against taste to wear mock gems under certain conditions namely, set in buckles for the waist belt or neck ribbon, as well as to ornament hats and bonnets with them. The shops in which this death jewelry is shown make the most gorgeous displays and the designs are often uncommonly cool, being generally copied from Louis XV. or Louis XVI. models.

THE CAMPAIGN AS A WOMAN SEES IT.

By Mary Baird Bryan.

There is an excellent reason which keeps me from giving a detailed account of the journeys made during the last campaign. To rise with the lark, and sometimes even earlier; to eat meals upon the instalment plan; to receive local committees, and in turn be received by several thousand people daily, and to retire late, do not leave a great deal of time for meditation or for the keeping of a diary. I cannot, then, speak in detail, because I do not remember the campaign in that way.

It takes no acute observation to find that certain elements in all crowds are the same. We came to expect these types in every gathering and were not disappointed. They grew to be old friends. The man who has not voted for twenty years, the man who has vowed that he will shake the candidate's hand, and who does it at all hazards; the man who voted for Jackson; the man who exhorts the speaker to "hit 'em again," and the man who voted for Lincoln but is "going to scratch his ticket this year" are some of the faithful.

But the greatest of these, the same in all climates and sections, in city and in country, untiring, energetic and omnipresent, is the American small boy. So much has been written of him that it seems folly to add my words of mention of him. He was first to greet us at every station, running far down the track to meet the train, and whether his mission was to shout for the nominee, or to inform him that he was "in the soup" and "no good," the work was always done with neatness and dispatch.

From freight cars and engines, from roofs of depots, from trees and fences, his shrill little voice could be distinguished through any din. If the candidate failed to appear as soon as the train stopped, pushing and scrambling went on outside. Strong little hands clutched the window frames and dirty faces peered in. "Why don't he come out?" "Say, I played hooky to see him;" "Which is him?" "Where is he at?" "I say, there, come out," were some of the phrases belonging to such occasions.

But with all his apparent loyalty to principle, I discovered that this youth is full of guile. I have seen him more than once slip off his yellow badge and hide it in order to get a button from my hand. At other times he has shouted long and loud for "honest money," and fought the next minute to secure a flower from my bouquet.

But with all these little tricks peculiar to boyhood, he was a pleasing factor in the campaign. Faithful to the last, he ran after the train until he was exhausted. I found great amusement in dropping apples of discord, looking strongly like campaign buttons, along the track and watching the exciting contests which followed. More than once did I fervently wish that all this wealth of energy and push may be directed in paths of sobriety and good citizenship. Our country needs no other safeguard.

To my mind, night meetings rank first in point of effectiveness. The small space saved from the grasp of darkness by blazing torches, the sharp outlines, the ghost-like flutter of banners in the twilight rim of the crowd, the intensity of sound which comes with the night, combine to make an impressive scene.

I recall with especial pleasure one picture in our reception at Cleveland, Ohio. The time of our coming was particularly opportune, namely, at the early twilight. Before us rose a massive arch, seemingly a bit of ancient Rome transplanted for our pleasure. This effect was heightened by the soldiers' monument at our right whose tall shaft in the uncertain light did duty as the column of Trajan. Crowded upon its pedestal and at its base, filling streets, windows and even trees, was a multitude of cheering people, while thousands of flags waved us a gentle welcome. I cite this, one of many instances, to show that the artistic sense may find gratification even in a campaign.

Among the more unusual features may be mentioned the interest taken by women. This activity was not confined to any one party, but was found everywhere. Personally, I am glad the women were aroused. This movement does not involve the question of woman suffrage.

For several years I have felt that home is the place to make good citizens. When the women of our land have a knowledge of the way our Government is administered, and can give the child an intelligent answer to his questions, the child will take an interest and pride in his future citizenship. When husband and wife discuss at home the acts of our legislatures and the effect of laws upon the people, there will be less of successful lobbying by corporations and railroads.

When families look into the advantages of municipal ownership of lighting and water plants; when they study the practical workings of these reforms as seen in European cities, there will be changes in municipal government. A knowledge along these lines makes a woman a better wife and mother and trains young people to prize our institutions.

As the athletic girl has superseded the timid weakling of a few years ago, is it too much to hope that a thorough knowledge of our Government may soon be considered as essential as any branch of her education?

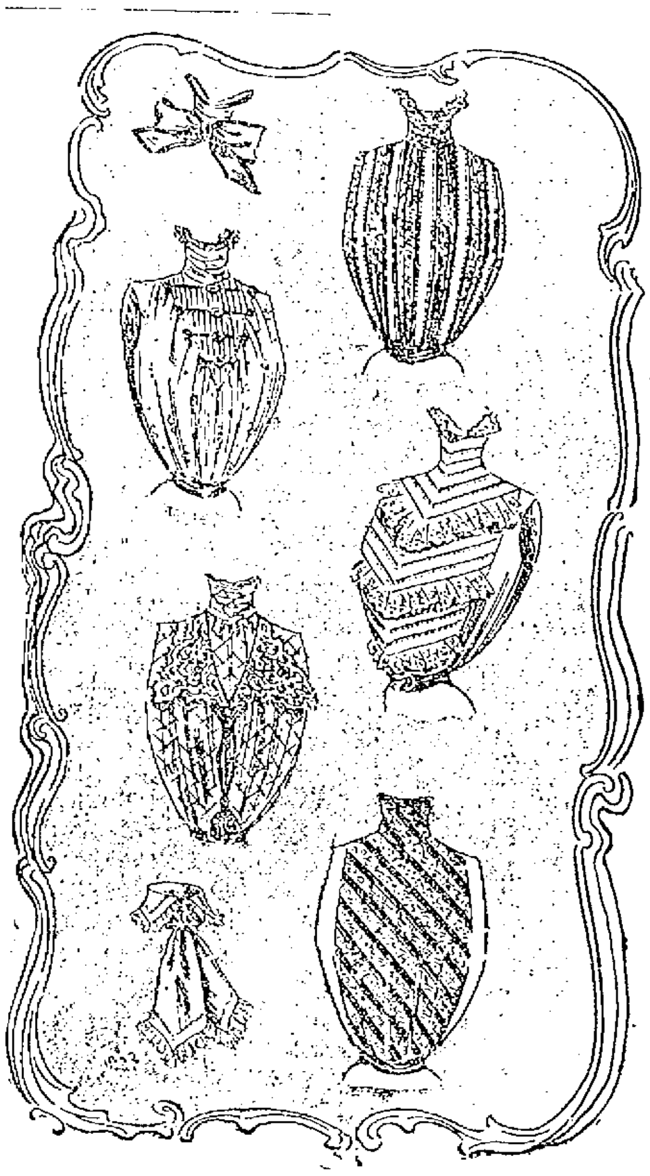

MRS BRYAN

TWO OF THE NEWEST AND PRETTIEST HATS OF LATE SUMMER.

The embroidered bolero is caught in the middle of the front with a big soft bow of tulle in the middle of which is a buckle of gold; there are many varieties of shape in these new jackets, all of which have their commendable features. Hats are made to match them in color and material.

The new soft fronts for blazers and reefers are made of a variety of pretty goods. These fronts can be worn not only with summer dresses but with fall gowns until very late in the autumn. You can see from these pictures exactly how the little fronts are fashioned.

The Sea Maiden.

She Will Wear a Fitted Skirt With Pointed Waist and Big Sailor Collar.

The size of the waist of the sea maiden has increased many inches since last summer. The new French figure demands that the bodice be brought down to a very low point in front, at least three inches below the old beltline, though no lower in the back. This makes the waist much larger, but gives it a beautiful curve much admired by artists.

The ideal material for the seashore is wool. Let it be light-weight cashmere, or challie, or the many thin novelty wools, whatever may be their kind or nature there is nothing that is as comfortable by the sea as wool.

A plain skirt with flounces for depth of six or eight inches around the foot, or with wide flounces twice that depth is sure to be in style this season. The waist may be ever so simple a blouse to be worn over a shirt waist of any colored mull or muslin.

They are wearing little silk vests under these blouses and are tying ribbons at the front of the blouse to match the vest.

Charming little cutaway jackets are now made with open front and scalloped edges. They are worn with the very long fichu of lace tied in a big bow under the chin, with ends hanging nearly to the floor. Embroidered lace is used for both the jacket and the fichu. A perfectly plain gown needs no other ornaments than these.

ON VACCINATION

Doctors Disagree as to Its Usefulness

MODERN METHODS OF DISINFECTION

In Use by Local Health Department

In an interesting communication in Tuesday's Sun Dr. A. Thompson comes out against the wholesale practice of vaccination, stating that it will not stop disease and calling for the more general use of carbolic acid for fumigating purposes on the ground that it is a far more effective preventive of small-pox than vaccination.

The communication has attracted considerable attention among physicians and one of them, a firm believer in vaccination, in discussing the matter with The Sun reporter said: "The question of vaccination is one upon which medical authorities disagree. Some believe in it; others do not. For instance Chairman Packer of the board of health and Dr. A. Thompson are of the same school of medicine, homeopathic. Dr. Packer believes in wholesale vaccination and Dr. Thompson does not believe in it at all. So there you are."

Dr. Thompson in his contention for the use of carbolic acid writes: "In 1871, experience told us that the fumes of carbolic acid would prevent another case breaking out, even if there were a dozen persons in the house where a real case of small-pox had been treated from beginning to end. It is a part of my experience. The epidemic was only stopped, then, after the city brought this acid into general use as they would a cologne. I used it in a dozen families or more, when I found a case, and a second case did not occur. Why not use so economical a factor, instead of forcing people into a submission to what is so revolting to them? I know the acid to be infinitely superior to vaccination as a preventive."

The Sun reporter asked Agent Knapp what disinfectants are in use by the board of health department and he replied: "Formaldehyd gas and sulphur dioxide." The reporter then looked up "Formaldehyd gas." The American Public Health association recently sent out in pamphlet form a Lowet Prize Essay written by George M. Sternbrig, M. D., L.L.D., Surgeon-General of the U. S. Army, on the subject of "Disinfection and Individual Prophylaxis Against Infectious Diseases."

The article opens as follows: "It will be our aim in the present chapter to give reliable, practical directions with reference to the use of disinfectants, and the best methods of disinfection. Keeping this object in view, we shall recommend for disinfecting purposes only those agents named in the following list:

1. Fire.
2. Steam under pressure (20 pounds).
3. Boiling water.
4. Formaldehyd gas.
5. Chloride of lime (in solution).
6. Mercuric chlorid (in solution).
7. Carbolic acid (5 per cent. solution).
8. Caustic lime ("quicklime").
9. Dry heat (230 degrees Fahr for two hours).
10. Sulphur dioxid.
11. Copper sulphate (in solution).
12. Zinc chlorid (in solution).

All of these agents, properly used, are effective for the destruction of the "germs" of the following named diseases: Tuberculosis, diphtheria, typhoid fever, yellow fever, cholera, small-pox, measles, pneumonia, epidemic influenza erysipelas, hog cholera, chicken cholera, some plague, infectious pleuro-pneumonia of cattle, and in general, of all infectious diseases in which the specific germ does not form spores. The four agents at the head of the list may also be relied upon for the destruction of the spores of anthrox, tetames and symptomatic anthrox.

Thus it may be seen that the local health board uses a disinfectant which eminent medical authority places several points ahead of carbolic acid.

The essay then refers to formaldehyd gas as follows: "Since the first edition of this 'prize essay' was published (in 1886) the most valuable addition to our knowledge of disinfecting agents has been the discovery of the germicidal action of formaldehyd, and this gas is now largely used for the disinfection of clothing, hospital wards, etc., as a substitute for steam or for sulphur dioxid. But like these agents its action is superficial and it cannot be depended upon for the disinfection of mattresses, pillows, rolls of clothing or bedding, etc., as is the case with chlorine and sulphur dioxid, its germicidal power is increased by the presence of moisture and by a high temperature.

Formaldehyd gas is irritating to the mucuous membrane of the eyes and nose, but it is not poisonous.

Thus, since the epidemic of Dr. Thompson's time, science has discovered new agents, and where once carbolic acid was the great disinfectant, it is now only one of many.

Don't miss that five-mile pursuit race between Carnl, Ingraham, Keegan and Hamilton—Saturday.

RECRUITS EXAMINED.

Major Dow of Wakefield was at the state armory last night and examined five applicants for admission to Co. C.

—CANDY—

ESCULETTS

CURE PILES

and all rectal disorders, or money refunded. Pleasant. No Physic. A radical cure, 50c at

Goodale's Drug Store,
Joseph W. Litch,
Albert L. Field,
A. F. Story & Co.,
Carter & Sherburn,
Geo. C. Osgood, M.D.,
O. L. Field,
Falls & Berkinshaw,
East Merrimack Drug Store,
Harry L. Timmons,
C. E. Carter,
Harrison Lake.

IF YOU SEE A

well dressed man's foot, the chances are it wears the "Contenta" $3 shoe. Greatest shoe value in this world or any other world. Made to fit people. For sale only by

GEO. E. MONCEAU,
452 Merrimack St.

JOHN W. McEVOY

Counsellor-at-Law

And Public Administrator.

137 Central Street. Tel. 639-4

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

There was a meeting of the Mathew Temperance Institute in the M.T.I. hall Tuesday evening. Final arrangements were made for the picnic that they intend to hold next Saturday at Canobie Lake. The matter of the time and method of opening up the fall season was also discussed at some length.

STAR OF LOWELL CIRCLE.

Two candidates were initiated at the meeting of Star of Lowell Circle C. of F. Tuesday evening. Three names were proposed for membership and other matters of routine business were transacted.

GARFIELD COLONY.

Garfield Colony of the Pilgrim Fathers held its regular meeting Tuesday evening. The picnic committee reported that the outing would take place at the Salem Willows Labor Day.

FORESTERS' GROWTH.

The report from the Foresters for the quarter ending June 30 shows the order to be in a very flourishing condition. There has been an increase in membership of 1840 persons and six new courts have been formed. There will be seven more new courts formed within the month.

S. H. HINES LODGE.

Nothing but regular business was transacted at the meeting of S. H. Hines Lodge, Knightes of Pythias, Tuesday evening. The lodge will be more active when fall arrives.

COURT SAMUEL DE CHAMPLAIN.

There was a meeting of Court General Champlain, Foresters, in Foresters' hall Tuesday evening. Regular business was attended to.

LEXINGTON COUNCIL.

There was a meeting of Lexington Council of the American Mechanics in Union hall Tuesday evening. Routine matters of business were transacted.

LINCOLN LODGE.

Lincoln Lodge held its regular meeting Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. Matters of regular routine business occupied most of the evening.

LOWELL COMMANDERY.

A regular business meeting of Lowell Commandery, Knights of Malta, was held Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. Routine business was transacted and candidates were nominated for the election which takes place at the next meeting.

DAUHTERS OF LIBERTY.

A basket picnic will be held at the residence of Mrs. P. F. Brett, 30 Dutton street, this afternoon and evening, Aug. 9th, by the members of the Daughters of Liberty.

OBERLIN LODGE.

Oberlin Lodge of Odd Fellows held a regular meeting Tuesday evening. Nothing of much importance was done.

NEPTUNE LODGE.

Neptune lodge will entertain the past wardens of the New England Order of Protection of Massachusetts, at Odd Fellows' temple, this evening.

CALEDONIAN CLUB.

Tuesday night the Caledonian club made final arrangements for a picnic on Saturday. Special train leaves Middlesex street depot at 2 o'clock. It was voted to open rooms about first meeting after Labor Day with a smoke talk. Three new members and twelve applications were received.

J. P. MAXFIELD CIRCLE.

Tuesday night J. P. Maxfield circle, G. A. R., held one initiation. Mrs. Rolfe of Chicago addressed the meeting in brief, telling of its flourishing condition in the west.

EIRENE LODGE.

There was a meeting of Eirene lodge, Good Templars, in Pilgrim hall last evening. Matters of routine were disposed of.

ORDER OF PROTECTION.

The three lodges of the New England Order of Protection will entertain Thursday evening at Odd Fellows' temple Middlesex street. A trolley party of 100 members of the Past Wardens association of Massachusetts is coming from Boston.

SPINDLE CITY CIRCLE.

Last night Spindle City circle, No. 19, P. of A., held five initiations and received four propositions.

UNITED WORKMEN.

Last night Lowell lodge, No. 22 A. O. U. W., held two initiations and received two propositions. E. E. Trefry, deputy G. M. W. from Andover, gave a stirring address. A partially debated new matter of unusual interest will be decided upon at the next meeting.

SPINDLE CITY CIRCLE.

Four candidates were initiated at the meeting of Spindle City Circle, Companions of the Forest last evening. There were also five names proposed for membership also. A very interesting address was listened to by Deputy Burns of Lawrence.

CENTRALVILLE LODGE.

The regular meeting of Centralville lodge, I. O. O. F., was held in their hall last evening. Nothing outside the regular order of business was done. The lodge will be more active when the fall season commences.

MECHANICS' LODGE.

The regular meeting of Mechanics' lodge, I. O. O. F., was held in Odd Fellows' hall last evening. Matters of routine business were transacted.

EMULUS THOMPSON COMMANDERY.

Emulus Thompson Commandery, Golden Cross, held its regular meeting last evening in Union hall. Most of the evening was occupied by routine business.

CROSSED WIRES.

The office of the Erie Telephone and Telegraph company suffered from another fire by crossed wires last night. Only two wires were affected, and no damage to the building was done.

SYRUP OF FIGS

Acts Pleasantly and Promptly.

Cleanses the System Gently and Effectually when bilious or costive.

Presents in the most acceptable form the laxative principles of plants known to act most beneficially.

TO GET ITS BENEFICIAL EFFECTS

BUY THE GENUINE — MANF'D. BY

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

For sale by druggists — price 50¢ per bottle.

ROOFING AND CONCRETING.

Now is the time to stop the leaks in your roof. Estimates on roofing and concreting cheerfully furnished. All work guaranteed. Telephone 203-4.

JAMES WALSH, 165 Highland Ave Lowell.

THOUSANDS ARE DYING . . .

In India for want of food. We are DYEING every day and giving new life to all FABRICS brought to the

Bay State Dye House

84 PRESCOTT STREET.

All Orders Promptly Attended to. Tel. 821-4.

IF YOU LOOK IN OUR WINDOWS

You will find that we keep the best Stock of Jewelry in the city of Lowell.

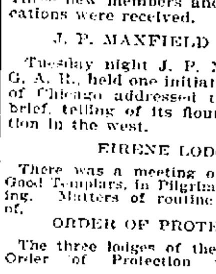

Our Prices will suit you.

J. A. LEGAULT & CO.,

Reliable Jewelers,

70 Central St., cor. Prescott.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

Everybody needs a stomach tonic occasionally to keep the bowels regular. For this purpose, as well as for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Liver and Kidney Disorders, there is nothing to equal the Bitters.

THE FINEST

BREAD .'. CAKE and PASTRY

to be found in the city, at

PETER WATSON'S Home Made Bakeries

52 to 60 Charles St.,
46 Lawrence St.

Lawn Party, Picnic and Wedding Supplies a Specialty.

ONLY 24 of our Cold Blast Refrigerators left out of 200 this season. When these are gone we're through. We will close these out at cost price.

75 Iron Beds, regular price $5.00,

Sale Price $3.75

100 Sumatra Rugs, 30x60, going at

$1 Each

24 Art Squares, regular price $6.36,

Sale Price $3.75

JOHN T. CARTER'S,

Great Bargain Furniture Store.

511 Middlesex Street.

Call at once and get the plums.

W. A. LEW, 49 John St.
CLOTHING CLEANED DYED AND PRESSED

NORTH BILLERICA

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ormrod have returned from their wedding tour.

No trace has yet been found of Miss Edith Lowe.

Miss Nellie Johnson and Miss Irene Roberts of Woodstock, Vt., are guests of Mr. L. X. Cummings, East Billerica.

Mr. Ernest Towle, Ed. Flanegan and Edw. Costello attended the John Doherty's picnic at Lynn yesterday.

Our genial Postmaster Maxwell went to Nantucket ... yesterday and is said to have hypnotized a mermaid ... have electric lights on Swinton avenue.

ALLAN LINE.

NEW YORK TO GLASGOW

Via Londonderry.

STATE OF NEBRASKA . AUG. 4
LAURENTIAN . . . . . AUG. 18
SARDINIAN . . . . . AUG. 25

First Cabin, $50.00 and upwards. Second Cabin, $35.00; Return, $60.00; Steerage, $23.50, Prepaid, $24.00.

Steerage passengers from Boston allowed first-class fare to New York, via Fall River Line, free of charge.

For descriptive circulars, plans of steamers and other information, apply to H. & A. Allan, 92 State street, Boston, Mass., or

Dennis J. Murphy, 18 Appleton St

TAYLOR ROOFING CO.

Now is the time when patrons can get a low figure. Be sure and get their prices on your job. Grand roofing done in the best possible manner. All work warranted. Taylor Roofing Co., 149 Humphrey street. Telephone.

Nicholas G. Norcross

. . . INSURANCE . . .

53 Central St., Lowell.

BUILDING SITES

—ON THE—

EMERY LAND

New plot of land on the east side of Moody street now ready. There are some very choice lots in this plot of land, first come, first choice. Places, prices and terms at the office.

Low Prices. Easy Terms. Warranty Deeds.

Office open forenoons and evenings. On the land every afternoon. A. J. Ryan, Agent, 1 Hildreth building.

VAUDEVILLE

Town Hall, Billerica.

Friday, August 10, 1900

AT 8 P. M.,

IN AID OF THE SAILORS' HAVEN

46 Water St., Charlestown, Mass.

PROGRAM.

1. Mr. S. H. King, Supt. Sailors' Haven.
2. Duet.....Miss Lyons and Miss Hosmer
3. Monologue and Coon Songs Mr. George Clifford.
4. Reading .... Mr. Staley
5. Song ....Miss Marion Manola
6. Buck and Wing Dancing Mr. Ed. Scanlon.
7. Song .... Mr. Beck
8. Bicycle Feats ......Mr. Caspar Brown
9. Song ....Miss Marion Manola
10. A Magic Mirror.

Admission 25c, Reserved seats 50c

Secure your ticket early and join with us in our efforts for the seamen.

HEIGHT OF THE

Blackberry Season

Selling Now For

8c. TO 10c. PER BOX.

Currants are very scarce on the market, but we are selling them at the low price of

5c. to 8c. Per Box.

There are a few Goose Berries left for 8c. to 10c. a box. Black Currants, 10c.

BLUEBERRIES are at their height now, 10c. to 12c.

GEORGIA PEACHES are very plentiful, at 15c. per dozen, 2 doz. for 25c.

NEW NATIVE APPLES, 5c. to 8c. per quart.

NATIVE POTATOES are becoming very scarce, but we are still selling them for 20c. to 25c. per peck.

SPRING CHICKEN, 18c. to 25c. per lb.

FOWL, 12 1-2c. to 15c. per lb.

You can find these and every other line that goes to make a complete meat, grocery, poultry and fish department store.

BANNER MARKET

Grocery and Butter House,

68 to 74 Prescott St.

OPEN EVENINGS..............Tel. 31.

WANTED.

AGENTS WANTED—$25 to $50 daily easily made by our live agents, men or women, selling our latest novelty, Campaign Waterproof Neckties. Goods entirely new and patented. Agents delighted. Sales unlimited. What others do, you can do. Time is short. Write today and secure exclusive territory. Guaranteed best seller. Address, with stamp, M. & M. Manf. Co, Dept. C, Springfield, Mass.

WANTED—House girl, middle aged lady preferred. 18 Lenten court, off Charles street.

WANTED—A dressmaker. Call at A. Israel, 15 Westford street.

WANTED—Second hand safe. Send description as to size, make, etc., to P. O. Box 70.

WANTED—A table girl at 153 Appleton street.

WANTED—An experienced table girl and kitchen girl at once. Call at 57 Hancock street, Mass. Corp.

WANTED—Two girls to attend tables in a coffee house. Address 42 Market street, Olympia Coffee House.

WANTED—At once, a kitchen girl at 63 Fifth street.

WANTED—Good cook in private family. Apply at 41 Butterfield street.

WANTED—A local man to sell a few thousand shares in a first class copper mine which is now shipping ore. Address all communication to C. P. Russ, Haverhill, Mass.

SITUATION wanted in a meat and provision market or grocery, wholesale or retail. Six years experience. Inquire 55 Lee street.

SALESMEN wanted for Lowell to introduce staple specialties as a side line; party calling on architects, builders, owners of fine buildings, etc., preferred; this is a fine opportunity and a hustler can add several hundred dollars yearly to his income. Address "615 Drexel Building," Philadelphia, Pa.

WANTED—A table girl in private boarding house. Apply at Sun Office.

WANTED—By a young lady, a position in an office. Would do writing. Good references. Address O., Sun Office.

WANTED—An experienced girl would like position in a bakery or candy store. Good references. Address B., Sun Office.

WANTED—A kitchen girl at 179 Middlesex street.

WANTED—Three smart, capable men, French and English. Salary $12 per week. Short hours. See Mr. Lord, Room 41, Hildreth Building.

WANTED—Boys to learn the drug business. Apply to A. W. Dows & Co.

WANTED—Young man of ability and good appearance to canvass for life insurance. Room 21, Hildreth Building.

WANTED—A good cook at 1 and 2 Merrimack corporation.

WANTED—Pastry cook and table girl at Mrs. Varlan's, 56 to 61 Lee street.

WANTED—House cleaning and washing of all kinds. Address 451 Charles street.

WANTED—Boarders at 37 Walker street.

WANTED—First class cap spindle grinder. Apply to William S. Spofford & Son, Providence, R. I.

WANTED—Experienced man who thoroughly understands the manufacturing and finishing of cotton hosiery. Apply, stating references and wages, to Vesta Knitting Mills, Providence, R. I.

WANTED—Man to work at vegetable farming. H. W. Foster, Andover street.

AGENTS—"Hat Bleach" cleans straw hats in five minutes; greatest seller out; sample 10c; write today. Hat Bleach Co., Xenia, O.

WANTED—A young girl wishes a situation as seamstress; can cut and fit; Apply 44 James street, Boott corporation.

Boston & Maine R. R.

Corrected to June 25, 1900. Trains leave Merrimack Street Depot, Lowell, as follows:

For Boston, 5.43, 6.23, c6.42, *7.45, *8.50, c9.15, *9.40, 11.00 a. m., 1.40, c3.09, 4.25, c5.11 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.45 a. m.

Trains leave Middlesex Street Station, Lowell, as follows:

For Boston, 5.36, 6.23, *6.39, c6.45, w6.50, 7.04, *7.27, 7.31, *7.45, z7.50, w8.00, *8.57, c9.19, w9.25, *9.50, w10.50, 11.03, *11.12 a. m.; w12.05; 12.16, w12.45, 1.11, *1.57, w2.25, w3.19, c3.03, *3.47, w3.55, *4.02, 4.25, w5.15, 5.22, c5.49, w6.15, *6.22, 7.00, *7.19, 8.42, w9.29 p. m. SUNDAYS, 6.39, 7.27, 8.45, 9.47 a. m.; 12.05, 1.05, 4.25, 5.58, 8.15 p. m.

For Lawrence and Haverhill, 6.23, w6.50, z7.34, w8.50, w9.25, 10.05, w10.50 a. m.; w12.05 w2.25, 3.55, 4.15, w5.15, w6.15, w7.00, w9.25, wb11.25 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.15 a. m., 12.15, 5.30, 8.45 p. m.

For Salem, Mass., w6.23, 7.34, a. m.; w12.05, 1.25, w5.15, 6.63 p. m.

For Newburyport, Amesbury and Portsmouth, 6.23 a. m.; 12.05, 2.25, 3.55, 6.15 p. m.

For Haverhill, Newburyport, Hampton, North Hampton, Portsmouth and stations on York Beach railroad, 2.25 p. m., July 2 to Sept. 7 inclusive.

For Exeter and Dover, 6.23, 6.50, z7.34, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 3.55, 5.18 p. m. SUNDAYS, k8.15 a. m.; 5.30 p. m.

For Rochester and Alton Bay, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 3.55 p. m.

For Somersworth, N. H. Saco, Old Orchard and Portland, 6.23, 6.50, z7.31, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 3.55, 5.18 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.30 p. m.

For Lewiston, Augusta, Bath, Waterville, 6.50, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 5.18 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.30 p. m.

For Bangor, Belfast, Skowhegan and Rockland, 6.50, 8.30 a. m.; 5.18 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.30 p. m.

For St. John, N. B., Halifax, N. S., Montreal and Quebec, 6.50 a. m.; 5.18 p. m. (5.18 does not run Saturdays). SUNDAYS, 5.30 p. m.

For Eastport and St. John (via steamer from Portland), on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 12.05 p. m.

For Castine, Deer Isle, Sedgewick, Bar Harbor, Jonesport and Machiasport (via steamer Frank Jones from Portland), Tuesday and Friday at 5.18 p. m.

For Woburn, 6.23, 7.03, 7.31, *7.45, 11.03 a. m.; 1.13, 4.28, 5.14 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.45 a. m.; 4.25, 5.58 p. m.

For stations between Winchester and Boston, Southern Division, 5.45, 6.23, 7.31, 7.45, 9.50, 11.03 a. m.; 1.43, 4.28, 5.22, 8.41 p. m. SUNDAYS, 6.39, 7.27, 8.45, 9.17 a. m.; 4.25, 5.58 p. m.

For Ayer Junction and Way Stations, 7.19 a. m.; 12.05, 5.01, and 5.42 p. m. SUNDAYS, 7.15 p. m.

For Amherst, Milford and Wilton, 9.03 a. m.; 1.00, 3.41 and 5.50 p. m. SUNDAYS, 2 p. m.

For Greenfield, Peterboro, Bennington, Hillsborough and Keene, 9.05 a. m., and 3.41 p. m. SUNDAYS, to Hillsboro, 2 p. m.

For Nashua, Manchester and Concord, 7.10, 9.08, *9.10, *10.00, *10.39 a. m.; *12.09, 1.00, *1.10, *1.51, 3.41, *5.10, 6.27, *8.10, *9.24 p. m. SUNDAYS, 10.02 a. m. (to Nashua only), 3.05 a. m.; 2.00, 6.02, 8.10, *9.24 p. m.

For Franklin, Lebanon, White River Junction, 9.08, *9.40 a. m.; *12.12, *1.40, 5.40, *b8.10 p. m.

For Warner, Bradford, Sunapee, Newport (N. H.) Claremont and Claremont Junction, 7.40, 9.05 a. m.; 3.40 p. m.; 3.41, s5.10 p. m. Saturday only till August 25th inclusive.

For St. Johnsbury and Lyndonville, via Wells River, 10.39 a. m.; *1.40, *10.24 p. m.

For Montpelier, Essex Junction, Burlington, St. Albans, St. Johns and Montreal via Central Vermont line, *9.40 a. m.; *12.09, *10.24 p. m.

For Montreal and Quebec, via Montreal and Boston Air Line, *12.09 a. m., *10.24 p. m. QUEBEC EXPRESS, via Plymouth and Sherbrooke, *1.40, *10.24 p. m.

References.
*Express.
a Daily.
b Wednesdays and Saturdays only.
c Via Bedford.
k To Exeter only.
s Saturday only.
w Via Western Division.
z Via Wilmington Junction.

D. J. FLANDERS, Gen. Pass. and Ticket Agent.
H. C. TAFT, General Agent, Lowell.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A lady's bicycle, Reading make, very cheap. Call at 57 Harrison street, Belvidere.

FOR SALE CHEAP—Two large boarding houses also nice rooms to let at 42 Tyler street.

FOR SALE—A lodging house of 16 rooms, furniture new, owner leaving city. Address O. K., Sun office.

FOR SALE—Puppies. Fine blooded hounds. Apply A. C. Williams, Steadman street.

FOR SALE—My market season being over, I will sell two young sound business horses cheap; weight 1100 lbs. Harry A. Shedd, South Lowell, P. O. 595 Lawrence street.

QUICK CURE for ladies in trouble; also nursing during confinement. Address Box 15, West Fairlee, Vt.

FOR SALE—A boarding house corner of George and Emery streets. Inquire of Joseph Ashley, 21 Boott Corp.

FOR SALE—One new open piano box carriage, one Stevens Goddard, one Mutler Goddard in first class order. Inquire at 11 Smith street.

FOR SALE—One horse, a cow, one Jersey heifer, 60 hens, and farm of 30 acres with house, barn, hen house, sheds, etc., situated next to Whittier Bros.' farm in Dracut, half way between Lowell and Lawrence. Will sell the live stock separately or together with farm. Easy terms. Bargain for somebody. Apply to Robert Galbraith on the premises or by mail. Address Lowell Creamery, care of Whittier Bros.

LADIES—Your bust enlarged 6 inches; failure impossible; harmless; $100 cash guarantee; proof free. Leonard Medicine Co., Kansas City, Kas.

FOR SALE CHEAP—A five-horse power motor. As good as new. John P. Quinn, Dix street, wood and coal dealer.

FOR SALE—Cigar store and pool room for sale. 159 Middlesex street.

FOR SALE—Restaurant, thriving business, well equipped, up-to-date, most popular in the city, owner retiring. $2500 cash; only cash customers need apply at 146 Monroe street, room 26, Lynn, Mass.

FOR SALE—A National cash register, 50 keys in perfect order; also a small soda fountain at 343 Central street.

FOR SALE—Boarding house in central part of city; 15 rooms with bath, hot and cold water, at a bargain. Well furnished; sold on account of sickness. Address C 12, Sun Office.

FOR SALE—Ten R. I. P. A. N. S. for five cents at druggists. One gives relief.

LADIES' PET for sale, handsome golden sable white Scotch collie dog, improved stock with AI pedigree. Apply Box Collie, Sun Office.

FOR SALE—Boarding house 16 rooms, full of men boarders at good prices; center of city of 10,000 inhabitants, home and business and chance to make money for small investment. For particulars address D. R., 9 Pine street, Milford, Mass.

FOR SALE—Plants for sale, 5000 tomatoes, 2000 pansies, 5000 asters, 800 celery. Owing to poor health and not being able to market, I will make it an inducement to parties in need of plants to call on J. H. Cull, Pollard street, North Billerica. Electrics pass the door. 5c. fare.

FOR SALE—Profitable lunch room in business section of city. Address L, Sun Office.

FOR SALE—At a great sacrifice, a new two-story house for two families; seven rooms each with bath, hot and cold water, gas, hard wood floors, a good lot of land and barn, near 18th street. Inquire at 3, 18th street.

FOR SALE—1-2 mile from Chelmsford Centre, six-room house, barn and shed, one acre of land, can be bought on easy terms. Price only $1100. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

FOR SALE—On Chapel Hill, two-tenement house and store all in first-class repair, large lot of land. This place can be bought low and on easy terms. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central.

FOR SALE—On Lawrence street, four-tenement block, pays 12 per cent. Price $3500. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

FOR SALE—On Tyler street, good boarding house with lots of boarders. Price $150. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

FOR SALE—In North Chelmsford, two-tenement house, large lot of land. Price $1500. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

FOR SALE—Six miles from Lowell, good farm of 84 acres, good set of buildings, lots of fruit, keeps 15 head of stock. Price of farm, $2500. With the stock of 9 cows, 4 head of young cattle, pigs, hens, two horses, wagon, harnesses, farming tools and milk route, price $3100. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

AN INTELLIGENT, energetic woman to represent that great family magazine, the Woman's Home Companion. Liberal pay, cash or premiums, for looking after new subscriptions and renewals in your own community, city or country. Outfit free. Address Woman's Home Companion, Springfield, O.

FOR FIRST COMMUNION! Catholic Prayer Books! The finest assortment ever shown before in Lowell. Rosary Beads, silver and solid gold mounted, Medals, gold, silver and aluminum. Our first Holy Communion Remembrance Picture Cards are beauties. Statues and all kinds of religious articles. An immense variety.

Franco-American Book Store

520 Merrimack Street.

RIPANS TABULES

Wanted—a case of bad health that R.I.P.A.N.S. will not benefit. One gives relief. No matter what's the matter, one will do you good. A cure may result if directions are followed. They banish pain, induce sleep, prolong life. Sold at all drug stores. 10 for 5 cents. Be sure to get the genuine. Don't be fooled by substitutes. 10 samples and a thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for five cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical company, No 10 Spruce street, New York.

MADAM VOHNIE

The world's greatest palmist and card reader has returned. She gives truthful advice on love, marriage and business. Tells you how to win the one you love, no matter what your troubles are come and she will help you. Daily 10 to 9 p. m. Bon Marche Building, Room 41.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, SS.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Mary Ann Webster, late of Chelmsford, in said county, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for probate by Sarah M. C. Holt and Verona E. Willard, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to them, the executors therein named.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said county of Middlesex, on the fourth day of September, A. D. 1900, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks in the Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred.

S. H. FOLSOM, Register.

LOST AND FOUND.

FOUND—Small dog in Billerica. Owner can have by proving property and paying charges. Apply box 11, Billerica Centre.

LOST—Ladies figured silk cape between Bridge street and Hampshire street, Monday evening. Finder will receive reward at 17 Hampshire street.

LOST—Thursday, somewhere between the Opera House and Rock street, a lady's monogram ("W") finger purse. Finder will be suitably rewarded if returning same to 387 Central street, Room 6.

LOST—A bundle containing lady's and children's clothing lost in the vicinity of Merrimack square or in the Collinsville car Saturday night. Reward at Sun office.

LOST—A hand made lace handkerchief on the road to Lakeview. Please return to Sun office and be rewarded.

LOST—A lady's gold watch, either at Lakeview or on the Lakeview electric car. Finder return to 46 Walnut street and receive reward.

FOUND—A ladies' hand bag on Middlesex street. Owner can have same by calling on C. E. Leavitt, back of the Bulman Farm, Westford road, paying adv., and proving property.

LOST—On Middlesex street, between Burnside avenue and Duren avenue, a lady's hand bag, with purse containing money. Reward at Sun Office.

LOST—Candy order-book, black covers, name inside. Please leave at this office and be rewarded.

LOST—A watch charm, design star and crescent; initials on back O. G., Jr. The finder will be rewarded by leaving at 666 Bridge street.

LOST—Lady's gold watch, on or near Merrimack Square, Saturday night. Reward at Sun office.

FOUND—A sum of money last Sunday morning. The owner can have by proving property. Call at 105 Mt. Washington street, and paying for this advertisement.

LOST—A pocketbook containing a sum of money somewhere between waiting room and High street. Finder please return to 358 Concord street and receive reward.

FOUND—A black beaded cape Fourth of July. Owner can have same by calling at 4 rear of 39 Summer street.

LOST—A lady's black seal pocketbook, containing a $10 bill, last night on the Lakeview car. Please return to this office and receive reward.

LOST—A set of written lectures to nurses. Finder will please return to St. John's hospital.

LOST—On Monday evening a pocketbook containing considerable money and two checks bearing owner's name. Finder will be rewarded by returning to the Lowell Co-Operative association, Middlesex street.

LOST—A pair of plain spectacles. Return to Sun Office and obtain reward.

TO LET.

TO LET—House, 25 Anne street, 11 rooms, bath, steam heat. Inquire of Gordon Tweed, 63 Market street.

TO LET—Four-room flats. 611 Broadway.

TO LET—Some first class tenements in all parts of the city. Apply to A. G. Desbarrell, Room 5, Bon Marche block.

TO LET—Two furnished rooms, parlor with chamber connected. Price $2 per week. Corner of High and Andover streets, over Belvidere drug store.

TO LET—Unfurnished rooms, also large basement for storage. 12 Tyler street.

STORE, with 4 room tenement in rear to let at 50 Charles St. Rent only $15.00 per month. Get key at 16 Merrimack street.

FIRST class rooms and board. Special attention given to transients. Everything new and up-to-date at 53 Lee street.

TO LET—One four room tenement. Inquire at 25 Chestnut square.

TO LET—Furnished tenements of two, three and four rooms. 635 Merrimack street.

TO LET—Four room tenement, half of a cottage at 10 Dane street avenue, off Pawtucket street, rent $6.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PATENTS—Secure our terms and system for placing inventions free. Oscar A. Michel, registered attorney, 202 Broadway, New York, Dept 65.

BIGGEST SNAP ever offered, agents of dealers to sell high grade cash registers. Anyone can sell them. Big money made. Chicago Cash Register company, Chicago.

WHEN YOU want Spectacles or Eye Glasses Purcell's is the place, 43 Coburn street. Somewhat of an optician. No fancy prices.

SILK, FELT and straw hats cleaned and repaired cheap during the month of August at Dolorme, the hatter, 261 Middlesex street.

LYNN BEACH—Old and new patrons are welcome, at Fred L. Dwyer's, 14 Suffolk street. Reasonable rates.

LADIES — Free. Harmless Monthly Regulator. Cannot fail. Mrs. B. Rowan, R 90, Milwaukee, Wis.

LADIES—Your bust enlarged 6 inches; failure impossible; harmless; $100 cash guarantee; proof free. Leonard Medicine Co., Kansas City, Kan.

A first class dressmaker and seamstress would like a few more jobs. Inquire at 37 Shedd street. No objection to out-of-town work.

LYNN BEACH, Bay View Hotel, entirely renovated, open for the season of 1900, under the personal management of Mrs. J. P. Fitzgerald. She will be pleased to meet her former guests and welcome new ones. Rates reasonable.

LADIES—Chichester English Pennyroyal Pills (Diamond Brand) are the best, safe, reliable. Take no other. Send 4c. in stamps for particulars. "Relief for Ladies," in letter by return mail. At druggists. Chichester Chemical Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

E. G. PARKER says coal has dropped too low to last. Now is the time to put in your season's supply. He also sells groceries, boots, shoes and rubbers.

MONEY TO LOAN at lowest rates on furniture, pianos, horses, carriages, diamonds, watches, etc., in sums of $5 and up. Payments can be made monthly, thus reducing principal and interest at each payment. All business confidential. Thomas E. Adams, 40 Middlesex street, Lowell.

RUBBER STAMPS — At wholesale prices, 1 inch 1-line stamps, 10c; 1½ inch 15c.; 35c. ink pads, 15c.; 25c. ink pads, 15c.; 50c linen markers, 25c.; business stamp, 15c per line. J. M. Fellows, 159 Merrimack street.

MRS. HATTIE R. FLETCHER trance and business medium, will give sittings Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays from only 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., 753 Gorham street.

"BOYS AND GIRLS" wanted to copy letters at home; genteel way of earning money. Send self-addressed stamped envelope for particulars. Henry Williams Co., Dep't L., 152 E. 23d. street, New York.

For Women.

Dr. Tolman's Monthly Regulator has brought happiness to hundreds of anxious women. There is positively no other remedy known to medical science, that will so quickly and safely do the work. Have never had a single failure. The longest and most obstinate cases are relieved in 3 days without fail. No other remedy will do this. No pain, no danger, no interference with work. The most difficult cases successfully treated through correspondence, and the most complete satisfaction guaranteed in every instance. I relieve hundreds of ladies whom I never see. Write for further particulars. All letters truthfully answered. Free confidential advice in all matters of a private or delicate nature. Bear in mind this remedy is absolutely safe under every possible condition and will positively leave no after ill effects upon the health. By mail securely sealed, $2.00. Dr. E. M. TOLMAN CO., 170 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

Only a Few More Days

. . . OF . . .

GREAT CLEARANCE SALE AT 44 BRIDGE STREET

Only this week until Saturday, August 11, we will continue to

SACRIFICE OUR STOCK OF SKIRTS,

SHIRT WAISTS, JACKETS, TAILOR-MADE SUITS AND MILLINERY at the lowest prices ever heard of in the city. Come everybody to get a bargain in anything for a memory of the GREAT SALE AT 44 BRIDGE ST., Near Merrimack Square.

HAVE YOU ORDERED YOUR COAL?

If not you should do so while it is at the present low price. We have the kind that will suit you.

D. T. SULLIVAN, 984 Gorham Street

Branch Office, 227 Central St. Telephone.

STRONG AGAIN! WHEN IN DOUBT, TRY Sex-ine Pills

They have stood the test of years, and have cured thousands of cases of Nervous Diseases, such as Debility, Dizziness, Sleeplessness and Varicocele, Atrophy, &c. They clear the brain, strengthen the circulation, make digestion perfect, and impart a healthy vigor to the whole being. All drains and losses are checked permanently. Unless patients are properly cured, their condition often worries them into Insanity, Consumption or Death. Mailed sealed. Price $1 per box; 6 boxes, with iron-clad legal guarantee to cure or refund the money, $5.00. Send for free book. Address, PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, O.

Sold at Goodale's Drug Store, the best and cheapest place in Lowell for drugs and medicines, 217 CENTRAL STREET.

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

Southern Div.

To Boston. Lve.	To Boston. Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	From Boston. Arr.
5 43	6 50	6 00	7 07
6 20	7 45	6 25	7 45
§6 30	7 30	6 40	7 35
6 43	7 52	8 00	8 59
§7 04	8 02	*8 30	9 06
*§7 27	8 10	*9 00	9 35
*§7 34	8 01	*9 30	10 07
7 45	8 55	*10 00	10 37
§7 50	8 53	10 17	11 31
8 50	9 40	10 45	11 55
9 15	10 35	*11 30	12 07
9 40	10 41	12 00	12 56
11 00	12 09	*1 30	1 55
*§11 42	12 25	*1 15	1 52
§12 16	1 05	2 00	3 01
1 40	2 50	*3 00	3 38
*§1 57	2 30	3 47	5 01
3 00	4 00	4 14	5 50
*§3 47	4 35	4 47	5 37
§4 03	4 45	*5 00	5 58
4 55	6 30	5 35	6 25
*5 29	6 15	5 47	6 54
6 44	7 10	6 14	7 27
*§6 22	7 05	*7 30	8 08
*§7 19	8 00	*8 45	9 22
§8 42	9 37	10 15	11 19
		11 20	12 22

Sunday Trains

To Boston. Lve.	To Boston. Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	From Boston. Arr.
§6 30	7 30	2 15	3 07
*§7 27	8 10	9 00	10 07
8 45	9 19	1 00	1 37
§9 17	10 02	5 00	5 39
§4 25	5 30	†7 30	8 08
§5 53	7 01	*8 45	9 22
		9 30	10 02

Western Div.

To Boston. Lve.	To Boston. Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	From Boston. Arr.
6 50	8 02	7 30	8 31
8 10	8 51	9 25	10 03
9 25	10 35	10 25	11 41
10 50	12 02	11 50	1 05
12 08	1 02	2 15	3 13
12 45	1 37	3 50	4 55
2 25	3 11	4 25	5 15
3 10	4 56	5 14	6 50
3 55	5 04	6 04	7 05
5 18	6 12	6 25	7 18
6 15	7 15	9 39	10 19
7 00	8 06	‖11 15	12 15
9 25	10 30

Sunday Trains

To Boston. Lve.	To Boston. Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	From Boston. Arr.
8 15	9 27	8 01	9 17
12 05	1 25	12 00	1 02
1 05	5 18	5 01	6 25
5 20	6 58	8 41	9 40
6 45	9 12

Trains by western division leave Lowell from Middlesex Street station.

*Express.

§From Middlesex Street Station only.

‖Runs to Lowell Wednesdays and Saturdays only.

THE WEATHER

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Local forecast for Boston and vicinity: Fair tonight and Friday; cooler tonight; westerly winds.

SPECIAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF MEETING.

There will be a special meeting of Stone Masons' union at their hall, 32 Middle street Thursday evening at the usual hour. Business of importance is to be transacted.

A BIG PRESENT.

A gray enamelled preserving kettle with a pound of tea and coffee. You should secure one of these. Dickson Bros., The Big Tea Dealers, 68 Merrimack street.

THE SUN ON SALE IN BOSTON.

The five o'clock edition of The Sun is on sale at the news stand in the Union Station, Boston.

STEAMSHIP TICKETS AND DRAFTS.

Sold on the Cunard, Dominion, White Star, American, Anchor, Allan and Leyland lines, to and from Boston, New York, Queenstown, Liverpool and all parts of Europe. Drafts issued for £1 and upward on all parts of Great Britain and Ireland. English sovereigns and Canada bills bought at Murphy's, 18 Appleton street.

LOCAL NEWS

Try Horne's Coal.

Have you had Pelham's Cigars?

F. A. M. Tobin's Printery. Tel. 843-2.

E. G. Parker is selling shoes cheap.

Elegant rubber-tired hacks at O'Donnell's stable. Telephone 439-4.

Dress Suit cases, solid leather, $5, worth $7. Devine's, 88 Merrimack St.

The Wamesits and Pilliugs, Shoe Shop will play today on Fort Hill.

See Gardner, the trick rider Saturday at the S. C. W. races.

Democratic headquarters have been opened at Room 15, Barristers' hall, up two flights. All democrats are invited.

Masons and contractors are well satisfied with the building materials bought, of the William E. Livingston Company, 15 Thorndike street.

Don't loaf around Saturday afternoon. Go to the S. C. W. races.

Always exciting. What? The S. C. W. races, Saturday.

Horsemen can keep their horses in good condition if they buy their stable supplies of the William E. Livingston Company, 15 Thorndike street.

SATURDAY IS QUARTER DAY, 4 PER CENT. WASHINGTON BANK, 273 CENTRAL STREET.

LOOKING FOR MAHAN.

The police have been asked to be on the lookout for Joseph Mahan, who is wanted in Haverhill, Mass., for breaking and entering. Mahan is of sandy complexion, has blue eyes and a round face, and the little finger on the right hand is "out of plumb."

Mrs. C. M. Dickey and Miss Clara E. Dickey of the St. Charles hotel started Tuesday for a drive through New Hampshire and Vermont to spend the summer.

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it today. Try Jell-O, a delicious and healthful dessert. Prepared in two minutes. No boiling! no baking! simply add boiling water and set to cool. Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Raspberry and Strawberry. Get a package at your grocer's today. 10 cents.

Why try to stick things with something that doesn't stick? Buy MAJOR'S CEMENT; you know it sticks. Nothing breaks away from it. Stick to MAJOR'S CEMENT. Buy once, you will buy forever. There is nothing as good; don't believe the substituter.

MAJOR'S RUBBER and MAJOR'S LEATHER. Two separate cements—the best. Insist on having them. ESTABLISHED 1876. 15 and 25 cents per bottle at all druggists.

MAJOR CEMENT CO., NEW YORK CITY.

DON'T SPONGE

On your neighbor. We have just received a new lot of

Carriage Sponges

They are genuine Florida Sheep's Wool Sponges,

10c. to $1.50 Each.

C. B. COBURN & CO.,

63 MARKET STREET.

WOMEN WARNED

Mrs. Lake Says Drink Habit is Increasing

MRS. LEONORA LAKE.

Convention of Catholic Total Abstinence Union Opened—Many Delegates are in Attendance

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9—After pontifical mass celebrated in the cathedral by Archbishop Ryan yesterday morning, the Catholic total abstinence union of America opened its 30th annual convention in Horticultural hall. The delegates formed in procession at the hall and marched to the cathedral headed by the St. Vincent cadets of Germantown.

The cathedral was crowded, and among those present were many prelates of the church who are paying their first visit to this city. Archbishop Ryan had associated with him as officers of the mass Rev. P. V. Byrne of Chicago, Rev. Walter J. Shanley, rector of the cathedral, Hartford, Conn., and Rev. Anthony S. Siebenforscher, president of the Ohio union, deacons of honor; Rev. M. A. Lambig of the diocese of Pittsburg and formerly president of the Pittsburg union and Rev. D. F. McGillicuddy of Worcester, subdeacons, and Rev. John F. McQuade, master of ceremonies.

The sermon to the delegates was preached by Mgr. Conaty, rector of the Catholic university at Washington.

At noon the delegates and representatives of different church organizations in this city who are interested in temperance work returned to Horticultural hall. They included Judge Walter J. Gibbon of Chicago, M. B. O'Connell of St. Paul, Rev. A. P. Doyle of New York, who has been the untiring secretary of the union for seven years; Mrs. L. M. Lake, who is one of the most successful temperance workers in the country, and whose labors are in demand by Protestants as well as Catholics; Rev. Fr. Curran of Scranton, who has done much toward making that diocese the strongest temperance centre in the country in proportion to the population; P. H. Nolan, who has been identified with the movements since its inception; Annie Cront of the Falls of Schuylkill, Ella Balfrey of Germantown, Nellie McBride and Sallie Morrin of the church of the Nativity, who are regarded as the most aggressive women workers in the archdiocese, and Hugh S. Coll and E. J. Cornell, who confine their labors to the interior.

Bishop Tierney, president of the union, was unable to attend and J. Worthington Logue, president of the Philadelphia union and a vice president of the national union, acted as president during the session, but retired at the afternoon session to be replaced by Mrs. Lake.

The principal business was the reading of the reports of the national officers and reports submitted by officers of local unions. The report of Bishop Tierney evoked applause. The bishop, after referring to the labors performed by the union in the cause of temperance, said:

"The future of our country and the prosperity of the church depend upon the success of the temperance cause. We must urge our people to respect themselves, their families and religion. Let them know that positions of trust cannot be held by tipplers and topers. Catholics should be models of virtue to the world, blessed as they are with the teachings of the church and its sacraments.

"It is with sincere regret that I feel compelled to absent myself from the convention. I had hoped to be with you, but the death of Bishop Healy calls me to his funeral.

"I would suggest that proper action be taken respecting the federation of Catholic societies, an expression of sentiment on the government's action on Indian schools, the desecration of the Philippine churches, and on the unjust marriage laws in Cuba and Porto Rico."

Mrs. Lake then addressed the convention. On the question of drunkenness among women she laid special emphasis. She said:

"Medical men assert that drunkenness among this sex is on the increase. Treatment for the drink habit among them is as common as for coughs and colds. It is the life society women lead that causes it. They have no time to eat or sleep, and consequently they must turn to what will give them strength to get through their social functions. For a while it works like a charm. They become its slave and

"At many afternoon teas intoxicating liquor has taken the place of tea. There is where the young debutantes begin to acquire the taste for stimulants. Soon they do not care to eat unless they have their cocktails first. Bellevue hospital doctors state that the number of women who are brought there for treatment seems incredible. Seldom a day goes by that some decent woman is not brought in."

BARTENDERS MAD

Two Lose Jobs Because They Joined Union

The Lowell Bartenders union will hold a special meeting next Sunday for the purpose of acting upon a report to the effect that a liquor dealer at the "Flats" has discharged his two bartenders because they joined the union. The real facts of the case are somewhat obscure but it is known that the proprietor did not favor the idea of having his bartenders in the union. The bartenders entered last Sunday, each paying his $2 initiation fee. On Monday both were discharged. The officers of the Bartenders' Union learned of the discharges yesterday and attempted to see Mr. O'Connell but were unsuccessful as the latter was at Lynn. The Mattiers and Brewery Workers' unions of this city upon learning of it notified the Bartenders' Union that they would co-operate with them in any action they might take. Now a special meeting has been called for Sunday and the matter will be thoroughly discussed before any action is taken.

Go to the S. C. W. races Saturday afternoon, and see the fun.

A Record-Breaking Sale!

This is a genuine slaughter sale. This is no Merrimack Street BLUFF sale. Save your pennies, they mean dollars here on this sale.

LITTLE MONEY WILL TALK VOLUMES AT THIS SALE.

Cotton and Lawn Waists

Valued at 39c, 49c, now	19c
" 59c, 69c, now	39c
" 79c, $1.00, $1.25, now	49c
" $1.25, $1.50, now	69c
" $1.75, $2, $3, $4, now	98c

SILK WAISTS.

Valued at $3, $4, $5, now	$1.75
" $7, $8, $9, now	$2.98

Crash P. K. and Duck Skirts

Valued at 59c, 75c, now	19c
" $1.50, $1.75, now	69c

DRESS SKIRTS.

Valued at 98c, now	49c
" $2.00, now	79c
" $3.00, now	$1.49
" $5.00, now	$2.75
" $6.00, now	$3.50

LINEN and DUCK SUITS

Valued at $1.98, now	79c
" $2.98, now	98c
" $5.00, now	$1.98

TAILOR MADE SUITS.

Valued at $12.00, now	$4.50
" $15.00, now	$5.00
" $18.00, now	$7.50

TAILOR MADE JACKETS.

Valued at $3.50, now	$1.00
" $4.00, now	$1.98
" $5.00, now	$2.75
" $8.00, now	$3.00
" $12.00, now	$5.00

WRAPPERS.

Valued at 79c, now	29c
" $1.00, now	69c
" $1.98, now	98c

Children's Dresses and Reefers almost given away. You cannot afford to miss this sale as this is a genuine Record Breaking Sale. If you think it's too hot, take a carriage, it will pay you. SALE BEGINS FRIDAY MORNING AT 9 O'CLOCK.

Cooper's Cozy Cloak and Suit Store,

LADIES' FAVORITE .˙. CORHAM ST.

OPEN EVERY EVENING. One minute's walk from post office.

CALLED A DRAW

Mike Sears and Gardner Well Matched

THE BOUT A SCIENTIFIC ONE

Sears Did all of the Leading

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LYNN, Aug. 9.—The drawing card of the boxing exhibition given by the Kirtland club last night was a 15-round match between Mike Sears of Lynn and Billy Gardner of Lowell, the result being a draw. Sears gave a more clever exhibition, but Gardner was the stronger and in the better condition. In the fifth round Gardner had a dizzy spell and Sears had him going, but he recovered and from that time it was all in fighting. Sears did all the leading and played his double cross counter on Gardner's head in nearly every round, but without much effect. Taken altogether it was the most scientific exhibition seen in this city for many a day.

In the preliminaries McKenzie, the "Salem Kid," got the decision over Bob Ringwood of Lynn in a four-round go. Tyson of East Boston faced "Twin" Sullivan of Haverhill for a six-round bout, but at the end of the third round Sullivan so clearly showed his superiority that Tyson was withdrawn.

HAD 500 GUESTS.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

MILFORD, Aug. 9.—Gen. and Mrs. Wm. F. Draper, who recently arrived at their home in Hopedale from Rome, where the general has been for the past three years as United States ambassador to Italy, gave last evening the first reception since their arrival. Fully 500 invited guests were present. The mansion was a garden of decorative splendor.

General and Mrs. Draper were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Eben S. Draper and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Osgood of Hopedale.

The spacious dining hall was thronged during the dinner hour.

This was the first of a series of receptions which General and Mrs. Draper are to give at their Hopedale residence.

SPILLER'S

GOLDEN BALSAM

Takes the lead as a preparation for the Relief and Cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Throat and Lungs, Pleurisy, Pneumonia and Asthma. It is a certain and immediate relief in all cases of croup. In Whooping Cough it removes the distressing symptoms and relieves the painful breathing. It soothes the distressing cough of consumption. It is a beautifully clear preparation, pleasant to the taste and is perfectly safe to give to the most delicate child. Every bottle guaranteed. Money refunded to anyone who uses one bottle according to directions without obtaining satisfaction. Price 25 cents. For sale by Carter & Sherburne, H. R. Parker & Co., Lowell, Mass. Also for sale by all druggists.

REV. DR. CYRUS HAMLIN.

DR. HAMLIN DEAD

Was First President of Roberts' College

FAMOUS AS MISSIONARY IN TURKEY

Cousin to Ex-Vice President Hamlin

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 9.—Rev. Dr. Cyrus Hamlin, the veteran missionary, died here suddenly last night at the residence of D. H. Farley.

Dr. Hamlin and his wife arrived here Tuesday from Lexington, Mass., their home, and last evening attended an old home week reception at the Second Parish church. Soon after he returned to the Farley residence he complained of feeling a pain, and dropped to the floor dead.

Cyrus Hamlin, builder of Roberts college, Constantinople, was born Jan. 5, 1811, in Waterford, Me., the son of Hannibal Hamlin, who was twin brother of Cyrus Hamlin, father of Hannibal Hamlin, vice-president with Lincoln. The brothers Cyrus and Hannibal Hamlin promised each other that their first sons should be named for their uncles, and thus came about this apparent confusing of names in the two generations.

The father of the second Cyrus Hamlin died when the baby was 9 months old, and when he was still a very small boy he took the place of the "hired man" on the home farm.

He was 16 years old when he was "bound out" to his brother-in-law, who lived in Portland, Me. This brother-in-law was a silversmith, and Cyrus would have learned the trade if it had not been for the eloquent preaching of Rev. Edward Payson. But when Cyrus was 19 he was converted by this preacher's sermons.

ALL DISEASES AND WEAKNESSES OF MEN

From whatever cause arising, quickly and permanently Cured at the Old Reliable Peabody Medical Institute, No. 4 Bulfinch Street (opposite Revere House), Boston, Mass., Established in 1860. Chief Consulting Physician, graduate of Harvard Medical College, Class of 1864, late Surgeon 5th Reg. Mass. Vols., who Cures where others fail. Consultation in person or by letter. A Medical Pamphlet, vade mecum, Free, sealed, 6c. for postage, to every male reader of this paper. The best Medical Book of this or any age (for men only) entitled "THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION," 370 pp., with engravings. A perfect guide to all men, married or single, only 25c., in paper covers, sealed. Cloth, full gilt, $1. Send now, and Heal Thyself.

"The Peabody Medical Institute has many imitators, but no equals."—Boston Herald.

J. F. O'DONNELL, Funeral Director

224 Market Street, Corner of Worthen. Office Open Day and Night. Three Telephones. LOWELL, MASS.

Get Rid of Them

One or two of Ayer's Pills each night will act on the liver just enough to cause one good, free movement of the bowels the day following. Keep this right up until your liver acts as it should and your constipation is cured. 'Twill be the last of your coated tongue, headache, and loss of appetite.

CUBAN TEACHERS

SEVERAL OF THEM COMING TO LOWELL.

A number of the Cuban teachers are to come to this city Aug. 13, as the guests of the J. C. Ayer Co. They will come from Boston on a special train and will be met by the Spanish interpreters of the J. C. Ayer Co., who will conduct them to the Ayer Laboratory, where dinner will be served and a reception tendered the teachers. After an inspection of the J. C. Ayer Co.'s plant a visit to the different mills will be made. The visitors will return to Boston on a special train in the evening.

Don't Fool with a Fan

It's a useless exertion. There's more concentrated coolness and refreshing comfort in one glass of

HIRES Rootbeer

than a family of fans can furnish. Write for list of premiums offered free for labels. Charles E. Hires Co., Malvern, Pa.

J. M. KINGSBURY, No. 373 Bridge St. MEATS AND PROVISIONS.

TEETH

If you want teeth out, come to a reliable office and HAVE THE WORK DONE RIGHT.

Extracting is a specialty with us; we guarantee that no matter how many teeth you want out, or how bad the teeth or roots are, THE OPERATION WILL BE POSITIVELY PAINLESS IN ALL CASES.

NO CHARGE for painless extracting when teeth are ordered.

FULL SET TEETH (that fit)	$4.00
GOLD FILLINGS	$1.00
GOLD CROWNS	$3 to $5
SILVER FILLINGS	50c
TEETH WITHOUT PLATE	$5.00

Boston Painless Dental Rooms

Rooms 16 and 17 Runels' Bldg, ..MERRIMACK SQUARE.. Opp. St. R. R. Waiting Room. Office hours: 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., Sun days 10 to 4. LADY ATTENDANT.

SECOND ANNUAL

Muslin Underwear Sale

SALE. SALE. SALE. SALE.

Commencing Friday Morning, at 8 a. m. Sharp.

Night Robes.

Special values in plain and hamburg trimmed Robes, regular 75c values, for this sale, 42c. Each

Extra values in Robes at 59c., 79c., 98c., $1.25, and $1.50 Each

See them. These prices for this sale only.

Corset Covers.

Special for Friday Only.

Low and high neck, plain Corset Covers, made of good cotton, for this sale only, 7c. Each

Special values in Corset Covers for this sale only, at 11 1-2c., 17c. 19c., 29c., 39c. and up to 98c. each

Drawers.

29c. value, tucked with wide flounce, for this sale only 19c. a Pair

Lace Trimmed Drawers, 39c. value, for this sale 26c. a Pair

Skirts. Skirts.

Special lot of long Skirts, Hamburg trimmed, with dust ruffle, for this sale 59c. Each

Short and Long Skirts at greatly reduced prices.

We carry only reliable manufacture of Muslin Underwear. Our space here is insufficient to represent one-half the special numbers of this sale. Come and see our stock, compare our prices. THE ABOVE PRICES ONLY GOOD FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

FISHER & CO.

119, 121, 123 MERRIMACK ST.

A. G. POLLARD & CO.

MERRIMACK, PALMER AND MIDDLE STREETS.

WE WILL CLOSE OUT —OUR— REMNANTS of DIMITIES At 3½c. Yard.

Not a great many left, and all good styles, but the larger proportion of them dark colors, new blue, navy blue and black; quantities sufficient for waists and dresses of the regular 10c. and 12 1-2c qualities, now 3 1-2c. yard.

And about 600 yards left of the imitation linen suiting at 3 1-2c.

BASEMENT DEPARTMENT.

A. G. Pollard & Co.

JUST ASK THEM.

Ask the newsdealers and newsboys what paper they sell the most of. Ask the freight men and truckmen what office receives the most paper in rolls. Ask the ink manufacturer what office uses the most newspaper ink. Ask the people what paper is the most widely read in Lowell, and all will cry out "THE SUN."

THE LOWELL SUN

Reaches the Homes.

Every copy of The Sun, whether delivered from this office or from a news agency or newsboy, reaches the home of the purchaser. Outside agencies are necessary for rapid distribution of a large edition. Don't be deceived with home circulation stories.

ESTABLISHED 1878 LOWELL, MASS., THURSDAY, AUGUST 9, 1900 8 PAGES ONE CENT

CITY CAPTURED

Yang Tsun Taken By The Allied Forces

NIGHT EDITION

SIX O'CLOCK

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, AUG. 9.—THE FOLLOWING DESPATCH HAS BEEN RECEIVED BY THE SIGNAL OFFICE OF THE ARMY HERE:

CHE-FOO, AUG. 9. SIGNALS, WASHINGTON:

AUGUST 6.—YANG TSUN CAPTURE TODAY. WIRE US. NEED OUR TRANSPORTATION. ALL WELL.

(SIGNED) SHRIVEN.

STATE DEPARTMENT'S MESSAGE

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, AUG. 9.—THE STATE DEPARTMENT THIS MORNING MADE PUBLIC THE FOLLOWING MEMORANDUM SENT YESTERDAY TO THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT THROUGH MINISTER WU:

"We are availing ourselves of the opportunity offered by the imperial edict of the fifth of August allowing to the foreign ministers free communication with their respective governments in cipher an have sent a communication to Minister Conger, to which we await an answer.

"We are already advised by him, in a brief despatch received August 4th, that imperial troops are firing daily upon the ministers in Pekin.] We demand the immediate cessation of hostile attacks by imperial troops upon the legations and urge the exercise of every power and energy of the imperial government for the protection of the legations and all foreigners therein.

"We are also advised by the same despatch from Minister Conger that, in his opinion, for the foreign ministers to leave Pekin as proposed in the edict of August 2nd would be certain death. In view of the fact that the imperial troops still reported as firing upon the legations and in view of the doubt expressed by the imperial government in its edict of Aug 2, as to its power to restore order and secure absolute safety in Pekin, it is evident that this apprehension is well founded, for if your government cannot protect our minister in Pekin, it will presumptively be unable to protect him upon a journey from Pekin to the coast.

"We therefore urge upon the imperial government that it shall adopt the course suggested in the third clause of the leter of the president to his majesty, the Emperor China, of July 2, 1900, and enter into communication with the relief expedition so that co-operation may be secured between them for the liberation of the legations, the protection of foreigners and the restoration of order. Such action on the part of the imperial government would be a satisfactory demonstration of its friendliness and desire to attain these ends.

(Signed) ALVEY A. ADEE,
Acting Secretary.

Department of State, Washington, Aug. 8, 1900.

MILL SITUATION

No General Shut Down Now Probable

MILLS WORKING AND ORDERS NORMAL

The report of an intended general shutdown of the cotton mills in this city in conjunction with others in New England, is not confirmed by statements from the counting rooms or by appearances. Out on Central bridge last night was seen the gleam of lights from mills along the water side, from the Lawrence hosiery down to the junction of the Concord river, taking in the Tremont and Suffolk, Merrimack, Boott, and Massachusetts establishments, parts of all of which are at work on overtime.

It was the intention of the Tremont and Suffolk people a month ago to shut down two weeks this month in order that the employes, many of whom desire vacations, might all be out together and obviate the disorganization consequent upon breaking in so many new hands at once. These mills have been at work night and day for several years, and, while night work was suspened a few weeks ago, it is stated that it is not the intention of the management to materially diminish the output on its standard goods.

The arrangement for a two weeks' shutdown has been changed. The mills will be closed about a week, taking in Labor day.

Notice was given to the weavers of the Massachusetts mills yesterday that the looms will be stopped next week. It was stated at the counting room, however, that this is to allow the yarn department to catch up, and this statement is confirmed by the fact that the carding departments are running nights, as they have been several nights every week for some time back.

Over on the upper level canal, near Jackson street, the Hamilton is running as usual, and the treasurer of the Appleton, Mr. A. G. Cumnock, has gone to Europe, leaving his mills in full operation.

The information is gathered from reliable sources that all the Lowell cotton mills, in common with most of similar establishments in New England, probably have to some extent been curtailing their product since last spring, partly in consequence of some falling off in demand and partly from motives of prudence. On the other hand manufacturers of cotton machinery are running busily, and the report is that orders are normal.

MASSACRED

200 Men, Women and Children Put to Death

By Associated Press to The Sun.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 9.—Advices received from Hills, Asiatic Turkey, says that 200 men, women and children have been massacred in the Armenian village of Sepghank, in the district of Sassun by troops and Kurds under Ali Pasha, the commandant of Mush. He is also said to have ordered the village to be burned.

BISHOP HEALY

Buried With Simple Service Today

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 9.—The funeral of the Rt. Rev. James Augustine Healy, Roman Catholic bishop of Maine, was held this forenoon at the cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, in the presence of an immense throng of people. The steps were filled and the line extended out to the middle of Cumberland street.

The cathedral was elaborately draped in black and white and presented an imposing appearance. There were no flowers, this being according to the wish of the late bishop. In the great congregation were noticed many of the leading citizens of Portland, Catholics and Protestants alike. There were in attendance Archbishop Williams of Boston, and Archbishop Bruchesi of Montreal, Bishop Beaven of Springfield, Bradly of Manchester, Michaud of Burlington, Tierney of Hartford and Hurkins of Providence.

More than 50 priests were present from all parts of New England.

The body of the late bishop was placed in the middle aisle in front of the chancel.

The services opened with the chanting of the psalms, by the priests who were seated in the broad aisle. Then the archbishops and bishops preceded by Archbishop Williams entered the chancel. Requiem high mass was celebrated by Archbishop Williams during the progress of which the two choirs from St. Dominic's church and the cathedral sang with fine effect. At the close of the mass the archbishops and bishops surrounded the catafalque and chanted the litany for the dead. At the close of the exercises all the people in the cathedral passed in front of the catafalque and viewed the body. There was no eulogy of the deceased, and the services were made as simple as possible in deference to the well known desire of Bishop Healy.

After the people had filed out of the cathedral the procession, including many societies was formed in command of Major Collin of the First regiment of the Maine National Guard.

The body was escorted to Calvary cemetery for interment, it being the wish of the bishop to rest among his people instead of under the cathedral according to the usual custom.

The burial services at the grave were brief and simple.

30 INJURED

Disaster Averted at Humbert's Funeral

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—A special despatch from Rome says that a sudden movement of the crowd in the Via Nazionale as the king's carriage in the funeral procession passed resulted in a panic during which thirty person were injured and several badly crushed. The despatch adds that it was at first thought by the officers that it was the king's life was in danger and Duke of Aosta and Count of Turin drew their swords while the cavalry drove back the crowd and enclosed the king's carriage in a square. Women, the despatch adds, fainted and shrieked and a number were knocked down and crumpled under foot but the disaster which was seemingly inevitable was averted.

BAD COUNTRY LEADS TO PEKIN

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The country over which the allied forces are now fighting is, according to all accounts, of a sort to make it a wonderful accomplishment to reach Pekin in the face of a superior force. W. Kai Kee, who has traversed the route between Tien-Tsin and Pekin several times, having gone from South China by the grand canal, says of the country:

"Near Tien-Tsin it is a waste of marshes, with lagoons and wandering rivers. The Chang Ho, the Hun Ho and smaller streams join the Pei Ho somewhere in this mesh, but are very much confused. About the city to the north are rice fields and gardens. Beyond these are the marshes across which the railway is built on an embankment, made of bamboos driven in the earth, the space between the two rows being filled in.

"At Pei Tsang the first good ground is found. It is sixty li (20 miles) from the town. The newspapers have much mis-stated distances, because Chinese miles are one-third of English miles.

"Here are great rice fields stretching for many miles, with embankments built by the province along the river which is very crooked and with earth paths running every few yards through the rice. The water being very low, these paths and embankments would make natural trenches for fighting. Only on boats in the river or along the railway can artillery be used.

"For twenty miles here and all about Yung Sung (Yang Tsin) which means 'Dust and Mud' are mud flats which at this season are drying and baked. The last summer I was along the road we often had to lie down and cover up our heads while the dust storms went by. It is as bad to march through as water. Lafa Sang, or the 'Last Place of Mud,' is where the low hills, covered with grass begin to rise and the country from there on to Pekin is fine and rolling with many villages, rich farms and gardens.

"Before Lafa Sang is reached there is not one stone as big as a man's fist which is natural to the ground and not one tree a high as a man to be seen anywhere. If the soldiers stay long enough near the rivers, which in the summer time have an awful smell they will next month become ill with fever and very many will die.

"There are not many people living between Lafa Sang and Tien Tsin except the Chinese whom the railroad keep to work on the track and to watch it so the water which sometimes flows two different directions within an hour will not carry away a mile of it some day."

AUSTRIAN LEGATION WAS BURNED

By Associated Press to The Sun.

VIENNA, Aug. 9.—The foreign office has received the following from Dr. A. Von Rosthorn, secretary of the Austrian-Hungarian legation at Pekin, dated Aug. 4:

"The Austro-Hungarian legation, with the archives, was burned June 21. Since June 20 we, with the French detachment, have been defending the French legation, which has been bombarded by cannon and rifle fire. Part of their building was destroyed by mines. We deplore the losses of Captain Thomann and three sailors killed and Boyneburg and two sailors severely wounded.

"Since July 16 the Chinese attacks have not been severe. The Chinese government wishes to induce us to leave for Tien-Tsin, under safe conduct, but until now we have not fallen in with his offer.

(Continued to Page Five.)

TWO BRIGHT BOYS

Cast Upon the Cold, Cold World

Constable McManus has on hand a very sad case of two orphans, two very bright lads, Frank and James Shea, the former five and a half years and the latter eight years old.

Their parents are dead three years now and since that time the children have been supported and kept by an uncle who is now 70 years old and unable to keep them any longer.

In fact he and the children have been evicted from the little tenement they occupied and now the little ones are outcasts on the world.

Rev. Fr. McKenna attended the mother on her death bed and her last request was that he should see the children were well cared for. This he has done so far and he has now given Mr. McManus an order to take them to a Catholic home in Boston but the little fellows cried piteously on realizing that they were to be separated from their uncle and each other as they will be in all probability when placed in homes around Boston and possibly adopted by different families, as they are good bright boys and of good parentage.

Constable McManus thinks that he had better keep the boys for a day or two to see if any Lowell family wants to take them and provide a home for them. Rev. Fr. McKenna will see that they are well treated wherever they will be placed as he intends to look after them to see that they are properly treated and that their education will not be neglected.

Security at Home, Facility Abroad

The prospective traveler, whether in the vacation season or at other times, wisely arranges for the security of such valuables as must be left behind, and for the supply of such available funds as may be needed while abroad or absent from home. For these purposes, the Traders' National bank provides

Safe Deposit Boxes, Travellers' Checks.

Deposit boxes are rented for the merely nominal sum of $5 per annum, which, in view of the feeling of security afforded thereby, is a capital investment. Letters of credit and foreign drafts on prominent centers in foreign lands meet the requirements of the traveller in the most perfect manner.

The Traders National Bank

Transacts a general banking business.
Issues foreign exchange, payable in all parts of the world, in English, French, German and Swedish money.
Furnishes safety deposit boxes, with private coupon rooms.
Pays, in its savings department, 4 per cent. per annum, compounded semi-annually. Interest beginning monthly.
Has a section of banking rooms exclusively for ladies.
Is a depository of the United States and Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
Banking hours—8 a. m. to 4 p. m.; Saturday, 8 a. m. to 1 p. m.; 7 to 9 p. m.
Banking rooms—39 to 45 Middlesex street and 11 to 24 Post Office avenue.

WAS SWINDLED

Lowell Man Works Clever Game in Nashua

The Nashua papers contain a story of a swindling game worked by a Lowell man on Thomas Burke of Nashua. The Lowell police were notified this noon of the alleged swindle and are on the lookout for the alleged swindler. The story as told by Nashua parties is as follows:

John Meehan, formerly of Lowell, went to Burke's hotel in West Pearl street three weeks ago and engaged board. He was ill and remained there until last Friday when he went away. A physician attended Meehan while ill and the amount of the doctor's bill was $15. Meehan paid neither his board nor doctor's bill but promised to pay both claiming that he had $700 in a Lowell bank.

He produced a check on the Lowell Trust company for $700 and asked Burke to identify him at one of the Nashua banks. Burke went and Meehan got the money. Meehan then started from the hotel saying he was going to pay the doctor's bill. Since then Meehan has not been seen by Burke. The doctor's bill was sent to James J. Dolan, grocer, of Concord street with a request that it be paid. Mr. Dolan returned it with a statement that the doctor never treated him. The check was received by the Lowell Trust Co., but was repudiated as it was seen that the signature was not that of Mr. Dolan.

Mr. Burke on learning the real facts, came to Lowell and saw Mr. Dolan. He told him that Meehan had been in Nashua and passed himself off as James J. Dolan.

$300,000 LOSS

The Shelby Steel Tube Works Destroyed

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Aug. 9.—Fire last night totally destroyed the works of the Shelby steel tube company and the Boston Electrodiet company doing damage to the extent of $300,000.

For a time it was feared that the Union Drawn Steel works would also be destroyed but the firemen kept the flames from spreading.

The origin of the fire is unknown.

AN AYER MAN

CAUSED THE ARREST OF DANIEL CREEL.

Dr. C. A. Fox, a dentist of Ayer, was the means of causing the arrest of Daniel Creel, who is alleged to be a green goods man who has done an extensive business in New England. The doctor received several letters last winter inviting him to invest in green goods, and as they came from New York, he acquainted Anthony Comstock with the facts. He was advised to make an appointment with the green goods man, which he did. At the meeting a detective impersonated the doctor and the arrest of Daniel Creel as the green goods man followed. One of the persons who will testify against Creel is Louis Papas, of Haverhill, who lost $500 through the swindling game.

CITY HALL NOTES

CONSIDERABLE WORK IN LANDS AND BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

The trustees of the Edson cemetery have awarded the contract for painting the new fence at the cemetery to G. H. Kirby. The amount of the contract is $164.

Supt. Cheney is having copies of the new ordinance prohibiting heavy teaming on the boulevard printed and will post one at each end of the speedway.

Employes of the land and buildings department are kalsomining, painting, laying new floors and making other needed repairs at the different schools of the city.

Work is progressing on the new water tower station.

The steel trusses which will support the High school annex building are being placed in position while Farrell & Conalon are doing the plumbing.

PENSION CHANGES.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The following pension changes, resulting from the issue of July 23, are announced:

Massachusetts.

Original—Edward H. Allen, Lynn, $10. Increase—Timothy E. French, Berkeley, $12; James Ryan, Wareham, $12.

COMPANY M

WILL HOLD ITS REUNION ON SATURDAY.

The members of Company M, Ninth Regiment, will hold their annual reunion at Dewey Grove, Saturday afternoon and evening and a fine program has been arranged. The affair is for the members and a number of invited guests and commemorates the anniversary of Spain's acceptance of American peace terms.

BACK FROM EUROPE.

Mr. George Fairburn, the well known Merrimack square provision dealer has returned from a two months' visit in Europe, making quite a long stay at the "old homestead" in England.

Mrs. John J. Ryan and Master John Ryan are stopping at Revere beach for two weeks.

HANNA IS HERE

Nothing to Criticise In Bryan's Speech

HE CAN FIND NO FLAW

He Speaks of the German Vote

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Hon. Mark A. Hanna and Cornelius N. Bliss arrived here on the Fall River line boat train from New York this morning and were driven to the Hotel Touraine.

Senator Hanna comes to Boston to urge better organization work among New England republicans and to confer with influential men here.

"I have come to meet the leaders and prominent men of the republican party here, and confer with them on the situation," Senator Hanna said, when asked about the purpose of his visit. Further than this he had nothing to say concerning his plans save that possibly he would leave Boston tonight. When he was pressed to make a statement of the republican prospects in the country at large, Mr. Hanna said that that was something on which he would not prophesy. Of Bryan's speech he remarked:

"I have read it through from beginning to end. I don't suppose Mr. Bryan cares much what I think of his utterances, but if his friends are satisfied with his speech, I certainly am."

In reply to a question as to the German vote, Senator Hanna said:

"I certainly don't anticipate that such arguments as are used will have much effect upon the Germans. I would not insult their intelligence by supposing that they would be influenced to take such a view of the future of the republic because of the policies of the administration, as the democrats would have them take."

Mr. Hanna added that the speech might serve a purpose in stimulating the people to read the history of their country and ascertain whether some of the great men whom Bryan had quoted really held such views as he had ascribed to them.

"I think," said the senator, "that the speech was put forth as a feeler and was devoted to the line it took in order chiefly that Mr. Bryan might see whether the country took the bait.

"It is impossible to make a careful, intelligent prediction at the present time," he said. "The country has not yet become awake, and the people need stirring up. I never took any stock in the notion that a political party ever has a 'walk over' as it is expressed. Oftentimes campaigns turn on little things, so that one cannot say accurately in advance what the result is to be."

"The two republican leaders dined early this afternoon at the Exchange club with prominent members of the party in the state, and from all parts committees were formed to work up a McKinley sentiment, and to collect funds in their various districts.

Senator Hanna and Mr. Bliss will leave for New York this evening, going by way of Providence. They would not state whether they expected to meet Rhode Island politicians on the trip nor whether they would wait over a train in Providence.

MARTIN FLAHERTY

WILL BE MATCHED WITH JACK HAMILTON.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

TROY, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Sam Harris, manager to Terry McGovern, in reply to Jack Hamilton's challenge, says McGovern is so busy rehearsing his part for a drama in which he is to star the coming season that he cannot make a match.

Martin Flaherty of Lowell, Mass., will be matched against Hamilton before the amendment to the Horton law goes into effect.

HAROLD POOLE

IDENTIFIED CHAMPION AS HIS ASSAILANT.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

ALFRED, Maine, Aug. 9.—Harold Poole, the young sailor from Boston, who was the victim of almost fatal assault in Brooklyn last June, and who has just recovered sufficiently to make the journey, was brought here today to see if he could identify George Champion, a prisoner held here on a charge of murder, as the man who assaulted him. After looking over all the prisoners, Poole picked out Champion as his assailant. The identification was made without assistance or suggestion from any one else.

FEAST OF ASSUMPTION.

In all of the Catholic churches of the city today the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin is being appropriately observed.

FIREWORKS CASE

POSTPONED BY THE COURT UNTIL SEPTEMBER.

The hearing in fireworks injunction case has been postponed until Sept. 5 as the court declined to hear the case during the present weather.

BLIND BOY

EN ROUTE TO ALMSHOUSE IS STRANDED IN MERRIMACK SQUARE.

A blind French boy, en route to the Tewksbury almshouse, gathered quite a crowd in Merrimack square this noon. He is Alexander Ray, aged 15, of Canada, and was this morning consigned to the state almshouse by the Lawrence overseers of the poor, who put him aboard a Lowell-bound car without money or instructions. When the car reached Merrimack square the lad was turned over by the conductor to Starter Tom Sayers. The latter declined to put him on the Tewksbury car as he would then be compelled to walk over a mile from the end of the car line, so he called Officer Lane, who turned the poor fellow over to Secretary Courtney of the pauper department.

Misses John O'Neill of Broadway and Louis Conroy of Lawrence street have returned from a very enjoyable vacation at Old Orchard beach.

Avoid Experiments

Fix your faith to the summer medicine that has history back of it—a history of cures extending over a period of twenty-five years. It is

DOWS'
Diarrhoea and Cholera Syrup.

That tells the story. It is sold on its merits. There is no experiment about it. It is a positive cure for summer complaint, cramps, dysentery and kindred troubles.

Two Sizes, 25c. and 50c.

318 MERRIMACK STREET
Under Merrimack House.

389 CENTRAL STREET,
Above Opera House.

WYMAN'S EXCHANGE,
Cor. Merrimack and Central Streets.

THE SUN LATEST 5 O'CLOCK

DENNIS FINED $50

Or Must Serve 5 Months in Jail

Michael Harrington Sentenced to Jail One Year for Larceny—Newell Brown Also Sentenced for Larceny

The following drunks were fined $2 each: Arthur St. Onge, Arthur Marchand and Edward Forbin.

Thomas H. Donohue pleaded guilty to drunkenness and was sent to the workhouse for six months.

A fine of $6 was imposed on Catherine McNiff for a second offense of drunkenness.

Philip Frudel, aged 20 years, pleaded guilty to drunkenness. He was also charged with being a vagrant since last March. Officer Brenuli heard that Trudel was in Little Canada and said that he would knock the officer's head off because he arrested his chum. When the officer met Trudel, the latter had some rocks, with which he said he would nail the officer. He was sent to the reformatory.

Newell E. Brown pleaded not guilty to larceny of a watch from Xavier Castillan of Moody street.

Castillan said he went to sleep on a bench in front of his house Friday afternoon and when he woke up his watch was gone.

A pawnbroker testified that Brown pawned the watch in his place and got $2 on it.

Brown's story was that he met a man in Merrimack street, who wanted to sell the watch. Brown advised him to pawn it and he asked Brown to go to the pawn shop and get something on the watch. This Brown did and raised $2, which he says he gave to his friend. Judge Hadley sentenced him to jail for five months.

Soloman Laird was charged with drunkenness and indecent exposure of person. He pleaded guilty to the former and not guilty to the latter charge. He was held till tomorrow. He was arrested in Merrimack square yesterday afternoon.

Michael Harrington acknowledged stealing a pocket book and $35 from Sarah J. Whittier. He was sent to jail for one year and appealed. Harrington has been before the court many times.

Harry W. Dennis appeared in court this morning and excited considerable attention. He was charged with indecent exposure of person. He was very well and neatly dressed and his appearance is that of a bright, intelligent young man. He pleaded guilty to the charge and half a dozen girls from Chelmsford were ready to identify him and testify to his conduct. They were not called, however. Dennis said that he must have been out of his mind when he committed the offense. Otherwise he would not have done it. He is a canvasser for a Troy company that has a patent gas burner on the market. The manager of the company, Mr. Hooper, said that he was dumbfounded when he heard of Dennis' arrest. "I cannot imagine why he did it," said Hooper. Dennis was fined $50, to be paid in five days or serve five months in jail. He took the sentence as a severe blow and begged of Manager Hooper and a friend to help raise the money to pay the fine. He did not want to go to jail and appeared all broken up when he was taken down stairs.

THE LATE "STANNIE" CARTER, AN OLD TIME BALL PLAYER.

STANNIE CARTER

Old First Baseman of the Clippers

DIED TODAY AT 40 THIRD STREET

After an Illness of One Week

The community will be pained to learn of the death of Daniel Stanley Carter, which took place this forenoon at his late home, 40 Third street. The deceased will be remembered by old-time lovers of the national game of baseball, when the Clipper Baseball club was the crack team of Lowell, if not of New England. Carter, who was familiarly known as "Stannie," covered first base and was a "cracker-jack" in high thrown balls and grounders while attending the initial bag. He was also a clever batsman and was idolized by the local cracks of the latter 80's. In the team were such men as the late Ben Whitney, as catcher; President Fred A. Buttrick, now of the City Institution of Savings, pitcher; Edward Temple, second base; Ted Wentworth, third base; Joe White, shortstop; Martin Cooledge, "Dil" Cook, "Deacon" Boynton, and the Conway brothers, George and James, the latter in after years used as a battery. The rival teams of the Clippers then were the Celebrated Trimountain team and the Lowells of Boston; the Kearsarge team of Stoneham, the Harvard university nine and the Salmons and Sheridans of Lowell. Mr. Carter married a sister of the Clipper shortstop, Joseph White who is the only relative who survives him. Mr. Carter was an expert machinist and was employed at what is familiarly known as the Atherton Works until a week ago, when he was taken with a fainting spell at his lathe. He was removed to his home and never rallied from the illness. Several years ago while employed at the Field machine shop, Mr. Carter lost one eye by being hit by a flying chip of iron. After that time he engaged in the grocery business with Temple, the second base-man of the Clippers, having purchased the Churchill grocery store at the corner of Middlesex street. This store was subsequently purchased of the firm of Temple and Carter by Mr. Churchill.

FUNERALS

CRAIG—The funeral of Lillian E. Craig took place from the home of her parents, 9 East Pine street, yesterday afternoon, Rev. J. M. Craig officiating. There was singing by Miss Waller and Miss Baker. The casket was completely covered with flowers from the sympathetic friends. The interment was in the Edson cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Weinbeck.

HARRINTON—The funeral services of Miss Annie Harrington was held at her late home, 68 Union street, yesterday forenoon. Requiem mass was celebrated at St. Peter's church by Rev. John J. McKenna. The bearers were cousins of the deceased, and were John, Michael, Edward, William and Maurice Powers and John Murphy. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery under the direction of Funeral Director O'Donnell. Rev. Fr. McKenna read the committal prayers at the grave. Among the floral pieces were noticed a large pillow, inscribed "Dear Aunt", from the nephews and nieces of the deceased; large cross on base, inscribed "Cousin," the Powers family; large wreath, Katie O'Neil; spray of roses, friends.

MONGHAN—The funeral of Mary, the infant daughter of William and Margaret Monehan took place this afternoon from the rear of 241 Lakeview avenue. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Molloy.

CALLAHAN—The funeral of Helen Callahan took place this afternoon from the home of her parents, William and Catherine Callahan, 331 Lakeview avenue. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery in charge of Undertaker Molloy.

KENNEDY—The funeral of Michael Kennedy who recently died at 59 Agawam street, took place yesterday afternoon from the sacred Heart church where services were conducted by Rev. Thomas Murphy, O. M. I. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery in charge of Undertaker Rogers.

BOYS DROWNED

WHILE THEY WERE LEARNING TO SWIM.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

ST. CATHERINES, Ont., Aug. 9.—Two boys, Foy McTavish, aged 13, son of D. D. McTavish, secretary of the Wilson Carbine works, and Joseph Smith, aged 14, son of Jacob Smith, a cattle dealer, were drowned late last night while learning to swim.

REPRIEVES GRANTED.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON Aug. 9.—The president has granted reprieves until Oct. 5 in the cases of Thomas and William Hadleman, convicted in Arizona of murder and sentenced to be hanged at Tombstone next Friday. The reprieves were based on the requests of Governor Sayers of Texas, Representative Bailey and other prominent Texans, who represent that recently discovered evidence tends to show the innocence of the accused.

DEATHS

PERRY—Ann Perry died at her home, 35 Lakeview avenue, yesterday afternoon.

CALLAHAN—Helen Callahan, aged 7 months, died at the home of her parents, William and Catherine, 331 Lakeview avenue, yesterday.

NOONAN—Annie Noonan died at her home, 603 Lakeview avenue, yesterday afternoon. She is survived by a husband, Patrick, a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Maguire, two sisters, Mrs. Bert Gordon of Haverhill and Mrs. Fred Spead of this city, and two brothers, Frank and Hugh Maguire.

DOLAN—James J. Dolan, aged 39 years, died at his home, 375 Gorham street, yesterday. He is survived by a wife and three small children, three sisters and two brothers.

BJORLIN—Carl Axell Leonard Bjorlin, aged 30 years, died at St. John's hospital, yesterday.

HOIDI—Marie Louise Houdi aged 1 month, 7 days, died at the home of her parents, Delia and Bazila, 156 Perkins street, yesterday.

BOUCHERAGE—Exina Boucherage, aged 5 months, died at the home of her parents, Victorine and Denis, on Tucker street, yesterday.

MOUGHAN—In this city, yesterday, at the home of her parents, William and Margaret, 331 Lakeview avenue, Mary Moughan, infant daughter.

FOSS—Elizabeth Foss, aged 39 years, who died yesterday afternoon at the city farm, was the wife of David Foss, whose body was found on the Lawrence road last winter, death having been caused by exposure. A few days later it transpired that the family was in woeful circumstances and the children neglected, the eldest of whom, Jessie, was in a precarious condition. Besides Jessie, the deceased is survived by another younger daughter, Mamie, a son David of North Chelmsford and two brothers, Martin and Timothy Gately of Lawrence.

HIGGINS—Daniel, the infant child of Daniel J. and Mary Higgins died last night at the home of his parents, 132 Church street.

ROURKE—Daniel Rourke, aged 30 years, died last night at 10 Dulon street. He is survived by a wife, Mary Rourke, two children, one brother, Patrick Rourke, and a sister, Mrs. John Callahan.

GRADY—John H. Grady, aged 4 months, died at the home of his parents, Henry and Lottie, at 37 Elm street, yesterday afternoon.

TRANSPORT McPHERSON.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The United States transport McPherson, from Santiago, Aug. 2, and with nine officers and 412 men of the Fifth Infantry on board, was sighted off the Highlands at 9.15 a. m., coming in.

The McPherson was stranded for four days near Fortune Island on the way here, being finally floated with the assistance of the Norwegian steamer Jamaica.

WANTS HIS BRIDE

Boston Hebrews Have a Wordy Quarrel

GIRL'S FATHER OBJECTED TO MARRIAGE

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Louis Schnitser is not a Vanderbilt or an Astor; he has no summer residence at the shore nor does he possess an automobile, but he has a position to maintain in society just the same. Though his name is not in the blue book, and he lives on Endicott street, he feels that members of his family must maintain the elevated station to which they were born and must not marry below them. Consequently, when his daughter Rebecca married a man who was not recognized by the Schnitser set, Mr. Schnitser detained her in his home, and, leaning out of the window, shook his fist vigorously at the husband, who stood on the sidewalk demanding with forceful expletives the possession of his bride.

Pasquole Ciampa is the name of the husband of Rebecca, and it is obvious that the Ciampas cannot offer a name as euphonious, as indicative of exclusiveness or as well known to fame as that of Schnitser. For a Schnitser to have wedded a Ciampa is plainly, in the society of the North end, a drop of several pegs in social precedence.

In the first place it would be very difficult for a Schnitser to properly pronounce the name of his son-in-law if it was Pasquole Ciampa, and what is the use of a son-in-law whose identity you cannot announce? For these and other strong and personal reasons Mr. Schnitser "flagged" Pasquole Ciampa yesterday when he called at the Schnitser home at 85 Endicott street looking for his wife.

Earlier in the day Rebecca mentioned casually to her father that he was not legally obliged to support her unless he felt like it. The parent demanded the name of the man who had taken this privilege from him. When the girl blushingly said "Pasquale Ciampa," the old man perceived the blot on his escutcheon, told her to go to her room and remain there, while he went for a lawyer. On the way he stopped at a stationery store and canceled the order for cards which his daughter had left, he determining that the old cards, "Miss Schnitser," would be of service as soon as he had had the marriage annulled.

On his return to his home he lay in wait at the window for the expected arrival of Ciampa, who had caused it to be circulated on Endicott street that he was intending to call for his bride. The old gentleman's whiskers fanned the window sill as he peeked out up and down the street. As Pasquole came down from Hanover street he spied the fringe about the stern countenance of Schnitser.

Pasquole marched up gallantly to the doorway of 85 Endicott street, when the old gentleman shook his fist at him and warned him if he valued liberty and desired to hang on to his job to keep away.

"Get out of here, you miserable man!" yelled parent Schnitser.

"I want my wife! You're keeping her away from me," shouted the other, as he disrespectfully imitated his father-in-law.

"You can't have her, you scoundrel," said Schnitser, as he reached out and wildly showed what he would have done to his son-in-law if he had been near enough. "You married her, did you? You made her go up to the court and marry you. You told her you would shoot her if she didn't. You scared her. Now get out of here or I will have you nailed. I'll have you pinched."

By way of parenthesis, it may be said that Mr. Schnitser has been in the country 29 years and knows the English language. He used most all of it he had learned in the 29 years expressing his opinion of Pasquole.

UP AGAINST IT

Boston Lost to Pittsburgs Yesterday

COLLINS AND STAHL PLAYED WELL

Philippi Had Bostons at His Mercy

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 9.—The erstwhile champions bumped up against their old-time jonahs here yesterday afternoon, and in the presence of 2500 sweltering "fans" went down to defeat to the tune of 6 to 3.

Owing to the intense heat the members of both teams conducted themselves like prize men trying to break into a church. Their movements were measured and they were cautious. Occasionally there were signs of life and aggressiveness, but the hot rays from the sun soon melted these evidences of an effort to do something, and at the conclusion of the game 18 players wore a dark and dismal appearance.

Notwithstanding the hot air there were numerous feats that aroused the spectators to enthusiasm. Collins and Stahl ran in the sensational stakes for Boston, but Hamilton, with Clarke and Freeman, were selling platers with but few friends.

Collins managed to work in two of those celebrated one-hand performances, startling plays for which he was given the merry mit by the audience, while Stahl, by capturing a low line hit sent to right centre by Ritchey was forced to doff his cap in response to the applause.

Unfortunately Collins marred his pretty work by making a masterful three-base throw of O'Connor's easy bounder in the eighth inning. Hamilton caused a bunch by dropping Ely's soft fly in the fifth, an error that did not pan out badly, however.

Freeman, at first, had his troubles. He made one great catch of a throw by Collins, but evidently thought that let him out, as later on he failed to clutch the ball when tossed to him by Long and Lowe.

For Pittsburg, the work of Ely and Williams was sensational in the extreme. Several times did these two men put dents in the batting averages of the visitors, and at one stage of the proceedings Duffy and his men joined in applauding Ely for a remarkable stop and throw of a shot from Freeman's hat.

Willis and Phillippi, two elongated twirlers, paid little attention to the heat, but worked like beavers for success. Phillippi came out on top, though for a time honors were even, Pittsburg getting only five hits in the first six innings. Three singles, a double and triple were all the Bostons could get off Phillippi. They got four of these hits in the first three innings, their fifth coming safely in the ninth, when aided by Tom O'Brien's attempts to imitate Freeman's first base play, they made a rally, scoring two of their three runs.

The score by innings:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Pittsburg	2	0	0	0	0	2	0	2	—	6
Boston	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	2	—	3

Earned runs, Boston. Two base hits, O'Brien, Long. Three base hits, Wagner. Clarke. Stolen bases, Freeman, O'Brien. Struck out, by Phillippi, 5; by Willis 5. Passed ball, W. Clarke. Wild pitches, Phillippi, Willis. Time, 1h. 55m. Umpire, O'Day. Attendance, 2500.

The other game resulted as follows: Philadelphia 5, Chicago 3.

EDITH LOWE IN NASHUA.

Miss Edith Lowe, the missing Billerica girl, has been traced to Nashua, N. H., but from that point all clue is lost. It is thought, however, that she is still in the city, and the Nashua officers as well as Officer Conway of Billerica are on the lookout for her.

FIVE PRIESTS

Killed by the Chinese in Pe Chi Li

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LYONS, AUG. 9.—THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL ANNOUNCES MORE MASSACRES AND A DISASTER TO THE MISSION IN THE SOUTHEAST OF THE PROVINCE OF PE CHI LI. IT SAYS THAT FIVE PRIESTS HAVE BEEN KILLED.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Thomas B. Doherty is visiting friends in Maine.

M. Blanchard of Lowell was in Nashua Monday.

Timothy Curry of Kinsman street is stopping at York beach, Me.

Daniel H. Tupper of this city was on Nashua Monday.

Miss Bridget E. Cleary of Central street is sojourning at Lynn beach.

Miss Mabel Norton of Ames street is spending her vacation at Onset bay.

Edward Powers of Keefe Bros.' market has returned from The Weirs, N. H.

A. A. Conway of Pleasant street spent the past few days at Crescent beach.

James Hill is at Acton Centre for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Alger of Lowell were among the visitors in Nashua Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Harris of Lowell were among the visitors in Nashua yesterday.

William Riley of Kinsman street is enjoying a two weeks' vacation at Sharon Springs, N. Y.

The Misses Mamie and Nellie O'Connell of Mead street are enjoying the sea breezes at Revere beach.

The Misses Josie and Lizzie Sheridan of Andrews street are enjoying the sea breezes at Nahant beach.

Mr. George Lee of Abbott street has returned from a three weeks' vacation at Lynn.

The Misses May and Fannie Stafford of Lyon street will spend the next two weeks at Providence, R. I.

Miss Kathryn Sennett and Irma Rock will spend the next two weeks at Nahant beach.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan and Frank Bills of Lowell were recent Nashua visitors.

Mrs. James Gookin and daughter Annie of 250 Concord street have gone to Nahant on their vacation.

Mrs. John Devlin and her sister, Miss Annie Donahue, are stopping with friends in Keene, N. H.

Mrs. John Devlin and her sister, Miss Ing the prominent summer resorts on the North shore.

Mr. John J. Ambrose of Adams street will spend the next two weeks at Salem Willows.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias A. McQuade and daughter Helen of Bridge street have gone to New York for a week's sojourn.

Miss Annie and Katie Murphy of High street goes to Hampton beach next week for a two weeks' stay.

The children of Frank J. Shanrik of Pleasant street are spending the vacation in the country.

Mrs. Smith and daughter Gertrude are spending their vacations at Lynn and Winthrop beaches.

John and Fred Smith of Kinsman street are having a two-weeks vacation at Old Orchard.

Miss Nellie O'Brien and Miss Annie Lathem are registered at Nahant hotel, Lynn beach.

Mr. Parker Begley and Mr. John Collins are enjoying their vacation in and around New York.

Mrs. B. Delaney with her son and daughter John and Gertrude are visiting Old Home Week at Portland, Me.

M. A. Maher has gone to Lynn, Mass. Mrs. J. T. Roxford is at Georgeville, P. Q.

Mr. Frank Anderson, the well known Wigginville barber are sojourning in Maine and the maritime provinces.

Mr. Samuel Sharp of Cheney place, off Liberty street, is enjoying his vacation in the Pine Tree state.

Mrs. D. W Keefe of the Highlands and daughter May are spending their vacation at Bedford Springs.

The family of James A. Kelley of the O'Donnell Gilbride company is stopping at the Eldare house, Old Orchard beach.

Messrs. Edward Cryan and John Irwin are enjoying piscatorial pleasures on Islands along the const of Maine.

Mrs. Harriet M. Cole of this city is the guest of Mrs. Burtt E. Warren of Nashua.

Frank Brown of Lowell was a visitor in Nashua yesterday. He was formerly a resident of that city.

Mr. C. J. Glidden of the Erie Telephone company has returned home from a sojourn at Lake Mahonk, Ulster county N. Y.

Miss Maggie Dolan of Salem street, Miss Kittie Mahasse and Miss Minnie Kennedy of Cross street are sojourning at Bar Harbor.

Mr. Michael McCarthy, an employe of the U. S. Cartridge Co. and one of the survivors of the old Cumberland is on a three months' vacation in Europe.

Mrs. James O'Sullivan and family of 105 Mt. Washington street are at Old Orchard beach for the remainder of the month of August.

Miss Mary Murphy of Worcester has been the guest of Mrs. C. J. Scannell of 62 Cambridge street for the past two weeks.

Miss Maggie E. O'Neil of South Highland street and Miss Delia T. Brady of Central street are spending their vacations at Old Orchard.

Mr. Patrick Gilbride of the O'Donnell Gilbride company and family started today on their vacation to Centre Harbor, N. H.

Driver James Sullivan of the Central street hose company is enjoying his vacation. He is spending the time in short trips to the country and seashore.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Burns and family of High street will go to Hampton beach next week, where they will occupy a cottage.

William Bagley and James Bowers formerly of the New England Motor Co., are registered at Old Orchard for the next two weeks.

Mrs. Frank Stowell, of Foster street, wife of ex-Alderman Stowell, who has been sojourning at Goose Rocks, Me., since June 30, is expected home the early part of next month.

Miss Annie McKenna of Salem street is spending her vacation at Old Orchard beach. On her return she will visit her sister, Mrs. Murth H. Sullivan in Medway.

Mr. David Gerow, the well known Chelmsford street provision dealer and family accompanied by Mrs. Deschamps of Nashua have gone on a sojourn to Plattsburg, N. Y.

Mr. William Barry, Edward Donoghue, Maurice Powers, Harry Flaherty and Henry McCluskey will start Monday for a two weeks' stay at their summer residence at Buzzard's bay.

A party of members of the Y. M. C. I. is occupying a cosy cottage at Hampton beach. Thomas Cuff, John J. Murray, Hugh Farley, Charles F. Smith and Thomas Burns are among the party.

Thomas McDermott of Gorham street will go to Portland next week. He intends to follow the New England horse racing circuit and will take in every meet.

LEBRUN IS READY

For the Proposed Investigation of Councilmen

SAYS NO MORE LAND IS NEEDED

In Addition to Present Butler School Site

Councilman Lebrun was down town this morning in conversation with a reporter of The Sun spoke interestingly and pointedly of some occurrences in the city council.

When asked if he had any idea when the investigation of his charges in connection with the purchase of land for the Butler school will take place, he said: "I have heard no time mentioned. Any time will suit me, either today, tomorrow or next week. What I have to say I will tell when I am summoned by the committee on investigation. I am not given to boasting and when I say I will do anything I mean it. I do not want to get any one in trouble, yet I do not believe in paying for land a price double what it is assessed for. Land is worth just what it will bring and when you get beyond that figure you are imposed upon. I have no prejudice in this matter. I do not know Mr. Farrell who owns the land and have never seen him, but I propose to let certain parties know that there is at least one councilman who cannot be bought."

Then the councilman commented upon some practices in the council. "It may seem strange," he said, "yet it is a fact that certain members of the council try to drive the others into line to favor measures proposed by them. Now, I will not be driven. No influence can reach me or direct my vote, for I am guided only by the merits of the question at issue. That smooth paving Allen street was a bait for me but I failed to bite. I voted against it because I am opposed to squandering any expense on the city till I know the worth of the article for which I am voting the money.

"And right here let me say something that I think should be mentioned. I have voted against propositions made by Councilman Casey but I did so through no personal feeling but because I was honestly opposed to them. However, I can say that in my opinion his position on the smooth paving matter is correct. Casey is a bright young man, the brightest in the council chamber and no matter what his politics may be you will hear from him in the future."

Then Councilman Lebrun repeated that he would not withhold anything at the proposed investigation but will tell all he knows in connection with the proposed purchase of Butler school land. "I favor neither of the sites," said he, "I do not believe the land is needed. You don't see the school board breaking their necks trying to have money voted for this land do you?"

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottle of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by F. C. Goudale, druggist, 217 Central street, Fiske's block.

Artificial Teeth

to wear well must be made of the best material. Don't waste your money on cheap teeth. They don't wear well. Buy the best; the price is very low and you will be better satisfied. Dr. Simmons, 111 Central street.

FANS GIVEN AWAY

Beautiful and artistic Fans given away with ICE CREAM,

At Old City Hall Building,

218 Merrimack Street.

Try our ice cream soda, pure fruit flavors. Also our pure home made confectionery.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The undersigned wishes to announce to his friends and the public in general that he has disposed of his bakery at 25 and 25 Concord street, having sold out to M. W. Mulcahy. He will now have but one bakery at corner Fayette and East Merrimack streets where he will be pleased to meet his former patrons and new friends. As he can give his entire attention to one store, his patrons can find the best bread, cake and pastry to be found in Lowell. Baked beans Saturday at 4 p. m. and beans and brown bread Sunday mornings. Your trade is respectfully solicited.

P. McCARTIN,

Cor. Fayette and East Merr'k Sts

NEW FIRM.

Mr. M. W. Mulcahy wishes to announce to the public that he has purchased the bakery and business formerly carried on by P. McCartin at 20-28 Concord street where he will be pleased to see all his friends and old customers and it is his intention to supply the very best quality of bakery sundries at all times. He will also do catering for balls, parties, picnics and weddings. All orders promptly attended to at 20-28 Concord street.

M. W. MULCAHY

PROPRIETOR.

A FILTHY STREET

Jefferson Street in an Unclean Condition

HEALTH DEPT. ORDERS IT CLEANED

New Case of Diphtheria Reported

The health department this morning was notified of a case of diphtheria in Jefferson street. When the health authorities went to the house they at once were impressed with the unhealthy and unclean condition of Jefferson street. They immediately notified Agent Knapp and he promptly got after Supt. Cheney demanding that the street department clean it at once.

SEN. HANNA

ON A BRIEF VISIT TO BOSTON.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Senator Hanna and Mr. Bliss left the city last night on the Fall River boat for Boston. Chairman Hanna will remain there for two or three days, to organize New England and confer with leaders. An effort to counteract the work of the anti-imperialists in that section will be especially put forth. Just before he left Senator Hanna said: "I am going there to see the leaders and find out what the situation is and do a little organizing."

Perry S. Heath left for Chicago yesterday.

Before his departure he expressed a belief that Senator Hanna would make several speeches during the campaign. Senator Hanna was non-committal on the subject.

GOV. ALLEN.

APPOINTS A BOSTON MAN HIS PERSONAL STENOGRAPHER.

Gov. Allen of Porto Rico has appointed Maynard K. Yorkum of Boston as his personal stenographer. Mr. Yorkum has been employed at the Charlestown Navy Yard and is a resident of Boston. He at once accepted and will accompany Gov. Allen to Porto Rico when the latter sails on the Mayflower from the Charlestown Navy Yard next Tuesday.

OVERCOME BY HEAT

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Aug. 9.—William Minchin of Franklin street, this city, a clerk for a grocer, died at the Rhode Island hospital yesterday as a result of sunstroke. He fell, overcome by the heat, on the sidewalk and was delirious for more than two weeks, the result of a fractured skull. He was 21 years old and unmarried.

LAKEVIEW PARK

Lowell's Popular Summer Day Resort

Bowling, Fishing, Boating, Swings, Carousal, Concerts, Fireworks, Aquatic Sports.

Rare Collection of Birds and Beasts from all Climes.

The D. L. Page Company will have entire charge of the Dining Pavilion.

Special Attention to Dinner and Picnic Parties. Dance Music by Hibbard's Orchestra.

Lakeview Theatre

ONE WEEK,

Commencing Monday, Aug. 6,

Afternoon and Night.

Harry Crandall

—IN—

A Busy Day

The uproarious delight! A cracker jack Comedy Co. Original songs, novel dances, great specialties. Management of Joseph J. Flynn. Performances daily, afternoon and evening.

PETER H. SAVAGE,

Undertaker & Funeral Director

169 Worthen St

Telephone connection 464-4. Calls night or day promptly attended to. Carriages furnished for weddings and christenings.

TEETH

If you think of having a new set made, see Dr. Simmons.

He has been making teeth in Lowell for 17 years. Don't waste money on cheap work, the price for the best artificial teeth is very low. Call at Lowell Dental Rooms, 219 Central street.

Peter J. Brady,

GROCER,

NEW STORE.

Cor. Gorham and South Highland Sts.

Choice Teas, Coffees and Spices

Try our new brands of Flour, the best in the city, "The King Arthur," "Crown of Gold," and "Banquet."

WHEN YOU WANT

to get a glass of SODA call at Carter & Sherburne's Drug Store. They give the largest glass and coolest Soda, made of Pure Fruit Flavors.

Carter & Sherburne, Low Price Drug Store, Merrimack Cor. Bridge St.

J. F. ROGERS,

UNDERTAKER.

OFFICE—816 Central street.
RESIDENCE—29 Cedar street.
Telephone connection. Hacks furnished for all occasions.

PUGILISTIC EVENTS

A Busy Month for the Leading Scrappers

Fitz and Ruhlin Try Conclusions Friday Night—Corbett and McCoy on Aug. 30th.—Features of Their Pugilistic Tactics

Never in the history of pugilism have so many matches between first-class men claimed public attention as at the present time. Less than one short month remains for the glovemen to lawfully pursue their face-spoiling profession in the state of New York, and they are accordingly making the most of it. All the prominent heavyweights are up and doing; matches have been made right and left with little or no previous discussion, and when the smoke of these August battles clears away, the heavyweight field will be strewn with what are technically known as "dead ones," and it is quite within the bounds of possibility that a new champion may be starring through the one-night stands.

The opening gun of the general conflict will be sounded Friday evening, when the thunderous thumps given and received by Robert Fitzsimmons and Gustave Ruhlin will awaken the echoes of Madison square. These two knights of the knuckles are scheduled to visit each other's anatomy with five ounce of wadded excelsior, strictly according to the learned Marquis of Queensbury, for 25 rounds. In preparation for their polite proceeding they have trained long and faithfully, and are now fit to battle for a kingdom. Ruhlin was introduced to the gathering at the recent McFadden-O'Brien dispute, his rugged appearance sending shadows chasing each other across the faces of the Fitzsimmons plungers.

According to all precedents, the Akron agriculturist should be returned a winner in the coming bout. He has on his side youth, height, weight and reach, four advantages with which, if the possessor has any cleverness at all, should render him invincible. Under the able tuition of Jim Corbett he has gained much fistic knowledge, and as his gameness has never been questioned, it would seem hard to figure the husky horseshoer as having a chance against such a combination.

But fistic "done" is ever to be dreaded, and even more so when Fitz is a factor in the game. The Australian is nothing if not a man of surprises. During the entire course of his interesting career he has kept the pugilistic experts guessing. Previous to each of his fights they have told just what he would do and what would be done to him, and made it all so plain that it seemed needless for one to attend the contest. But on the contrary Bob would hop into the ring and do exactly the opposite of what was expected of him.

He was a long time gaining recognition, and up to the day that he shot paralysis into the Corbett solar plexus, a large percentage of the sporting fraternity had tagged him a fistic two spot. But after that gory battle all anti-Fitz talk was silenced, and those who had consistently belittled him resolved to back him in his next fight to the very limit. They were obliged to wait two years for the opportunity. Fitz was then matched to fight Jeffries, seemingly an easy mark, and, of course, the farler was a hot favorite. Those who had lost their money on Fitz's battles, from the time he defeated Jack Dempsey to the day he whipped Corbett, hastened to get a bet down on him that he would pulverize Jeff. But again did Robert do the wrong thing. For the "easy mark" knocked him out in 11 rounds. The moral of which seems to be: Count not upon what Fitz will do until he has done it.

The Cornishman in ring attire is not a thing of beauty, by any means. He is bald-headed, stoop-shouldered and so knock-kneed that his feet are perfect strangers to each other. When boxing he glides about as though on castors, crouching low, with his wide-open gloves seemingly clawing at his opponent. This attitude gives him such a ridiculous appearance that his opponent is readily inveigled into relaxing his vigilance long enough for Fitz to whip his deadly right across to the jaw and send his man in to dream-land. In his encounter Friday evening of this week, however, Fitz must do his work quickly, if at all, for in a contest of endurance youth is bound to be served and Ruhlin is as tireless as a steam engine. Fitz will therefore cut out the pace from the tap of the gong, and a rattling go of less than fifteen rounds is expected.

On the evening of August 29 or 31 the Horton law be laid away to rest with fitting ceremonies for on one of these nights James J. Corbett and Kid McCoy will assist at the sad rites by playing taps in each other slats, firing a volley of uppercuts at each other's profiles and creating a sad dirge with the whirr of their flying gloves.

To the lovers of boxing the demise of the Horton law will be almost compensated for by the grand exhibition which these two marvels of fistic skill are expected to give. The men are acknowledged by all to be the two greatest boxers that ever stepped on resin and a clash between them in the twenty-four foot ring has been talked of for years. Now they are really matched to battle in a few weeks the sporting world is in a fever of expectation, and all other matches have been cast in the shade.

As to their respective styles, they are too familiar to render lengthy discussion of them a matter of great interest. In the ring Corbett is the personification of ease, grace and skill. He trips out of his corner idly, swinging his arms and dancing about his opponent as though he was indulging in a game of tag. The idea is further carried out by the playful way Corbett seems to slap at his man for it is hard for the spectator to realize those little taps are in reality dazzling blows, that blind sting and drive the receiver almost frantic. His opponent moves at him when suddenly—thud! Corbett lands straight on the nose, and the rusher wonders when it came from. While still in that state, three more blows land hard on the same spot and the perplexed rushes frantically at Corbett only to find that Jim is not there and when he turns to look for him—thud! thud! thud! the sore proboscis is again vigorously thumped.

In the meantime Corbett is making ducks and drakes of the other fellow's swings which is very discouraging to a fighter who will gladly accept any amount of hard treatment if he can land solidly occasionally himself. But when he only strikes thin air and is everywhere met with ripping jabs he is certainly to be excused for wearying of it at all.

Not in McCoy. Corbett will find a very different proposition from the ponderous Jeffries and the reckless Sharkey. The wily Hoosier boy, slight, pale and ghostlike, is the smoothest glove artist that ever draped an optic in mourning. Though not as graceful in action as his polished opponent, Mac is every bit as deceptive, and has what Corbett lacks, i. e., a knockout punch.

Corbett, though skilled in the art of mussing up beauty is not a knockerout, whereas they will not be a moment during the coming battle that he will not be in danger of taking a short nap as a result of a McCoy swing. The Kid proved his ability as a sleep inducer at Coney Island when he ushered in the glad new year of 1900 by sending Peter Maher to the floor to dream while Mac walked off with the money.

Both Corbett and McCoy are already in training and though each declares that the other will funk out of the meeting it is quite certain that neither will overlook any part of his training for the great event.

In the meantime Champion Jeffries has signified his willingness to take the conceit out of the winner of the Fitz-Ruhlin bout, so it is quite probable that a battle for the championship will occur before the Horton law has been gathered to its fathers.

PRIVATE EDWARD J. BARRY, CO. L 14TH INFANTRY, NOW WITH THE ALLIED FORCES IN CHINA.

A LOWELL BOY

In the Fighting at Tien-Tsin

SERGT. BARRY OF 14TH. INFANTRY

Went to China With His Command

Sergeant Edward J. Barry, a Lowell boy, is with the Fourteenth infantry in China and took part in the fighting at Tien-Tsin. He has three sisters who reside on East Merrimack street, and with whom he corresponds as often as possible. His letters from the Philippines during the campaign there were read with much interest by The Sun readers. He has been in the army going on seven years, and when his present enlistment expires he will have served nine years.

His first army experience was at Fort Warren and later in Newport, at which places he spent five years of his time. Just prior to going to the Philippines he was at Winthrop. Shortly after his arrival in the Philippines he was promoted to the position of first sergeant, Co. L, 14th Infantry. Originally he was a member of Co. M, and his captain was opposed to his transfer, till he learned that it meant a promotion to the brave soldier boy. The promotion was given in recognition of brave service. Sergt. Barry wrote several months ago that he intends to remain in the army as he finds the soldier's life just the life for him.

LABOR MATTERS

No Wage Reduction at the Middlesex Mills

A CONFERENCE WITH AGENT SAUNDERS

Meeting to be Held With Other Agents

At a meeting of the Textile council, last evening, several important matters were discussed, including arrangements for the coming outing of Saturday, Aug. 18. A large number of tickets have been sold and everybody seems willing and anxious to make it a very great success.

In regard to Labor Day, all the local textile unions have voted unanimously to turn out, and it is expected that there will be a larger number of men in line than ever before. The Woolen Spinners of the Middlesex mills have received a promise from the agent that the old scale of wages will be maintained for them and that there will be no reduction. A committee from the Woolen Spinners had a conference with the agent at the mill yesterday and received the promise that union men should receive the same wages as before. The Woolen Spinners are naturally somewhat gratified to say the least at this action of the mill authorities.

The agents of the Hamilton, Merrimack and Bleachery corporations have agreed to hold a conference in regard to the wage question with Mr. Connolly and Mr. Convery, and it is expected that this will take place very shortly. Much benefit is expected to result from this conference. The council had a very interesting meeting and the outlook generally in labor circles seem to be very bright and prosperous.

STATIONERY FIREMEN.

At the meeting of the Stationary Firemen last evening there was one proposition for membership received. It was also voted to buy a new banner for the Labor Day parade. Mr. B. L. A. Richards was selected to act as aid to the chief marshal in the parade. Resolutions were adopted in honor of Chas. T. Turksham, who is about to leave for Germany.

BRICKLAYERS' UNION.

The Bricklayers' union held its regular meeting last evening. Nothing but routine business was transacted.

A BAD ACCIDENT

Interfered With the Motor Paced Race

NELSON'S PACERS WERE INJURED

The Track Too Slippery for Motors

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—The 25-mile motor-paced race between Johnnie Nelson of Chicago, Will Stinson of Cambridge and Burns Pierce of Fall River, at Charles River Park, last night, ended in a mix-up in the last lap of the second mile. Owing to the slippery track all three pacing machines went down at the turn into the stretch and piled up on the track. Nelson recovered himself quickly and finished the second mile. Kent, who with Captain Fuhr, was pacing Nelson, had his shoulder dislocated, while Pierce and Stinson were assisted to their training quarters. Kent was the only rider injured, the others escaping with slight cuts and bruises. Assistance was summoned and Kent's shoulder was replaced while he was under the influence of ether.

Nelson drew the pole at the start with Stinson in the centre and Pierce outside. The men were off quickly, Nelson being first to catch his pace and taking first place. Stinson dropped into second, followed closely by Pierce and these positions were maintained until the spill occurred. Nelson's time for the first mile was 1.48 2-5 and the second 1.52.

The five-mile amateur tandem-paced race between C. P. Ritchie of the Charleston C. C. and James A. Murphy of the Orient C. C., was won easily by the former in 10.56. M. G. Burley of Boston won the one-mile unpaced amateur race in which there were 31 entries in 2.30.

It has not been decided when the big race will be finished.

NINE POLICEMEN

NEEDED TO STOP A FIGHT IN LYNN.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

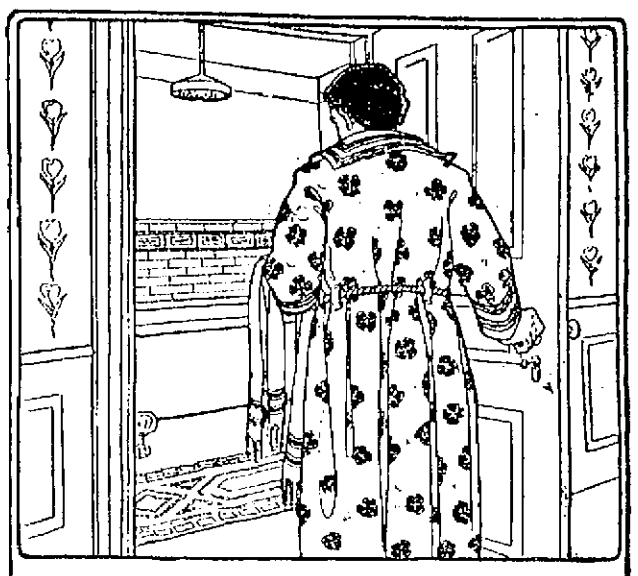

LYNN, Aug. 9.—Harry Carr and Charles Donahue of East Boston were arrested last night, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Before they were lodged in cells at police headquarters it took nine police officers to handle them.

George Dion of this city was arrested, charged with interfering with an officer. The trouble started on Central avenue, near Andrew street. Carr and Donahue became involved in a quarrel and Officers Carroll, Currant and Kimball interfered.

The Bostonians united in their efforts to get away from the officers. In a few moments a crowd of 100 gathered there, including many women, and several attempts were made to assist the prisoners to escape.

The officers were pushed down and kicked an pummeled, but not seriously injured. A man on a mustang rode to headquarters, and Patrolmen J. F. and W. F. Kane, Field, Burkes and reserve officer Wilson hurried to the scene.

When they arrived the men were taken to the station house, but during the struggle were badly bruised.

DIRT CLEARANCE.

IT is a good plan for every bather to know something of the soap he uses. There is a well-founded objection to using a floor-cleaning soap upon the human body. Ivory Soap is the bather's soap. It costs more than common soaps, but the difference is in the ingredients and making. Why not treat yourself with a little respect. Is not the human skin with its marvellous delicacy entitled to pure soap? Ivory Soap—it floats.

COPYRIGHTED BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO., CINCINNATI

TWO CAMPERS

VICTIMS OF A PRACTICAL JOKE BY FRIENDS.

Two Lowell young men who left Merrimack square yesterday to enjoy camp life at Salisbury beach were the cynosure of all eyes in the vicinity of the street railway waiting room. They carried a large wooden box containing cooking utensils and other paraphernalia such as bachelor cooks use while "tenting on the old camp ground."

In the wake of the two young men on vacation bent came a boy with a hand express wagon containing more luggage, all of which was hustled into the rear of a down-river electric car.

On the side of the large box which the young man carried had been placed a streamer bearing the inscription in conspicuous letters: "Bosco eats them alive; beware of pickpockets, we are alone."

Joe and Charley hurried to the car unconscious of the fact that they were the victims of a practical joke and the cause of much merriment to friends who were "tipped" to "pipe them off." at the square prior to their departure on their vacation.

An afternoon of good sport The S. C. W. races Saturday.

Johnson's ANODYNE LINIMENT

Oldest—originated 1810. Best—for external or internal use. Cures—coughs, colds, cholera morbus, colic, sprains, all pains, aches and inflammation. Costs—25 cents and 50 cents a bottle. Larger size more economical; three times as much.

I. S. JOHNSON & CO., Boston, Mass.

Free—"Treatment for Pile cures and Care of the Sick Room."

OFFICE LOWELL

Gas Light Company

Save Your Dollars.

The Best and Cheapest Light in the Market.

Have you the latest Welsbach burner and Mantle installed in your house or store? It will cost less than one-half a cent per hour and will give 100 candle power per light. They can be procured at this office.

Price of gas with the discount off for prompt payment is

$1 PER THOUSAND FEET.

First-class Gas Ranges sold on the installment plan. Coke broken, screened and delivered at $1.50 per chaldron, $1.25 half chaldron, cash. No charge made for the use of meters. No charge made for running supply pipes from street mains to consumer's cellar. Orders when left at office promptly attended to.

Upmann's Extra 5 The Best 5c Cigar on Earth.

Omega Oil

After a man or woman has lived 50 or more years, the machinery of the body is pretty well worn out. Stop a minute and think how many miles you have walked in all those years—how many thousands of pounds you have lifted—how many hours you have stood on your feet—how many times your joints have moved back and forth—how many times you have overdone things in work and in pleasure. Do you wonder that you have pains and aches? Isn't it about time you did something for your poor body? Get a bottle of Omega Oil at once, and rub it into every spot on your neck, shoulders, arms, back, hips, legs, knees, and feet where there is an ache. Rub it in good and hard, and the first thing you know you'll feel at least ten years younger. 731

A Set of Three Knives,

Bread, Carving, Paring } KNIFE

With One Pound of

60 CENT TEA.

Every Set Warranted.

O'BRIEN BROS.

Tea Dealers,

FISKE BUILDING.

27 Central St. Tel. Con

MONEY LOANED TO SALARIED PEOPLE AND RETAIL MERCHANTS, upon their own business, without security, easy payments. TOLMAN, room 33 Associate Building.

ONE IS DEAD

Consumptive Patient Used a Revolver on Relatives

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Despondent over his inability to live as he wished on the sum allowed him by his father, Jos. Rubiner, a consumptive patient, last night at Rockaway beach shot and instantly killed Isaac Stein, his brother-in-law; badly wounded his father, Jacob Rubiner and then turned the weapon upon himself with what is said to be fatal effect.

A CHURCH UNION

By Two Lowell Congregational Societies

HIGH ST. AND JOHN ST. CHURCHES

New Edifice Suggested in Nesmith Street

The building of a new Congregational church to take the place of High and John street Congregational edifices in this city, is being discussed. At a recent meeting of High street church members, Hon. Charles A. Stott, Hon George A. Marden, William H. White, Clarence N. Nelson, Walter W. Johnson and a new location.

The committee, in a circular to the members say, in the opinion of an experienced builder, from $6000 to $10,000 will have to be expended in a short time on the present building.

They also say that there is a possibility of selling the present church property for $30,000, and that members of John street church and society might join with High street church in building a new edifice.

Five questions were presented to 323 persons connected with High street church and they are requested to send answers to Clarence W. Whidden.

The land at the corner of Nesmith and Wyman streets is suggested for the new building.

LOWELL MEN

AT CAMP OF AMERICAN CANOE ASSOCIATION.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WINDERMERE, Muskoka Lakes, Ont., Aug. 9.—Life at the camp of the American Canoe association on the Big Island, Lake Rosseau, has settled down to regular routine. Recent arrivals include Paul Butler, Butler Ames, J. Arthur Gage, Miss Sarah Ames, Miss Jessie Ames and Adelbert Ames, Jr., of Lowell, Mass.; Harold Banker of Waltham, Mass.; Harold Banker of boat near the headquarters; E. T. Brigham, W. W. Crosby, G. W. Burnham, Edward F. Wyer and Wm. Fowle of Woburn, Mass.

CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine. SAFE. Always reliable. Ladies, ask Druggist for CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH in RED and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with Blue Ribbon. Take no other. Refuse Dangerous Substitutions and Imitations. Buy of your Druggist, or send 4c. in stamps for Particulars, Testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Sold by all Druggists. Chichester Chemical Co. Mention this paper. Madison Square, PHILA., PA.

Sold by Eastern Drug Co., Boston, Mass.

WORKINGMEN, ATTENTION!

THE ROOM-E-NUF OVERALL.

We Shall Place On Sale SATURDAY

THE STRONGHOLD OVERALL.

5000 Pairs of Overalls and Coats

Made from the very best materials and manufactured by experienced, well paid help, in first-class factories. Stronger, more thoroughly made or more serviceable Overalls and Coats cannot be found. They are made full size in waist, seat and leg. We have only one object in view in holding this sale for a few days, and that is to acquaint more people with this large and busy department and its unmatchable values.

COMMENCING SATURDAY MORNING.

—YOUR CHOICE OF—

700 Pairs of Overalls and Coats, made from the best grade of Otis blue check, full size, loops and patent buttons.

300 Pairs of Painters' White Overalls, railroad back, top pocket; all sizes.

1200 Pairs of Heavy Stripe Denim Overalls and Coats, railroad high back and front, loops and patent buttons; all sizes.

2500 Pairs of Heavy Blue Denim Coats and Overalls, railroad back, two seams, swinging pockets.

800 Pairs of Plain Black Heavyweight Overalls and Coats, patch pocket, loops and patent buttons.

All the above goods are the regular 50c., 65c., and 75c. qualities, and cannot be bought for any less elsewhere. We have marked the entire stock at

38c. a Garment.

This sale will last only a few days. We will not sell any of these goods to dealers or speculators.

THE RAILROAD OVERALL.

Lowell One-Price CLOTHING CO.

72-83 Merrimack St.

THE MECHANICS OVERALL.

MID-SUMMER MILLINERY

Trimmed Hats at... 98c Up

We are closing them out regardless of cost.

ALL the new things in Outing Hats in felt. If you are going to the beach or the country you want a Felt Hat. Let us show you what we have. Our prices are the lowest.

HEAD & SHAW, "The Milliners" 169-175 Merrimack St.

THE SUN LATEST
5 O'CLOCK

DENNIS FINED $50

Or Must Serve 5 Months in Jail

Michael Harrington Sentenced to Jail One Year for Larceny—Newell Brown Also Sentenced for Larceny

The following drunks were fined $2 each: Arthur St. Onge, Arthur Marchand and Edward Fortin.

Thomas H. Donohue pleaded guilty to drunkenness and was sent to the workhouse for six months.

A fine of $6 was imposed on Catherine McNiff for a second offense of drunkenness.

Philip Fradel, aged 20 years, pleaded guilty to drunkenness. He was also charged with being a vagrant since last March. Officer Breault heard that Trudel was in Little Canada and said that he would knock the officer's head off because he arrested his chum. When the officer met Trudel, the latter had some rocks, with which he said he would nail the officer. He was sent to the reformatory.

Newell E. Brown pleaded not guilty to larceny of a watch from Xavior Castilian of Moody street.

Castilian said he went to sleep on a bench in front of his house Friday afternoon and when he woke up his watch was gone.

A pawnbroker testified that Brown pawned the watch in his place and got $2 on it.

Brown's story was that he met a man in Merrimack street, who wanted to sell the watch. Brown advised him to pawn it and he asked Brown to go to the pawn shop and get something on the watch. This Brown did and raised $2, which he says he gave to his friend. Judge Hadley sentenced him to jail for five months.

Solomon Laird was charged with drunkenness and indecent exposure of person. He pleaded guilty to the former and not guilty to the latter charge. He was held till tomorrow. He was arrested in Merrimack square yesterday afternoon.

Michael Harrington acknowledged stealing a pocket book and $35 from Sarah J. Whittier. He was sent to jail for one year and appealed. Harrington has been before the court many times.

Harry W. Dennis appeared in court this morning and excited considerable attention. He was charged with indecent exposure of person. He was very well and neatly dressed and his appearance is that of a bright, intelligent young man. He pleaded guilty to the charge and half a dozen girls from Chelmsford were ready to identify him and testify to his conduct. They were not called, however. Dennis said that he must have been out of his mind when he committed the offense. Otherwise he would not have done it. He is a canvasser for a Troy company that has a patent gas burner on the market. The manager of the company, Mr. Hooper, said that he was dumbfounded when he heard of Dennis' arrest. "I cannot imagine why he did it," said Hooper. Dennis was fined $50, to be paid in five days or serve five months in jail. He took the sentence as a severe blow and begged of Manager Hooper and a friend to help raise the money to pay the fine. He did not want to go to jail and appeared all broken up when he was taken down stairs.

WANTS HIS BRIDE

Boston Hebrews Have a Wordy Quarrel

GIRL'S FATHER OBJECTED TO MARRIAGE

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Louis Schnitser is not a Vanderbilt or an Astor; he has no summer residence at the shore nor does he possess an automobile, but he has a position to maintain in society just the same. Though his name is not in the blue book, and he lives on Endicott street, he feels that members of his family must maintain the elevated station to which they were born and must not marry below them. Consequently, when his daughter Rebecca married a man who was not recognized by the Schnitser set, Mr. Schnitser detained her in his home, and, leaning out of the window, shook his fist vigorously at the husband, who stood on the sidewalk demanding with forceful explictives the possession of his bride.

Pasquole Clampa is the name of the husband of Rebecca, and it is obvious that the Clampas cannot offer a name as euphonious, as indicative of exclusiveness or as well known to fame as that of Schnitser. For a Schnitser to have wedded a Clampa is plainly, in the society of the North end, a drop of several pegs in social precedence.

In the first place it would be very difficult for a Schnitser to properly pronounce the name of his son-in-law if it was Pasquole Clampa, and what is the use of a son-in-law whose identity you cannot announce? For these and other strong and personal reasons Mr. Schnitser "Bagged" Pasquole Clampa yesterday when he called at the Schnitser home at 55 Endicott street looking for his wife.

Earlier in the day Rebecca mentioned casually to her father that he was not legally obliged to support her unless he felt like it. The parent demanded the name of the man who had taken this privilege from him. When the girl blushingly said "Pasquole Clampa," the old man perceived the blot on his escutcheon, told her to go to her room and remain there, while he went for a lawyer. On the way he stopped at a stationery store and canceled the order for cards which his daughter had left, he determining that the old cards, "Miss Schnitser," would be of service as soon as he had had the marriage annulled.

On his return to his home he lay in wait at the window for the expected arrival of Clampa, who had caused it to be circulated on Endicott street that he was intending to call for his bride. The old gentleman's whiskers fanned the window sill as he peeked out up and down the street. As Pasquole came down from Hanover street he spied the fringe about the stern countenance of Schnitser.

Pasquole marched up gallantly to the doorway of 55 Endicott street, when the old gentleman shook his fist at him and warned him if he valued liberty and desired to hang on to his job to keep away.

"Get out of here, you miserable man!" yelled parent Schnitser.

"I want my wife! You're keeping her away from me," shouted the other, as he disrespectfully imitated his father-in-law.

"You can't have her, you scoundrel," said Schnitser, as he reached out and wildly showed what he would have done to his son-in-law if he had been near enough. "You married her, did you? You made her go up to the court and marry you. You told her you would shoot her if she didn't. You scared her. Now get out of here or I will have you nailed. I'll have you pinched."

By way of parenthesis, it may be said that Mr. Schnitser has been in the country 29 years and knows the English language. He used most all of it he had learned in the 29 years expressing his opinion of Pasquole.

UP AGAINST IT

Boston Lost to Pittsburgs Yesterday

COLLINS AND STAHL PLAYED WELL

Philippi Had Bostons at His Mercy

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 9.—The erstwhile champions bumped up against their old-time Jonahs here yesterday afternoon, and in the presence of 2500 sweltering "fans" went down to defeat to the tune of 6 to 3.

Owing to the intense heat the members of both teams conducted themselves like bunco men trying to break into a church. Their movements were measured and they were cautious. Occasionally there were signs of life and aggressiveness, but the hot rays from the sun soon melted these evidences of an effort to do something, and at the conclusion of the game 18 players wore a dark and dismal appearance.

Notwithstanding the hot air there were numerous feats that aroused the spectators to enthusiasm. Collins and Stahl ran in the sensational stakes for Boston, but Hamilton, with Clarke and Freeman, were selling platers with but few friends.

Collins managed to work in two of those celebrated one-hand performances, startling plays for which he was given the merry mit by the audience, while Stahl, by capturing a low line hit sent to right centre by Ritchey was forced to doff his cap in response to the applause.

Unfortunately Collins marred his pretty work by making a mastoful three-base throw of O'Connor's easy bounder in the eighth inning. Hamilton caused a laugh by dropping Ely's soft fly in the fifth, an error that did not pan out badly, however.

Freeman, at first, had his troubles. He made one great catch of a throw by Collins, but evidently thought that let him out, as later on he failed to clinch the ball when tossed to him by Long and Lowe.

For Pittsburg, the work of Ely and Williams was sensational in the extreme. Several times did these two men put dents in the batting averages of the visitors, and at one stage of the proceedings Duffy and his men joined in applauding Ely for a remarkable stop and throw of a shot from Freeman's bat.

Willis and Phillippi, two elongated twirlers, paid little attention to the heat, but worked like beavers for success. Phillippi came out on top, though for a time honors were even, Pittsburg getting only five hits in the first six innings. Three singles, a double and triple were all the Bostons could get off Phillippi. They got four of these hits in the first three innings, their fifth coming safely in the ninth, when, aided by Tom O'Brien's attempts to imitate Freeman's first base play, they made a rally, scoring two of their three runs.

The score by innings:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Pittsburg	2	0	0	0	0	2	0	2		—6
Boston	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	2	—3

Earned run, Boston. Two base hits, O'Brien, Long. Three base hits, Wagner, W. Clarke. Stolen bases, F. [illegible], O'Brien. Struck out, by Phillippi, by Willis 5. Passed ball, W. Clarke. Wild pitches, Phillippi, Willis. Time, 1h. 55m. Umpire, O'Day. Attendance, 2500.

The other game resulted as follows: Philadelphia 5, Chicago 3.

EDITH LOWE IN NASHUA.

Miss Edith Lowe, the missing Billerica girl, has been traced to Nashua, N. H. but from that point all clue is lost. It is thought, however, that she is still in the city, and the Nashua officers as well as Officer Conway of Billerica are on the lookout for her.

THE LATE "STANNIE" CARTER, AN OLD TIME BALL PLAYER.

STANNIE CARTER

Old First Baseman of the Clippers

DIED TODAY AT 40 THIRD STREET

After an Illness of One Week

Th community will be pained to learn of the death of Daniel Stanley Carter, which took place this forenoon at his late home, 40 Third street. The deceased will be remembered by old-time lovers of the national game of baseball, when the Clipper Baseball club was the crack team of Lowell, if not of New England. Carter, who was familiarly known as "Stannie," covered first base and was a "cracker-jack" in high thrown balls and grounders while attending the initial bag. He was also a clever batsman and was idolized by the local cracks of the latter 60's. In the team were such men as the late Ben Whitney, as catcher; President Fred A. Buttrick, now of the City Institution of Savings, pitcher; Edward Temple, second base; Ted Wentworth, third base; Joe White, shortstop; Martin Cooledge, "Di" Cook, "Deacon" Boynton, and the Conway brothers, George and James, the latter in after years used as a battery. The rival teams of the Clippers then were the Celebrated Trimountain team and the Lowells of Boston; the Kearsarge team of Stoneham, the Harvard university nine and the Salmons and Sheridons of Lowell. Mr. Carter Married a sister of the Clipper shortstop, Joseph White who is the only relative who survives him. Mr. Carter was an expert machinist and was employed at what is familiarly known as the Atherton Works until a week ago, when he was taken with a fainting spell at his lathe. He was removed to his home and never rallied from the illness. Several years ago while employed at the Fifield machine shop, Mr. Carter lost one eye by being hit by a flying chip of iron. After that time he engaged in the grocery business with Temple, the second base-man of the Clippers, having purchased the Churchill grocery store at the corner of Middlesex street. This store was subsequently purchased of the firm of Temple and Carter by Mr. Churchill.

FUNERALS

CRAIG—The funeral of Lillian E. Craig took place from the home of her parents, 9 East Pine street, yesterday, afternoon, Rev. J. M. Craig officiating. There was singing by Miss Waller and Miss Baker. The casket was completely covered with flowers from the sympathetic friends. The interment was in the Edson cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Weinbeck.

HARRINTON—The funeral services of Miss Annie Harrington was held at her late home, 68 Union street, yesterday forenoon. Requiem mass was celebrated at St. Peter's church by Rev. John J. McKenna. The bearers were cousins of the deceased, and were John, Michael, Edward, William and Maurice Powers and John Murphy. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery under the direction of Funeral Director O'Donnell. Rev. Fr. McKenna read the committal prayers at the grave. Among the floral pieces were noticed a large pillow, inscribed "Dear Aunt", from the nephews and nieces of the deceased; large cross on base, inscribed "Cousin," the Powers family; large wreath, Katie O'Neil; spray of roses, friends.

MONGHAN—The funeral of Mary, the infant daughter of William and Margaret Monghan took place this afternoon from the rear of 331 Lakeview avenue. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Molloy.

CALLAHAN—The funeral of Helen Callahan took place this afternoon from the home of her parents, William and Catherine Callahan, 331 Lakeview avenue. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery in charge of Undertaker Molloy.

KENNEDY—The funeral of Michael Kennedy who recently died at 50 Agawam street, took place yesterday afternoon from the Sacred Heart church where services were conducted by Rev. Thomas Murphy, O. M. I. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery in charge of Undertaker Rogers.

BOYS DROWNED

WHILE THEY WERE LEARNING TO SWIM.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

ST. CATHERINES, Ont., Aug. 9.—Two boys, Foy McTavish, aged 12, son of D. D. McTavish, secretary of the Wilson Carbine works, and Joseph Smith, aged 14, son of Jacob Smith, a cattle dealer, were drowned late last night while learning to swim.

REPRIEVES GRANTED.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WASHINGTON Aug. 9.—The president has granted reprieves until Oct. 5, in the cases of Thomas and William Haldeman, convicted in Arizona of murder and sentenced to be hanged at Tombstone next Friday. The reprieves were based on the requests of Governor Sayers of Texas, Representative Bailey and other prominent Texans, who represent that recently discovered evidence tends to show the innocence of the accused.

DEATHS

PERRY—Ann Perry died at her home, 35 Lakeview avenue, yesterday afternoon.

CALLAHAN—Helen Callahan, aged 7 months, died at the home of her parents, William and Catherine, 331 Lakeview avenue, yesterday.

NOONAN—Annie Noonan died at her home, 603 Lakeview avenue, yesterday afternoon. She is survived by a husband, Patrick, a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Maguire, two sisters, Mrs. Bert Gordon of Haverhill and Mrs. Fred Spead of this city, and two brothers, Frank and Hugh Maguire.

DOLAN—James J. Dolan, aged 39 years, died at his home, 375 Gorham street, yesterday. He is survived by a wife and three small children, three sisters and two brothers.

BJORLIN—Carl Axell Leonard Bjorlin, aged 30 years, died at St. John's hospital, yesterday.

HOUDI—Marie Louise Houdi, aged 1 month, 7 days, died at the home of her parents, Della and Bazila, 186 Perkins street, yesterday.

BOUCHERAGE—Exina Boucherage, aged 5 months, died at the home of her parents, Victorine and Danis, on Tucker street, yesterday.

MOUGHAN—In this city, yesterday, at the home of her parents, William and Margaret, 331 Lakeview avenue, Mary Moughan, infant daughter.

FOSS—Elizabeth Foss, aged 39 years, who died yesterday afternoon at the city farm, was the wife of David Foss, whose body was found on the Lawrence road last winter, death having been caused by exposure. A few days later it transpired that the family was in woeful circumstances and the children neglected, the eldest of whom, Jessie, was in a precarious condition. Besides Jessie, the deceased is survived by another younger daughter, Mamie, a son David of North Chelmsford and two brothers, Martin and Timothy Gately of Lawrence.

HIGGINS—Daniel, the infant child of Daniel J. and Mary Higgins died last night at the home of his parents, 122 Church street.

ROURKE—Daniel Rourke, aged 30 years, died last night at 10 Union street. He is survived by a wife, Mary Rourke, two children, one brother, Patrick Rourke, and a sister, Mrs. John Callahan.

GRADY—John H. Grady, aged 4 months, died at the home of his parents, Henry and Lottie, at 37 Elm street, yesterday afternoon.

TRANSPORT McPHERSON.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The United States transport McPherson, from Santiago, Aug. 2, and with nine officers and 412 men of the Fifth infantry on board, was sighted off the Highlands at 9.15 a. m., coming in.

The McPherson was stranded for four days near Fortune Island on the way here, being finally floated with the assistance of the Norwegian steamer Jamaica.

FIVE PRIESTS

Killed by the Chinese in Pe Chi Li

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LYONS, AUG. 9.—THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL ANNOUNCES NEW MASSACRES AND A DISASTER TO THE MISSION IN THE SOUTHEAST OF THE PROVINCE OF PE CHI LI. IT SAYS THAT FIVE PRIESTS HAVE BEEN KILLED.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Thomas B. Doherty is visiting friends in Maine.

M. Blanchard of Lowell was in Nashua Monday.

Timothy Curry of Kinsman street is stopping at York beach, Me.

Daniel H. Tupper of this city was on Nashua Monday.

Miss Bridget E. Cleary of Central street is sojourning at Lynn beach.

Miss Mabel Norton of Ames street is spending her vacation at Onset bay.

Edward Powers of Keefe Bros.' market has returned from The Wiers, N. H.

A. A. Conway of Pleasant street spent the past few days at Crescent beach.

James Hill is at Acton Centre for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Alger of Lowell were among the visitors in Nashua Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Harris of Lowell were among the visitors in Nashua yesterday.

William Riley of Kinsman street is enjoying a two weeks' vacation at Sharon Springs, N. Y.

The Misses Mamie and Nellie O'Connell of Mead street are enjoying the sea breezes at Revere beach.

The Misses Josie and Lizzie Sheridan of Andrews street are enjoying the sea breezes at Nahant beach.

Mr. George Lee of Abbott street has returned from a three weeks' vacation at Lynn.

The Misses May and Fannie Stafford of Lyon street will spend the next two weeks at Providence, R. I.

Miss Kathryn Scannell and Irma Rock will spend the next two weeks at Nahant beach.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan and Frank Ellis of Lowell were recent Nashua visitors

Mrs. James Gookin and daughter Annie of 290 Concord street have gone to Nahant on their vacation.

Mrs. John Devlin and her sister, Miss Annie Donahue, are stopping with friends in Keene, N. H.

Mrs. John Devlin and her sister, Miss ing the prominent summer resorts on the North shore.

Mr. John J. Ambrose of Adams street will spend the next two weeks at Salem Willows.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias A. McQuade and daughter Helen of Bridge street have gone to New York for a week's sojourn.

Miss Annie and Katie Murphy of High street goes to Hampton beach next week for a two weeks' stay.

The children of Frank J. Simonds of Pleasant street are spending the vacation in the country.

Mrs. Smith and daughter Gertrude are spending their vacations at Lynn and Winthrop beaches.

John and Fred Smith of Kinsman street are having a two-weeks vacation at Old Orchard.

Miss Nellie O'Brien and Miss Annie Lathem are registered at Nahant hotel, Lynn beach.

Mr. Parker Begley and Mr. John Collins are enjoying their vacation in and around New York.

Mrs. B. Delaney with her son and daughter John and Gertrude are visiting Old Home Week at Portland, Me.

M. A. Maher has gone to Lynn, Mass. Mrs. J. T. Rexford is at Georgeville, P. Q.

Mr. Frank Anderson, the well known Wigginville barber are sojourning in Maine and the maritime provinces.

Mr. Samuel Sharp of Cheney place, off Liberty street, is enjoying his vacation in the Pine Tree state.

Mrs. D. W. Keefe of the Highlands and daughter May are spending their vacation at Bedford Springs.

The family of James A. Kelley of the O'Donnell Gilbride company is stopping at the Eldare house, Old Orchard beach.

Messrs. Edward Cryan and John Irwin are enjoying piscatorial plesures on islands along the coast of Maine

Mrs. Harriet M. Cole of this city is the guest of Mrs. Burtt E. Warren of Nashua.

Frank Brown of Lowell was a visitor in Nashua yesterday. He was formerly a resident of that city.

Mr. C. J. Glidden of the Erie Telephone company has returned home from a sojourn at Lake Mahonk, Ulster county N. Y.

Miss Maggie Dolan of Salem street, Miss Kittie Mahasse and Miss Minnie Kennedy of Cross street are sojourning at Bar Harbor.

Mr. Michael McCarthy, an employe of the U. S. Cartridge Co. and one of the survivors of the old Cumberland is on a three months' vacation in Europe.

Mrs. James O'Sullivan and family of 105 Mt. Washington street are at Old Orchard beach for the remainder of the month of August.

Miss Mary Murphy of Worcester has been the guest of Mrs. C. J. Scannell of 62 Cambridge street for the past two weeks.

Miss Maggie E. O'Neil of South Highland street and Miss Della T. Brady of Central street are spending their vacations at Old Orchard.

Mr. Patrick Gilbride of the O'Donnell Gilbride company and family started today on their vacation to Centre Harbor, N. H.

Driver James Sullivan of the Central street hose company is enjoying his vacation. He is spending the time in short trips to the country and seashore.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Burns and family of High street will go to Hampton beach next week, where they will occupy a cottage.

William Bagley and James Bowers formerly of the New England Motor Co., are registered at Old Orchard for the next two weeks.

Mrs. Frank Stowell, of Foster street, wife of ex-Alderman Stowell, who has been sojourning at Goose Rocks, Me., since June 30, is expected home the early part of next month.

Miss Annie McKenna of Salem street is spending her vacation at Old Orchard beach. On her return she will visit her sister, Mrs. Marth H. Sullivan in Medway.

Mr. David Gerow, the well known Chelmsford street provision dealer and family accompanied by Miss Deschamps of Nashua have gone on a sojourn to Plattsburg, N. Y.

Mr. William Barry, Edward Donoghue, Maurice Powers, Harry Flaherty and Henry McCloskey will start Monday for a two weeks' stay at their summer residence at Buzzard's bay.

A party of members of the Y. M. C. I. is occupying a cosy cottage at Hampton beach. Thomas Cuff, John J. Murray, Hugh Farley, Charles P. Smith and Thomas Burns are among the party.

Thomas McDermott of Gorham street will go to Portland next week. He intends to follow the New England horse racing circuit and will take in every meet.

LEBRUN IS READY

For the Proposed Investigation of Councilmen

SAYS NO MORE LAND IS NEEDED

In Addition to Present Butler School Site

Councilman Lebron was down town this morning in conversation with a reporter of The Sun spoke interestingly and pointedly of some occurrences in the city council.

When asked if he had any idea when the investigation of his charges in connection with the purchase of land for the Butler school will take place, he said: "I have heard no time mentioned. Any time will suit me, either today, tomorrow or next week. What I have to say I will tell when I am summoned by the committee on investigation. I am not given to boasting and when I say I will do anything I mean it. I do not want to get any one in trouble, yet I do not believe in paying for land a price double what it is assessed for. Land is worth just what it will bring and when you get beyond that figure you are imposed upon. I have no prejudice in this matter. I do not know Mr. Farrell who owns the land and have never seen him, but I propose to let certain parties know that there is at least one councilman who cannot be bought."

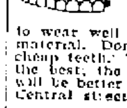

Then the councilman commented upon some practices in the council. "It may seem strange," he said, "yet it is a fact that certain members of the council try to drive the others into line to favor measures proposed by them. Now, I will not be driven. No influence can reach me or direct my vote, for I am guided only by the merits of the question at issue. That smooth paving of Aiken street was a bait for me but I failed to bite. I voted against it because I am opposed to saddling any expense on the city till I know the worth of the article for which I am voting the money.

"And right here let me say something that I think should be mentioned. I have voted against propositions made by Councilman Casey but I did so, through no personal feeling but because I was honestly opposed to them. However, I can say that in my opinion his position on the smooth paving matter is correct. Casey is a bright young man, the brightest in the council chamber and no matter what his politics may be you will hear from him in the future."

Then Councilman Lebron repeated that he would not withhold anything at the proposed investigation but will tell all he knows in connection with the proposed purchase of Butler school land. "I favor neither of the sites," said he. "I do not believe the land is needed. You don't see the school board breaking their necks trying to have money voted for this land do you?"

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottle of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by F. C. Goodale, druggist, 217 Central street, Fiske's block.

Artificial Teeth

to wear well must be made of the best material. Don't waste your money on cheap teeth. They don't wear well. Buy the best, the price is very low and you will be better satisfied. Dr. Simmons, 213 Central street.

FANS GIVEN AWAY

Beautiful and artistic Fans given away with ICE CREAM, At Old City Hall Building, 218 Merrimack Street.

Try our ice cream soda, pure fruit flavors. Also our pure home made confectionery.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The undersigned wishes to announce to his friends and the public in general that he has disposed of his bakery at 26 and 28 Concord street, having sold out to M. W. Mulcahy. He will now have but one bakery at corner Fayette and East Merrimack streets where he will be pleased to meet his former patrons and new friends. As he can give his entire attention to one store, his patrons can find the best bread, cake and pastry to be found in Lowell. Baked beans Saturday at 4 p. m. and beans and brown bread Sunday mornings. Your trade is respectfully solicited.

P. McCARTIN,

Cor. Fayette and East Merr'k Sts

NEW FIRM.

Mr. M. W. Mulcahy wishes to announce to the public that he has purchased the bakery and business formerly carried on by P. McCartin at 26-28 Concord street where he will be pleased to see all his friends and old customers and it is his intention to supply the very best quality of bakery supplies at all times. He will also do catering for balls, parties, picnics and weddings. All orders promptly attended to at 26-28 Concord street.

M. W. MULCAHY

PROPRIETOR.

A FILTHY STREET

Jefferson Street in an Unclean Condition

HEALTH DEPT. ORDERS IT CLEANED

New Case of Diphtheria Reported

The health department this morning was notified of a case of diphtheria in Jefferson street. When the health authorities went to the house they at once were impressed with the unhealthy and unclean condition of Jefferson street. They immediately notified Agent Knapp and he promptly got after Supt. Cheney demanding that the street department clean it at once.

SEN. HANNA

ON A BRIEF VISIT TO BOSTON.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Senator Hanna and Mr. Bliss left the city last night on the Fall River boat for Boston. Chairman Hanna will remain there for two or three days, to organize New England and confer with leaders. An effort to counteract the work of the anti-imperialists in that section will be especially put forth. Just before he left Senator Hanna said: "I am going there to see the leaders and find out what the situation is and do a little organizing."

Perry S. Heath left for Chicago yesterday.

Before his departure he expressed a belief that Senator Hanna would make several speeches during the campaign. Senator Hanna was non-committal on the subject.

GOV. ALLEN.

APPOINTS A BOSTON MAN HIS PERSONAL STENOGRAPHER.

Gov. Allen of Porto Rico has appointed Maynard K. Yorkum of Boston as his personal stenographer. Mr. Yorkum has been employed at the Charlestown Navy Yard and is a resident of Boston. He at once accepted and will accompany Gov. Allen to Porto Rico when the latter sails on the Mayflower from the Charlestown Navy Yard next Tuesday.

OVERCOME BY HEAT

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Aug. 9.—William Minchin of Franklin street, this city, a clerk for a grocer, died at the Rhode Island hospital yesterday as a result of sunstroke. He fell, overcome by the heat, on the sidewalk and was delirious for more than two weeks, the result of a fractured skull. He was 24 years old and unmarried.

LAKEVIEW PARK

Lowell's Popular Summer Day Resort

Bowling, Fishing, Boating, Swings, Carousal, Concerts, Fireworks, Aquatic Sports.

Rare Collection of Birds and Beasts from all Climes.

The D. L. Page Company will have entire charge of the Dining Pavilion.

Special Attention to Dinner and Picnic Parties. Dance Music by Hibbard's Orchestra.

Lakeview Theatre

ONE WEEK,

Commencing Monday, Aug. 6,

Afternoon and Night.

Harry Crandall

—IN—

A Busy Day

The uproarious delight: A cracker jack Comedy Co. Original songs, novel dances, great specialties. Management of Joseph J. Flynn. Performances daily, afternoon and evening.

PETER H. SAVAGE,

Undertaker and Funeral Director

169 Worthen St

Telephone connection 464-4. Calls night or day promptly attended to. Carriages furnished for weddings and christenings.

TEETH

If you think of having a new set made, see Dr. Simmons.

He has been making teeth in Lowell for 17 years. Don't waste money on cheap work, the price for the best artificial teeth is very low. Call at Lowell Dental Rooms, 219 Central street.

Peter J. Brady,

GROCER,

NEW STORE.

Cor. Gorham and South Highland Sts.

Choice Teas, Coffees and Spices

Try our new brands of Flour, the best in the city, "The King Arthur," "Crown of Gold," and "Banquet."

WHEN YOU WANT

to get a glass of SODA call at Carter & Sherburne's Drug Store. They give the largest glass and coolest Soda, made of Pure Fruit Flavors.

Carter & Sherburne, Low Priced Drug Store, Merrimack Cor. Bridge St.

J. F. ROGERS, UNDERTAKER.

OFFICE—516 Central street. RESIDENCE—21 Cedar street. Telephone connection. Hacks furnished for all occasions.

PUGILISTIC EVENTS

A Busy Month for the Leading Scrappers

Fitz and Ruhlin Try Conclusions Friday Night—Corbett and McCoy on Aug. 30th.—Features of Their Pugilistic Tactics

Never in the history of pugilism have so many matches between first-class men claimed public attention as at the present time. Less than one short month remains for the glovemen to lawfully pursue their face-spoiling profession in the state of New York, and they are accordingly making the most of it. All the prominent heavyweights are up and doing; matches have been made right and left with little or no previous discussion, and when the smoke of these August battles clears away, the heavyweight field will be strewn with what are technically known as "dead ones," and it is quite within the bounds of possibility that a new champion may be starring through the one-night stands.

The opening gun of the general conflict will be sounded Friday evening, when the thunderous thumps given and received by Robert Fitzsimmons and Gustave Ruhlin will awaken the echoes of Madison square. These two knights of the knuckles are scheduled to visit each other's anatomy with five ounce of wadded excelsior, strictly according to the learned Marquis of Queensbury, for 25 rounds. In preparation for their polite proceeding they have trained long and faithfully, and are now fit to battle for a kingdom. Ruhlin was introduced to the gathering at the recent McFadden-O'Brien dispute, his rugged appearance sending shadows chasing each other across the faces of the Fitzsimmons plungers.

According to all precedents, the Akron agriculturist should be returned a winner in the coming bout. He has on his side youth, height, weight and reach, four advantages with which, if the possessor has any cleverness at all, should render him invincible. Under the able tuition of Jim Corbett he has gained much fistic knowledge, and as his gameness has never been questioned, it would seem hard to figure the husky horseshoer as having a chance against such a combination.

But fistic "dope" is ever to be dreaded, and even more so when Fitz is a factor in the game. The Australian is nothing if not a man of surprises. During the entire course of his interesting career he has kept the pugilistic experts guessing. Previous to each of his fights they have told just what he would do and what would be done to him, and made it all so plain that it seemed needless for one to attend the contest. But on the contrary Bob would hop into the ring and do exactly the opposite of what was expected of him.

He was a long time gaining recognition, and up to the day that he shot paralysis into the Corbett solar plexus, a large percentage of the sporting fraternity had tagged him a fistic two spot. But after that gory battle all anti-Fitz talk was silenced, and those who had consistently belittled him resolved to back him in his next fight to the very limit. They were obliged to wait two years for the opportunity. Fitz was then matched to fight Jeffries, seemingly an easy mark, and, of course, the farier was a hot favorite. Those who had lost their money on Fitz's battles, from the time he defeated Jack Dempsey to the day he whipped Corbett, hastened to get a bet down on him that he would pulverize Jeff. But again did Robert do the wrong thing. For the "easy mark" knocked him out in 11 rounds. The moral of which seems to be: Count not upon what Fitz will do until he has done it.

The Cornishman in ring attire is not a thing of beauty, by any means. He is bald-headed, stoop-shouldered and so knock-kneed that his feet are perfect strangers to each other. When boxing he glides about as though on castors, crouching low, with his wide-open gloves seemingly clawing at his opponent. This attitude gives him such a ridiculous appearance that his opponent is readily inveigled into relaxing his vigilance long enough for Fitz to whip has deadly right across to the jaw and send his man in to dream-land.

In his encounter Friday evening of this week, however, Fitz must do his work quickly, if at all, for in a contest of endurance youth is bound to be served and Ruhlin is as tireless as a steam engine. Fitz will therefore cut out the pace from the tap of the gong, and a rattling go of less than fifteen rounds is expected.

On the evening of August 30 or 31 the Horton law be laid away to rest with fitting ceremonies for on one of these nights James J. Corbett and Kid McCoy will assist at the sad rites by playing taps in each other slats, firing a volley of uppercuts at each other's profiles and crooning a sad dirge with the whirr of their flying gloves.

To the lovers of boxing the demise of the Horton law will be almost compensated for by the grand exhibition which these two marvels of fistic skill are expected to give. The men are acknowledged by all to be the two greatest boxers that ever stepped on rosin and a clash between them in the twenty-four foot ring has been talked of for years. Now they are really matched to battle in a few weeks the sporting world is in a fever of expectation, and all other matches have been cast in the shade.

As to their respective styles, they are too familiar to render lengthy discussion of them a matter of great interest. In the ring Corbett is the personification of ease, grace and skill. He trips out of his corner idly, swinging his arms and dancing about his opponent as though he was indulging in a game of tag. The idea is further carried out by the playful way Corbett seems to slap at his man for it is hard for the spectator to realize those little taps are in reality dazzling blows, that blind sting and drive the receiver almost frantic. His opponent moves at him when suddenly—thud! Corbett lands straight on the nose, and the rusher wonders where it came from. While still in that state, three more blows land hard on the same spot and the recipient rushes frantically at Corbett only to find that Jim is not there and when he turns to look for him—thud! thud! thud! the sore proboscis is again vigorously thumped.

In the meantime Corbett is making ducks and drakes of the other fellow's swings which is very discouraging to a fighter who will gladly accept any amount of hard treatment if he can land solidly occasionally himself. But when he only strikes thin air and is everywhere met with ripping jabs he is certainly to be excused for wearying of it at all.

But in McCoy, Corbett will find a very different proposition from the ponderous Jeffries and the reckless Sharkey. The wily Hoosier boy, slight, pale and ghostlike, is the smoothest glove artist that ever draped an optic in mourning. Though not as graceful in action as his polished opponent, Mac is every bit as deceptive, and has what Corbett lacks, i. e., a knockout punch.

Corbett, though skilled in the art of mussing up beauty is not a knockerout, whereas they will not be a moment during the coming battle that he will not be in danger of taking a short nap as a result of a McCoy swing. The Kid proved his ability as a sleep inducer at Coney Island when he ushered in the glad new year of 1900 by sending Peter Maher to the floor to dream while Mac walked off with the money.

Both Corbett and McCoy are already in training and though each declares that the other will flunk out of the meeting it is quite certain that neither will overlook any part of his training for the great event.

In the meantime Champion Jeffries has signified his willingness to take the conceit out of the winner of the Fitz-Ruhlin bout, so it is quite probable that a battle for the championship will occur before the Horton law has been gathered to its fathers.

PRIVATE EDWARD J. BARRY, CO. L, 14TH INFANTRY, NOW WITH THE ALLIED FORCES IN CHINA.

A LOWELL BOY

In the Fighting at Tien-Tsin

SERGT. BARRY OF 14TH. INFANTRY

Went to China With His Command

Sergeant Edward J. Barry, a Lowell boy, is with the Fourteenth Infantry in China and took part in the fighting at Tien-Tsin. He has three sisters who reside on East Merrimack street, and with whom he corresponds as often as possible. His letters from the Philippines during the campaign there were read with much interest by The Sun readers. He has been in the army going on seven years, and when his present enlistment expires he will have served nine years.

His first army experience was at Fort Warren and later in Newport, at which places he spent five years of his time. Just prior to going to the Philippines he was at Winthrop. Shortly after his arrival in the Philippines he was promoted to the position of first sergeant, Co. L, 14th infantry. Originally he was a member of Co. M, and his captain was opposed to his transfer, till he learned that it meant a promotion to the brave soldier boy. The promotion was given in recognition of brave service. Sergt. Barry wrote several months ago that he intends to remain in the army as he finds the soldier's life just the life for him.

A BAD ACCIDENT

Interfered With the Motor Paced Race

NELSON'S PACERS WERE INJURED

The Track Too Slippery for Motors

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—The 25-mile motor-paced race between Johnnie Nelson of Chicago, Will Stinson of Cambridge and Burns Pierce of Fall River, at Charles River Park, last night, ended in a mix-up in the last lap of the second mile. Owing to the slippery track all three pacing machines went down at the turn into the stretch and piled up on the track. Nelson recovered himself quickly and finished the second mile. Kent, who with Captain Bohr, was pacing Nelson, had his shoulder dislocated, while Pierce and Stinson were assisted to their training quarters. Kent was the only rider injured, the others escaping with slight cuts and bruises. Assistance was summoned and Kent's shoulder was replaced while he was under the influence of ether.

Nelson drew the pole at the start with Stinson in the centre and Pierce outside. The men were off quickly, Nelson being first to catch his pace and taking first place. Stinson dropped into second, followed closely by Pierce and these positions were maintained until the spill occurred. Nelson's time for the first mile was 1.18 2-5 and the second 1.52.

The five-mile amateur tandem-paced race between C. T. Ritchie of the Charleston C. C. and James A. Murphy of the Orient C. C., was won easily by the former in 10.56. M. G. Hurley of Boston won the one-mile unpaced amateur race in which there were 31 entries in 2.30.

It has not been decided when the big race will be finished.

NINE POLICEMEN

NEEDED TO STOP A FIGHT IN LYNN.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LYNN, Aug. 9.—Harry Carr and Charles Donahue of East Boston were arrested last night, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Before they were lodged in cells at police headquarters it took nine police officers to handle them.

George Dion of this city was arrested, charged with interfering with an officer. The trouble started on Central avenue, near Andrew street. Carr and Donahue became involved in a quarrel and Officers Carroll, Currant and Kimball interfered.

The Bostonians united in their efforts to get away from the officers. In a few moments a crowd of 100 gathered there, including many women, and several attempts were made to assist the prisoners to escape.

The officers were pushed down and kicked an pummeled, but not seriously injured. A man on a mustang rode to headquarters, and Patrolmen J. F. and W. F. Kane, Field, Burkes and reserve officer Wilson hurried to the scene.

When they arrived the men were taken to the station house, but during the struggle were badly bruised.

DIRT CLEARANCE.

IT is a good plan for every bather to know something of the soap he uses. There is a well-founded objection to using a floor-cleaning soap upon the human body. Ivory Soap is the bather's soap. It costs more than common soaps, but the difference is in the ingredients and making. Why not treat yourself with a little respect. Is not the human skin with its marvellous delicacy entitled to pure soap? Ivory Soap—it floats.

TWO CAMPERS

VICTIMS OF A PRACTICAL JOKE BY FRIENDS.

Two Lowell young men who left Merrimack square yesterday to enjoy camp life at Salisbury beach were the cynosure of all eyes in the vicinity of the street railway waiting room. They carried a large wooden box containing cooking utensils and other paraphernalia such as bachelor cooks use while "tenting on the old camp ground."

In the wake of the two young men on vacation bent came a boy with a hand express wagon containing more luggage, all of which was hustled into the rear of a down-river electric car.

On the side of the large box which the young man carried had been placed a streamer bearing the inscription in conspicuous letters: "Bosco eats them alive; beware of pickpockets, we are alone."

Joe and Charley hurried to the car unconscious of the fact that they were the victims of a practical joke and the cause of much merriment to friends who were "tipped" to "pipe them off." at the square prior to their departure on their vacation.

An afternoon of good sport. The S. C. W. races Saturday.

LABOR MATTERS

No Wage Reduction at the Middlesex Mills

A CONFERENCE WITH AGENT SAUNDERS

Meeting to be Held With Other Agents

At a meeting of the Textile council, last evening, several important matters were discussed, including arrangements for the coming outing of Saturday, Aug. 18. A large number of tickets have been sold and everybody seems willing and anxious to make it a very great success.

In regard to Labor Day, all the local textile unions have voted unanimously to turn out, and it is expected that there will be a larger number of men in line than ever before. The Woolen Spinners of the Middlesex mills have received a promise from the agent that the old scale of wages will be maintained for them and that there will be no reduction. A committee from the Woolen Spinners had a conference with the agent at the mill yesterday and received the promise that union men should receive the same wages as before. The Woolen Spinners are naturally somewhat gratified to say the least at this action of the mill authorities.

The agents of the Hamilton, Merrimack and Bleachery corporations have agreed to hold a conference in regard to the wage question with Mr. Connolly and Mr. Convery, and it is expected that this will take place very shortly. Much benefit is expected to result from this conference. The council had a very interesting meeting and the outlook generally in labor circles seem to be very bright and prosperous.

STATIONERY FIREMEN.

At the meeting of the Stationary Firemen last evening there was one proposition for membership received. It was also voted to buy a new banner for the Labor Day parade. Mr. B. L. A. Richards was selected to act as aid to the chief marshal in the parade. Resolutions were adopted in honor of Chas. T. Turkshaw, who is about to leave for Germany.

BRICKLAYERS' UNION.

The Bricklayers' union held its regular meeting last evening. Nothing but routine business was transacted.

Johnson's ANODYNE LINIMENT

Oldest—originated 1810. Best—for external or internal use. Cures—coughs, colds, cholera morbus, colic, stings, all pains, aches and inflammation. Costs—25 cents and 50 cents a bottle. Larger size more economical; three times as much.
I. S. JOHNSON & CO., Boston, Mass.
Free—"Treatment for Diseases and Care of the Sick Room."

Upmann's Extra 5
The Best 5c Cigar on Earth.

Omega Oil

After a man or woman has lived 50 or more years, the machinery of the body is pretty well worn out. Stop a minute and think how many miles you have walked in all those years—how many thousands of pounds you have lifted—how many hours you have stood on your feet—how many times your joints have moved back and forth—how many times you have overdone things in work and in pleasure. Do you wonder that you have pains and aches? Isn't it about time you did something for your poor body? Get a bottle of Omega Oil at once, and rub it into every spot on your neck, shoulders, arms, back, hips, legs, knees, and feet where there is an ache. Rub it in good and hard, and the first thing you know you'll feel at least ten years younger. 731

OFFICE LOWELL

Gas Light Company

Save Your Dollars.

The Best and Cheapest Light in the Market.

Have you the latest Welsbach burner and Mantle installed in your house or store? It will cost less than one-half a cent per hour and will give 100 candle power per light. They can be procured at this office.

Price of gas with the discount off for prompt payment is

$1 PER THOUSAND FEET.

First-class Gas Ranges sold on the instalment plan. Coke broken, screened and delivered at $4.50 per chaldron, $2.25 half chaldron, cash. No charge made for the use of meters. No charge made for running supply pipes from street mains to consumer's cellar. Orders when left at office promptly attended to.

A Set of Three Knives,

Bread, Carving, Paring } KNIFE

With One Pound of

60 CENT TEA.

Every Set Warranted.

O'BRIEN BROS.
Tea Dealers,
FISKE BUILDING.
27 Central St. Tel. Con

MONEY LOANED TO SALARIED PEOPLE AND RETAIL MERCHANTS, upon their own names, without security, easy payments. TOLMAN, room 63 Associate Building.

ONE IS DEAD

Consumptive Patient Used a Revolver on Relatives

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Despondent over his inability to live as he wished on the sum allowed him by his father, Jos. Rabiner, a consumptive patient, last night at Rockaway beach shot and instantly killed Isaac Stein, his brother-in-law; badly wounded his father, Jacob Rabiner and then turned the weapon upon himself with what is said to be fatal effect.

A CHURCH UNION

By Two Lowell Congregational Societies

HIGH ST. AND JOHN ST. CHURCHES

New Edifice Suggested In Nesmith Street

The building of a new Congregational church to take the place of High and John street Congregational edifices in this city, is being discussed. At a recent meeting of High street church members, Hon. Charles A. Stott, Hon George A. Marden, William H. White, Clarence N. Nelson, Walter W. Johnson and a new location.

The committee, in a circular to the members say, in the opinion of an experienced builder, from $6000 to $10,000 will have to be expended in a short time on the present building.

They also say that there is a possibility of selling the present church property for $30,000, and that members of John street church and society might join with High street church in building a new edifice.

Five questions were presented to 323 persons connected with High street church and they are requested to send answers to Clarence W. Whidden.

The land at the corner of Nesmith and Wymda streets is suggested for the new building.

LOWELL MEN

AT CAMP OF AMERICAN CANOE ASSOCIATION.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

WINDERMERE, Muskoka Lakes, Ont., Aug. 9.—Life at the camp of the American Canoe association on the Big Island, Lake Rosseau, has settled down to regular routine. Recent arrivals include Paul Butler, Butler Ames, J. Arthur Gage, Miss Sarah Ames, Miss Jessie Ames and Adelbert Ames, Jr., of Lowell, Mass.; Harold Banker of Waltham, Mass.; Harold Banker of boat near the headquarters; E. T. Brigham, W. W. Crosby, G. W. Burnham, Edward F. Wyer and Wm. Fowle of Woburn, Mass.

CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH
PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine. SAFE. Always reliable. Ladies, ask Druggist for CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH in RED and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse Dangerous Substitutions and Imitations. Buy of your Druggist, or send 4c. in stamps for Particulars, Testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Sold by all Druggists. Chichester Chemical Co. Mention this paper. Madison Square, PHILA., PA.
Sold by Eastern Drug Co., Boston, Mass.

WORKINGMEN, ATTENTION!

THE ROOM-E-NUF OVERALL.

We Shall Place On Sale SATURDAY

THE STRONGHOLD OVERALL.

5000 Pairs of Overalls and Coats

Made from the very best materials and manufactured by experienced, well paid help, in first-class factories. Stronger, more thoroughly made or more serviceable Overalls and Coats cannot be found. They are made full size in waist, seat and leg. We have only one object in view in holding this sale for a few days, and that is to acquaint more people with this large and busy department and its unmatchable values.

COMMENCING SATURDAY MORNING.
—YOUR CHOICE OF—

700 Pairs of Overalls and Coats, made from the best grade of Otis blue check, full size, loops and patent buttons.
300 Pairs of Painters' White Overalls, railroad back, top pocket; all sizes.
1200 Pairs of Heavy Stripe Denim Overalls and Coats, railroad high back and front, loops and patent buttons; all sizes.
2500 Pairs of Heavy Blue Denim Coats and Overalls, railroad back, two seams, swinging pockets.
800 Pairs of Plain Black Heavyweight Overalls and Coats, patch pocket, loops and patent buttons.

All the above goods are the regular 50c., 65c., and 75c. qualities, and cannot be bought for any less elsewhere. We have marked the entire stock at

38c. a Garment.

This sale will last only a few days. We will not sell any of these goods to dealers or speculators.

THE RAILROAD OVERALL.

Lowell One-Price CLOTHING CO.
72-86 Merrimack St.

THE MECHANICS OVERALL.

MID-SUMMER MILLINERY

Trimmed Hats at... 98c Up

We are closing them out regardless of cost.

ALL the new things in Outing Hats in felt. If you are going to the beach or the country you want a Felt Hat. Let us show you what we have. Our prices are the lowest.

HEAD & SHAW, "The Milliners" 169-175 Merrimack St.

THE LOWELL SUN

Three Editions Daily.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor.

SUN BUILDING, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press.

$3.00 Per Year. 25c. Per Month

The Sun is the only paper in Lowell receiving the full day service of the Associated Press, the greatest news gathering organization in the world. The entire service is received over a leased wire by our own operator in our own office in the Sun building.

May Have Seen Better Days

There are at least two local papers with less than one-fifth the circulation of THE SUN. They may have seen better days, but the only remnant of their former glory is the high price they charge for advertising.

If the price they ask is a fair one, THE SUN would be justified in asking five times as much, but we do not ask even twice as much. Don't you see why advertising in THE SUN is the cheapest in Lowell?

THE SUN has a larger circulation than any two other papers printed in Lowell.

It is in every respect

LOWELL'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

MR. BRYAN'S SPEECH.

Everybody interested in the welfare of this nation or in the rights and interests of humanity in general, should read the speech of William Jennings Bryan at Indianapolis yesterday. It is one of the clearest, most logical and convincing expositions of American principles as opposed to imperialism and the present republican policy towards the Filipinos that can possibly be given.

It shows wherein imperialism departs from American principles and in referring to the treaty ceding the Philippines to the United States, Mr. Bryan shows that he favored the ratification of the treaty, assuming that American principles would be applied to the government of the Filipinos as to the government of the Cubans. This disposes of the hypocritical charge made by Senator Hoar, namely, that Bryan was responsible for the war because he favored the ratification of the treaty. He favored it on the ground that it would be the speediest way to end the war, not that it should be made the ground for starting a new war.

Mr. Bryan also disposed of the chief claims made in defence of the imperial policy in a masterly way, under the following heads:

First: That we must improve the present opportunity to become a world power and enter into international politics.

Second: That our commercial interests in the Philippine islands and in the Orient make it necessary for us to hold the islands permanently.

Third: That the spread of the Christian religion will be facilitated by a colonial policy.

Fourth: That there is no honorable retreat from the position which the nation has taken.

Mr. Bryan's refutation of these claims was so forcible and overwhelming that no republican can adequately answer his keen and scathing logic. The closing paragraph of his address had reference to the republican twaddle about destiny and expressed his views on the destiny of this republic in this grand period:

I can conceive of a national destiny surpassing the glories of the present and the past—a destiny which meets the responsibilities of today and measures up the possibilities of the future. Behold a republic, resting securely upon the foundation stones quarried by revolutionary patriots from the mountain of eternal truth—a republic applying in practice and proclaiming to the world the self-evident proposition—that all men are created equal; that they are endowed with inalienable rights; that governments are instituted among men to secure these rights; that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. Behold a republic in which civil and religious liberty stimulate all to earnest endeavor, and in which the law restrains every hand uplifted for a neighbor's injury—a republic in which every citizen is a sovereign but in which no one cares to wear a crown. Behold a republic standing erect while empires all around are bowed beneath the weight of their own armaments—a republic whose flag is loved while other flags are only feared. Behold a republic increasing in population, in wealth, in strength and in influence, solving the problems of civilization and hastening the coming of an universal brotherhood—a republic which shakes thrones and dissolves aristocracies by its silent example and gives light and inspiration to those who sit in darkness. Behold a republic gradually but surely becoming the supreme moral factor in the world's progress and the accepted arbiter of the world's disputes—a republic whose history, like the path of the just, "is as the shining light that shineth more and more into the perfect day."

THE CHINESE SITUATION.

The gloom of mystery that up to Tuesday evening rendered the Chinese situation impenetrable to all the civilized powers has been swept away by the light thrown upon it by cipher messages from Minister Conger of the United States and the British minister at Pekin.

The demand that the ministers be safely escorted to Tien-Tsin was made of China by powers before the real situation was known but under the present circumstances as appears from Conger's message, it would be certain death to attempt such a transfer. The ministers dare not risk it so that the powers will now appeal to China with all the force at their command for the safety of the ministers. Nothing less than the threat to take reprisals, to decapitate the heads of the Chinese government if the ministers are killed will be of any use.

Li Hung Chang says China must fight if the allies approach Pekin and the furious Boxers who evidently disregard consequences will endeavor to kill the ministers as they have repeatedly threatened. Even the Imperial officials who rightly or wrongly disclaim sympathy with the Boxers have threatened this, but the warning of the combined powers will probably overcome them and result in the protection of the surviving legations.

In any event since the Imperial government appears to be responsible for much of the atrocities inflicted upon foreigners, the powers have abundant cause for making war upon China either separately or in a combination as is proposed. When that war is over China will be much wiser and the fury of the Boxers will become considerably subdued, although in spite of all the powers may do no foreigner will be safe in China for generations to come unless protected by European troops.

City Marshal O'Sullivan of Lawrence is to be commended for his kindness in the treatment of the various unfortunates who fall into his hands. The other night he found a young woman asleep in a doorway. Instead of bringing charges of drunkenness, vagrancy or something worse against her, he ordered the matron at the police station to treat her kindly, until he could find a home for her. She was supplied with money to secure her trunk, held for room rent at a hotel, and she was also placed in a position where she can earn a living—all out of the kindness shown her by the city marshal. There is no office with the exception of that of a clergyman in which kindness is more necessary than in that of city marshal, and the Lawrence official shows that in this respect he is the right man for the place.

The municipal lodging house at Syracuse, N. Y., which has now been in operation a year, is declared to be highly successful. Lodgers have a bath, bed and food, also the use of a reading room. The next day they have work on the streets, half a day's work at street cleaning. This pays for the lodging and food and leaves the afternoon free to look for work or get out of town. The cost of the undertaking was about the same as the market value of the work done at street cleaning and snow-shoveling by the lodgers.—Exchange.

This is undoubtedly a very excellent method of handling the occasional visitors known as "tramps," who call at the police station for lodging. In this city they are sent to the city farm, where they are obliged to saw wood in lieu of food and lodging. They are limited in the number and frequency of their visits, so that those who call once are not in a hurry to come back, lest they be sent into court as vagrants. They go elsewhere.

Just as long as people purchase horses with docked tails just so long will there be found men brutal enough to perform the dirty work of docking them. When the law steps in and imposes a penalty for having a bob-tailed horse in one's possession, then, and not until then, will the practice cease. The Gazette maintains that the method it suggests of putting a stop to the docking of horses' tails is the best yet devised.—Haverhill Gazette.

We fully endorse the Gazette's plan for stopping this cruel and idiotic practice which is at best but a cheap way of aping the English horseman. In a climate so hot as this a docked horse suffers a great deal more from flies than in England.

Congressman Towne has taken himself most graciously out of the way of Adlai E. Stevenson in the democratic campaign. In so doing he loses nothing and helps the cause of democracy.

A commander-in-chief of the allies has been chosen. He is a German and in all probability a man well qualified for the place. The German generals know their business.

Smooth paving will be discussed at a public hearing next Tuesday evening. The remonstrants will have their innings.

The city council says we shall have an electric car sprinkler, although the mayor says nay. Some change is needed from the present system.

The McKinley brand of prosperity is petering out.

CRISP GOSSIP

The bare-armed girl is getting up a well tanned muscle.

The retail market shows almost no change from last week. Haddock dropped a cent but everything else is stationery.

CONGER, PHOENIX-LIKE, RISES FROM THE FLAMES.

The tide of summer business is at its height now and all trains through Lowell are heavy laden.

France makes nearly 26,000,000 pairs of gloves yearly and of these 18,000,000 pairs are exported.

I would I were a polar bear,
The ice—there's bliss in clinking it!
He bathes in zero water there,
Instead of merely drinking it.

The new single breasted frock coat designed by the Prince of Wales is probably all right but what one now needs is a necktie shirt that does not require suspenders or belt to keep up the trousers.

A bicycle that in five minutes can be taken apart and packed in a bag 24 x 16 inches has been invented by an ingenious Frenchman.

A "quiet home wedding" took place at Hagerstown, Md., recently. The bride, groom, best man, and clergyman were all deaf and dumb.

London is putting in its own telephone system, and expects to furnish 40,000 subscribers at normal rates. The cost is $5,000,000.

A Blaine county (Oklahoma) infant has for his given name Donnie Roosevelt McKinley and the parents are trying to tear the child.

It is a poor plan to have a strip of carpet or a woolen mat on the bath room floor to absorb the moisture and eventually become unhygienic. A cork mat or a rubber mat is preferable.

It is said that the proprietor of a Chicago gambling house recently secured an order of the court restraining the police from raiding his place. That is government by injunction with a vengeance.

The prince of Wales is more familiar with the common affairs of life than we supposed. His action in the Astor case clearly demonstrates that he knows an ace when he sees it.

More Lowell people than ever before are taking their vacation this summer in daily trips to places of interest. With the excellent facilities for transportation it is by no means an unsatisfactory way of spending one's leisure.

East Orange, N. J., has put in operation a strange ordinance by which the owner of a cock that crows or a hen that clucks between the hours of 10 p. m. and 8 a. m. is liable to a fine of $50. The ordinance reads that any person keeping fowl, swine, goats or horses that may be complained of shall remove them to a point 200 feet from the property of the complainant, and that such stock as many people between the hours of 10 p. m. and 8 a. m. will be regarded as a nuisance and if the owner fails to keep his stock or fowl quiet between the prescribed hours, he can be fined $25 for the first offense and $50 for the second. The cackling by hens is regarded as in the same degree heinous as the crowing of roosters. Neighing and kicking horses and cattle that bellow are in the same class.

When woman smiles her sweetest—ah,
Perhaps her heart is breaking.
When woman's look is tenderest
She may be sadly making
A last brave fight to keep the tears—
The bitter tears—from flowing—
A woman's happy glances may
But be an outward showing.

When woman smiles, 'tis hard to tell,
She may, alas, be grieving!
Her careless air may be put on
Her soulful look deceiving!
When woman smiles take care—beware!
She may perchance be scheming
To work you—never, never judge
Her by her outward seeming.

The newspaper world loses a hard working and valued member in the death of Ballard Smith. He practically wore himself out in the interest of his paper. His indomitable will kept him at his desk until his health was completely shattered.

Butter is now packed in a box of six sheets of ordinary window glass, the edges being covered with gummed paper. The closed box is then enveloped in a layer of plaster of paris a fourth of an inch thick, and it is covered with a specially prepared paper. As the plaster is a bad conductor of heat, the temperature inside the hermetically sealed package remains constant, being unaffected by external change. The cost of packing in this way is only about two cents per pound and is used to a great extent in Australia. Butter has been sent from Melbourne to Kimberley, in South Africa, packed in this manner and was found to be perfectly sound. Cases are now made which hold as much as 800 pounds of butter.

The following epitaph is still to be seen on a monument in a burying ground at Concord, N. H.:

God wills us free—Man wills us slaves,
I will as God wills God's will be done.
Here lies the body of
JOHN JOCK,
A native of Africa, who died
March, 1773, aged about sixty years.
Though born in a land of slavery,
He was born free,
Though he lived in a land of liberty,
He lived a slave,
Till by his honest, though stolen labors,
He procured the source of slavery,
Which gave him his freedom;
Though not long before
Death, the grand tyrant,
Gave him his final emancipation,
And put him on a footing with kings.
Though a slave to vice,
He practiced those virtues
Without which kings are but slaves.

A New Jersey hotel keeper has demonstrated his unfitness for paternity by teaching his 4-year-old daughter to smoke and drink. Recently at Freehold it occurred to him that it would be a good plan to exhibit his child's talents. He lighted a big black cigar, about half as big as she, stuck it between her lips and sent her promenading down the leading street of the village. The little girl was as proud of her accomplishment as her father, apparently, for she pulled away at the rank weed and seemed to enjoy the flavor, the father tagging after with a look of conscious pride upon his face. Men and women who do not know the esthetics of child-smoking stopped in horror and remonstrated with the father for permitting such depravity. "You mind your own business," he said. "I do as I please with my child. Smoke? Of course she smokes. Don't I smoke? She can drink beer and whiskey, too, like her old father before her. If you don't like it you can lump it," and he went on, purple with indignation.

Clear The Deck

OF ALL ODD PIECES OF

FURNITURE

And All Remnants of Floor Covering

Is The Order of The Day.

AUGUST is the month of BARGAINS at

A. E. O'HEIR & CO., 14-16-18 Merrimack St.,

Near Electric Car Waiting Room.

The People's Favorite Furniture Store,

OLDEST SETTLER

In the Lowell Colony of Greeks

WAS THE LATE PETER DAPONTES

Who Died at City Farm Monday

Peter Dapontes, whose death was mentioned in The Sun of yesterday as having passed away at the city farm on Monday, where he had been taken four years ago, owing to insanity, was the oldest settler in the Lowell Greek colony. He was born on the Island of Andro, off the coast of Greece, and when but a boy he shipped as a common seaman on a Grecian bark bound for Boston. On his arrival in Boston he received his discharge and after a few months stop in that city he came to Lowell and opened a wholsale fruit business on Middlesex street, where he continued to do a prosperous business until a few years ago. He removed his store to Broadway, where he did business until four years ago, when he was unfortunately stricken with insanity and carried to the city farm. Three years ago while in that institution, Mr. Dapontes was taken with a violent attack and one afternoon the house doctor came to his apartments and found him in an unconscious condition and on examination believed him dead. The physician notified his friends in Lowell, who immediately went to where he was laid out and according to the Greek custom dressed him for burial. On their return to Lowell they notified a local undertaker, requesting him to remove the body to the city on the following morning. When the undertaker arrived at the farm he was surprised to find him about and stirring.

When the local Greeks heard of Mr. Dapontes and that the city was to bury him they requested that they might perform that duty and the body was removed to the morgue of Undertaker C. H. Molloy. The date of the funeral has not been announced but it is thought will be on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Dapontes' death will be mourned not only by the Greeks, but all others who knew him in life.

Carni, Ingraham, Keegan and Hamilton at the S. C. W. meet next Saturday.

DENNIS ARRESTED

Charged With Indecent Exposure of Person

HAS ANNOYED PEOPLE IN HIGHLANDS

He Was Caught in Westford Street

Henry Dennis, a well appearing fellow, who claims Troy, N. Y., as his home, was arrested in Westford street yesterday afternoon by Captain Kew and Officer Atkinson.

The charge against him is indecent exposure and it is claimed that he has been making a nuisance of himself in the vicinity of Tyler Park for several days past. The police also suspect that he may be the man who attempted to assault a little girl in the woods at North Chelmsford a short time ago.

His arrest yesterday was the result of a complaint made by a resident in the vicinity of Tyler Park. It is said that people up there saw Dennis acting objectional and at once telephoned to the police station. Officer Atkinson was detailed to look up the fellow. He called at Capt. Kew's house and with the captain started in search of the fellow. They caught him on Westford street and placed him under arrest.

Don't forget the S. C. W. races Saturday. Always exciting.

We don't want to carry goods from one season to another, we firmly believe in clearing out all goods when they are new and stylish—even if it is necessary to sell them below cost and at a small loss—it's best for us and best for our customers.

Every garment in this store is marked down to a price that we are sure will sell them quickly, some at half price—below actual cost—others very near half price.

Bargain prices in superb qualities and liberal credit ought to sell everything in sight this week.

Are you looking for bargains? Don't worry about the cash. Credit is free. Ask for it.

All Summer Goods to Go at Greatly Reduced Prices.

Including Wash Skirts, P. K. Linen, Duck. Also all Shirt Waists, newest styles and prettiest makes. Ladies' Tailor-made Suits. Outer Garments for Ladies, Misses and Children. Men's, Boys' and Youths' Summer Clothing. Men's $3.00 Shoes. We warrant every pair.

Cæsar Misch
CASH OR CREDIT

78 Middlesex Street, Odd Fellows' Block,
A. STRAUSS, Manager.

LOWELL RESIDENTS

PARTICIPATING IN OLD HOME WEEK IN MAINE.

Governor Powers of Maine, having issued a call for all of the former citizens of the Pine Tree State to return to their fatherland and join in the celebration of "Home Week," the following sons of Maine have left Lowell to participate in the festivities: Abel Wheeler, Alex. Abels, Henry L. Pike, Cassius Pierce, Deacon D. G. Bartlett, Fred. W. Farnshaw, A. P. Smith and F. N. Haynes. Charles E. Carter, Prof. John E. Jackson and E. A. Smith.

Before leaving Lowell the gentlemen perfected an organization called the Dirigo Club, of which Abel Wheeler is the president; Alex. Abels, commissary, and Deacon Bartlett, treasurer.

The party will return after a tour of their homesteads and a good sniff of the sea breeze at York beach.

All the crack riders will be at the S. C. W. meet Saturday.

WHAT THEY ALL SAY.

"I am going to advertise in your paper everytime and I will tell all my friends to advertise in The Sun" is what they all say who try The Sun wants. Why? Because they bring results. Last week Miss Joyce of Centralville lost a gold watch. She advertised her loss in The Sun and that same night the watch was returned to her through the ad. in The Sun. Another prominent school teacher of Centralville had occasion to use The Sun want column. She advertised in all the other papers until she got sick and tired of it, without getting a single reply. At last she tried The Sun and the first day the ad. appeared a dozen answers were received at the office for her. Now she says there is only one paper in Lowell that's worth advertising in. Is it any wonder that The Sun has more wants than any other paper in Lowell.

Don't miss the five-mile pursuit race at S. C. W. meet Saturday.

BIG FOUR CLUB AT CAMP.

The Big Four club, one of most popular organizations is enjoying life at Simpson's pond. They will remain here for the rest of the month. George Cowen is head chef and his services are highly commended by all who have visited the camp.

WESTFORD

Mr. Henry Wright and family, who have been visiting his father, left for their home at Quincy on Monday last.

Misses Hattie and Fanny Buckminster of Malden were recently the guests of Daniel Attwood and family.

Fred F. Wiggin has gone on a ten days' visit to his home at Baldwin, Me.

Miss Florence Read is laid up with an injured ankle, the result of a fall last Saturday.

There will be a concert by the children at the Congregational church next Sunday morning. A collection will be taken for Congregational Education society, and also the Sunday school and Publishing society.

The concert which was to have been held at the Unitarian church, Tuesday evening, the 7th, has been postponed till Friday evening, the 10th.

Mrs. Clara Littlefield of Fitchburg, her son Fred, wife and three daughters of Farmington, N. H., drove down Friday to visit relatives at the Walker homestead, Edward Littlefield joining the company Saturday evening. All returned to Fitchburg Sunday, taking Mrs. Walker with them. Edward Littlefield making the trip on his bicycle.

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT.

Miss Sadie Campbell of Congress street, who is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. Alex. Campbell of Webster, Mass., is making many friends among the young people of that place. Last Tuesday they arranged a novel entertainment in her honor, eight couples went to an adjoining town for a hay rack ride. The ladies wore print dresses and sunbonnets and the young men wore overalls and straw hats. Arriving at their destination they had a real New England dinner, after which there was dancing in the barn, for which a country fiddler furnished the music.

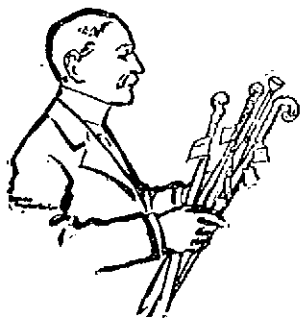

RED MEN'S OUTING.

The Red Men in Nashua, Manchester and Lowell, are making arrangements to hold their annual outing early in September, and it is generally understood that the place selected will be Lawndale, at Nashua. Committees of arrangements have been appointed in Manchester and Lowell and at the regular meeting next Monday evening, the committees from Watanamock Tribe of Nashua will be appointed. The gathering will be one of the events of the season.

Putnam & Son,

166 CENTRAL STREET.

There are many items of interest in this summer stock, that make strong price appeals to summer buyers. We are doing an excellent business in trousers—good sorts, for all purposes—quiet patterns, all wool cassimeres; well made, strong, will stand hard work, 98c. and $1.19. Dressier trousers, smooth worsteds, in patterns like the best goods, $1.98 and $3.48. Fine worsteds from Rogers, Peet & Co., the best we know about $4.95

MERCERIZED UNDERWEAR, that looks like silk, quite the daintiest underwear shown; 18 dozens just "picked up" at a bargain. Usually sold for $1, this to go shirt or drawers, for . . . . . 59c.

AN OCCASIONAL RAINY DAY may remind you that an umbrella won't come amiss in vacation. Three or four specials here are worth consideration; a lot of men's umbrellas made for us, silk through and through, fine paragon frames, very close roll, special handles in natural wood, silk case, five dollars' worth, for $3.25

AN EXCELLENT serge umbrella, men's, paragon frame, steel rod and natural handles, with sterling silver mounts, at a special price . . . . . 98c.

A LITTLE LOT of women's sun and rain umbrellas, mercerized covers, Dresden, pearl and natural wood handles, paragon frames, seem very cheap at . . . . . 80c.

IN THE BOYS' ROOM we've put a small lot of white duck sailor suits, fine ones that sold for $4.00, down to $1.48

THE CRASH TROUSERS that were 79c., all now . . . . 48c.

STAR WAISTS. Shirt Waists, 40 only, were $1.26 and $1, all now . . . . . 47c.

STAR BLOUSES, French flannel, madras and cheviot. All these are from the $1.50 and $2.00 lots, down now to . . 67c.

THE SUN EXTRA

6 O'CLOCK

THE KING BURIED

Great Funeral Procession in Rome Today

Hundreds of Priests Took Part in the Service—An Immense Military Display

By Associated Press to The Sun.

ROME, Aug. 9.—At an early hour this morning, 10 non-commissioned officers of Cuirassiers carried the casket containing the remains of King Humbert from the funeral train to the large hall of the railroad station, which had been transformed into a chapel, hung with sable draperies with gold ornamentation. The first chaplain of the court, assisted by a number of priests, pronounced the absolution and the cortege started for the Pantheon, where rest the arms of King Victor Emmanuel III. The sun was showing through a haze but the weather was not hot. Immense space surrounding the railroad station was entirely filled with people, and as the casket was borne into the open air a touching and imposing spectacle was witnessed. All those present uncovered and remained bareheaded while the procession was in view. After the casket had been placed on a gun carriage, King Victor Emmanuel III took his place at the head of the princess, who followed the remains. Behind his majesty were the Duke of Aosta, the Count of Turin, the Duke of Genoa, the Duke of Oporto, Prince Ferdinand of Genoa and other royal visitors. Following them were the members of the diplomatic corps and the special envoys.

Preceding the cortege, which was most imposing in its magnificence, was a battery of artillery, a band of music and then a battalion from each division of the Italian army and marine corps, many army and navy officers, representatives of the scientific and educational institutions, the mayors and municipal officers of Rome and Turin, deputations from all the departmental bureaux of the government and the more important state bodies, including the cabinet ministers, senators and deputies, whose appearance made a striking group.

Just ahead of the casket were about 109 priests and 100 friars, including the court chaplains.

The gun carriage bearing the casket was drawn by six horses and was surrounded by officers and functionaries of the civil and military houses of the royal princes and of the late king and was immediately preceded by the late king's first general aide-de-camp, Avogadro des Contes di Quinto, on horseback, bearing the sword of the late king.

As the body of the dead monarch was borne along towards the Pantheon, many of those present in the crowded streets showed by their emotion the true worth at which he was held, for tears were streaming down their faces.

On the right side of the casket walked the president of the council of ministers, Signor Saracco; the first vice president of the senator and the cevaller antoicer. On the left of the casket were the ministers of foreign affairs, the Marquis Visconti Venosta, the president of the chamber of deputies, Signor Villa and former Premier Crispi.

Behind the casket was the master of ceremonies of the court, bearing a wreath of iron, and following him was the late King Humbert's beautiful bay war horse, which was a very great favorite with the deceased. The horse was covered with long black draping.

Bringing up the rear of the cortege were the flags of the army with an honorary escort, several municipal and provincial deputations, and finally, a squadron of cavalry.

When the head of the procession reached the Pantheon, an enormous crowd occupied every available foot of space. All the adjacent streets and the windows, balconies and terraces in the vicinity were also filled with spectators. Not a whisper of conversation interrupted the solemnity of the scene, the multitude remaining in respectful silence with uncovered heads.

As was the case in the square before the railroad station, the streets through which the procession passed were draped with black and along the route poles were erected covered with cypress branches and with stringings of palms entwined with black bunting stretching across the streets. Innumerable flags were displayed at half mast, and the funeral decorations which hung from the windows were so universal throughout the city that it can be literally said that the entire city of Rome was in mourning.

During the march of the procession several crushes occurred. Among those in the crowd on the Via del Serpenti, 20 persons received slight wounds and 30 others were bruised.

The procession marched in perfect order and at a slow pace.

King Victor Emmanuel III, who was on foot, bore himself with dignity and carried his head high. The groups of officers, in full uniform, gave great brilliancy to the cortege. No less than 650 senators and deputies took part in the procession, many radicals and republicans being among the number.

During the march flowers were thrown from the windows on the passing casket.

The whole portico of the Pantheon, where the procession arrived at 9.15 a. m., formed a veritable flower bed of wreaths and flowers there deposited.

At some points attempts were made to acclaim the new king, but such loyal exclamations and applause were repressed, as the solemn silence which prevailed along nearly the whole route more clearly expressed the profound grief of the people.

The exterior decorations of the Pantheon was very simple. Under the immense portico had been erected two large altars upon which burned alcohol lamps. On the steps of the altars were placed the wreaths.

MIXED GARRISON

At Elands River Surrenders to the Boers

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—The following report from Pretoria, Aug. 8, has been received from Lord Roberts:

"Kitchener was informed yesterday by an escaped British prisoner that DeWet's wagons had crossed the Vaal. Afterwards I heard the sound of guns which, I think must have been Methuen's, as I directed him to take up a position between Potchefstroom and Lindique, where he could intercept the enemy, who crossed the river at DeWet's drift. Kitchener is crossing the Vaal with cavalry and mounted infantry.

"Hunter reports that he made 4140 prisoners in the Bethlehem-Harrismith district, a majority of whom are now en route for Cape Town. Three guns and 4000 horses were captured and 10 wagon loads of ammunition and 195,000 pounds of ammunition were destroyed.

"The garrison of Elands river, which, I fear, has been captured, consisted of about 300 Bushmen and Rhodesians. I had hoped that Carrington had been in time to withdraw the garrison; but it seems that Delarey, learning of Ian Hamilton's approach to Rustenburg, hurried westward and surrounded the garrison before Carrington arrived.

"Methuen telegraphs that he engaged a part of DeWet's force yesterday near Henterskroon. He drove the enemy off of a succession of hills, which they held obstinately. Our casualties were seven men killed or wounded, including four officers."

200 KILLED

Russians Slaughtered Transport Coolies

By Associated Press to The Sun.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 9.—A remarkable story was brought by the steamer Empress of Japan to the effect that a number of Russian exofficers and privates from Siberia had joined the rank of the Boxers and that having reason to suspect the fidelity of their Chinese transport coolies, the Russian had killed 200 of the Chinese and then loaded their bodies into a junk which they set on fire and sent drifting down the Pei-Ho. The story is published with a number of corroborative details in a number of Oriental papers.

Many Chinese now say that Prince Tuan, the rebel emperor, is not a member of the imperial clan at all. He is supposed to be the son of the fifth prince Tuan, but it is known to many in Pekin that he is a suppositious on, his mother being a nurse in Prince Tuan's family. By collusion with Prince Tuan's wife the child who is now Prince Tuan was introduced as the princess' son.

Though a Manchu he is thus not really of imperial descent if this story be true.

CHINESE WAR NEWS

(Continued from Page One.)

GERMAN COMMANDER FOR ALLIED FORCES

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BERLIN, Aug. 9.—The German foreign office, in confirming to the correspondent of the Associated Press last evening the report of Count Von Waldersee's appointment, said this was only to the command of the German forces in China, and that the question as to whether he would command all the international forces had not been settled.

The correspondent asked if any other power had suggested an appointment, but the foreign office official declined to answer.

Nevertheless all the evening papers, including the semi-official, Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, publish the statement that he has been appointed commander-in-chief of the combined forces. It is understood that Emperor William has arranged the matter personally and directly with the other powers. Count Von Waldersee arrived at Cassel yesterday afternoon to consult with Emperor William.

CHINESE SITUATION VERY GRAVE

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LONDON, Aug. 9, 4 a. m.—Beyond the official news given out yesterday, the morning papers contain no direct information of importance from China. Thanks to the despatches of Sir Claude MacDonald and Rear-Admiral Bruce, there is a general disposition to take a more hopeful view of the situation. The report of the appointment of Field Marshal Count Von Waldersee as commander-in-chief of the international forces meets with general approval.

The Rome correspondent of the Daily Mail announces the reception there of official despatches from the Italian minister in Pekin, Marquis Salvago Raggi, asserting that he left Pekin on July 21, presumably for Tien-Tsin. This, however, is so utterly at variance with the actions and intentions of the other ministers heard from that it seems almost incredible. If true, it opens up an interesting field of speculation concerning the fate of the Italian representative.

The text of the edict of Aug. 2, authorizing the escort of the ministers from Pekin to Tien-Tsin, was given out at the Chinese legation and says in part:

"In view of the existence of hostilities between certain Chinese rebels and foreign powers, caused by the Christian feeling of the Chinese people, we have afforded reasonable protection to the foreign representatives in Pekin; and the Tsung-Li-Yamen has sent to the legations letters of inquiry and proposals for their safe conveyance under escort to Tien Tsin, in order to avoid apprehension of further attack from the rebels before the complete restoration of peace and order in the capital.

"We have now, on the advice of Li Hung Chang and Liu Kun Yi, to authorize Yung Lu to escort them to Tien Tsin. If there be any rebels en route trying to endanger the safety of the party, the officials have to destroy the rebels at once."

The Chinese legation believes that the members of the foreign legations have not yet left Pekin, but that they will do so and declares that the edict would not have been issued had not the foreign ministers signified a willingness to accept the escort. The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily News, wiring yesterday, says:

"United States Consul Goodnow strongly opposes Admiral Seymour's intention to land 3000 troops on the ground that such an act would not be warranted by the circumstances and would be likely to create trouble. M. Bozaure, the French consul, agrees to the arrangement, but says that, if the British land forces, the French will do likewise. The Austrians also will land men. My personal opinion is that the landing of troops here at the present moment would be a grave mistake."

RUSSIAN LOSS AT PIETSANG 500

By Associated Press to The Sun.

CHEFOO, Aug. 9.—During the engagement on Sunday which preceded the occupation of Pietsang by the allies, the Russians lost 500 killed and the British 50. The Germans and Japanese also lost heavily. The road to Pekin is supposed to be open.

THE ALLIES LOST 1130 MEN

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—The flooded country beyond Pei Tsang adds immeasurably toward the difficulty of the progress of the allies towards Pekin. This news reaches the Shanghai correspondents from Tien Tsin with statement to the effect that the situation at Tien Tsin is again perilous owing to the assembling of Chinese troops within striking distance.

The losses of the allies in the recent operations are now said to be 1130 men, of which number the Russians lost 600, the Japanese 410 and the British 120.

International suspicion has broken out among the consuls at Shanghai on account of the determination of the British to land there a brigade of Indian troops. It is reported that the French will also land troops at Shanghai to the number of 1200 men. While the ministers at Pekin remain unrelieved it is not understood why Great Britain should divert forces destined for the relief expedition to garrison a place where peace, thus far, has been undisturbed.

A news agency despatch from Chefoo, dated Sunday, Aug. 5, says a messenger from Pekin reports that the dowager empress sent four cart-loads of food to the legations on July 28.

The British foreign office is understood to have suppressed portions of the last despatch of the British minister at Pekin, on the ground that his explicite statements regarding the quantity of food and ammunition available might be useful to the enemy.

CHICAGO SIZZLES

In a Hot Wave That is Unprecedented

MANY FATALTIES DUE TO THE HEAT

A Wedding Postponed and Groom Sunstruck

By Associated Press to The Sun.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9—All past records for long continued hot weather in Chicago have been equalled during the present week and when today's temperatures have been taken it is more than probable that a new record will have been made. For five days the mercury has been well above the 90 mark and with no relief in sight the weather man is willing to risk his reputation on the prediction that it will again soar above that figure today.

The city has not suffered from such a long continued spell of extremely hot weather since the summer of 1892. In July of that year the thermometer for five consecutive days registered temperatures above 90 degrees. The maximum temperature was 93 degrees, while last Sunday the 94 mark was reached. The average temperature this time has been higher than during the hot wave of 1892, so Chicago is really experiencing a record breaking period of hot weather of the continuous variety. So far as learned nine persons died from the effects of the heat in the twenty four hours ending at midnight. The prostrations reported number over 50, of whom several will not recover.

Poor people in the tenement districts suffered terribly and in these congested sections whole families secured their night rest as best they could.

In various parts of the city gangs of workingmen were laid off at 3 o'clock when it became hottest in the afternoon.

More horses were killed by the heat than during any other day this summer and the number is estimated at 1,000.

There were some instances where persons attempted to end their lives while in a crazed condition due to the heat. Many teamsters were overcome as they drove their horses through the streets and dropped unconscious on the wagon seats.

Even weddings were postponed by reason of the heat. John D. Colbert was to have been married to a young lady living in Oak Park. Colbert came to the conclusion that it was entirely too hot for the ceremony and early in the day he started to Oak Park to arrange a postponement. The bride to be would not listen to such an arrangement so Colbert boarded a car for the city to obtain the marriage license. Before he reached the city he was overcome by the heat and fell unconscious. He will recover and the wedding will take place at some future date.

THE SMALLPOX PATIENTS.

In accordance with Dr. E. G. Livingston's recommendation the Coulliard family of five members were discharged from the contagious hospital yesterday afternoon. The elder Brancowler child is improving and will recover.

TREATING YELLOW FEVER.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

VERA CRUZ, Mex., Aug. 9.—The most severe cases of yellow fever here being treated with Bellinzawhis serum seems to improve wonderfully and patients are quickly relieved of black vomit and revived from their lethargy.

NOVEL GAME

BY TWO NINES COMPOSED OF PRIESTS.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A novelty in baseball games is scheduled for this afternoon at Seton Hall, South Orange, N. J. The contesting nines will be composed exclusively of priests. One team will represent the Diocese of Newark and the other that of New York city.

It is stated that to Bishop McQuade of Rochester is credited with having inaugurated the custom of uniformed baseball nines composed of priests. Six years ago, while on a visit to the pope, he inspected the American college in Rome for the education of priests. He saw the novitiates playing baseball without uniforms.

"You ought to have uniforms for your nines," he said to the fathers in charge.

And when he returned to America he sent half a dozen sets of American baseball uniforms to the college as a gift.

Most of the players at Seton Hall today are young men who were distinguished as athletes at college and though out of practice are still admirers of the game and like the ever erst while onvocation.

RECEPTION TONIGHT

TO REV. C. L. MERRIAM OF HIGHLAND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

This evening the Highland Congregational church people welcome home their pastor, Rev. C. L. Merriam, with a reception at the church from 7.30 to 9.

DRUNKEN ROW

RESULTS IN DEATH OF REUBEN BRITTON.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 9.—As the result of the death of Reuben Britton in the course of a drunken row at 12.30 o'clock this morning on Fountain street, Thomas Moran was arraigned in the criminal district court today on a charge of committing a violent assault upon the body of Reuben Britton. Pleading not guilty, Moran was held for trial in the same court, Aug. 17, under bonds of $5000, which were not furnished.

At noon today Medical Examiner Jay Perkins performed an autopsy on Britton's body.

CLAYTON WILLIAMS

WANTED ON A CHARGE OF BURGLARY.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

HINGHAM, Mass., Aug. 9.—The police of Hingham and Cohasset are looking for Clayton Williams, a young man employed in Boston, who is wanted on a charge of burglary, the alleged victim of which was Mrs. Baker, the widow of the proprietor of "Elah Baker's Hotel," Jerusalem Road, grandmother of Williams. The amount involved is between $5,000 and $6,000. Mrs. Baker, who is known as an eccentric person, lives alone.

ORDERED TO MANILA.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 9.—The battalion of the Eighth Infantry stationed for several months at Fort Snelling has been ordered to leave Manila with "all possible speed" and the officers expect to be away from here within 48 hours at the latest. While the orders specify Manila, it is generally understood that China will be the actual destination.

FOR SALE—A large boarding house, close to the mills. Will accommodate over 30 boarders. A money making place for the right party. Terms reasonable. Apply 41 Hildreth building.

OLD HOME DAY

Carried Out at Bangor, Me. Today

MANY ATTRACTIONS FOR THE VISITORS

And a Good Time Generally Enjoyed

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 9.—Under Thursday's blazing sun, Bangor celebrated Old Home Day for the first time in her history. The city was visited by people from out of the state and other cities and towns in Maine, and was decorated profusely with flags and bunting.

A band concert was given in Centre park in the forenoon.

At 1 o'clock a floral parade, including 100 decorated rigs, marched through the principal streets of the city.

A large meeting will be held in City hall this evening at which Judge Bartlett Tripp, of Yankton, S. D., a member of the Samoan commission, and ex-Chief Justice John A. Peters will speak.

Among the other distinguished visitors in the city are Governor and Mrs. Powers and staff, Hon. and Mrs. John F. Hill of Augusta, Adjutant-General Richards and staff and the governor's council, with their ladies.

After the evening's exercises in City hall, the Coudeskeag Canoe club will parade in Kenduskeag stream. The Bangor band will be stationed on a float a short distance below the postoffice to furnish music while the gaily illuminated canoes go through intricate evolutions.

The band will also give a concert in Centre park at the close of the indoor exercises.

On Friday the firemen of Maine will have their annual muster in Bangor as the closing Old Home week feature.

MATRIMONIAL

CUMMINGS—HOLMSTEAD.

The wedding ceremony of Frederick Nelson Cummings and Anna Pauline Holmstead took place at the residence of the latter, 125 Fifth avenue, last evening. Rev. Mr. Eckman of the Swedish church officiated. The house was tastefully decorated and presented a very pretty appearance. The flower children were Victor Anderson and Helen Holmstead. The bridesmaids were Ethel Cummings, Emily Pearson, Emma Pearson and Hannah Holmstead. The best man was Francis D. W. Farrell. The groomsmen were Victor Turnquist, Arthur Johnson, Anders Holmstead.

The young couple will make an extended tour in Maine, and will return sometime in September. They will then be at home to their friends at 125 Fifth avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings were the recipients of many beautiful and costly gifts and as they departed they were followed by the hearty good wishes of the assembled guests.

ABUNDANT APPLE CROP.

Farmers in the outskirts who are fortunate in owning orchards which abound in the luscious New England apple, are having a good many less complaints to offer this year than has been the case for some time. It is a well know fact that the cyclist has been responsible for a good deal of the depredations of late years in the country orchards, but so far this year there have been few complaints from this cause. Some of the farmers say that the reason for so few raids on their fruit trees is undoubtedly due to the abundance of the apple crop this year.

NORMAL SCHOOL GRADUATES.

In September next a number of young women, graduates of the Lowell Normal school, will enter the Lawrence Training school to become teachers. Among the number are: The Misses Jennie McConner, Nellie Cooney, Lydia Mahoney, Mary Corkhill, Genevieve McDermott, Mary Hynes and Elizabeth Holland.

STILL UNCONSCIOUS.

Mrs. George H. Knowlton of Chelmsford is still unconscious from the effects of her fall from an electric car last Friday. The attending physicians are confident that she did not sustain a fracture of the skull, and they are hopeful that she will rally from the severe concussion of the brain.

PLEASANT HOUSE PARTY.

There was a pleasant house party yesterday at the home of Mrs. Hibbard, 29 May street, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Smith of White Hall, Ga., who were formerly of Lowell and who are now on their way to Biddeford, Me., to participate in the festivities of home week in that city.

SECOND ANNUAL OUTING.

The Children of Mary sodality connected with St. Peter's church, are holding their annual outing at Willow Dale today and an enjoyable time is being spent in boating, swinging and strolling about.

Special cars left the fair hall at 9 o'clock and on arriving at the grove sports were indulged in, the winners receiving many prizes.

The committee in charge of the event consists of Rev. W. George Mullin chairman; Messrs. John McManiman, and John A. Gately, Misses Rose M. Mulhaney, Mary A. Crowe, Delia Gilty and Anna Kilkenny.

CRICKET MATCHES OFF.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—The international cricket matches between teams representing England and Philadelphia, which were to have been played in this city next month, are off. Captain S. H. Wood of the Derbyshire County team, who has recently been organizing a side to visit the United States, to play a series of international matches in Philadelphia and elsewhere, found he would be unable to secure a sufficiently strong team, and that he was forced to postpone the tour until next year.

A LYNCHER SENTENCED.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PALESTINE, Tex., Aug. 9.—W. B. Brooks has been convicted of being one of the principals in the lynching of James Humphreys and his two sons in Henderson county in May, 1898. He was given a life term in the penitentiary. He is the third man to be convicted of participation in the lynching.

SPECIAL MEETING.

Special meeting of the Holy Name society of the Immaculate Conception church will be held at Y. M. C. I. hall this evening at 7.30 to take action on the death of the late James McCaffrey.

Per order,

JOSEPH H. DALLAGHER, Pres.
PATRICK HALLOWELL, Secy.

ANY LADY can easily make $15 to $25 weekly by representing us in her locality and as the position is both pleasant and profitable the year round. I will gladly send full particulars to all. Even your spare time is valuable and if you really want to make money, address, with 2c. stamp, Mrs. Mary E. Wheeler, 87 Washington street, Chicago, Illinois.

POOLE IS BETTER

He Will Leave Hospital Today

GOING TO SEE GEORGE CHAMPION

Latter Was With Him When Assaulted

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Harold Poole, the young sailor of the lumber schooner Nellie F., who was found in a clump of bushes in the Back Bay fens in an unconscious condition last May, has so far recovered from his injuries that he will be discharged from the city hospital this morning.

Immediately after his discharge, young Poole, accompanied by an officer from police headquarters will go to Alfred, Me., where he will confront George Henry Champion for the purpose of identifying him as his assailant. Champion is held there charged with the quadruple murder committed in West Newfield, Me.

It will be remembered that young Poole was murderously assaulted and robbed of a small sum of money and when the police found him life was nearly extinct. His strong constitution saved his life.

Champion has admitted that he was in company with Poole on the day the young sailor received his wages and left the schooner but he denies being guilty of the assault. As yet Poole does not know of the West Newfield tragedy or of Champion's supposed connection with it. Stories told by both Poole and Champion tally so well up to the time of the assault that Chief Watts has decided to send the to see the prisoner in Maine. He will be accompanied by Capt. Dugan.

BOYS LOST

WERE HIDING WHILE SEARCHERS LOOKED FOR THEM.

Two boys, about 8 years of age, named Charles Kennedy and Christopher Swift, were missing last night from their homes, and searching parties were scouring the woods and adjacent streets until 12 o'clock, without avail. They are the children of Terence Kennedy who lives at the corner of Lakeview avenue and Pleasant street, and Joseph Swift, whose home is in School street, at the Dracut Navy Yard.

A little before 1 o'clock this morning, the children were found under the piazza of Mr. Kennedy's house, where they were hiding when the searching party started out to look for them.

LETTERS SEIZED

FROM LIBERAL MEMBERS TO THE BOERS.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—"There is reason to believe," says the Standard, in reference to the papers found at Pretoria that a communication, signed by certain liberal members and others was sent to President Kruger last September, urging him to conclude a five year franchise without artificial restrictions and assuring him that, if he did so, they would do all they could to assist him in maintaining the independence of the Transvaal. It is believed also that some letters written by Mr. Michael Davitt were seized.

NORTH CHELMSFORD

Mr. Clifford Wheeler, who was injured by being thrown from his bicycle at Wamesit Park Monday afternoon, is getting along nicely and if inflammation does not set in he will be all right in a short while.

Mr. George T. Sheldon of the Chelmsford Foundry company has two fine horses at his stable in this village, "Partoli," one of them is a fine horse and he has a record of 2.19 in a road wagon. The other horse, "Yankee Jack," has a record of 2.15 on the race track, and it will take a pretty fast horse to defeat him. Mr. Sheldon is a fine lover of fast horses and he generally keeps a few excellent trotters in his stables.

There will be many people from this village in attendance at the M. C. O. F. picnic which will be held at Nabnasset Grove Saturday. The running matches and ball game, promise to be interesting.

During the heavy wind Monday evening, one of the tents of a medicine company on the common was blown down.

Mr. Patrick McCluskey will reside in the new house recently erected by John Sherlock in this village.

BAND CONCERT

PAWTUCKETVILLE RESIDENTS ENTERTAINED LAST EVENING.

The new American band, Prof. Burleigh, leader, with Joe Hibbard, P. Larkin, Tony McCarthy and several more local stars as members, gave a band concert in Pawtucketville last evening at the junction of Varnum avenue, Riverside street and Mammoth road. About 2000 people enjoyed the fine programme presented, and officer Fitzgerald had no difficulty in maintaining perfect order. It was the general verdict that the new band is a fine one. The residents of that thickly populated section are now hoping that the city will give one more at new Pawtucketville. The P. A. C. boys agree to find a good place for the band.

A DIFFERENT GEORGE.

The boy named George Reynolds arrested with others last week for stealing money is not George H. Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds of 29 Smith street.

HE INHALED GAS

Geo. Woods Found Dead in Lodging House

LETTER FOUND IN HIS POCKET

Advised Him to Lead a Better Life

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—A man suposed to be George Woods committed suicide by inhaling gas at a Shawmut avenue lodging house today.

The man engaged a room yesterday. Gas was found to be escaping from Woods' room and he was found on the bed, dead. He had removed the burner from the gas jet and the window was closed.

The man was 23 years old. In one of his pockets was a letter addressed simply "George Woods" and signed with initials. The writer upbraided him for the life he was leading and advised him to turn over a new leaf. There was no address on either envelope or letter.

LAWN PARTY

GIVEN BY MRS. PAUL BISCORNET.

A very pretty lawn party was held last evening at the Colbrian house Merrimack street by Mrs. Paul Biscornet. The lawn was brilliantly decorated with Japanese lanterns and the general effect of the grounds was on of great beauty. Elrey's orchestra was in attendance and furnished music for dancing on the green which was much enjoyed.

During the evening there was a cake-walk executed in a very taking way by two little girls Ola Biscornet and Hattie Lewis who were really experts in that line. Light refreshments were served during the evening.

LOTS OF GOL D

WAS BROUGHT FROM CAPE NOME YESTERDAY.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 9.—Three steamers from Cape Nome arrived yesterday, all bringing gold and large number of passengers. The Oregon brought $345,000—the largest consignment of Nome gold since the discovery of treasure in that district; the San Pedro brought about $150,000, and the Charles D. Lane $50,000.

A better condition of affairs is reported in the northern camp. Smallpox is said to have entirely disappeared, though there is still much sickness, mostly pneumonia. Recent rains have made work on the creeks possible and numerous new discoveries are reported. Rich bench claims have been located on Anvil and Dexter creeks and it is now believed that winter work can be carried on.

Jafer Lindenberg, the Anvil creek operator, has started out with a prospecting party for Norton Sound. He claimed to have positive knowledge of a rich district but declined to give out information.

The Revenue tug Meteor recently returned from a cruise along the coast visiting Eskimo villages for the purpose of relieving suffering among natives. Many deaths have occurred among Eskimos and the condition of nearly al of the survivors is said to be pitiable. Nine-two of them were brought by the tug to Nome, where they have been provided with tents and such comforts as are possible, and their sick are being treated under the supervision of the government.

BAILEY FAMILY

EIGHTH ANNUAL REUNION AT SALEM WILLOWS YESTERDAY.

The eighth reunion of the Bailey family who are descendants of Thomas Bailey of Salisbury and Richard Bailey of Newburyport was held yesterday at Salem Willows.

At the business meeting in the afternoon the following officers were elected: President, Edwin A. Bayley, Lexington; vice presidents, G. E. Bailey, Mansfield; Horace W. Bailey, Newburyport; Milton Ellsworth, Rowley; Col. E. W. M Bailey, Amesbury; W. H. Reed South Weymouth; treasurer James L. Bailey, Lawrence; secretary, Hollis R. Bailey, Boston; auditor, Walter E. Noble, Waltham; executive committee, the foregoing officers ex officio and John Alfred Bailey, Lowell; Edwin H. Bailey, Boston; Dr. Stephen G. Bailey, Lowell; Harrison Bailey, Fitchburg; Mrs. Edwin H. Bailey, Ashland, J. Whitman, Boston; Charles T. Bailey, Lawrence; George M. Bailey, Lynn. The president in his annual report referred to several of the names of Bailey who in America or England had attained sufficient prominence to have their names inserted in the several encyclopedias and among the number being James R. Bailey the "Danbury News man," Gen. Bailey of New York, Rear Admiral Bailey and Nathan Bailey, the lexicographer, who published a dictionary in 1721.

Brief addresses were delivered by Hon. William D. Northend and Dr. Alfred Poor of Salem. Tributes were paid to the memory of Samuel G. Bailey of Andover and John Colby Pace. During the meeting there was singing by Mrs. Eben H. Bailey of Boston.

NOT INSANE.

Judge Harmon of the Essex county probate court has decided that John W. Hutchinson, the octogenarian vocalist, well known to old residents of Lowell, who was here on last Old Home Day, is not insane and not in need of a guardian.

Goods the Same, Prices Lower, That's All.

Here are a few samples of the bargains we are now offering in Ladies' Shoes:

$2.50 Black Vici Kid Oxfords, kid tips, now . $1.69
$2.50 Black Vici Kid Oxfords, patent tips, now $1.69
$3.50 Black Vici Kid Boots, Goodyear welt, now $2.39
$1.50 Black Dongola Oxfords, now . . . $1.19
$1 Children's Tan Boots, sizes 8 1-2 to 10 1-2 79c.
$1 Tan Oxfords, now . . . . . . 89c.
$1.50 Tan Juliets, now $1.19

BURBANK & COURTNEY, 110 and 112 Merrimack Street.
TELEPHONE 836-13.

HERE YOU SEE THE SUMMER GIRL IN SPORTIVE MOOD.

HEAVY WHITE PIQUE DRESSES ARE WORN WITH JACKETS TO MATCH, TRIMMED WITH LARGE PEARL BUTTONS.

PICTURE GOWNS NOW THE STYLE.

The Quaint Fashions of the Earlier Part of the Century Have Been Revived Charmingly.

LACE COATS ARE IN STYLE.

Paris, June 23.—Were you to spend an hour at any of the little shore resorts, where fashionable folk congregate during the heated term, you would decide that fashions had turned toward the picturesque, not slightly but with a vigor that left no doubt of their intention.

Revivals are always picturesque and the resurrection of the sleeve of 1840 leaves nothing to be desired in point of artistic and antique beauty. And so with the Watteau sleeves; in fancy you see those wonderful Shepherdesses with their crooks, stalking after their well behaved sheep, while their marvelously graceful garments never lost as much as a fold or a tint, by the exposure and the broiling sun

Since the fancy for the tight waisted gown departed all women look alike in figure. There is no strong point of distinctivity between the lean and the fat; the hour glass waist has departed and with it went the awful meal bag figure. The box fronted corset has taken the place of the tight waisted one and the figures of women have benefitted.

The best ladies' tailors do not advise the box corset but prefer a rather straight one that can be well pulled down in front, leaving the bust high above it. Over this can be drawn the jointed waist, and the result is better than in the perfectly straight box front which, if anything, made the waist a trifle too large.

The particular novelty of the moment is the summer coat. It leaves shoulders warm but the nature is cool. The little coats are made of lace, of tulle, of muslin insertion, of ruched taffeta and net. The object of the thin little coat is to give the finish which a coat always gives a gown and to take away the shirt waisted appearance of the toilette. One of these little coats was cut in blazer fashion, with the fronts well open and finished at points caught together by a lace strap. The sleeves were rudimentary affairs with only the tiniest lace epaulettes upon the shoulder. The entire little garment was of net lace, bordered with silk embroidery, and figured with appliques of silk.

Another of these delightfully novel little coats was of white embroidered taffeta, cut bolero style, with very tight fitting sleeves to the elbow; the front was fastened by a bow of black tulle with a buckle in the middle.

One that was much admired was of white pique, cut cadet fashion, with two tiny points extending below the belt line. The front was slashed to make a very effective finish, for, through the slashed front, could be drawn the ends of the big bow which was worn at the throat.

Nothing could exceed the picturesque beauty of the neck bow which, since it has reached such proportions, is known by many names the most popular of which is the "chiffon." One of the most decorative of these chiffons consists of a strip of heavy lace net embroidered in black silk, with scalloped ends. This is brought around the neck, tied under the chin, and so disposed that the ends fall nearly to the foot of the skirt in front. They are held in place so that they do not float in the wind with the straps that confine the little blazer coat.

It is very chic to draw your streamers through your strappings to keep them from that blow-away appearance so noticeable when long veils were worn a few seasons ago. For these long neck arrangements all kinds of thin materials are employed, tulle and gauze net taking the lead. The manner of arrangement, too, is varied, but the fashionable milliners who sell the chiffons along with the hats advise the big bow under the chin with its long ends.

Attention once more concentrates upon the bodice which is as varied as possible. It is the two-part bodice with blouse and jacket both as delicately fashioned as possible. The blouse, as all bodices are now called by the modistes, is again sub-divided and has its own vest.

THE LITTLE VEST.

Vests are delightfully fancy. They are made of washable goods and are carried out in piece lace and satin ribbon, white being the best color. For a vest nothing is so serviceable and as fashionable as the strip of fine embroidery with its band of satin ribbon alternating with the embroidery. They set the bands in the vest diagonally, a band of ribbon and a strip of lace. They also made the vest in pointed design, the points exactly in front. Striped material of the exquisitely thin summer goods is used and to accentuate the point a pointed yoke is outlined with a narrow ruffle.

A very simple yoke can be made of figured mull. The middle of the front is shirred at intervals of three inches and a band of black velvet is fastened across the shirring. The ends of the velvet may be finished by a tiny buckle.

In bodices many new materials are seen; it would seem as though the supply were inexhaustible. Just as you think you have seen every variety of new goods, behold you find something that is a novelty. The manufacturers have been turning out new designs all summer and the dealers have had a constantly renewed supply. The trend is still toward the very thin goods made for bodice purposes, over a heavier material.

Among the most elegant of the new fabrics are those of ochre guipure over a silk lining, or of white or cream silk over which sprays of flowers are painted in water-colors. This last style is the latest cry of fashion, but unless you paint the flowers yourself it is an extremely expensive one. Your correspondent has seen white taffeta over which a few sprays of roses or lilies were painted, sold for four or five guineas as a yard, which certainly seems rather extravagant. For half the price and less, you can have the most beautiful crepe-de-Chine in the softest shades of color, and the most lovely Venetian point over faille or peau-de-soie.

THE SOFT SILKS.

Soft silks, such as ecllenne or bengaline, also make up extremely pretty blouses, and silk crepon is particularly suitable for the purpose. So much for dressy blouses; simpler ones are made of fancy delaine, or better still at the present season of washing materials, such as pique, zephyr, cambric, and batiste.

One of the prettiest novelties of the summer is fancy batiste, with patterns simulating narrow tucks or open-work insertion. The tucks and open-work designs, carefully clustered and arranged, form a variety of patterns particularly suitable to the purpose.

As to trimmings for skirts and waists embroidery still reigns supreme, but this season's embroideries in no wise resemble those of last year, or even last winter. There are a variety of new styles. One of the newest and most unique is that formed of "paillettes" of various materials, chiefly pique, fancy tiny circles resembling "confetti," of white or colored pique, cut out by machine. These circles are employed just like paillettes, being fastened on either by one stitch in the middle, or by being sewn on one side only at the edge, so as to be able to be raised up on the off side and overlap other similar circles.

Very effective patterns are thus composed, and not only of pique, but also of cloth, silk, velvet, or panne; felt, of course, only materials of a firm texture can be employed in this way, otherwise the edges would fray, besides unbecomingly fluffed. Cloth and velvet paillettes combined make up extremely pretty patterns of flowers in pale tints. The leaves and stems which complete the patterns are worked in fine silk cord, chenille, or very narrow fancy silk ribbons of several shades of color, and sometimes in open work patterns.

Some of these balloons are plain, and some waved; most of them can be made to turn and twist at pleasure by merely drawing a thread let in at one edge for the purpose.

Ancient Medical Recipes.

A famous English Egyptologist has discovered that many of the queer medical recipes found in old English and German books come from the ancient Egyptians. They were not known to the Greeks, but were spread from Salerno, the great medical school of the Middle Ages, to which they must have come through Coptic and Arabic translations.

Mock Gems.

It is no longer considered an error against taste to wear mock gems under certain conditions—namely, set in buckles for the waist belt or neck ribbon, as well as to ornament hats and bonnets with them. The shops in which this simile jewelry is shown make the most gorgeous displays and the designs are often uncommonly good, being generally copied from Louis XV. or Louis XVI. models.

THE CAMPAIGN AS A WOMAN SEES IT.

By Mary Baird Bryan.

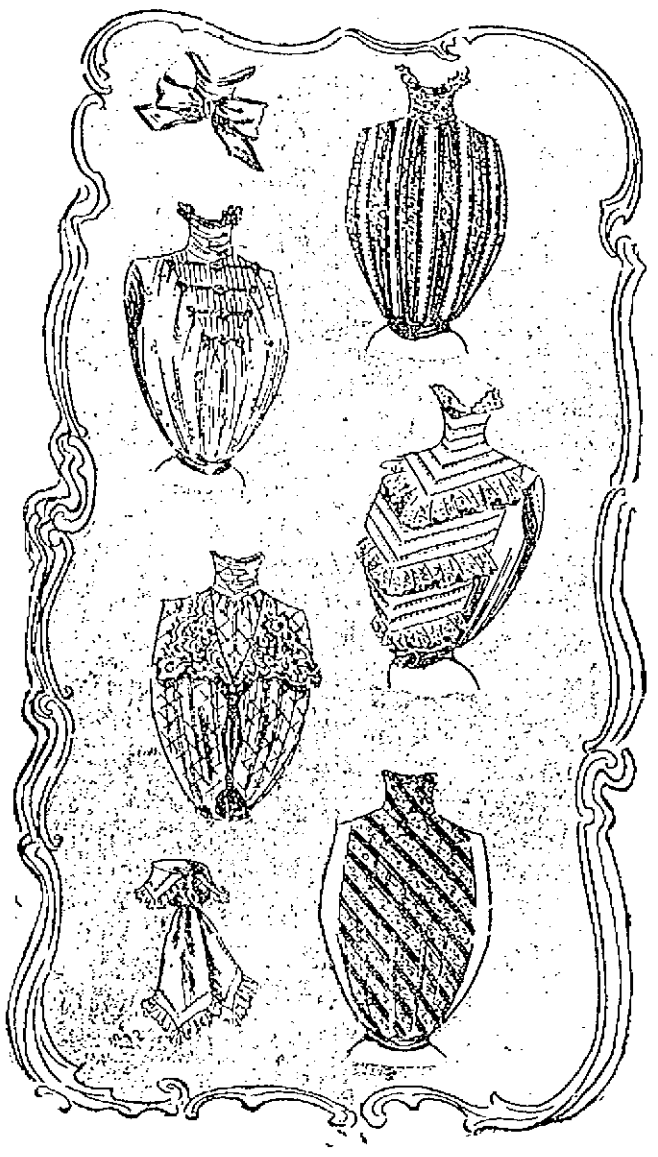

There is an excellent reason which keeps me from giving a detailed account of the journeys made during the last campaign. To rise with the lark, and sometimes even earlier; to eat meals upon the instalment plan; to receive local committees, and in turn be received by several thousand people daily, and to retire late, do not leave a great deal of time for meditation or for the keeping of a diary. I cannot, then, speak in detail, because I do not remember the campaign in that way.

It takes no acute observation to find that certain elements in all crowds are the same. We came to expect these types in every gathering and were not disappointed. They grew to be old friends. The man who has not voted for twenty years; the man who has vowed that he will shake the candidate's hand, and who does it at all hazards; the man who voted for Jackson; the man who exhorts the speaker to "hit 'em again," and the man who voted for Lincoln but is "going to scratch his ticket this year" are some of the faithful.

But the greatest of these, the same in all climates and sections, in city and in country, nothing, energetic and omnipresent, is the American small boy. So much has been written of him that it seems folly to add my words of mention of him. He was first to greet us at every station, running far down the track to meet the train, and whether his mission was to shout for the nominee, or to inform him that he was "in the soup" and "no good," the work was always done with neatness and dispatch.

From freight cars and engines, from roofs of depots, from trees and fences, his shrill little voice could be distinguished through any din. If the candidate failed to appear as soon as the train stopped, pushing and scrambling went on outside. Strong little hands clutched the window frames and dirty faces peered in. "Why don't he come out?" "Say, I played hooky to see him;" "Which is him?" "Where is he at?" "I say, there, come out," were some of the phrases belonging to such occasions.

But with all his apparent loyalty to principle, I discovered that this youth is full of guile. I have seen him more than once slip off his yellow badge and hide it in order to get a button from my hand. At other times he has shouted long and loud for "honest money," and fought the next minute to secure a flower from my bouquet.

The new soft fronts for blazers and reefers are made of a variety of pretty goods. These fronts can be worn not only with summer dresses but will fall gowns until very late in the autumn. You can see from these pictures exactly how the little fronts are fashioned.

MRS. BRYAN.

But with all these little tricks peculiar to boyhood, he was a pleasing factor in the campaign. Faithful to the last, he ran after the train until he was exhausted. I found great amusement in dropping apples of discord, looking strangely like carnelian buttons, along the track and watching the exciting contests which followed. More than once did I fervently wish that all this wealth of energy and push may be directed in paths of sobriety and good citizenship. Our country needs no other safeguard.

To my mind, night meetings rank first in point of effectiveness. The small space saved from the grasp of darkness by blazing torches, the sharp outlines, the ghost-like flutter of banners in the twilight rim of the crowd, the intensity of sound which comes with the night, combine to make an impressive scene.

I recall with especial pleasure one picture in our reception at Cleveland, Ohio. The time of our coming was particularly opportune, namely, at the early twilight. Before us rose a massive arch, seemingly a bit of ancient Rome transplanted for our pleasure. This effect was heightened by the soldiers' monument at our right whose tall shaft in the uncertain light did duty as the column of Trajan. Crowded upon its pedestal and at its base, filling streets, windows and even trees, was a multitude of cheering people, while thousands of flags waved us a gentle welcome. I cite this, one of many instances, to show that the artistic sense may find gratification even in a campaign.

Among the more unusual features may be mentioned the interest taken by women. This activity was not confined to any one party, but was found everywhere. Personally, I am glad the women were aroused. This movement does not involve the question of woman suffrage.

For several years I have felt that home is the place to make good citizens. When the women of our land have a knowledge of the way our Government is administered, and can give the child an intelligent answer to his questions, the child will take an interest and pride in his future citizenship. When husband and wife discuss at home the acts of our legislatures and the effect of laws upon the people, there will be less of successful lobbying by corporations and railroads.

When families look into the advantages of municipal ownership of lighting and water plants; when they study the practical workings of these reforms as seen in European cities, there will be changes in municipal government. A knowledge along these lines makes a woman a better wife and mother and trains young people to prize our institutions.

As the athletic girl has superseded the timid weakling of a few years ago, is it too much to hope that a thorough knowledge of our Government may soon be considered as essential as any branch of her education?

TWO OF THE NEWEST AND PRETTIEST HATS OF LATE SUMMER.

The embroidered bolero is caught in the middle of the front with a big soft bow of tulle in the middle of which is a buckle of gold; there are many varieties of shape in these new jackets, all of which have their commendable features. Hats are made to match them in color and material.

The Sea Maiden.

She Will Wear a Fitted Skirt With Pointed Waist and Big Sailor Collar.

The size of the waist of the sea maiden has increased many inches since last summer. The new French figure demands that the bodice be brought down to a very low point in front, at least three inches below the old beltline, though no lower in the back. This makes the waist much larger, but gives it a beautiful curve much admired by artists.

The ideal material for the seashore is wool. Let it be light-weight cashmere, or challie, or the many thin novelty wools, whatever may be their kind or nature there is nothing that is as comfortable by the sea as wool.

A plain skirt with flounces for depth of six or eight inches around the foot, or with wide flounces twice that depth is sure to be in style this season. The waist may be ever so simple a blouse to be worn over a shirt waist of any colored mull or muslin.

They are wearing little silk vests under these blouses and are tying ribbons at the front of the blouse to match the vest.

Charming little cutaway jackets are now made with open front and scalloped edges. They are worn with the very long fichu of lace tied in a big bow under the chin, with ends hanging nearly to the floor. Embroidered lace is used for both the jacket and the fichu. A perfectly plain gown needs no other ornaments than these.

ON VACCINATION

Doctors Diagree as to Its Usefulness

MODERN METHODS OF DISINFECTION

In Use by Local Health Department

In an interesting communication in Tuesday's Sun Dr. A. Thompson comes out against the wholesale practice of vaccination, stating that it will not stop disease and calling for the more general use of carbolic acid for fumigating purposes on the ground that it is a far more effective preventive of small-pox than vaccination.

The communication has attracted considerable attention among physicians and one of them, a firm believer in vaccination, in discussing the matter with The Sun reporter said: "The question of vaccination is one upon which medical authorities disagree. Some believe in it; others do not. For instance Chairman Packer of the board of health and Dr. A. Thompson are of the same school of medicine, homeopathic. Dr. Packer believes in wholesale vaccination and Dr. Thompson does not believe in it at all. So there you are."

Dr. Thompson in his contention for the use of carbolic acid writes: "In 1871, experience told us that the fumes of carbolic acid would prevent another case breaking out, even if there were a dozen persons in the house where a real case of small-pox had been treated from beginning to end. It is a part of my experience. The epidemic was only stopped, then, after the city brought this acid into general use as they would a cologne, I used it in a dozen families or more, when I found a case, and a second case did not occur. Why not use so economical a factor, instead of forcing people into a submission to what is so revolting to them? I know the acid to be infinitely superior to vaccination as a preventive."

The Sun reporter asked Agent Knapp what disinfectants are in use by the board of health department and he replied: "Formaldehyd gas and sulphur dioxide." The reporter then looked up "Formaldehyd gas." The American Public Health association recently sent out in pamphlet form a Lowel Prize Essay written by George M. Sternbrig, M. D., L.L.D., Surgeon-General of the U. S. Army, on the subject of "Disinfection and Individual Prophylaxis Against Infectious Diseases."

The article opens as follows: "It will be our aim in the present chapter to give reliable, practical directions with reference to the use of disinfectants, and the best methods of disinfection. Keeping this object in view, we shall recommend for disinfecting purposes only those agents named in the following list:

1. Fire.
2. Steam under pressure (20 pounds).
3. Boiling water.
4. Formaldehyd gas.
6. Chloride of lime (in solution).
6. Mercuric chlorid (in solution).
7. Carbolic acid (5 per cent. solution).
8. Caustic lime ("quicklime").
9. Dry heat (230 degrees Fahr for two hours).
10. Sulphur dioxid.
11. Copper sulphate (in solution).
12. Zinc chlorid (in solution).

All of these agents, properly used, are effective for the destruction of the "germs" of the following named diseases: Tuberculosis, diphtheria, typhoid fever, yellow fever, cholera, small-pox, measles, pneumonia, epidemic influenza erysipelas, hog cholera, chicken cholera, some plague, infectious pleuro-pneumonia of cattle, and in general, of all infectious diseases in which the specific germ does not form spores. The four agents at the head of the list may also be relied upon for the destruction of the spores of anthrax, tetanus and symptomatic anthrax.

Thus it may be seen that the local health board uses a disinfectant which eminent medical authority places several points ahead of carbolic acid.

The essay then refers to formaldehyd gas as follows: "Since the first edition of this 'prize essay' was published (in 1886) the most valuable addition to our knowledge of disinfecting agents has been the discovery of the germicidal action of formaldehyd, and this gas is now largely used for the disinfection of clothing, hospital wards, etc., as a substitute for steam or for sulphur dioxid. But like these agents its action is superficial and it cannot be depended upon for the disinfection of mattresses, pillows, rolls of clothing or bedding, etc., as is the case with chlorine and sulphur dioxid. Its germicidal power is increased by the presence of moisture and by a high temperature. Formaldehyd gas is irritating to the mucous membrane of the eyes and nose, but it is not poisonous.

Thus, since the epidemic of Dr. Thompson's time, science has discovered new agents, and where once carbolic acid was the great disinfectant, it is now only one of many.

Don't miss that five-mile pursuit race between Caril, Ingraham, Keegan and Hamilton—Saturday.

RECRUITS EXAMINED.

Major Dow of Wakefield was at the state armory last night and examined five applicants for admission to Co. C.

—CANDY—

ESCULETTS

CURE PILES

and all rectal disorders, or money refunded. Pleasant. No Physic. A radical cure, 50c at

Goodale's Drug Store,
Joseph W. Litch,
Albert L. Field,
A. F. Story & Co.,
Carter & Sherburn,
Geo. C. Osgood, M.D.,
O. L. Field,
Fails & Perkinshaw,
East Merrimack Drug Store,
Harry L. Timmons,
C. E. Carter,
Harrison Lake.

IF YOU SEE A

well dressed man's foot, the chances are it wears the "Contenta" $3 shoe. Greatest shoe value in this world or any other world. Made to fit people. For sale only by

GEO. E. MONCEAU,
452 Merrimack St.

JOHN W. McEVOY

Counsellor-at-Law

And Public Administrator.

137 Central Street. Tel. 639-4

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

There was a meeting of the Mathew Temperance Institute in the M.T.I. hall Tuesday evening. Final arrangements were made for the picnic that they intend to hold next Saturday at Canobie Lake. The matter of the time and method of opening up the fall season was also discussed at some length.

STAR OF LOWELL CIRCLE.

Two candidates were initiated at the meeting of Star of Lowell Circle C. of F. Tuesday evening. Three names were proposed for membership and other matters of routine business were transacted.

GARFIELD COLONY.

Garfield Colony of the Pilgrim Fathers held its regular meeting Tuesday evening. The picnic committee reported that the outing would take place at the Salem Willows Labor Day.

FORESTERS' GROWTH.

The report from the Foresters for the quarter ending June 30 shows the order to be in a very flourishing condition. There has been an increase in membership of 1840 persons and six new courts have been formed. There will be seven more new courts formed within the month.

S. H. HINES LODGE.

Nothing but regular business was transacted at the meeting of S. H. Hines Lodge, Knightes of Pythias, Tuesday evening. The lodge will be more active when fall arrives.

COURT SAMUEL DE CHAMPLAIN.

There was a meeting of Court General Champlain, Foresters, in Foresters' hall Tuesday evening. Regular business was attended to.

LEXINGTON COUNCIL.

There was a meeting of Lexington Council of the American Mechanics in Union hall Tuesday evening. Routine matters of business were transacted.

LINCOLN LODGE.

Lincoln Lodge held its regular meeting Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. Matters of regular routine business occupied most of the evening.

LOWELL COMMANDERY.

A regular business meeting of Lowell Commandery, Knights of Malta, was held Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. Routine business was transacted and candidates were nominated for the election which takes place at the next meeting.

DAUHTERS OF LIBERTY.

A basket picnic will be held at the residence of Mrs. P. F. Brett, 30 Dutton street, this afternoon and evening, Aug. 9th, by the members of the Daughters of Liberty.

OBERLIN LODGE.

Oberlin Lodge of Odd Fellows held a regular meeting Tuesday evening. Nothing of much importance was done.

NEPTUNE LODGE.

Neptune lodge will entertain the past wardens of the New England Order of Protection of Massachusetts, at Odd Fellows' temple, this evening.

CALEDONIAN CLUB.

Tuesday night the Caledonian club made final arrangements for a picnic on Saturday. Special train leaves Middlesex street depot at 2 o'clock. It was voted to open rooms about first meeting after Labor Day with a smoke talk. Three new members and twelve applications were received.

J. P. MAXFIELD CIRCLE.

Tuesday night J. P. Maxfield circle, G. A. R., held one initiation. Mrs. Rolfe of Chicago addressed the meeting in brief, telling of its flourishing condition in the west.

EIRENE LODGE.

There was a meeting of Eirene lodge, Good Templars, in Pilgrim hall last evening. Matters of routine were disposed of.

ORDER OF PROTECTION.

The three lodges of the New England Order of Protection will entertain Thursday evening at Odd Fellows' temple Middlesex street. A trolley party of 100 members of the Past Wardens association of Massachusetts is coming from Boston.

SPINDLE CITY CIRCLE.

Last night Spindle City circle, No. 19, F. of A., held five initiations and received four propositions.

UNITED WORKMEN.

Last night Lowell lodge, No. 22 A. O. U. W., held two initiations and received two propositions. E. E. Trefry, deputy G. M. W. from Andover, gave a stirring address. A partially debated new matter of mutual interest will be decided upon at the next meeting.

SPINDLE CITY CIRCLE.

Four candidates were initiated at the meeting of Spindle City Circle, Companions of the Forest last evening. There were also five names proposed for membership also. A very interesting address was listened to by Deputy Burns of Lawrence.

CENTRALVILLE LODGE.

The regular meeting of Centralville lodge, I. O. O. F., was held in their hall last evening. Nothing outside the regular order of business was done. The lodge will be more active when the fall season commences.

MECHANICS' LODGE.

The regular meeting of Mechanics' lodge, I. O. O. F., was held in Odd Fellows' hall last evening. Matters of routine business were transacted.

EMULUS THOMPSON COMMANDERY.

Emulus Thompson Commandery, Golden Cross, held its regular meeting last evening in Union hall. Most of the evening was occupied by routine business.

CROSSED WIRES.

The office of the Erie Telephone and Teleghaph company suffered from another fire by crossed wires last night. Only two wires were affected, and no damage to the building was done.

SYRUP OF FIGS

Acts Pleasantly and Promptly.

Cleanses the System Gently and Effectually when bilious or costive.

Presents in the most acceptable form the laxative principles of plants known to act most beneficially.

TO GET ITS BENEFICIAL EFFECTS

BUY THE GENUINE — MANF'D. BY

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

For sale by druggists – price 50¢ per bottle.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

Everybody needs a stomach tonic occasionally to keep the bowels regular. For this purpose, as well as for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Liver and Kidney Disorders, there is nothing to equal the Bitters.

THE FINEST

BREAD .·. CAKE and PASTRY

to be found in the city, at

PETER WATSON'S Home Made Bakeries,

52 to 60 Charles St.,
46 Lawrence St.

Lawn Party, Picnic and Wedding Supplies a Specialty.

ONLY 24 of our Cold Blast Refrigerators left out of 200 this season. When these are gone we're through. We will close these out at cost price.

75 Iron Beds, regular price $5.00,

Sale Price $3.75

100 Sumatra Rugs, 30x60, going at

$1 Each

24 Art Squares, regular price $6.36,

Sale Price $3.75

JOHN T. CARTER'S,

Great Bargain Furniture Store.

511 Middlesex Street.

Call at once and get the plums.

W. A. LEW, 49 John St.
CLOTHING CLEANED DYED AND PRESSED

ROOFING AND CONCRETING.

Now is the time to stop the leaks in your roof. Estimates on roofing and concreting cheerfully furnished. All work guaranteed. Telephone 208-4.

JAMES WALSH, 156 Highland Ave Lowell

THOUSANDS ARE DYING ...

In India for want of food. We are DYEING every day and giving new life to all FABRICS brought to the

Bay State Dye House

84 PRESCOTT STREET.

All Orders Promptly Attended to.
Tel. 821-4.

IF YOU LOOK IN OUR WINDOWS

You will find that we keep the best Stock of Jewelry in the city of Lowell.

Our Prices will suit you.

J. A. LEGAULT & CO.,

Reliable Jewelers,

70 Central St., cor. Prescott.

NORTH BILLERICA

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ormrod have returned from their wedding tour.

No trace has yet been found of Miss Edith Lowe.

Miss Nellie Johnson and Miss Irene Roberts of Woodstock, Vt., are guests of Mr. L. N. Cummings, East Billerica.

Mr. Ernest Towle, Ed. Flanegan and Edw. Costello attended the John Doherty's picnic at Lynn yesterday.

Our genial Postmaster Maxwell went to Nantasket ... yesterday and is said to have hypnotized a mermaid.

It is reported that ... have electric lights on Swinton avenue.

ALLAN LINE.

NEW YORK TO GLASGOW

Via Londonderry.

STATE OF NEBRASKA . AUG. 4
LAURENTIAN . . . . . AUG. 18
SARDINIAN . . . . . . AUG. 25

First Cabin, $50.00 and upwards. Second Cabin, $35.00; Return, $60.00; Steerage, $23.50; Prepaid, $21.00. Steerage passengers from Boston allowed first-class fare to New York, via Fall River Line, free of charge. For descriptive circulars, plans of steamers and other information, apply to H. & A. Allan, 92 State street, Boston, Mass., or

Dennis J. Murphy, 18 Appleton St

TAYLOR ROOFING CO.

Now is the time when patrons can get a low figure. Be sure and get their prices on your job. Grand roofing done in the best possible manner. All work warranted. Taylor Roofing Co., 140 Humphrey street. Telephone.

Nicholas G. Norcross

... INSURANCE ...

53 Central St., Lowell.

BUILDING SITES

—ON THE—

EMERY LAND

New plot of land on the east side of Moody street now ready. There are some very choice lots in this plot of land, first come, first choice. Places, prices and terms at the office.

Low Prices. Easy Terms. Warranty Deeds.

Office open forenoons and evenings. On the land every afternoon. A. J. Ryan, Agent, 1 Hildreth building.

VAUDEVILLE

Town Hall, Billerica,

Friday, August 10, 1900

AT 8 P. M.,

IN AID OF THE SAILORS' HAVEN

46 Water St., Charlestown, Mass.

PROGRAM.

1. Mr. S. H. King, Supt. Sailors' Haven.
2. Duet.....Miss Lyons and Miss Hosmer
3. Monologue and Coon Songs
Mr. George Clifford.
4. Reading .... Mr. Staley
5. Song ....Miss Marion Manola
6. Buck and Wing Dancing .
Mr. Ed. Scanlon.
7. Song .... Mr. Beck
8. Bicycle Feats ......Mr. Caspar Brown
9. Song .... Miss Marion Manola
10. A Magic Mirror.

Admission 25c, Reserved seats 50c

Secure your ticket early and join with us in our efforts for the seamen.

HEIGHT OF THE

Blackberry Season

Selling Now For

8c. TO 10c. PER BOX.

Currants are very scarce on the market, but we are selling them at the low price of

5c. to 8c. Per Box.

There are a few Goose Berries left for 8c. to 10c. a box. Black Currants, 10c.

BLUEBERRIES are at their height now, 10c. to 12c.

GEORGIA PEACHES are very plentiful, at 15c. per dozen, 2 doz. for 25c.

NEW NATIVE APPLES, 5c. to 8c. per quart.

NATIVE POTATOES are becoming very scarce, but we are still selling them for 20c. to 25c. per peck.

SPRING CHICKEN, 15c. to 25c. per lb.

FOWL, 12 1-2c. to 15c. per lb.

You can find these and every other line that goes to make a complete meat, grocery, poultry and fish department store.

BANNER MARKET

Grocery and Butter House,

68 to 74 Prescott St.

OPEN EVENINGS..............Tel. 3-1.

Only a Few More Days

... OF ...

GREAT CLEARANCE SALE AT 44 BRIDGE STREET

Only this week until Saturday, August 11, we will continue to

SACRIFICE OUR STOCK OF SKIRTS,

SHIRT WAISTS, JACKETS, TAILOR-MADE SUITS AND MILLINERY at the lowest prices ever heard of in the city. Come everybody to get a bargain in anything for a memory of the GREAT SALE AT 44 BRIDGE ST., Near Merrimack Square.

HAVE YOU ORDERED YOUR COAL?

If not you should do so while it is at the present low price. We have the kind that will suit you.

D. T. SULLIVAN, 984 Gorham Street

Branch Office, 227 Central St. Telephone.

WANTED.

AGENTS WANTED— $5 to $10 daily easily made by our live agents, men or women, selling our latest novelty, Campaign Waterproof neckties. Goods entirely new and patented. Agents delighted. Sales unlimited. What others do, you can do. Time is short. Write today and secure exclusive territory. Guaranteed best seller. Address, with stamp, M. & M. Manf. Co, Dept. C, Springfield, Mass.

WANTED—House girl, middle aged lady preferred. 15 Lenten court, off Charles street.

WANTED—A dressmaker. Call at A. Israel, 15 Westford street.

WANTED—Second hand safe. Send description as to size, make, etc., to P. O. Box 76.

WANTED—A table girl at 159 Appleton street.

WANTED—An experienced table girl and kitchen girl at once. Call at 57 Hancock street, Mass. Corp.

WANTED—Two girls to attend tables in a coffee house. Address 142 Market street, Olympia Coffee House.

WANTED—At once, a kitchen girl at 63 Fifth street.

WANTED—Good cook in private family. Apply at 41 Butterfield street.

WANTED—A local man to sell a few thousand shares in a first class copper mine which is now shipping ore. Address all communication to C. P. Russ, Haverhill, Mass.

SITUATION wanted in a meat and provision market or grocery, wholesale or retail. Six years experience. Inquire 54 Lee street.

SALESMEN wanted for Lowell to introduce staple specialties as a side line; party calling on architects, builders, owners of fine buildings, etc., preferred; this is a fine opportunity and a hustler can add several hundred dollars yearly to his income. Address "615 Drexel Building," Philadelphia, Pa.

WANTED—A table girl in private boarding house. Apply at Sun Office.

WANTED—By a young lady, a position in an office. Would do writing. Good references. Address O., Sun Office.

WANTED—An experienced girl would like position in a bakery or candy store. Good references. Address B., Sun Office.

WANTED—A kitchen girl at 179 Middlesex street.

WANTED—Three smart, capable men, French and English. Salary $12 per week. Short hours. See Mr. Lord, Room 41, Hildreth Building.

WANTED—Boys to learn the drug business. Apply to A. W. Dows & Co.

WANTED—Young man of ability and good appearance to canvass for life insurance. Room 31, Hildreth Building.

WANTED—A good cook at 1 and 2 Merrimack corporation.

WANTED—Pastry cook and table girl at Mrs. Varlan's, 56 to 64 Lee street.

WANTED—House cleaning and washing of all kinds. Address 151 Charles street.

WANTED—Boarders at 37 Walker street.

WANTED—First class cap spindle grinder. Apply to William S. Spofford & Son, Providence, R. I.

WANTED—Experienced man who thoroughly understands the manufacturing and finishing of cotton hosiery. Apply, stating references and wages, to Vesta Knitting Mills, Providence, R. I.

WANTED—Man to work at vegetable farming. H. W. Foster, Andover street.

AGENTS—"Hat Bleach" cleans straw hats in five minutes; greatest seller out; sample 10c; write today. Hat Bleach Co., Xenia, O.

WANTED—A young girl wishes a situation as seamstress; can cut and fit; Apply 4 James street, Boott corporation.

Boston & Maine R. R.

Corrected to June 25, 1900. Trains leave Merrimack Street Depot, Lowell, as follows:

For Boston, 5.43, 6.22, c6.42, *7.45, *8.55, c9.15, *9.40, 11.00 a. m.; 1.40, c3.00, 4.25, c5.14 p. m. SUNDAYS, 9.45 a. m.

Trains leave Middlesex Street Station, Lowell, as follows:

For Boston, 5.46, 6.23, *6.39, c6.45, w6.50, 7.01, *7.27, 7.31, *7.18, c7.50, w*8.00, *8.57, c9.19, w9.25, *9.50, w10.50, 11.03, *11.32 a. m.; w12.05, 12.16, w12.15, 1.41, *1.57, w2.25, w3.19, c3.03, *3.47, w3.55, *4.02, 4.28, w5.15, 6.22, c6.19, w6.15, *6.22, 7.09, *7.19, 8.44, w9.29 p. m. SUNDAYS, 6.39, 7.27, 8.45, 9.17 a. m.; 12.05, 4.05, 4.25, 5.55, 8.45 p. m.

For Lawrence and Haverhill, 6.23, w6.50, z7.31, w8.30, w9.25, 10.05, w10.50 a. m.; w12.05, w2.25, 3.55, 4.15, w5.18, w6.15, w7.00, w9.25, wb11.25 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.15 a. m., 12.05, 5.20, 8.45 p. m.

For Salem, Mass., w6.23, 7.31, a. m.; w12.05, 1.25, w5.18, 5.53 p. m.

For Newburyport, Amesbury and Portsmouth, 6.23 a. m.; 12.05, 2.25, 3.55, 6.15 p. m.

For Haverhill, Newburyport, Hampton, North Hampton, Portsmouth and stations on York Beach railroad, 2.25 p. m., July 2 to Sept. 7 inclusive.

For Exeter and Dover, 6.25, 6.50, z7.34, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 3.55, 5.15 p. m. SUNDAYS, k8.15 a. m.; 5.30 p. m.

For Rochester and Alton Bay, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 3.55 p. m.

For Somersworth, N. H., Saco, Old Orchard and Portland, 6.25, 6.50, z7.34, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 3.55, 5.18 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.30 p. m.

For Lewiston, Augusta, Bath, Waterville, 6.50, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 5.18 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.30 p. m.

For Bangor, Belfast, Skowhegan and Rockland, 6.50, 8.30 a. m.; 5.18 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.30 p. m.

For St. John, N. B., Halifax, N. S., Montreal and Quebec, 6.50 a. m; 5.15 p. m. (5.15 does not run Saturdays). SUNDAYS, 5.30 p. m.

For Eastport and St. John (via steamer from Portland), on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 12.05 p. m.

For Castine, Deer Isle, Sedgewick, Bar Harbor, Jonesport and Machiasport (via steamer Frank Jones from Portland), Tuesday and Friday at 5.18 p. m.

For Woburn, 6.25, 7.01, 7.34, *7.45, 11.03 a. m.; 1.43, 4.28, 8.44 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.45 a. m.; 4.25, 5.58 p. m.

For stations between Winchester and Boston, Southern Division, 5.46, 6.24, 7.31, 7.18, 9.50, 11.03 a. m.; 1.43, 4.28, 5.22, 8.44 p. m. SUNDAYS, 6.29, 7.27, 8.45, 9.17 a. m.; 4.25, 5.58 p. m.

For Ayer Junction and Way Stations, 7.10 a. m.; 12.00, 5.01, and 5.42 p. m. SUNDAYS, 2.15 p. m.

For Amherst, Milford and Wilton, 9.08 a. m.; 1.00, 3.41 and 5.40 p. m. SUNDAYS, 2 p. m.

For Greenfield, Peterboro, Bennington, Hillsborough and Keene, 9.08 a. m., and 3.41 p. m. SUNDAYS, to Hillsboro, 2 p. m.

For Nashua, Manchester and Concord, 7.40, 9.08, *9.10, *10.09, *10.39 a. m.; *12.09, 1.00, *1.40, *1.54, 3.41, *5.40, 6.27, *5.10, *9.24 p. m. SUNDAYS, 10.09 a. m. (to Nashua only), 3.58 a. m.; 2.00, 6.02, 8.10, *9.24 p. m.

For Franklin, Lebanon, White River Junction, 9.08, *9.40 a. m.; *12.12, *1.45, 5.40, *8.10 p. m.

For Warner, Bradford, Sunapee, Newport (N. H.) Claremont and Claremont Junction, 7.40, 9.05 a. m.; 1.40 p. m.; 2.41, *8.10 p. m. Saturday only till August 25th inclusive.

For St. Johnsbury and Lyndonville, via Wells River, 10.30 a. m.; *1.40 *a9.21 p. m.

For Montpelier, Essex Junction, Burlington, St. Albans, St. Johns and Montreal via Central Vermont line, *9.10 a. m.; *12.09, *8.10 p. m.

For Montreal and Quebec, via Montreal and Boston Air Line, *9.30 a. m. *a9.24 p. m. QUEBEC EXPRESS, via Plymouth and Sherbrooke, *1.40, *a9.24 p. m.

References.
*Express.
a Daily.
b Wednesdays and Saturdays only.
c Via Bedford.
k To Exeter only.
s Saturday only.
w Via Western Division.
z Via Wilmington Junction.

D. J. FLANDERS, Gen. Pass. and Ticket Agent.
H. C. TAFT, General Agent, Lowell.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A lady's bicycle, Reading make, very cheap. Call at 29 Harrison street, Belvidere.

FOR SALE CHEAP—Two large boarding houses also nice rooms to let at 42 Tyler street.

FOR SALE—A lodging house of 16 rooms, furniture new, owner leaving city. Address O. R., Sun office.

FOR SALE—Puppies. Fine blooded hounds. Apply A. C. Williams, Steadman street.

FOR SALE—My market season being over, I will sell two young sound business horses cheap; weight 1150 lbs. Harry L. Shedd, South Lowell; P. O. 105 Lawrence street.

QUICK CURE for ladies in trouble; also nursing during confinement. Address Box 65, West Fairlee, Vt.

FOR SALE—A boarding house corner of George and Emery streets. Inquire of Joseph Ashley, 21 Boott Corp.

FOR SALE—One new open piano box carriage, one Stevens Goddard, one Morler Goddard in first class order. Inquire at 11 Smith street.

FOR SALE—One horse, a cow, one Jersey heifer, 40 hens, and farm of 20 acres with house, barn, hen house, sheds, etc., situated next to Whittier Bros.' farm in Dracut, half way between Lowell and Lawrence. Will sell the live stock separately or together with farm. Easy terms. Bargain for somebody. Apply to Robert Gelbraith on the premises or by mail. Address Lowell Creamery, care of Whittier Bros.

LADIES—Your bust enlarged 6 inches; failure impossible; harmless; $100 cash guarantee; proof free. Leonard Medicine Co., Kansas City, Kas.

FOR SALE CHEAP—A five-horse power motor. As good as new. John P. Quinn, Dix street, wood and coal dealer.

FOR SALE—Cigar store and pool room for sale. 159 Middlesex street.

FOR SALE—Restaurant, thriving business, well equipped, up-to-date, most popular in the city, owner retiring, $2000 cash; only cash customers need apply at 145 Monroe street, room 26, Lynn, Mass.

FOR SALE—A National cash register, 50 keys in perfect order; also a small soda fountain at 313 Central street.

FOR SALE—Boarding house in central part of city; 10 rooms with bath, hot and cold water, at a bargain. Well furnished; sold on account of sickness. Address C 12, Sun Office.

FOR SALE—Ten R. I. P. A. N. S. for five cents at druggists. One gives relief.

LADIES' PET for sale, handsome golden sable white Scotch collie dog, improved stock with AI pedigree. Apply Box Collie, Sun Office.

FOR SALE—Boarding house 15 rooms, full of men boarders at good prices; center of city of 15,000 inhabitants; home and business and chance to make money for small investment. For particulars address D. R., 9 Pine street, Milford, Mass.

FOR SALE—Plants for sale, 5000 tomatoes, 3000 pansies, 3000 asters, 800 celery. Owing to poor health and not being able to market, I will make it an inducement to parties in need of plants to call on J. H. Call, Pollard street, North Billerica. Electrics pass the door. 5c. fare.

FOR SALE—Profitable lunch room in business section of city. Address L, Sun Office.

FOR SALE—At a great sacrifice, a new two-story house for two families; seven rooms each with bath, hot and cold water, gas, hard wood floors, a good lot of land and barn, near 15th street. Inquire at 22 15th street.

FOR SALE—1-2 mile from Chelmsford Centre, six-room house, barn and shed, one acre of land, can be bought on easy terms. Price only $1100. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

FOR SALE—On Chapel Hill, two-tenement house and store all in first-class repair, large lot of land. This place can be bought low and on easy terms. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central.

FOR SALE—On Lawrence street, four-tenement block, pays 12 per cent. Price $4100. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

FOR SALE—On Tyler street, good boarding house with lots of boarders. Price $350. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

FOR SALE—In North Chelmsford, two-tenement house, large lot of land. Price $1,200. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

FOR SALE—Six miles from Lowell, good farm of 63 acres, good set of buildings, lots of fruit, keeps 15 head of stock. Price of farm, $2400. With the stock of 9 cows, 1 head of young cattle, pigs, hens, two horses, wagon, harnesses, farming tools and milk route, price $3500. G. L. Hubbard, 121 Central street.

AN INTELLIGENT, energetic woman to represent that great family magazine, the Woman's Home Companion. Liberal pay, cash or premiums, for looking after new subscriptions and renewals in your own community, city or country. Outfit free. Address Woman's Home Companion, Springfield, O.

FOR FIRST COMMUNION! Catholic Prayer Books! The finest assortment ever shown before in Lowell. Rosary Beads, silver and solid gold mounted. Medals, gold, silver and Aluminum. Our first Holy Communion Remembrance Picture Cards are beauties. Statues and all kinds of religious articles. An immense variety.

Franco-American Book Store

520 Merrimack Street.

RIPANS TABULES

Wanted—a case of bad health that R.I.P.A.N.S. will not benefit. One gives relief. No matter what's the matter, one will do you good. A cure may result if directions are followed. They banish pain, induce sleep, prolong life. Sold at all drug stores, 10 for 5 cents. Be sure to get the genuine. Don't be fooled by substitutes. 10 samples and a thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for five cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical company, No. 10 Spruce street, New York.

MADAM VONNIE

The world's greatest palmist and card reader has returned. She gives truthful advice on love, marriage and business. Tells you how to win the one you love, no matter what your troubles are come and she will help you. Daily 9 to 9 p. m. Bon Marche Building, Room 41.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, SS.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Mary Ann Webster, late of Chelmsford, in said county, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for probate by Sarah M. C. Holt, and Verona G. Willard, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to them, the executors therein named.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said county of Middlesex, on the fourth day of September, A. D., 1900, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks in the Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred.

S. H. FOLSOM, Register.

WHEN IN DOUBT, TRY

STRONG AGAIN! Sexine Pills

They have stood the test of years, and have cured thousands of cases of Nervous Diseases, such as Debility, Dizziness, Sleeplessness and Varicocele, Atrophy, &c. They clear the brain, strengthen the circulation, make digestion perfect, and impart a healthy vigor to the whole being. All drains and losses are checked permanently. Unless patients are properly cured, their condition often worries them into Insanity, Consumption or Death. Mailed sealed. Price $1 per box; 6 boxes, with iron-clad legal guarantee to cure or refund the money, $5.00. Send for free book. Address, PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, O.

Sold at Goodale's Drug Store, the best and cheapest place in Lowell for drugs and medicines, 217 CENTRAL STREET.

LOST AND FOUND.

FOUND—Small dog in Billerica. Owner can have by proving property and paying charges. Apply Box 111, Billerica Centre.

LOST—Ladies figured silk cape between Bridge street and Hampshire street, Monday evening. Finder will receive reward at 17 Hampshire street.

LOST—Thursday, somewhere between the Opera House and Rock street, a lady's monogram ("W") finger purse. Finder will be suitably rewarded if returning same to 287 Central street, Room 6.

LOST—A bundle containing lady's and children's clothing lost in the vicinity of Merrimack square or in the Collinsville car Saturday night. Reward at Sun office.

LOST—A hand made lace handkerchief on the road to Lakeview. Please return to Sun office and be rewarded.

LOST—A lady's gold watch, either at Lakeview or on the Lakeview electric car. Finder return to 45 Walnut street and receive reward.

FOUND—A ladies' hand bag on Middlesex street. Owner can have same by calling on C. E. Leavitt, back of the Dutman Farm, Westford road, paying adv., and proving property.

LOST—On Middlesex street, between Burnside avenue and Duren avenue, a lady's hand bag, with purse containing money. Reward at Sun Office.

LOST—Candy order-book, black covers, name inside. Please leave at this office and be rewarded.

LOST—A watch charm, design star and crescent; initials on back G. G., Jr. The finder will be rewarded by leaving at 606 Bridge street.

LOST—Lady's gold watch, on or near Merrimack Square, Saturday night. Reward at Sun office.

FOUND—A sum of money last Sunday morning. The owner can have by proving property. Call at 106 Mt. Washington street, and paying for this advertisement.

LOST—A packetbook containing a sum of money somewhere between waiting room and High street. Finder please return to 358 Concord street and receive reward.

FOUND—A black beaded cape Fourth of July. Owner can have same by calling at 1 rear of 30 Summer street.

LOST—A lady's black seal pocketbook, containing a $10 bill, last night on the Lakeview car. Please return to this office and receive reward.

LOST—A set of written lectures to nurses. Finder will please return to St. John's hospital.

LOST—On Monday evening a pocketbook containing considerable money and two checks bearing owner's name. Finder will be rewarded by returning to the Lowell Co-Operative association, Middlesex street.

LOST—A pair of plain spectacles. Return to Sun Office and obtain reward.

TO LET.

TO LET—House, 25 Anne street, 14 rooms, bath, steam heat. Inquire of Gordon Tweed, 63 Market street.

TO LET—Four-room flats. 631 Broadway.

TO LET—Some first class tenements in all parts of the city. Apply to A. G. Beharrell, Room 8, Bon Marche block.

TO LET—Two furnished rooms, parlor with chamber connected. Price $2 per week. Corner of High and Andover streets, over Belvidere drug store.

TO LET—Unfurnished rooms, also large basement for storage, 12 Tyler street.

STORE, with 1 room tenement in rear to let at 60 Charles St. Rent only $15.00 per month. Get key at 16 Merrimack street.

FIRST class rooms and board. Special attention given to transients. Everything new and up-to-date at 63 Lee street.

TO LET—One four room tenement. Inquire at 31 Chestnut square.

TO LET—Furnished tenements of two, three and four rooms. 631 Merrimack street.

TO LET—Four room tenement, half of a cottage at 10 Dane street avenue, off Pawtucket street, rent $6.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PATENTS—Secure our terms and system for placing inventions free. Oscar A. Michel, registered attorney, 202 Broadway, New York, Dept 15.

BIGGEST SNAP ever offered, agents or dealers to sell high grade cash registers. Anyone can sell them. Big money made. Chicago Cash Register company, Chicago.

WHEN YOU want Spectacles or Eye Glasses Purcell's is the place, 43 Coburn street. Somewhat of an optician. No fancy prices.

SILK, FELT and straw hats cleaned and repaired cheap during the month of August at Delorme, the hatter, 261 Middlesex street.

LYNN BEACH—Old and new patrons are welcome, at Fred L. Dwyer's, 14 Suffolk street. Reasonable rates.

LADIES — Free. Harmless Monthly Regulator. Cannot fail. Mrs. B. Rowan, R 90, Milwaukee, Wis.

LADIES—Your bust enlarged 6 inches; failure impossible; harmless; $100 cash guarantee; proof free. Leonard Medicine Co., Kansas City, Kan.

A first class dressmaker and seamstress would like a few more jobs. Inquire at 37 Shedd street. No objection to out-of-town work.

LYNN BEACH, Bay View Hotel, entirely renovated, open for the season of 1900, under the personal management of Mrs. J. P. Fitzgerald. She will be pleased to meet her former guests and welcome new ones. Rates reasonable.

LADIES—Chichester English Pennyroyal Pills (Diamond Brand) are the best, safe, reliable. Take no other. Send 4c. in stamps for particulars. "Relief for Ladies," in letter by return mail. At druggists. Chichester Chemical Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

E. G. PARKER says coal has dropped too low to last. Now is the time to put in your season's supply. He also sells groceries, boots, shoes and rubbers.

MONEY TO LOAN at lowest rates on furniture, pianos, horses, carriages, diamonds, watches, etc., in sums of $5 and up. Payments can be made monthly, thus reducing principal and interest at each payment. All business confidential. Thomas E. Adams, 40 Middlesex street, Lowell.

RUBBER STAMPS—At wholesale prices, 1 inch 1-line stamps, 10c; 1½ inch 15c.; 3½c. ink pads, 25c.; 25c. ink pads, 15c.; 50c. linen markers, 25c.; business stamp, 15c. per line. J. M. Fellows, 159 Merrimack street.

MRS. HATTIE R. FLETCHER trance and business medium, will give sittings Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays from only 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., 769 Gorham street.

"BOYS AND GIRLS" wanted to copy letters at home; genteel way of earning money. Send self-addressed stamped envelope for particulars. Henry Williams Co., Dep't L., 152 E. 23d. street, New York.

For Women.

Dr. Tolman's Monthly Regulator has brought happiness to hundreds of anxious women. There is positively no other remedy known to medical science, that will so quickly and safely do the work. Have never had a single failure. The longest and most obstinate cases are relieved in 3 days without fail. No other remedy will do this. No pain, no danger, no interference with work. The most difficult cases successfully treated through correspondence, and the most complete satisfaction guaranteed in every instance. I relieve hundreds of ladies whom I never see. Write for further particulars. All letters truthfully answered. Free confidential advice in all matters of a private or delicate nature. Bear in mind this remedy is absolutely safe under every possible condition and will positively leave no after ill effects upon the health. By mail securely sealed, $2.00. Dr. E. M. TOLMAN CO., 170 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

Southern Div.

To Boston Lve.	To Boston Arr.	From Boston Lve.	From Boston Arr.
5 43	6 50	6 00	7 00
6 23	7 40	6 25	7 45
§6 30	7 31	6 40	7 35
6 42	7 52	8 00	8 53
§7 01	8 02	*8 30	9 06
*§7 27	8 10	*9 00	9 38
*§7 31	8 01	*9 30	10 07
7 45	8 35	*10 00	10 37
§7 50	8 51	10 17	11 34
8 50	9 10	10 45	11 55
9 15	10 33	*11 30	12 07
9 40	10 41	12 00	12 56
*11 00	12 13	*1 01	1 38
*§11 42	12 25	*1 15	1 52
§12 15	1 05	2 50	3 01
1 40	2 50	*3 00	3 38
*§1 57	2 39	3 47	5 00
3 03	4 20	4 21	5 30
*§3 47	4 30	4 17	5 55
§4 03	4 45	*5 00	5 38
4 25	6 30	5 38	6 30
*5 22	6 15	5 47	6 54
5 44	7 10	6 11	7 32
*§6 21	7 05	*7 30	8 08
*§7 19	8 00	*8 45	9 42
§9 42	9 37	10 15	11 19
		11 20	12 22

Sunday Trains

§6 39	7 50	9 15	8 05
*§7 27	8 19	9 00	10 07
8 45	9 40	1 00	1 50
§9 17	10 00	5 01	5 53
§1 25	2 30	*7 30	8 08
§5 55	7 02	*8 45	9 22
		9 00	10 02

Western Div.

To Boston Lve.	To Boston Arr.	From Boston Lve.	From Boston Arr.
6 50	8 00	7 30	8 31
8 00	8 51	9 25	10 12
9 25	10 30	10 25	11 11
10 50	12 02	11 50	1 06
12 05	1 32	12 17	3 10
12 45	1 37	3 00	4 55
2 25	3 11	4 25	6 15
2 10	4 20	6 11	6 20
3 55	5 01	6 01	7 05
6 18	6 12	6 30	7 48
6 15	7 15	9 33	10 40
7 00	8 05	R 11 35	12 45
9 25	10 30

Sunday Trains

8 15	9 27	8 00	9 17
12 05	1 26	12 00	1 12
4 05	5 18	5 00	6 25
5 59	6 55	8 40	9 40
8 45	9 42

Trains by western division leave Lowell from Middlesex Street station.

*Express.

§From Middlesex Street Station only.

R Runs to Lowell Wednesdays and Saturdays only.

THE WEATHER

By Associated Press to The Sun.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Local forecast for Boston and vicinity: Fair tonight and Friday; cooler tonight; westerly winds.

SPECIAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF MEETING.

There will be a special meeting of Stone Masons' union at their hall, 32 Middle street Thursday evening at the usual hour. Business of importance is to be transacted.

A BIG PRESENT.

A gray enamelled preserving kettle with a pound of tea and coffee. You should secure one of these. Dickson Bros., The Big Tea Dealers, 63 Merrimack street.

THE SUN ON SALE IN BOSTON.

The five o'clock edition of The Sun is on sale at the news stand in the Union Station, Boston.

STEAMSHIP TICKETS AND DRAFTS

Sold on the Cunard, Dominion, White Star, American, Anchor, Allan and Leyland lines, to and from Boston, New York, Queenstown, Liverpool and all parts of Europe. Drafts issued for £1 and upward on all parts of Great Britain and Ireland. English sovereigns and Canada bills bought at Murphy's, 18 Appleton street.

LOCAL NEWS

Try Horne's Coal.

Have you had Pelham's Cigars?

F. A. M. Tobin's Printery. Tel. 843-2.

E. G. Parker is selling shoes cheap.

Elegant rubber-tired hacks at O'Donnell's stable. Telephone 439-4.

Dress Suit cases, solid leather, $5, worth $7. Devine's, 88 Merrimack St.

The Wamesits and Phillips Shoe Shop will play today on Fort Hill.

See Gardner, the trick rider Saturday at the S. C. W. races.

Democratic headquarters have been opened at Room 15, Barristers' hall, up two flights. All democrats are invited.

Masons and contractors are well satisfied with the building materials bought of the William E. Livingston Company, 15 Thorndike street.

Don't loaf around Saturday afternoon. Go to the S. C. W. races.

Always exciting. What? The S. C. W. races, Saturday.

Horsemen can keep their horses in good condition if they buy their stable supplies of the William E. Livingston Company, 15 Thorndike street.

SATURDAY IS QUARTER DAY, 4 PER CENT. WASHINGTON BANK, 23 CENTRAL STREET.

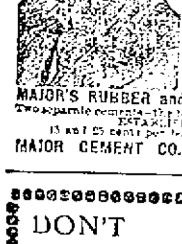

LOOKING FOR MAHAN.

The police have been asked to be on the lookout for Joseph Mahan, who is wanted in Haverhill, Mass., for breaking and entering. Mahan is of sandy complexion, has blue eyes and a round face, and the little finger on the right hand is "out of plumb."

Mrs. C. M. Dickey and Miss Clara E. Dickey of the St. Charles hotel started Tuesday for a drive through New Hampshire and Vermont to spend the summer.

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it today. Try Jell-O, a delicious and healthful dessert. Prepared in two minutes. No boiling! no baking! simply add boiling water and set to cool. Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Raspberry and Strawberry. Get a package at your grocer's today. 10 cents.

Why try to stick things with something that doesn't stick? Buy MAJOR'S CEMENT; you know it sticks. Nothing breaks away from it. Stick to MAJOR'S CEMENT. Buy once, you will buy forever. There is nothing as good; don't believe the substituter.

MAJOR'S RUBBER and MAJOR'S LEATHER.
Two separate cements—the best. Insist on having them. ESTABLISHED 1876.
15 and 25 cents per bottle at all druggists.
MAJOR CEMENT CO., NEW YORK CITY.

DON'T SPONGE

On your neighbor. We have just received a new lot of

Carriage Sponges

They are genuine Florida Sheep's Wool Sponges,

10c. to $1.50 Each.

C. B. COBURN & CO.,
63 MARKET STREET.

WOMEN WARNED

Mrs. Lake Says Drink Habit is Increasing

MRS. LEONORA LAKE.

Convention of Catholic Total Abstinence Union Opened—Many Delegates are in Attendance

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—After pontifical mass celebrated in the cathedral by Archbishop Ryan yesterday morning, the Catholic total abstinence union of America opened its 30th annual convention in Horticultural hall. The delegates formed in procession at the hall and marched to the cathedral headed by the St. Vincent cadets of Germantown.

The cathedral was crowded, and among those present were many prelates of the church who are paying their first visit to this city. Archbishop Ryan had associated with him as officers of the mass Rev. P. V. Byrne of Chicago, Rev. Walter J. Shanley, rector of the cathedral, Hartford, Conn., and Rev. Anthony S. Siebenforscher, president of the Ohio union, deacons of honor; Rev. M. A. Lambing of the diocese of Pittsburg and formerly president of the Pittsburg union and Rev. D. F. McGillicuddy of Worcester, subdeacons, and Rev. John F. McQuade, master of ceremonies.

The sermon to the delegates was preached by Mgr. Conaty, rector of the Catholic university at Washington.

At noon the delegates and representatives of different church organizations in this city who are interested in temperance work returned to Horticultural hall. They included Judge Walter J. Gibbon of Chicago, M. B. O'Connell of St. Paul, Rev. A. P. Doyle of New York, who has been the untiring secretary of the union for seven years; Mrs. L. M. Lake, who is one of the most successful temperance workers in the country, and whose labors are in demand by Protestants as well as Catholics; Rev. Fr. Curran of Scranton, who has done much toward making that diocese the strongest temperance centre in the country in proportion to the population; P. H. Nolan, who has been identified with the movements since its inception; Annie Count of the Falls of Schuylkill, Ellen Balfrey of Germantown, Nellie McBride and Sallie Morrin of the church of the Nativity, who are regarded as the most aggressive women workers in the archdiocese, and Hugh S. Coll and E. J. Cornell, who confine their labors to the interior.

Bishop Tierney, president of the union, was unable to attend and J. Worthington Logue, president of the Philadelphia union and a vice president of the national union, acted as president during the session, but retired at the afternoon session to be replaced by Mrs. Lake.

The principal business was the reading of the reports of the national officers and reports submitted by officers of local unions. The report of Bishop Tierney evoked applause. The bishop, after referring to the labors performed by the union in the cause of temperance, said:

"The future of our country and the prosperity of the church depend upon the success of the temperance cause. We must urge our people to respect themselves, their families and religion. Let them know that positions of trust cannot be held by tipplers and topers. Catholics should be models of virtue to the world, blessed as they are with the teachings of the church and its sacraments."

"It is with sincere regret that I feel compelled to absent myself from the convention. I had hoped to be with you, but the death of Bishop Healy calls me to his funeral.

"I would suggest that proper action be taken respecting the federation of Catholic societies, an expression of sentiment on the government's action on Indian schools, the desecration of the Philippine churches, and on the unjust marriage laws in Cuba and Porto Rico."

Mrs. Lake then addressed the convention. On the question of drunkenness among women she laid special emphasis. She said:

"Medical men assert that drunkenness among this sex is on the increase. Treatment for the drink habit among them is as common as for coughs and colds. It is the life society women lead that causes it. They have no time to eat or sleep, and consequently they must turn to what will give them strength to get through their social functions. For a while it works like a charm. They become its slave and

"At many afternoon teas intoxicating liquor has taken the place of tea. There is where the young debutantes begin to acquire the taste for stimulants. Soon they do not care to eat unless they have their cocktails first. Bellevue hospital doctors state that the number of women who are brought there for treatment seems incredible. Seldom a day goes by that some decent woman is not brought in."

BARTENDERS MAD

Two Lose Jobs Because They Joined Union

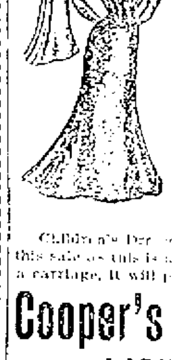

The Lowell Bartenders union will hold a special meeting next Sunday for the purpose of acting upon a report to the effect that a liquor dealer at the "Flats" has discharged his two bartenders because they joined the union. The real facts of the case are somewhat obscure but it is known that the proprietor did not favor the idea of having his bartenders in the union. The bartenders entered last Sunday, each paying his $20 initiation fee. On Monday both were discharged. The officers of the Bartenders' Union learned of the discharges yesterday and attempted to see Mr. O'Connell but were unsuccessful as the latter was at Lynn. The Bottlers and Brewery Workers' union of this city upon learning of it notified the Bartenders' Union that they would co-operate with them in any action they might take. Now a special meeting has been called for Sunday and the matter will be thoroughly discussed before any action is taken.

Go to the S. C. W. races Saturday afternoon and see the fun.

A Record-Breaking Sale!

This is a genuine slaughter sale. This is no Merrimack street BLUFF sale. Save your pennies, they mean dollars here on this sale.

LITTLE MONEY WILL TALK VOLUMES AT THIS SALE.

Cotton and Lawn Waists
Valued at 50c, 49c, now 19c
" 50c, 75c, now 35c
" 49c, $1.00, $1.25, now 45c
" $1.29, $1.50, now 69c
" $1.75, $2, $3, $4, now 98c

SILK WAISTS.
Valued at $3, $4, $5, now $1.75
" $5, $6, $7, now $2.98

Crash P. K. and Duck Skirts
Valued at 59c, 75c, now 25c
" $1.50, $1.98 now 98c

DRESS SKIRTS.
Valued at 98c, now 49c
" $1.98, now 98c
" $2.98, now $1.48
" $3.98, now $2.98
" $5.00, now $2.98

LINEN and DUCK SUITS
Valued at $1.98, now 75c
" $2.98, now 98c
" $5.00, now $1.98

TAILOR MADE SUITS.
Valued at $12.00, now $4.98
" $15.00, now $5.00
" $18.00, now $7.50

TAILOR MADE JACKETS.
Valued at $3.50, now $1.48
" $4.00, now $1.98
" $5.00, now $2.48
" $8.00, now $2.98
" $10.00, now $5.00

WRAPPERS.
Valued at 79c, now 39c
" $1.00, now 69c
" $1.98, now 98c

Children's Dresses and Reefers almost given away. You cannot afford to miss this sale as this is a genuine Record Breaking Sale. If you think it's too hot, take a carriage, it will pay you. SALE BEGINS FRIDAY MORNING AT 9 O'CLOCK.

Cooper's Cozy Cloak and Suit Store,
LADIES' FAVORITE .·. GORHAM ST.
OPEN EVERY EVENING. One minute's walk from post office.

CALLED A DRAW

Mike Sears and Gardner Well Matched

THE BOUT A SCIENTIFIC ONE

Sears Did all of the Loading

By Associated Press to The Sun.

LYNN, Aug. 9.—The drawing card of the boxing exhibition given by the Kirtland club last night was a 15-round match between Mike Sears of Lynn and Billy Gardner of Lowell, the result being a draw. Sears gave a more clever exhibition, but Gardner was the stronger and in the better condition. In the fifth round Gardner had a dizzy spell and Sears had him going, but he recovered and from that time it was all in fighting. Sears did all the leading and played his double cross counter on Gardner's head in nearly every round, but without much effect. Taken altogether it was the most scientific exhibition seen in this city for many a day.

In the preliminaries McKenzie, the "Salem Kid," got the decision over Bob Ringwood of Lynn in a four-round go. Tyson of East Boston faced "Twin" Sullivan of Haverhill for a six-round bout, but at the end of the third round Sullivan so clearly showed his superiority that Tyson was withdrawn.

HAD 500 GUESTS.

By Associated Press to The Sun.

MILFORD, Aug. 9.—Gen. and Mrs. Wm. F. Draper, who recently arrived at their home in Hopedale from Rome, where the general has been for the past three years as United States ambassador to Italy, gave last evening the first reception since their arrival. Fully 500 invited guests were present. The mansion was a garden of decorative splendor.

General and Mrs. Draper were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Eben S. Draper and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Osgood of Hopedale.

The spacious dining hall was thronged during the dinner hour.

This was the first of a series of receptions which General and Mrs. Draper are to give at their Hopedale residence.

SPILLER'S GOLDEN BALSAM

Takes the lead as a preparation for the Relief and Cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Throat and Lungs, Pleurisy, Pneumonia and Asthma. It is a certain and immediate relief in all cases of croup. In Whooping Cough it removes the distressing symptoms and relieves the painful breathing. It soothes the distressing cough of consumption. It is a beautifully clear preparation, pleasant to the taste and is perfectly safe to give to the most delicate child. Every bottle guaranteed. Money refunded to anyone who uses one bottle according to directions without obtaining satisfaction. Price 25 cents. For sale by Carter & Sherburne, H. R. Parker & Co., Lowell, Mass. Also for sale by all druggists.

REV. DR. CYRUS HAMLIN.

DR. HAMLIN DEAD

Was First President of Roberts' College

FAMOUS AS MISSIONARY IN TURKEY

Cousin to Ex-Vice President Hamlin

By Associated Press to The Sun.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 9.—Rev. Dr. Cyrus Hamlin, the veteran missionary, died here suddenly last night at the residence of D. H. Farley.

Dr. Hamlin and his wife arrived here Tuesday from Lexington, Mass., their home, and last evening attended an old home week reception at the Second Parish church. Soon after he returned to the Farley residence he complained of feeling a pain, and dropped to the floor dead.

Cyrus Hamlin, builder of Roberts college, Constantinople, was born Jan. 5, 1811, in Waterford, Me., the son of Hannibal Hamlin, who was twin brother of Cyrus Hamlin, father of Hannibal Hamlin, vice-president with Lincoln. The brothers Cyrus and Hannibal Hamlin promised each other that their first sons should be named for their uncles, and thus came about this apparent confusing of names in the two generations.

The father of the second Cyrus Hamlin died when the baby was 9 months old, and when he was still a very small boy he took the place of the "hired man" on the home farm.

He was 16 years old when he was "bound out" to his brother-in-law, who lived in Portland, Me. This brother-in-law was a silversmith, and Cyrus would have learned the trade if it had not been for the eloquent preaching of Rev. Edward Payson. But when Cyrus was 19 he was converted by this preacher's sermons.

ALL DISEASES AND WEAKNESSES OF MEN

From whatever cause arising, quickly and permanently Cured at the Old Reliable Peabody Medical Institute, No. 4 Bulfinch Street (opposite Revere House), Boston, Mass. Established in 1860. Chief Consulting Physician, graduate of Harvard Medical College, Class of 1864, late Surgeon 5th Reg. Mass. Vols., who Cures where others fail. Consultation in person or by letter. A Medical Pamphlet, vade mecum, Free, sealed, 6c. for postage, to every male reader of this paper. The best Medical Book of this or any age for men only, entitled "THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION." 370 pp., with engravings. A perfect guide to all men, married or single, only 25c., in paper cover, sealed. Cloth, full gilt, $1. Send now, and Heal Thyself.

"The Peabody Medical Institute has many imitators, but no equals."—Boston Herald.

J. F. O'DONNELL,
Funeral Director

324 Market Street, Corner of Worthen.
Office Open Day and Night.
Three Telephones. LOWELL, MASS.

Get Rid of Them

One or two of Ayer's Pills each night will act on the liver just enough to cause one good, free movement of the bowels the day following. Keep this right up until your liver acts as it should and your constipation is cured. 'Twill be the last of your coated tongue, headache, and loss of appetite.

CUBAN TEACHERS

SEVERAL OF THEM COMING TO LOWELL.

A number of the Cuban teachers are to come to this city Aug. 13, as the guests of the J. C. Ayer Co. They will come from Boston on a special train and will be met by the Spanish interpreters of the J. C. Ayer Co., who will conduct them to the Ayer Laboratory, where dinner will be served and a reception tendered the teachers. After an inspection of the J. C. Ayer Co.'s plant a visit to the different mills will be made. The visitors will return to Boston on a special train in the evening.

Don't Fool with a Fan

It's a useless exertion. There's more concentrated coolness and refreshing comfort in one glass of

HIRES Rootbeer

than a family of fans can furnish.
Write for list of premiums offered free for labels.
Charles E. Hires Co., Malvern, Pa.

J. M. KINGSBURY, No. 373 Bridge St.
MEATS AND PROVISIONS.

TEETH

If you want teeth out, come to a reliable office and HAVE THE WORK DONE RIGHT.

Extracting is a specialty with us; we guarantee that no matter how many teeth you want out, or how bad the teeth or roots are, THE OPERATION WILL BE POSITIVELY PAINLESS IN ALL CASES.

NO CHARGE for painless extracting when teeth are ordered.

FULL SET TEETH (that fit)	$4.00
GOLD FILLINGS	$1.00
GOLD CROWNS	$3 to $5
SILVER FILLINGS	50c
TEETH WITHOUT PLATE	$5.00

Boston Painless Dental Rooms
Rooms 16 and 17 Runels' Bldg,
..MERRIMACK SQUARE..
Opp. St. R. R. Waiting Room.
Office hours: 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., Sundays 10 to 4.
LADY ATTENDANT.

SECOND ANNUAL

Muslin Underwear Sale

SALE. SALE. SALE. SALE.

Commencing Friday Morning, at 8 a. m. Sharp.

Night Robes.

Special values in plain and hamburg trimmed Robes, regular 75c values, for this sale,

42c. Each

Extra values in Robes at 59c., 79c., 98c., $1.25, and $1.50 Each

See them. These prices for this sale only.

Corset Covers.

Special for Friday Only.

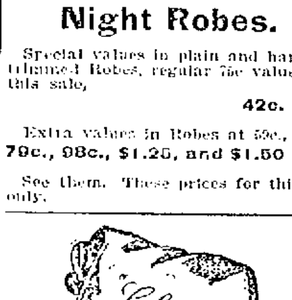

Low and high neck, plain Corset Covers, made of good cotton, for this sale only,

7c. Each

Special values in Corset Covers for this sale only, at 11 1-2c., 17c.

19c., 29c., 39c. and up to 98c. each

Drawers.

29c. value, tucked with wide flounce, for this sale only

19c. a Pair

Lace Trimmed Drawers, 39c. value, for this sale

25c. a Pair

Skirts. Skirts.

Special lot of long Skirts, Hamburg trimmed, with dust ruffle, for this sale

50c. Each

Short and Long Skirts at greatly reduced prices.

We carry only reliable manufacture of Muslin Underwear. Our space here is insufficient to represent one-half the special numbers of this sale. Come and see our stock, compare our prices. THE ABOVE PRICES ONLY GOOD FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

FISHER & CO.
119, 121, 123 MERRIMACK ST.

A. G. POLLARD & CO.

MERRIMACK, PALMER AND MIDDLE STREETS.

WE WILL CLOSE OUT

—OUR—

REMNANTS of DIMITIES

At 3½c. Yard.

Not a great many left, and all good styles, but the larger proportion of them dark colors, new blue, navy blue and black; quantities sufficient for waists and dresses of the regular 10c. and 12 1-2c qualities, now 3 1-2c. yard.

And about 600 yards left of the imitation linen suiting at 3 1-2c.

BASEMENT DEPARTMENT.

A. G. Pollard & Co.